of the Democratic national and State tickets. I am not so partisan, however, that I would support the party whether right or wrong, but permit me to any that I support the national ticket in this campaign because, in my judgment, our presidential candidate who honors us with his presence here to-night, is absolutely right upon every contented question in this campaign. I am for him because sincerely believe that the best interests of the country will be subserved by his election. It is time for a change in the administration of the government, a change of measures and of men. Our candidate owes the nomination not to any one man or any set of men, but only to the people that the post interest of the people near they are responsible for the very things from which the people need relief."

New York, Oct. 28.—"I've had a delightful and busy time during my stay in New York, said Mr. Bryan before leaving here to-day, "and I have learned something. I have learned that we waste a good deal of time in sleep. Always before I have learned that we waste a good deal of time in sleep. Always before I have learned that we waste a good deal of time in sleep. Always before I have learned that we waste a good deal of time in sleep. Always before I have learned that we waste a good deal of time in sleep. Always before I have learned that we waste a good deal of time in sleep. Always before I have learned that we waste a good deal of time in sleep. Always before I have learned that we waste a good deal of time in sleep. Always before I have learned that we waste a good deal of time in sleep. Always before I have learned that we waste a good deal of time in sleep. Always before I have learned that we waste a good deal of time in sleep. Always before I have learned that we waste a good deal of time in sleep and that we waste a good deal of time in sleep. Always before I have learned that we waste a good deal of time in sleep and that we waste a good deal of time in sleep and that we waste a good deal of time in sleep and the propose

"Mr. Taft's national committee has promised to publish the contributions after the election when he knows it will be too late to be of advantage to the voters, but the Republican congressional committee has not promised to publish the contributions even after the election. I now ask Mr. Taft if he will request the congressional committee to announce at once that publication will be made after the election. If not, we have a right to conclude that the congressional committee has to receive the funds that are too tained to go into the treasury of the national committee." The conscience of the American paople, he asserted demanded the inauguration of an era of honesty in politica. "Can Mr. Taft afford to ignore this demand?" The inquired.

Mr. Eryan repeatedly referred to a right to committee has the congressional committees has to receive the funds that are too tained to go into the treasury of the national committee. The connection of the American people, he asserted, demanded the inauguration of an eract of honesty in politics. "Can Mr. Taft affect to ignore this domand?"

Mr. Bryan repeatedly referred to Mr. Taft affect to ignore this domand? The inquified.

Mr. Bryan repeatedly referred to Mr. Taft affect to ignore the demand? The inquified.

Mr. Bryan repeatedly referred to Mr. Taft affect to ignore the demand? The inquified.

Mr. Bryan repeatedly referred to Mr. Taft affect to ignore the country has ever known. He discussed a decision of the thin Judge Taft in 1134, bearing on the case where the receiver of a railroad out the wages of the man ten per cent. The employer might as a matter of charity, restore their wages; that he spulle affect to make a petition he cannot as Judge his duty was to protect the railroad."

WELCOMED IN RAIN.

A heavy rain was coming down when the Democratic candidate arrived. But the people swarmed sround the station to bid him welloms After a hurried meal at the hotel, where he was pointed by exceeding the station to bid him welloms After a hurried meal at the hotel, where he was pointed by exceeding the station to bid him welloms After a hurried meal at the hotel, where he was pointed by exceeding the station to bid him welloms After a hurried meal at the hotel, where he was pointed by exceeding the station to bid him welloms After a hurried meal at the hotel, where he was pointed by exceeding the country of the coun meeting of Synod.

A special order was made at last night's session for Synod to recede from business this afternoon in order that the members might accept an invitation to take a sail on the river. The rain prevented, however, and Synod expressed apprediation for the invitation and Synod ordered that the afternoon be devoted to the meeting of the committees.

The standing order for 11 o'clock on the second day of Synod is the observance of the sacrament of the Lord's Supper. This service was ing in the interest of missions, Rev. S. L. Morris and Rev. J. C. Reavis, respective, secretaries of the General Assembly's committees on home and foreign missions, were the speakers. Dr. Morris spoke on "The conflict of the Age," emphasising especially the conflict of the Church of to-day with civilised paganism. In this connection he referred to the harm which has been done to a church in a Western Stats where a Presbyterian pastor is now attacking the inspiration of the Scriptures and the atonement of Jesus

Byyan and Sin City. Weeks of Texas; Wyatt Alken, Myang Tong, and W. Weis, of Texas; Wyatt Alken, Myang Tong, and Democrate of the South Carolina, and the

HILL INTRODUCES BRYAN becometive works and the General THE SECOND DAY OF SYNOD MARKS CONFEDERATE GRAVES. TAFT TALKS TO BIG CROWDS

CHARLOTTE, N. C., THURSDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 29, 1908.

General Oates, Who Has Charge of the $200,000 Congressional Appro-priation, Reports Progress. Washington, Oct. 28.—General W. C. Oates, of Alabama, who is superin-tending the marking of graves of Confederate soldiers who died in Fed-eral prisons, called on the President to-day and told him of the progress. eral prisons, called on the President to-day and told him of the progress of the work. He said that or the $200,000 appropriated by Congress, $47,000 had been expended. One matter brought to the President's attention was that the law provided for simple white marble headstones like those in Arlington National Cemetery, and in this respect in some cases it was impossible to carry out the law. One instance was at findianspoils, where 1,620 Confederate prisoners were buried and afterward law.

Mr. Oates said there were many similar instances throughout the country, but the work was progressing very favorably. At Columbus, O., where 2,350 Confederates died at Camp Chase, the graves have all been carefully marked. In all 25,000 Confederate soldiers died in Federal prisons.

Oklahoma City, Oct. 28.—Death by poison of two servants in the home of Rev. Carter Helm Jones, pastor of poison of two servants in the home of Rev. Carter Helm Jones, pastor of the Baptist church here, has started an investigation to determine whether poison was meant for the minister by persons in Lynchburg, Va., who objected to his marriage to a woman of the Methodist Church. Dr. Jones mays he does not believe the poison was meant for him.

Edward and Laura Davis, servants in the household of Dr. Jones wers found dead. Besides them was a bottle of whiskey and a bottle of blackberry brandy. The brandy had been brought by Dr. Jones' family from Virginia.

Dr. Jones was pastor of the Breadway Baptist church in Louisville, Ky., for years. About a year ago he went to Lynchburg, Va., to take one of the largest churches there. He married a prominent Methodist woman and this marriage outside of his denomination caused bitter comment.

Watson Attacks "Stand-Pat" Senate.

Douglasville, Ga., Oct. 28.—Thomas E. Watson, People's party candidate for President, in a speech here tonight, attacked what he termed the "stand-pat Republican Senate," which he said, would block remedial legislation should the Republican party be victorious. He also assailed Mr. Bryan, calling him "an exfremely dangerous candidate for the South, because of his record on the negro question." He said that Mr. Bryan, an Hillinois man by birth, grew up in the honest belief that the South was wrong on the negro question, and with the belief that there should be no oblestion to social equality.

IN MADISON SQUARE GARDEN

an audience that filled the enormous ampitheatre. Their appearance at Middison Square Garden came at the end of a day which from a political viewpoint was most remarkable. During the day Mr. Taft spoke at four meetings, and Governor Hughes at fifteen. Then to-night, while the Madison Square meeting was in progress, a giant parade was wending its way in a downpour of rain down through the heart of the city.

At 7 o'clock a heavy rain set in, but this did not interfere with the crawd besieging the entrances to the garden. By 8 o'clock the policy had to bar all except reserved seat ticketholders.

on the platform they were given ar GENERAL PORTER LEADS OFF.

GENERAL PORTER LEADS OFF.

General Porter began by saying that he had never attended such an enthusiastic meeting. He attacked William J. Bryan, saying he was suffering from political and financial delusions. "We like to see a practical man these days," he said, "and Mr. Bryan is the personification of impracticability."

Taking up the issue of the guaranteeing national bank deposits, he said that Bryan's political economy was like trying to make the government smoke five-cent clears when it took ten cents' worth of matches to light them.

General Porter prophesied the election of Mr. Taft. At the mention of the candidate's name there was prolonged cheering, and when a moment later the speaker mentioned the name of Governor Hughes there was an' outburst of cheering that lasted more than two minutes.

General Porter then introduced Senator Lodge, who began his speech by paying a tribute to Governor Hughes and his platform, and by attacking Mr. Chanler, his Democratic opponent. He made a strong plea for the re-election of Governor Hughes and his platform, and by attacking Mr. Chanler, his Democratic opponent. He made a strong plea for the re-election of Governor Hughes and his platform, and by attacking Mr. Chanler, his Democratic opponent.

ELOPERS JUMP FROM TRAIN. Aswell County Swain and His Flanceo Leave Coach at Greensboro Before It Stops and He is Seriously Injur-ed-Removed to Hospital, Where in Delfrium He Declares He Was As-

The Bevill Building,
Greensbore, Oct. 28.

William L. Richmond, a young man from Caswell county, lies in a ward at St. Leo's Hospital suffering from serious injuries received in jumping from a Southern Railway train as it was entering this city last night. The young man and his sweetheart, Miss Mary Phillips, eloped from the Union Ridge section of Caswell yesterday and came to Greensbore to be married. As the train was entering the city, the porter announced Greenshore as the next stop, whereupon Mr. Richmond and Miss Phillips left their seats and took their position on the car steps. As the Irain began to slacken its speed, they leaped into the darkness and fell violently to the ground.

Miss Phillips escaped with a few ground.

Miss Phillips escaped with a few slight bruises, but her fiance was not so fortunate. His right arm was broken near the shoulder and he was injured about the head. He was removed to St. Leo's Hospital, where he was attended by Dr. E. R. Michaux and Dr. A. R. Wilson, the Southern Railway's surgeons, at this place. The surgeons spent practical-

Michaux and Dr. A. R. Wilson, the Southern Railway's surgeons, at this place. The surgeons spent practically the entire night with the patient, who suffered greatly. His condition to-day is improved and the physicians say he will be able to leave the hospital in a few weeks.

The young man was delirious through the night and labored under the hallucination that he had been assaulted by the father of his brideto-be. He insisted that Mr. Phillips had struck him on the head with a stick and begged the physicians and nurses to keep the supposed trate father away from him.

Miss Phillips refused to be separated from her finance and accompanied him to the hospital, where she was given a room for the night. She confided to Dr. Michaux that it was her first trip on a train, but she was of the opinion that her sweetheart had once before been a railway passenger for a short distance.

His Intention of Voting For Republican Candidate.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 25.—Before a large audience at the Academy of Music to-night, Secretary of War Wright spoke on the issues of the campaign and in favor of the candidacy of Judge Taft. The meeting was held under the ampices of a number of men of prominence in this city, principally men of finance, who have always been Demograta, but who in this campaign are supporting the Republican candidates.

Mr. Wright was introduced by John Skelton Williams, of this city, former president of the Seaboard Air Léne, who stated that the new constitution of Virginia has so purified the electorate as to remove all fears of the negro vote.

Mr. Williams said in part:

"I intend to vote for Mr. Taft, I feel that I know what he will do, and how he will do it. I intend to vote against the present candidate of the Democratic party. Our people are earnestly laboring to build up

A DAY'S SALISBURY NEWS KITCHIN SPEAKS THERE TO-DAY

o'clock and will be met by a rition committee headed by Demo Chairman A. H. Boyden and to the home of Cashier J. D. wood, of the People's National whose guest he will be while At 11 o'clock he will speak, weather permitting, from a erected on the court house otherwise the speaking will take in the court house. The seaster Locke, who bears is specified to the point of the