

LATEST NEWS FROM THE SPORTS WORLD

BIG FIELD TRIALS BEGIN NEXT WEEK

Sports Under the Auspices of the Continental Field Trial Club Will Take Place at Barber Junction, Beginning November 21st, While the Trials of the Virginia-Carolina Field Trials Association Will Be Held at Spray—The Program...

MEMBERS' SWEEPSTAKE. Saturday, November 21st, 1928. Open also to members of the Eastern Field Trial Club, and members of the Pointe Club of America. Entries to close tonight before the running...

ALL AGE STAKE. Open to all setters and pointers not having won first in any all age event of previous seasons at any field trials recognized by this club. Entries close October 15th, with $10 forfeit and $20 additional to start...

FINDAL FORESTS. To be paid and stakes to be drawn as follows: Final stake, Friday, November 20th, at 9 o'clock p. m., derby, Sunday, November 22d, at 9 o'clock p. m. All age stake, Monday, November 23d, at 8 o'clock p. m.

ITS MEMBERS PROMINENT. Some of the most prominent men in the country are members of the Continental Field Trial Club, as of the Virginia-Carolina Field Trials Association...

MEMBERS' ALL-AGE STAKE. Tuesday, December 8th, 1928, for members only. Open to all setters and pointers not having won first in any all-age event of previous seasons at any field trial...

MEMBERS' DERBY. For members only. Open to all pointer and setter puppies whelped on or after January 1st, 1927. First forfeit of $5, $5 additional to start. Entries positively close November 15th...

FREE FOR ALL. No previous winners or professional handlers debarred from competition in this stake. $300 guaranteed $150 to first; $75 to second; $50 to third, and $25 to fourth. Entries close November 15th...

BOTH TEAMS WELL PLEASED

Davidson and A. & M. Football Squads Return Home—Saturday's Game Well Patronized—Farmers Confident of Winning V. P. I. Game Thanksgiving.

The A. & M. and Davidson football teams returned to their respective homes yesterday morning after having spent Saturday night in the city following the great contest at Latta Park Saturday afternoon. The Farmers left elated over their great victory and the cordial entertainment accorded by Charlotte friends...

It is gratifying to know that the proceeds of the game more than measured up to the expectations of the managers of the two squads and no complaint has been heard in either camp. Davidson lost for the reason that she had the lighter and weaker team—no weaker in the sense that it lacked grit and skill, but was deficient in weight and muscle...

The Farmers are confident of winning their Thanksgiving V. P. I. game in Norfolk, Va., and probably will if they manifest as much speed and dash as they displayed in Saturday's contest. Those who saw the recent Virginia-A. & M. game in Norfolk, which Virginia won 6 to 0, and also Saturday's game here, are of one mind in declaring that the Thompson and Van Ghanen have allowed to play, as they should have, A. & M. would have won with two touchdowns...

THE LEADERS IN FOOTBALL. Harvard Seems to Be Doing the Best Work, Judging by the Games of Saturday—Comparisons Unreliable—Dartmouth to Meet Harvard Next Saturday.

BASEBALL

TO MANAGE HIGHLANDERS. George Stallings, Last Season With the Newark Eastern League Team, to Manage the New York Americans Next Season.

New York, Nov. 7.—George Stallings will lead the Highlanders next season, and will try to make a ball club of the disorganized team that made such a poor showing last season after Clark Griffith quit the managerial duties.

Stallings has a chance to make good with the Highlanders next season, as Scout Arthur Irwin uncovered some fine youngsters last summer. With the old stock in the Newark stockholders in the club. Now he is trying to sell his interest in the club, and will undoubtedly succeed, as the team cleared $18,000 last season. Fred Little took the Newark race of the Giants, as mentioned in the purchasers of Stallings' stock in the Newark outfit.

Intercollegiate Cross-Country Run. Princeton, N. J., Nov. 7.—Arrangements for the intercollegiate cross-country run on November 21st over the same six-mile course at Princeton as last year. The details for the run were arranged at a joint meeting of the executive and advisory committees of the Intercollegiate Association of Amateur Athletes of America.

St. Louis Cardinals Next Season. John McCloskey has resigned and has been accused by the press of not doing anything with a team where his power was limited. Gilbert is very popular in this city with both players and fans, and his long connection with the game appears good enough to recommend to President Stanley Robinson to take a chance.

BOXING

SAVANNAH COURSE FINE. Georgia Folks Making Great Claims for the Course Over Which the Grand Prize Race Will Be Run Thanksgiving Day.

New York, Nov. 7.—The Long Island Motor Parkway and the State and county roads which complete the course over which the Vanderbilt cup race of 1928 was run is thought by many to comprise about the finest racing ground for automobiles that was ever constructed. Georgia folk, however, from George Hoke Smith down, make a similar claim for the Savannah race circuit of prepared roadway over which almost a score of the swiftest automobiles in the world will race in and near Savannah on Thanksgiving Day.

Intercollegiate Cross-Country Run. Princeton, N. J., Nov. 7.—Arrangements for the intercollegiate cross-country run on November 21st over the same six-mile course at Princeton as last year. The details for the run were arranged at a joint meeting of the executive and advisory committees of the Intercollegiate Association of Amateur Athletes of America.

McFarland and Murphy to Meet. New York, Nov. 7.—It has been learned from a reliable source that the bout between Packer McFarland and Tommy Murphy, the Harlem fighter, will most likely be fought at the National A. C. of Philadelphia, in a couple of weeks.

McFarland and Murphy to Meet. New York, Nov. 7.—It has been learned from a reliable source that the bout between Packer McFarland and Tommy Murphy, the Harlem fighter, will most likely be fought at the National A. C. of Philadelphia, in a couple of weeks.

RACING

BOOKMAKERS COMFORTED. Dismissal of Complaints Against Eight of Them by N. Y. Race Judge. Interesting Details in Rendering His Decision.

New York, Nov. 7.—The bookmakers and their customers, who have suffered considerably since the Acting Race Judge, J. B. Sweeney, took effect, had a gleam of brightness through the general murk overhanging them when the complaints against eight bookies who were arrested during the last week in the Grandstand were dismissed by Magistrate Geismar in the Brooklyn police court recently.

McFarland and Murphy to Meet. New York, Nov. 7.—It has been learned from a reliable source that the bout between Packer McFarland and Tommy Murphy, the Harlem fighter, will most likely be fought at the National A. C. of Philadelphia, in a couple of weeks.

McFarland and Murphy to Meet. New York, Nov. 7.—It has been learned from a reliable source that the bout between Packer McFarland and Tommy Murphy, the Harlem fighter, will most likely be fought at the National A. C. of Philadelphia, in a couple of weeks.

McFarland and Murphy to Meet. New York, Nov. 7.—It has been learned from a reliable source that the bout between Packer McFarland and Tommy Murphy, the Harlem fighter, will most likely be fought at the National A. C. of Philadelphia, in a couple of weeks.

MOTORING

THE SAVANNAH RACES. W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr., Declines to Act as Referee—$1,000,000 in Prizes.

New York, Nov. 7.—W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr., was requested to act as referee at the grand prize automobile race in Savannah on Thanksgiving Day and declined because of ill health. The invitation was extended by J. A. Morrell, chairman of the Automobile Club of America. Vanderbilt's physician advised against the acceptance of a post that would entail considerable excitement, following so closely upon the big race on Long Island.

McFarland and Murphy to Meet. New York, Nov. 7.—It has been learned from a reliable source that the bout between Packer McFarland and Tommy Murphy, the Harlem fighter, will most likely be fought at the National A. C. of Philadelphia, in a couple of weeks.

McFarland and Murphy to Meet. New York, Nov. 7.—It has been learned from a reliable source that the bout between Packer McFarland and Tommy Murphy, the Harlem fighter, will most likely be fought at the National A. C. of Philadelphia, in a couple of weeks.

McFarland and Murphy to Meet. New York, Nov. 7.—It has been learned from a reliable source that the bout between Packer McFarland and Tommy Murphy, the Harlem fighter, will most likely be fought at the National A. C. of Philadelphia, in a couple of weeks.

AMERICAN HORSES POPULAR

Sporting Life of London, Gives Facts That Do Not Offer Much Consolation to English Breeders.

London, Nov. 7.—"Sporting Life" says in regard to the Yankee-bred yearlings that have found an English buyer: "At Newmarket this year 119 American-bred yearlings had been sold under the hammer. They have realized an aggregate of 19,955 guineas. Frequent facts, these, that the American yearlings have afforded much consolation to some of our own public breeders. The less so, because it is almost certain that a similar number of English-bred yearlings of the same class had been offered they would not have made so much money. And why?

McFarland and Murphy to Meet. New York, Nov. 7.—It has been learned from a reliable source that the bout between Packer McFarland and Tommy Murphy, the Harlem fighter, will most likely be fought at the National A. C. of Philadelphia, in a couple of weeks.

McFarland and Murphy to Meet. New York, Nov. 7.—It has been learned from a reliable source that the bout between Packer McFarland and Tommy Murphy, the Harlem fighter, will most likely be fought at the National A. C. of Philadelphia, in a couple of weeks.

McFarland and Murphy to Meet. New York, Nov. 7.—It has been learned from a reliable source that the bout between Packer McFarland and Tommy Murphy, the Harlem fighter, will most likely be fought at the National A. C. of Philadelphia, in a couple of weeks.