Miss Carrie Young and Miss Cora Norman Entertain G. F. C. Girls. Epecial to The Observer. Greensboro, Sept. 28 .- During the past week Miss Carrie Young, a member of "class 1908" of Greensboro Female College, has been the charming hostess of a most delightful house party given at her lovely home mear Greensboro. The young ladies who compose the party are: Misses Cora Norman, of Greensboro: Ellen McPhail, of Mount Olive; Bertha Long, of Gastonia, and Grace Odell Craig, of Wilmington, the last three being classmates of Miss Young. The young men of the party are Messrs. R. C. Young, J. A. Young, Jr., of Recomplore: Dr. I. McPhall, of Greensbore: Dr. I. McPhail, of Standers will be present at the unveiling and that it will be made ton, and Charles N. Norman, of an occasion such as that of the New his has been engaged in, such as ago, orseback riding, driving, hunting. target shooting and various other amusements. Their visit to the Gate city will always be remembered as their lives. The young ladies deem it great privilege as well as pleasure visit their alma mater once again. is fact is made doubly true because I the bringing together of nine of the he eighteen members of the class which was graduated from G. F. C.

at spring. these members was held at the liege by special invitation of the esident, and needless to say it was nghly enjoyed by each one. The crowd left Thursday for Po-mona, where they will be the guests of Miss Cora Norman this week.

Just before coming to Greensboro Miss Long entertained the same party at her beautiful home in Gastonia. During their visit there several entertalniments were given, one of the most delightful being a reception by Miss ng in their honor Monday evening, ptember 14th.

Negro Laid Out With a Meat Age.

Correspondence of The Observer. Morganton, Sept. 27 .- During an al tercation which occurred in Mr. Forney's grocery store here at 9 o'clock last night Mr. John Whisnant, a clerk, struck and probably fatally injured a negro named Dave Caldwell. with a meat axe. The negro owed Mr. Whisnant some money and went into the store intoxicated. On being asked for the money by Whisnant a quarrel ensued with the above result. The negro was taken to Grace Hospital for medical attention and the doctor stated to-day that the negro had about equal chances for life and death. Whisnant after investigation by the mayor to-day was held until next Friday under a $2,000 bond.

Strong Evidence of Bryan's Strength Greensboro Record.

Some very strong evidence comes to Greensboro, brought by a most re-liable gentleman, that Bryan is sure to not only carry New York, but be elegted. And the best evidence is that it was brought by a man who just returned from a visit to New York where he talked with the business men, not the politicians.
