ARE UNAPPRECIATIVE

Lodgers at Hotel Christenbury say they must prefer the Waldorf-Astoria or the Astor. One might have judged from a scrutiny of the register of the Hotel Christenbury last night that some striking theatrical attraction was in the city, so numerous were the names of its guests, so crowded its rooms to the corridors. Some few "registered off" between dawn and sunset yesterday, but the great majority lined in their apartments, merely ringing occasionally for the water or a cold bottle, or electric light, by which to peruse the columns of the morning paper.

Some responded graciously, others with more or less indifference, when the cards of newspaper men were handed them on a golden platter. Some begged to be excused. Others talked freely and with satirical lack of restraint of their plans and purposes. A strange unanimity of desire seemed to prevail, this taking form in a wish to patronize some other city hotel.

CENTRAL PUTS IN ICE MACHINE. One of Carolina Ice Machine Company's Ice-Making Plants Installed in One of City's Popular Hostelties. One of the machines recently installed by Mr. S. S. Miles, of this city, for the manufacture of ice, has just been installed in the Central Hotel and not only serves the mission of making ice, but also refrigerating purposes for which the invention is peculiarly suitable. The machines are being made by the Carolina Ice Machine Company of this city. Its stockholders number many of the leading business men of the city and there is talk of organizing a company with a capital of several hundred thousand dollars to put the invention properly before the people.

WILL OBSERVE THANKSGIVING. Most Charlotte Churches Will Have Religious Services Thursday Morning According to Custom. In observance of the proclamation issued by Theodore Roosevelt, President of the United States, and Robert R. Glenn, Governor of North Carolina, the great majority of churches in Charlotte will hold religious services Thursday morning in celebration of Thanksgiving Day. Pastors of practically all the Methodist churches are absent from the city in attendance on conference. This may have some effect on observance by these churches.

CONGREGATIONAL MEETING. Congregation of First A. R. P. Church Will Meet Next Monday Night. The congregation of the First Associate Reformed Presbyterian church has been called to meet next Monday night, primarily for the purpose of electing two new deacons. It is claimed that additional deacons are needed to fill the places made vacant by the removal of Mr. R. L. Hilton to the Forest Grove church, and the refusal of Mr. Hugh W. Harris to serve in this capacity.

MR. GALLOWAY PREACHES. Canadian Layman Does a Good Day's Work in Charlotte, Preaching Twice and Making One Address. A gifted and consecrated lay worker, Mr. James Galloway, of Toronto, Canada, who delivered two sermons and an address in this city yesterday. Mr. Galloway preached in the morning at Trinity Methodist church on "The Power of Preaching Preach," being heard by a good-sized and interested audience. Last night he occupied the pulpit at the Street Methodist church, the pastor of both churches being absent at conference. His subject last night was "The Christian's Self-Examination."

Boosters Doing Talking For Greater Charities Club. The members of the Greater Charlotte Club are out on the war-path. At the recent meeting at the Selwyn Hotel cards were given to all the members present for the securing of new names on the roll. Hence this activity. Some of the best workers in town are in this organization and they are everlastingly drawing on their mental resources in presenting what seems to them cogent reasons why all progressive Charlotteans to whom the prosperity of Charlotte has a meaning should be affiliated with this commercial organization.

For City Ministry. A collection was taken at the close of yesterday morning's service at the First Presbyterian church to raise money to pay the salary of a city missionary, to assist the pastor in ministering to the individual needs of the parishes. It was desired to raise $1000. Last night it was stated that $252 had been raised, with many members of the church not heard from. It has not been determined who will be employed.

The evening service was a Thanksgiving occasion. Dr. Kincaid preached a beautiful sermon, and the music was superb.

A box of Ivory Soap—can you think of a better wedding present?

True, it is somewhat out-of-the-ordinary, but that is in its favor, rather than the reverse. And Ivory Soap is very much more useful than cut-glass, silver and things of that sort.

Any grocer will gladly fill your order for a box of Ivory Soap; and will deliver it where and when you tell him.

Death of Master Thomas McDow. A message from Yorkville, R. C., last night, brought the sad news of the death of Master Thomas, the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. McDow, who has been so ill for the past several days and whose death has been almost hourly expected. The little fellow was 6 years of age and had been sick for ten days or more. He was an unusually sweet and attractive child, and of his parents' hearts. The funeral will likely take place this afternoon in Yorkville. Mrs. McDow, before her marriage was Miss Mary Clarkson, of this city. Her many friends who sympathize with her in her great grief.

Students and Thanksgiving. There will probably be a noticeable influx of students from the colleges the latter part of the week to spend Thanksgiving. Some institutions allow only one day of grace, but many, perhaps the majority, allow two, and a number are always glad to seize the opportunity to visit home. Many of those who do not go home will attend some of the big football games in this State and Virginia.
