CHARLOTTE DAILY OBSERVER, NOVEMBER 15, 1908.

inr Frazier, inr, Mr. Ciar is Lily Helly, Mr. Prestor hards, Miss Ila Thompson, Mr. Braissford, Mr. and Mrs. Haden are and Mr. and Mrs. Arnold

Snider will entertain the club

Mrs. M. C. Quinn and Miss Ros-

week and was the most successful ever held here, financially and other-wise. The display was magnificent, more than a hundred plants being on exhibition, besides scores of cut flow-urs. Those from other towns who at-tended the show were heard to re-mark that it would be a credit to any of the larger towns in the fitate. This annual show means a great deal to the people of the town and county, and much credit is due the la-dies who manage it as well as the merchants and manufacturers who give the prizes every year. Satisbury is looking forward with pleasant expectation to the concert to be given by the Choral Society Thurs-day evening. This will be the first con-cert given by this spiendid organiza-tion and a fine sudience and a royal buccess would be only what it richly because would be only what it richly because would be only what it richly because and a fine sudience and a royal buccess and a fine sudience and a royal buccess would be only what it richly because would be only what it richly because would be only what it richly because a fine superb and the second time suils Crouch as accompanist, ave all done superb work and each are all done superb work and each not every member has worked with hem to make the Choral Society the necess that it is. The concert Thurs-ay evening will be in the graded Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hammer will be sorry to hear that they will leave Salisbury soon and go to Cincinnati to live, Mr. Hammer hy-ing accepted a position as night editor of The Commercial Tribune, one of the leading papers of Ohio, Mrs. Ham-mer will be appeared to more than the source of t mer will be appecially missed in the Christian Reid Book Club, where she has been for some time one of its brightest and most valued members.

Miss Jeanle Kluttz will leave next week for an extended visit to friends in New York. Washington and Scran-ton, Pa, While in New York, where she will be the guest of Mrs. H. W. Cobb, she will attend the marriage on the 24th inst. of Miss Grade Fuller and Dr. Henry Clay Cowles, Jr., both of New York.

Mrs. H. C. Cowles and Mrs. Charles A. Turner, of Statesville,, mother and sister of the groom, passed through Salisbury Tuesday morning en route for New York, where they will attend wedding.

Mrs. James D. Stokes, of Scranto Pa., spent Tuesday in the city, the guest of Miss Jeanle Klutts.

Mrs. Waverly Strachan will enter-tain the members of Le Bas Sole Bridge Club and a member of her other friends on Priday afternoon at her handsome home, corner of Jacksoh and Eank streets.

pitality.

NEWBERN.

Correspondence of The Observer

Cameron. A number of Mrs. Came-ron's friends who are not club women shared the pleasures of the afternoon, Newbern, Nov. 13 .-- The Daughter Newbern, Nov. 13.--The Daughters of the Confederacy on Wednesday night gave a most brilliant reception to the Massachusetts monumental formission and their friends. The hall of the daughters was tastefully dec-orated in flowers and everything pos-sible done to make the visitors enjoy the literary programme and special entertainment provided by Mrs. Cam-eron whose brilliant accomplishments as a hostess are widely recognized.

Mrs. Alexander M. Powell, this city, issued invitations this week for the marriage of her daughter, Miss Jen-nie Mabel, and Mr. Samuel Howard Representative Madison, of Massa-chusetts, met the visitors and the la-dies. In the receiving line were Mrs. C. L. Stevens, Miss Eulalia Willis, Mrs. George Henderson, Miss Annie Foy, Mrs. R. B. Nixon, Mrs. R. A. Damon, Mrs. S. W. Hancock. The visitors were captivated by the reception and their reception in the city and all voted i a great occasion. As one remarked: "I really believe they are glad to see us again." Gen. Julian S. Carr. of Durham, repesenting the Confederate veterane, joined the Massachusetta delegation at Petersburg, Va., and wa with them during their stay in

On Wednesday night at 9:30 o'clock,

May McAllster, Misses Ern feld and Mullie Roub assisted f -party. The

The annual chrysanth d in the graded a ay of and was the most

Invitations which awaken much inter-est here and elsewhere in this State and in the Old Dominion were issued last week. They read as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hairston invite you to be present at the marriage of their slees, Laura Hughes Hairston

Mr. Edwin Green Penn, on Wednesday afternoon the eighteenth of November. one theusand nine hundred and eight at "Oak Hill," Wenonda, Virginia.

Among the interesting announcements made last week was that of the marriage of Miss Pattie Chisman, the daughter of Me. W. H. Chisman, of Pine Hall, to Mr. Among the interestin

Raleigh, Nov. 13.—Invitations were issued Wednesday to a wide circle of friends by Col. and Mrs. A. B. An-drews for a reception Wednesday ev-ening from 9 to 11 s clock to meet the broker of Dr. J. L. Hanes, two of the Twin City's most popular young folks. Mr. and Mrs. Hanes will reside at Pine Hall. reside at Pine Hall, where Mr. Hanes is the manager of a large brick and the manufacturing plant. the coming week. The reception will be at the Andrews home on North Blount street, and will be one of the most elaborate social events of the

The following invitations, have been

Mrs. W. M. Hendren At Home Friday, November thirteenth.

Invitations came the past week to friends here for the marriage of Mr. Robert N. Simms, of Raleigh, and Miss Virginia Adelaide Egerton, of Asheville, in the First Baptist church there, Wednesday, November 25th, at high noon. Mr. Simms is a promi-Friday, November thirteenth. Mrs. J. K. Norfleet and Mrs. R. B. Crawford have returned from a charming visit to Mrs. Joe Whitehead, of Rocky Mount.-Miss Mamie Marier after 9 pleasant visit to Mrs. W. H. Marler, hav returned to her home in Yorkinville.--Miss May McAlister after a delightful visit to her brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McAlister on Southside, has returned to Asheboro.-Mrs. T. J. Jeffer-son, of Petersburg, VW, is the guest of Mrs. M. E. Setzer.-Mrs. P. N. Balley and Miss Eva Teague are the guests of Mrs. W. C. Davis in Gastonin.-Mrs. Charles H. Robinson, of Elizabeth City, is the guest of Mrs. John W. Hanes.-Mrs. Alexander Hanes, has returned from a charming Northern trip and a two weeks' visit to her parents.-Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Robinson, in Elizabeth City.high noon. Mr. Simms is a promi-nent young attorney of this city who managed the campsign of Hon. Ash-ley Horne in his contest before the Democratic State convention last sum-Miss Egerton formination for Governor. Miss Egerton formerly lived in Ral-eigh and has many admiring friends here.

Friday afternoon there was reading recital by several of the young ladies of the Baptist University for Women enjoyed by a large party of invited friends of the institution. Miss Oldham, Miss Bivins and Miss Ren-frow were the entertainers. Raleigh, after a pleasant visit to her mother, Mrs. Flora Watkins.-Dr. M.

Mrs. Kimbro W. Weathers was the hostess for the Social Club Friday afternoon and delighted visitors and Lafayette Balley, of Brooklyn, N. Y., is the guest of his daughter, Mrs. R. W. club women with her charming hos-

Invitations reading as follows have been received in the city: Mrs. Alexander Milne Powell requists the pleasure of your company at the marriage of her daughter Jennie Mabel Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock the Johnsonian Club, devoted to liter-ary studies, met with Mrs. Benehan and Mr. Samuel Howard Farabee fuesday afternoon, November the twenty-fourth nineteen hundred and eight at three o'clock

Raleigh, North Carolina. bride-to-be is a young lady of The is offy Journal and is a young man of fine char-acter and great promise.

On Tuesday at 1 o'clock, Mrs. J. W. Hanes entertained at a most elegant and claborate seven-course luncheon in honor of her niece, Miss Margaret Hanes, the rs, Miss Frank Hanes, the maid of a handsome gown of soft green satin. se enjoying this de a event ware the guest of honor, Misses runk and Ruth Hanes, Mary McMul-un, of Elizabeth City; Sue Swift, Nonz wank, Evelyn Hazen, Leila Major, of fortford; May Pierce, Liny Lybrook, lice Rose, Ellen Norfleet, Erms Balley, ruse Whitaker, Senale Crits and Lois tapers. Miss Frank Hanes, the maid of hand-smbroidered lace gown and carry-ing a bouque? of American Beautier, passed to the altar. Immediately came the bride on the arm of her father, a droam of beauty, none who saw her will ever forget. Her wedding drees, a hand-embroidered duchens aatin exquisitely garnitured in rose point Brussels lace. her bridal wreath, and veil, her super-boudyst of orchids and lilies of the val-ley all seemed but the airy nothings that emphasized her loveliness. At the altar sits was joined by the groom and his beat man, Mr. Geruge Martin. In the finder the groom, and the Rey. J. E. Abernethy, the paster, pronounced the words that sealed their happiness to the joyous strains of the "Bridat Chronis" from Lohengrini and "The Bene-diction Nuptake" from 'Messe de Mari-age." by Dubois, the bridal party passed out of the church. The attendants were oharmingly gowned in chiffon over white stat at the home of the bride. Here the was followed by a most briller's romes that at the home of the bride. Here the was followed by a most bridie's romes and maden's hair fern. The marriage was followed by a most bridie's romes and maden's hair fern. The marriage was followed by a most bridie's romes and maden's hair fern. The marriage was followed by a most bridie's romes and maden's hair fern. The marriage was followed by a most bridie's romes and maden's hair fern. The marriage was followed by a most bridin's romes the home of the bride. Here the was followed by a most bridin's romes the the marting the most bridin's romes the the home of the bride. Here the was followed by a most bridin's romes the the marting the most briding the there the there the the home of the bride. Here the embroidered duchess satin exquisitely garnitured in rose point Brussels lace, her bridal wreath, and vell, her superb bouquest of orchids and lilies of the val-ley all seemed but the airy nothings that emphasized her loveliness. At the altar she was joined by the groom and his best man, Mr. Gerge Martin. In the impressive ring service, the Rev. J. T. Old. father of the groom, and the Rev. J. E. Abernethy, the paster, pronounced the words that sealed their happiness. To the joyous strains of the "Bridal and maiden's hair fern. The marriage was followed by a most brilliant recep-tion at the home of the bride. Here the whole lower floor bore the beautiful trib-ute of hot house and garden and fen was followed by a most brilliant recep-tion at the home of the bride. Here the whole lower floor bore the beautiful trib-ute of hot house and garden and fen in the exquisite American resultes that graced the morth parlor in the bride's roses that filed the dining room with that fragrance and beauty in the large golden chrysanthemums that banked the mantel in the south parlor, in the smilax and ferns that lent their airy grace to vase and table and in the southern smi-ix that clambered alog the stairway, over pletures and the grill work of the

J. A. Robinson, W. B. La Far, Walter Hale, V. S. Bryant, J. M. Gregory, A. Cobb, W. B. Braham, J. S. Carr, Hale, V. S. Bryant, J. M. M. Gregory, A. Cobb, W. B. Braham, J. S. Carr, M. Tom Coz, John F. Wiley, I. F. Hanes, Mr. and Mrs. William N. Reynolds, Mrs. And Hurs, W. Hill, E. C. Murray, Arch Cheatham, Ralph Jones, Leila Green Davis, J. W. Browles, L. W. Watts, T. D. Jones, Bridal party, received the guests. In the south parior in the receiving party were: Mr. and Mrs. William N. Reynolds, Mrs. Ass Hazen, of Knoxville, Tenn.; Mrs. J. K. McCabe, W. B. Rowland, E. E. Bernard, J. C. Angler, A. H. Stokes, W. H. Branson, G. W. Hunes, Mrs. C. H. Robinson, Mr. G. W. Hunkey, J. H. Mahler, E. R. Bowland, E. E. Bernard, J. C. Angler, A. H. Stokes, W. H. Branson, G. W. Hunkey, J. H. Mahler, E. R. Lyburn, C. W. Toms, J. S. Cobb, J. E. Stagg, G. L. Lyon, J. A. Duncan, Annie L. Long, B. L. Lynes, C. B. Green, M. Tom, Mrs. P. H. Hanes were: Col. and Mrs. W. A. Blair in the front hall; in the back hall where the punch was served Mr. and Mrs. Powell Gilmer; Mrs. W. H. Marter, and W. L. Ferreil, who presided at the two punch bowls; Misses Madge Vaas, of Danville; Lora Ferrell, Rosa Hasen and Clara Oliver, of Knoxville, Tenn., who dispensed the punch; Mrs. W. A. Whitaker and Mrs. Henry T. Cooke, White Senth, Mary Hanes and Miss to another euchre party, not boing able to have the gentlemen in the sentiting the sentities and Miss to another euchre party, not bother sentities in the sentities the sentities and the sentities and Miss to another euchre party, not bother sentities in the sentities the sentities the the sentities th lax that clambered along the stairway, over pictures and the grill work of the Tenn., who dispensed the punch; Mrs. W. A. Whitaker and Mrs. Henry T. Cooke, hosts to another suchre party, not being able to have the gentlemen in the afternoon. Misses Rose Elwood Bryant, May Louise Fallon, Gladys Gorman and Master Thomas Gorman

Michie.

A. Whitaker and Airs. Henry T. Cooge, who directed the guests to the diming room; Mrs. E. A. Albea and Mrs. J. H. Nichols who presided in the dining room; Miss Kats Hanes, Miss Elizabeth March and Mrs. W. B. Stafford who were in charge of the magnificent array of bridal gifts. Mr. and Mrs. Old left on the $:19 train for an extended Northern trip, attended by the loving good wishes of countless friends and relatives. The presince of many prominent out-of-town

DURHAM.

Correspondence of The Observer.

Correspondence or the Orgerver, Durham, Nov. 13.—A delightful event of the week was the meeting of "The Tourists" with Mrs. Robert T. Winston, at her beautiful home, Eldon Hall. Quantities of chrysan-themums, the queen of autumn flow-ers, adorned hall and drawing room, and the illustry where the missis asers, adorned hall and drawing room, and the library, where the guests as-sembled, was abloom with soft tinted pink chrysanthemums filling tail crystal vases and antique bowls. In the absence of the president, Mrs. A. E. Lloyd presided with grace and case. After the quest informal taik about current events pertaining to Austria-Hungary in which many of the visitors joined, Mrs. H. A. Lousha presented a splendid paper on "The Parliaments of the Dual Monarchy," and Mrs. A. E. Lloyd gave a delight-ful reading on the "Court Life of Vinna." The real treat of the after-noon, however, was the lecture of Dr. It till the evening papers announced the fact. The groom told a friend he was going to Raielab to spend the day and took the train at the union station. The bride met him at East Durham and they went together. Mr. Farthing is a son of Mr. G. C. Farthing. The bride is the daugh-ter of Mr. R. L. Fausetto, the well-known restaurant man and caterer. She is a very beautiful young woman. She is a very beautiful young woman The musical extravaganza, "Slum-

The musical extravaganza, "Slum-berland," by the talent of the town inst week proved a perfect success. Mr. Harry Foots, the manager, show-ed skill in his training. It was a show that would do credit to mest of the traveling organizations. In the cast there were 420 of Durham peo-min bits follow that we have ple-big folks, little folks, men, wo-men and children down to the tiny tots. It is hard to particularize where there was so much that was good. Miss Madge Mershon did her part with all case and grace. She appeared in the solo work and her singing was the hit of the evening. Time and again she was encored and had to respond. She appeared per-fectly at home on the stage. All the soloists were good. Mr. R. E. Piper, Mr. Edgar Howerton, Miss Mabel Herndon, Miss Daisy Herndon and Miss Mary Ruffin Green, like Miss Mershon, deserve mention. The play was given three nights and each time there was a good house. The pro-ceeds went to the building of the old ladies' home.

TWO MORE ROCK HILL BRIDES.

Miss Sarah Eva Gillesple to Be Wedded to Mr. Cornelius Duncan Smith and Miss Julia Bratton Kendrick to Mr. Fristram Walker Bethea-Both Ceremonies Wednesday Afterpecial to The Observer.

Rock Hill, S. C., Nov. 14.—Re-cipients of an invitation reading "Mr. and Mrs. Richard Thomas Gillespie request the pleasure of your company at the wedding reception of their daughter, Sarah Evs. and Mr. Cor-coling Duron Could on Mr. Corneius Duncan Smith, on Wednesday afternoon, November 18th at half-past 4 o'clock, at home, Rock Hill, S. C.," are looking forward to this so-cial event with interest. Miss Gillesple is a young lady widely known and is much admired for her rare beauty and lovely character. The groom is a well-known newspaper man of Ro-land, N. C., and is very popular.

The marriage will be solemnized at the home of the bride's parents on Moore street, by Rev. R. T. Gillespie, of Florence, a brother of the bride assisted by Rev. J. T. Dendy, of Old Point.

Gorman and Master Thomas Gorman served a four course luncheon. The color scheme of yellow and white was consistently followed throughout. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Fallon, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Guthrie, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Guthrie, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Guthrie, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Guthrie, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Guthrie, Mr. and The attendants will be as follows The attendants will be as follows: Maid of honor, Miss Lillie Earle Sad-ler; dames of honor, Mrs. W. T. Brock, of Columbia, and Mrs. R. T. Gillespie, of Florence; bridesmaids, Misses Kittye Steward, Fleda Steele and Carrie Adams, of Rock Hill, and their Berger of Santar, best man Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Leeman, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Vaughan, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Thomas, MS. and Mrs. A. E. Lloyd, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Griswold, Abbie Bryan, of Sumter; best man, Mr. Angus McKenzle, of Roland, N. C.; groomsmen, Messrs. Clyde McCul-lum, Leon Alford, and Bernard Edens, of Roland, and William Giflespie, of Rock Hill. The symbol that will bind Mr. and Mrs. Jones Fuller, Mr. Will Holloway, Mrs. W. W. Briggs, Miss Janie Edwards, Misses Fannie and Rens. Cogart, Capt, and Mrs. J. C. The following cards of great inter-st have been received in Durham: Mr. and Mrs. Albert Flanagan request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Rock Hill. The symbol that will bind these two young hearts together will be carried by little Miss Mary Schwrar. Only relatives and a few intimate friends will witness the ceremony, but quite a number has been invited to the reception. "Mrs. John F. Kendrick will give in marriage her daughter, Julia Brat-ton, to Mr. Fristram Walker Bethea on the evening of Thursday, the twenty-sisth of November, One thousand nine hundred and eight on the evening of Thursday, the twenty-sixth of November, One thousand nine hundred and eight at aeven o'clock at Eighteen hundred and forty-one Sheridan cond in the City of Chicago. This annoncement did not sur-prise the people as their romantic meeting and courtship is known by their friends. Mr. Winston is a son of one of Durham's most distin-guished lawyers, Mr. Robert Winston while Miss Flanagan is well known

New Method of Reducin Fat

LEB A news item from Paris informs that the American method of 1 ducing s alim, trim figure, is mee-with astonishing success. This a tem, which has made such a wom ful impression over there, must the Marmola Prescription Th method of reducing fat. If is a to say that we have nothing be for this purpose in this country. A things that will reduce the excess is a pound a day without injury to stomach, the causing of wrinkles, help of exercising or disting, or im ference with one's meals is a mits important and useful addition ference with one's meals is a mig important and useful addition civilization's necessities. Just such catalogue of good results, hower follow the use of these please harmless and economical little reducers. We say economical, cause Marmols Prescription Tabi (made in accordance with the fame prescription) can be obtained of a druggist or the makers, the Marm Co. Defroit, Mich., for seventy-to cents the large case, which is a cidedly economical price, consider cidedly economical price consideri the number of tablets each case of tains.

eigh, was it discovered that thro the erroneous tabulation of the of four precincts, the vote inste being Kitchin 2,780 and Cox 1, should have been Kitchin 2,549 am Cox 1,893, making Mr. Kitchin's ma jority 654 instead of 1,118. The cr seems to have occurred in FOT way: the official returns for L gave Kitchin 107, Cox 77; for Ma Kitchin 133, Cox 93; for Gold I Kitchin 89, Cox 28, These figu should have been exactly the rethe Kitchin vote having been inevertently put in the Cox column a vice versa. Again, the returns fr the West ward of Salisbury officies gave Kitchin 370, Cox 71, while true figures, as I am informed, sho be: Kitchin 270, Cox 171. There be kitchin 270, Cox 171. be: Kitchin 270. Cox 171. There was no intention on anybody's part of course, to do anybody injustice, but these orrors were doubtless the result of haste and inadvertence. The er-ror at Gold Hill, was the only one made by the county canvassing board, the others having been made by the precinct election officials, as I am informed.

"With all the influences at work against Mr. Hackett, and with the Re-publican fight holly centred against him, his vote in Rowan was 2,446, only 103 less than Mr. Kitchin's, and 98 more than he received against Mr. Blackburn two years ago. Mr. Cowies' vote, however, was 1,983, being 701 more than Blackburn received two years ago, and 95 more than Cox re-ceived this year, reducing Hackatt's majority to 453. Mr. Hackett also re-ceived this year, reducing Hackatt's majority to 453. Mr. Hackett also re-ceived the year, reducing Hackatt's majority to 453. Mr. Hackett also re-teived more votes in Iredell, Stanly, Cabarrus and Ashe than he did two years ago, and was only swamped by the tremendous and unexpected in-trease in the Republican vote. I have felt," said Mr. Klutts, "that to say this much was due to both Mr. "With all the influences say this much was due to Hackett and myself." both Mr

Mr. Kluttz added that the vote of Mr. Elutis added that the vote of Rowan in 1904 was Glenn 2,497, Har-ris 1,198. In 1905, McNeill 3,834, Douglas 1,283. Mr. Kitchin's car-rected vote is therefore greater than Glenn's by 52. After all, therefore, Neill's by 352. After all, therefore, the Democracy of Rowan, in the face of the fercest fight in the State, has increased its vote, elected its entire legislative and county theket by in-creased vote and good majorities, is in good shape, and will be in the ting to win in 1916, as it has always done.

' Fancy net, lace or em-broidery waists can be perfect-ly cleaned by our hand per-formed 'Trench Dry Cleaning'

Waists Dry

Cleaned

guesta graced this brilliant occasion. J. P. B.

at her residence

Farabee, Tuesday afternoon, Novem-ber 54th, at the residence on Hills-boro aireet. Miss Powell is a daugh-ter of the late A. M. Powell, for sevnany personal attractions. The groom s sty editor of the Winston-Salem eral years mayor of Raleigh. Mr. Farsbee is now city aditor of The Journal, Winston-Salem, and was at one time editor of The Raleigh Even-ce of The Observer. drews for a reception Wednesday ev-ening from 5 to 11 s'clock to meet their son, Mr. A. B. Andrews, Jr., and his bride, who was Miss Sharples, of Medin, Pa. They are expected here from their bridal tour early in the position Work.

RALEIGH.

at the Methodist parsonage, Miss Mary Exum Beaman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Beaman became the bride of Mr. John Suter, Jr. The ceremony was performed by Dr. R. C. Beaman, father of the bride, Miss Beaman, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and during the coremony Miss Mary Hunt, of Roxboro, rendered several beautiful selections on the plano. Mr. and Mrs. Suber will make their home in Newbern, where Mr. Suter is in the furniture business with his father, the firm being John Suter & Son.

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

4

Saturday at 3 o'closic Miss Lova Person enterialised at a charming but W. A. Cot-pareting in the following order along the side alstes: Miss Major and Miss Ly-brook; Mr. Will Bianes and Mr. J. E. B. Eringhaus, of Elizabeth City; Miss McMulles and Mins Hasses; Mr. W. G. Underwood, of Heritord, and Mr. R. G. Whits, of Edenton; Miss Bruns Balley and Miss Elizabeth Norfleet; Mr. W. R. Capsiant, of Avota, and Mr. G. F. Durize; Miss Soc Switt and Miss Swank; Mr. Huber Hanes and Mr. John An-dr an; Miss Ruth Hanes and Allos Rose; Mt. W. A. Worth and Mr. A. H. Yann; Miss Miss Link, Lights with fail

Ing Times.
Ing Times.
The Fortnightly Review Club met monday afternoon with Mrs. Robert C. Strong on North Blount street, the meeting proving one of the most en-joyable the club has held.
Mrs. James Briggs entertained the indies of Johnson-Petigrew Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, Wed-nesday afternoon, the meeting being devoted to the consideration of spe-cial work of the chapter and pleas-ing features of the chapter and pleas-ing features of of the chapter and pleas-ing features of the chapter

The Fun Loving Club met Tuesday afternoon with Miss Christine Me-fintosh in the first of Hs fall series. The club, diminished by several mom-bers being away at school, had only sight present, and when the presi-dent, Miss McIntosh, called for nei-members Miss Louise Troy was offered and accepted. It was a business and accepted. It was a business and well as a social meeting. The presi-dent's home was prottily decorated in yellow and green and following the usual order refreshments were served, from this time. will immediately go to housekeeping. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Gorman oelebrated their crystal wedding Fri-dag in a most charming manner. A large crowd of indies wers invited, in the afternoon, to join the Gorman is a game of finch and cuchre, with-out knowing of the happy event until they reached the attractive home, which was beautifully decorated with forms and chrysanthemuns. In the hall the two dates, 1893 and 1908 shows brightly in finy electric lights against a background of green. The tours cards were heart ships with a cluster of wedding hells in one corner and 1853 and 1968 feneralt them.

The news of the wedding of two of Durham's well-known young peo-ple reached here Wednesday evening. It was as follows: Mr. Thomas C. Farthing and Mism Mable Faucatte were united in marriage in Raleigh Wednesday morning at one thirty a'clock by Rev. Mr. Moneure. It was a runsway affair, not a soul knowing while Miss Flanagao is well known and liked here, having visited in the city. There was a quiet but very pretty wedding at the home of Mr. J. S.

city. There was a quiet but very pretty wedding at the home of Mr. J. S. Forsyth, near the southern part of the eily Tuesday morning. This was the marriage of his daughter, Vera. to Mr. Fred Faucette, of Burlington. Elder W. A. Simpkins of Raleigh offi-ciated. It was the wish of the couple that the marriage be kept very quiet until the announcements was made. On account of that the license was not secured till the last moment and only a few relatives and friends were present. The attendants were Mr. George Jordan, of Burlington, the best man, and Miss Effer Forsyth, sis-ter of the bride, maid of honor. The others were Mr. Robert Wood, of the city, and Miss Annie Howerton, of Henderson. Both bride and groom are popular in Durham and have a great many friends here. cities.

Laura May Mr. James Horner Winston

At six thirty Sunday afternoon Mr. At six thirty Sunday atternoon sir. James W. Moore and Miss Iola Ethel Lea were marriad. This took place at the home of the bride's father. Mr. Silas M. Lea, with Rev. A. P. Barbee officiating. There several attendants and many friends were present.

At the home of the bride's father, Mr. Ell Trippett, Sunday evening at seven thirty o'clock, Mr. Robert Womble was married to Miss Dora Trippett Rev. J. A. Dailey, pastor of the East Durham Methodist church, spoks the words that made them husband and, wife.

There was a delightful meeting of the Tuesday Afternoon Bridge Club with Miss Mary Weldon Huske, at the home of Dr. J. M. Manning, on thusard street. Promptly at three the home of Dr. J. M. Manning, on Dilliard street. Promptly at three thirty the playing began as is the custom. The cards did not run very well for any one, therefore the scores were not very high. There were four tables in hall, library and sitting room and from each one from time to time could be heard shouts of laughter, showing the sames were close.

heard shouts of laughter, showing the games were close. After all the scores were counted, it was found Mrs. Jones Fuller had the highest. After this delightful re-freshments were served. Those pres-ent were: Miss Lottic Gharp, Miss Ids Cowan, Miss Lottic Gharp, Miss Ids Cowan, Miss Katis Watkins, Miss Marins Cowan, Miss Mary Sanford, Miss Hattle Owens, Mrs. A. Paul Gil-bert, Mrs. Jones Fuller, Miss Annie Louise Vaughan, Mrs. Paul Taylor, Miss Willie Smith, Miss Ethel Carr, Miss Willie Smith, Miss Ethel Carr, Mrs. George A. Carr, Miss Joe Tay-lor, Mrs. John Ross and Miss Sadle Hackner.

Chairman Kluttz Calls Attention to Mistake Which Gave Kinchin Larg-er Majority in That County Than He Really Roceived—The Correct Figures diven. Observer Bureau, 421 North Main Street, Sallsbury, Nov. 13.

ERBOR IN ROWAN VOTE.

"I know that election figures have "I know that election figures have palled on the public, but it is just as well to keep political history straight, for present justice and future reference." said Hon. Theo F. Kluttz, Democratic chairman of the eighth district, to-day. "With no desire to detract from Mr. Kitchin, but to do be considered on the distor these Con-bis associates on the State Ucket, Con-grassman Hackbtt and the Democrats of Rowan justice, I feel it my duty," said Mr. Klutts, "to say that Mr. Kitchin's true majority in Rowan is 656 and not 1,118 as officially reported and could be a sublished to the say that Mr.

and published. "Not until after the county can-vassing board had completed its work and gone home, and after the official returns had been forwarded to Rai-

IN THE ABOUT

Whenever you are pumled over just exactly the right TREAT for some elegant social occasion; for some particular friend, or for hims or for her, or the children, you are certainly in the dark as for as causely is concerned unless you buy.Sivere a. THEN, there is a wonderfully deere's.

ent awaiting you and your fortunate friends. Steere's in its reputation carries all the traditions of elegance and quality.

Sold by all Druggists and confectioners.

