FLAG PRESENTATION TO-DAY. Dr. Charles E. Brewer, of Wake Forest, to Make Presentation Speech at New X. M. C. A. Building To-Day.

This afternoon at 4 o'clock will occur one of the most interesting events in the series of occasions marking the completion and opening of the new Y. M. C. A. Building. The Junior Order United American Mechanics will march from their hall in a body to building headed by the Woodmen's Band, and carrying the great American flag, which is 12 by 24 feet. They will be met at the entrance by the directors and many of the representative members of the association, and Mr. E. B. Preston will introduce Dr. Charles E. Brewer, of Wake Forest, who will present the flag to the association in behalf of the united lodges of the order in Charlotte. The flag will then be drawn into position by three young ladies representing the three lodges of the city. The young ladies having this honor will be Misses Owen, Dooley and Black.

It is expected that the children present having attended the reception to the children of the city will sing "The Star Spangled Banner." The president, Mr. Robert Glasgow, of the Y. M. C. A., will then make the speech of acceptance, which will be followed by a reception in the building for the members of the Junior Order and their visiting brethren.

THE STUDY OF THE BIBLE. Christians of All Denominations Invited to Conference in First Presbyterian Church.

The conference on the Bible and Christian work which is to be held at the First Presbyterian church from November 24 to 28th, is open to Christians of all denominations, and they will be cordially welcomed by the pastor, Dr. Kincaid, and also by the speakers of the occasion. These are Rev. Dr. W. W. White, a noted Bible teacher of New York City, and Dr. A. L. Phillips, of Richmond, Va., the head of the Sunday school work of the Southern Presbyterian Church. Dr. White has been in demand in Europe as well as this country as a Bible expositor. He has taught Hebrew in theological schools and personally has led lines to a line of study in the Old Testament. He has published expositions of a number of Old Testament books, which have been most favorably received. Dr. Phillips is an expert on Sunday school work and all teachers, no matter to what branch of the Christian church they belong, will be profited by his address.

BRIEFS. A Few Minor Happenings in and About the City.

The next attraction at the Academy is "The Texas Ranger" Thursday night.

Mrs. W. J. Bryan, who has scarcely left the home of Mrs. E. P. Allan, is steadily improving.

There will be a Halloween party given for the children of the Thompson orphanage to-night. Mrs. E. C. Risher and others superintend things.

Mr. H. C. Sherrill has transferred to Mr. W. W. Hagood the lot, 148 x 100 feet, at the corner of North Broadway and Eighteenth streets, for $3,190.

Mr. J. H. Barney has been missed from "The Wharf" for a week. He is confined to his room at Mr. L. W. Saunders, his home when in Charlotte. His friends hope to see him out again soon.

Capt. P. N. Raynal, the father of Rev. C. E. Raynal, who suffered a stroke of paralysis late Thursday afternoon, was resting an easy yesterday as might be expected. His entire right side is affected.

Messrs. A. J. Draper and W. H. Wood yesterday purchased from Mr. E. B. Mason, the vacant lot adjoining Mr. Draper's home on Elizabeth avenue, 192 x 193 feet, for $2,875. The sale was made through J. E. Murphy & Co.

Archdeacon William W. Jefferies has cancelled his appointment to preach at St. Peter's Episcopal church, this city, to-morrow and has returned to Philadelphia. Archdeacon Jefferies has just been holding special services in Gastonia.

Mr. Van Deaton, a well-known carpenter, fell from a platform where he was at work on North Davidson street yesterday and broke his right shoulder. His injuries while painful are not serious and he will be out, though unable to work, in a few days.

Mrs. Luther M. Taylor, wife of the famous "Dummy" Taylor, one of the members of the New York Giants, was in the city yesterday, on her way to Kansas City to join her husband who is spending the winter there. She had been to Huntersville to visit her people.

All eyes are now turned toward the A. & M.-Davidson game here next Saturday. Davidson's stock received quite a boost as the result of her two victories in Columbia this week. The A. & M.-Virginia contest to-day in Norfolk will doubtless determine the betting odds.

Mr. F. M. Simmons, of the local bar, an athlete whose record has been brilliant and who knows the technicalities of the game, has been asked to officiate at to-day's football contest between the A. & M. College at Raleigh and the V. P. I., which will be played at Norfolk.

The Davidson football team passed through the city yesterday en route from Columbia, S. C., where during the State Fair in that city the aggregation met the teams from Clemson and Carolina and walloped them to a finish. The young men looked elated over their victories.

Traveling Men and the Election. Mr. Edgar B. Moore, proprietor of the Selwyn, in talking about the approaching election, remarked yesterday that he could already observe the effect upon the hotel trade. "Many traveling men are either staying at home just now or are on their way back to vote from distant points in their territory. Some of the traveling men are going North and others West. Much interest is being manifested in the outcome of Tuesday's balloting, as evidenced by inquiries about trains and matches of conversation in the lobbies."
