GRAND JURY'S REPORT. County Institutions Found in Good Condition—Health of Prisoners at Fall Good.

Following is the report of the grand jury rendered yesterday at what was intended to be the last day of the present term of criminal court:

"After the convening of the court, with Judge M. H. Justice presiding, we, the grand jury, went to work and passed on 64 bills, finding 62 true, one not true, and returning 13 for the lack of evidence.

"We visited the county jail, and found the same under good management, and the health of the prisoners good. We visited the county home and the convict camps, finding them under good management, and health of inmates and convicts good. We recommended fire extinguishers for the county home.

"We recommend that the city and county physicians confer together and find the cause for the sickness on the branch extending near 'A. C. Fie's' store in Dilworth, and running through the lands of the C. H. D. and T. L. Kirkpatrick, J. Y. Wolf, Mrs. Kerley and others.

"We inspected the court house, and recommended the witness rooms in front of the judge's bench in the criminal court room be removed.

"This the 3d day of October, 1908. 'D. W. MATES, Foreman."
