

ROOT GOES TO THE SENATE

WOODRUFF OUT OF THE WAY

Following a Star Chamber Conference With President-Elect Taft the Chairman of the New York State Republican Committee... (Text continues with details of the conference and political maneuvering.)

PLEASES MR. TAFT.

"I can only say that I am very much pleased at the attitude of Mr. Woodruff as taken in this matter. He has been moved by an earnest desire to promote party harmony..." (Text continues with Mr. Taft's comments on Woodruff's actions.)

MR. WOODRUFF'S STATEMENT.

Mr. Woodruff's statement followed the discussion of the United States senatorship and had made no statement as to what his course concerning it would be, both because of the... (Text continues with Woodruff's full statement.)

WOULD INSURE HARMONY.

"Furthermore, the unanimous support of Secretary Root by the State organization would unquestionably insure harmonious party action by the State officers and the Federal authorities, and an impartial consideration of the claims of all the local organizations in the State, unimpeded by such factious considerations as would surely prove..." (Text continues with arguments for party harmony.)

A GIFT FOR TAFT.

Judge Taft was the recipient to-day of a carefully made set of golf clubs, the gift of George Lowe, of Baltusrol, N. J. (Text continues with details of the gift.)

Government Investigation of Mine Explosions to Begin Thursday.

Washington, Nov. 29.—In the presence of several hundred invited guests, among them members of Congress, scientific men, coal mine owners and operators, State mine inspectors and officers and members of the United Mine Workers, the United States geological survey's experiment station at Pittsburgh, Pa., for the investigation of mine explosions, will be formally opened December 24. (Text continues with details of the investigation.)

Italians Denounce Austria's Attitude.

Rome, Nov. 29.—About twenty thousand people gathered to-day in a mass meeting here for the purpose of expressing disapproval against the attitude of Austria. (Text continues with details of the meeting.)

DEFATED CANDIDATE FOR SHERIFF OFFERS HIS PROPERTY FOR SALE.

Observer Bureau, 431 North Main Street, Salisbury, Nov. 29.— (Text continues with details of the property sale.)

MR. JOHN O. HOUSTON, THE MOST SUCCESSFUL REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR SHERIFF AT THE RECENT ELECTION, AND ONE OF THE BEST FARMERS IN ROWAN COUNTY, IS OFFERING HIS PERSONAL PROPERTY FOR SALE.

It has been reported that Mr. Houston would leave the county and locate in western North Carolina, and when a prominent local Democrat asked him yesterday in regard to leaving the county he remarked, "Oh, I'll be back in two years, the inference being that should the political situation two years hence justify it he would again be in the running for sheriff." (Text continues with details of the sale.)

MR. JOHN P. ROUCHE, A BROTHER OF MANAGER ROUCHE OF THE EVENING STAR, IS CRITICALLY ILL AT HIS HOME ON NORTH MAIN STREET, FROM TYPHOID AND MALARIAL FEVER AND HIS LIFE IS DESPAIRED OF.

Mr. John P. Rouché, a brother of Manager Rouché of the Evening Star, is critically ill at his home on North Main street, from typhoid and malarial fever and his life is despaired of. (Text continues with details of the illness.)

GLENN ON PROHIBITION.

The Governor of North Carolina Addresses a Y. M. C. A. Meeting in Springfield, Mass., Nov. 29.—When Gov. R. B. Glenn, of North Carolina, arrived at the big reception at the Court House Theatre here this afternoon, he was accorded a reception that will long be remembered. (Text continues with details of the speech.)

IMMIGRATION FUND SHORT.

Congress Will Have to Make Appropriation to Cover Extraordinary Expenditures by the Immigration Commission. (Text continues with details of the funding issue.)

TRIAL OF DAVIS TO-DAY.

Nebraska Charged With the Murder of Dr. Frederick T. Rustin Will Face a Jury Monday. (Text continues with details of the trial.)

OMAHA, NEB., NOV. 29.—

The trial of Charles Edward Davis for the murder of Dr. Frederick T. Rustin, took place to-day in the District Court here. (Text continues with details of the trial proceedings.)

ITALIANS DENOUNCE AUSTRIA'S ATTITUDE.

Rome, Nov. 29.—About twenty thousand people gathered to-day in a mass meeting here for the purpose of expressing disapproval against the attitude of Austria. (Text continues with details of the meeting.)

FORECAST OF WEEK'S NEWS

IMPORTANT MEETINGS PLANNED

Conventions Scheduled for the Week Embrace Everything From Religious Conferences to the Assembly of the President's Pea Commission. (Text continues with details of the week's events.)

THE KAISER INTERVIEW STUPID

New York Newspaper Gables Chancellor von Buelow That After a Pains-taking Investigation It Now Believes That the Interview Reported by the Kaiser's Own Paper by Emperor William Was Probably Never Uttered. (Text continues with details of the investigation.)

ALSO THE POSTAL SAVINGS BANK

Postmaster General Meyer, in His Annual Report, Recommends to the Congress the Trial of Both These Features For Many Reasons. (Text continues with details of the postal savings bank report.)

NECESSITY OF GOOD ROADS.

The necessity for good roads is pointed out in connection with the development of the rural free delivery service. (Text continues with details of the road improvement discussion.)

THE NEW YORK WORLD.

In publishing the foregoing cablegram to-morrow The World will state that the article in question was written by Dr. Hale prior to its publication and that ten words from him would have made its publication impossible. (Text continues with details of the article.)

DECOMPOSITION HAD PROCEEDED SO FAR THAT A COMPLETE AUTOPSY WAS IMPOSSIBLE.

Paris, Nov. 29.—All the new light thrown on the case of the late Grover Cleveland, first chairman of the association, is that the body of the murdered painter was disinterred to-day and removed to the morgue, but the surgeons found that it was so decomposed that it was impossible to make it an impossibility to perform a complete autopsy. (Text continues with details of the autopsy.)

STANDARD OIL HEARING.

"Standard Oil" will continue to run the gauntlet in several phases of the prosecutions running against the great corporation in sundry places. (Text continues with details of the legal proceedings.)

ATLANTA'S MAJORITY CAMPAIGN.

Atlanta's majority campaign has reached a stage of bitter feeling, the conflict between the Woodward and Maddox factions having become so intense that the mayor and police officials have been urged to prevent the torchlight parades of both sides which were planned for Monday night. (Text continues with details of the campaign.)

ASSASSIN'S COWARDLY DEED.

Popular Citizen of Barnwell, S. C., Newly Murdered by an Unknown Man—Murderer Shot His Victim in the Back and Fleed to a Swamp. (Text continues with details of the assassination.)

WILL HAVE AUTO FOR BEARER.

Body of the Frenchman Killed During a Race at the Savannah Grand Prix Will Be Buried With Military Ceremonies. (Text continues with details of the funeral.)

IN FOREIGN FIELDS.

This will be a week of interesting foreign news. Wednesday will see the beginning of a new Chinese era with the enthronement of the infant Emperor of China, Pu Yi. (Text continues with details of international news.)

WORLD TO MAKE APOLOGY

THE KAISER INTERVIEW STUPID

New York Newspaper Gables Chancellor von Buelow That After a Pains-taking Investigation It Now Believes That the Interview Reported by the Kaiser's Own Paper by Emperor William Was Probably Never Uttered. (Text continues with details of the investigation.)

ALSO THE POSTAL SAVINGS BANK

Postmaster General Meyer, in His Annual Report, Recommends to the Congress the Trial of Both These Features For Many Reasons. (Text continues with details of the postal savings bank report.)

NECESSITY OF GOOD ROADS.

The necessity for good roads is pointed out in connection with the development of the rural free delivery service. (Text continues with details of the road improvement discussion.)

THE NEW YORK WORLD.

In publishing the foregoing cablegram to-morrow The World will state that the article in question was written by Dr. Hale prior to its publication and that ten words from him would have made its publication impossible. (Text continues with details of the article.)

DECOMPOSITION HAD PROCEEDED SO FAR THAT A COMPLETE AUTOPSY WAS IMPOSSIBLE.

Paris, Nov. 29.—All the new light thrown on the case of the late Grover Cleveland, first chairman of the association, is that the body of the murdered painter was disinterred to-day and removed to the morgue, but the surgeons found that it was so decomposed that it was impossible to make it an impossibility to perform a complete autopsy. (Text continues with details of the autopsy.)

STANDARD OIL HEARING.

"Standard Oil" will continue to run the gauntlet in several phases of the prosecutions running against the great corporation in sundry places. (Text continues with details of the legal proceedings.)

ATLANTA'S MAJORITY CAMPAIGN.

Atlanta's majority campaign has reached a stage of bitter feeling, the conflict between the Woodward and Maddox factions having become so intense that the mayor and police officials have been urged to prevent the torchlight parades of both sides which were planned for Monday night. (Text continues with details of the campaign.)

ASSASSIN'S COWARDLY DEED.

Popular Citizen of Barnwell, S. C., Newly Murdered by an Unknown Man—Murderer Shot His Victim in the Back and Fleed to a Swamp. (Text continues with details of the assassination.)

WILL HAVE AUTO FOR BEARER.

Body of the Frenchman Killed During a Race at the Savannah Grand Prix Will Be Buried With Military Ceremonies. (Text continues with details of the funeral.)

IN FOREIGN FIELDS.

This will be a week of interesting foreign news. Wednesday will see the beginning of a new Chinese era with the enthronement of the infant Emperor of China, Pu Yi. (Text continues with details of international news.)

WOULD TEST PARCEL POST

ALSO THE POSTAL SAVINGS BANK

Postmaster General Meyer, in His Annual Report, Recommends to the Congress the Trial of Both These Features For Many Reasons. (Text continues with details of the postal savings bank report.)

NECESSITY OF GOOD ROADS.

The necessity for good roads is pointed out in connection with the development of the rural free delivery service. (Text continues with details of the road improvement discussion.)

THE NEW YORK WORLD.

In publishing the foregoing cablegram to-morrow The World will state that the article in question was written by Dr. Hale prior to its publication and that ten words from him would have made its publication impossible. (Text continues with details of the article.)

DECOMPOSITION HAD PROCEEDED SO FAR THAT A COMPLETE AUTOPSY WAS IMPOSSIBLE.

Paris, Nov. 29.—All the new light thrown on the case of the late Grover Cleveland, first chairman of the association, is that the body of the murdered painter was disinterred to-day and removed to the morgue, but the surgeons found that it was so decomposed that it was impossible to make it an impossibility to perform a complete autopsy. (Text continues with details of the autopsy.)

STANDARD OIL HEARING.

"Standard Oil" will continue to run the gauntlet in several phases of the prosecutions running against the great corporation in sundry places. (Text continues with details of the legal proceedings.)

ATLANTA'S MAJORITY CAMPAIGN.

Atlanta's majority campaign has reached a stage of bitter feeling, the conflict between the Woodward and Maddox factions having become so intense that the mayor and police officials have been urged to prevent the torchlight parades of both sides which were planned for Monday night. (Text continues with details of the campaign.)

ASSASSIN'S COWARDLY DEED.

Popular Citizen of Barnwell, S. C., Newly Murdered by an Unknown Man—Murderer Shot His Victim in the Back and Fleed to a Swamp. (Text continues with details of the assassination.)

WILL HAVE AUTO FOR BEARER.

Body of the Frenchman Killed During a Race at the Savannah Grand Prix Will Be Buried With Military Ceremonies. (Text continues with details of the funeral.)

IN FOREIGN FIELDS.

This will be a week of interesting foreign news. Wednesday will see the beginning of a new Chinese era with the enthronement of the infant Emperor of China, Pu Yi. (Text continues with details of international news.)

NUMBER OF RAILWAY POSTAL CLERKS KILLED AND 21 INJURED AS COMPARED WITH THE FISCAL YEAR 1907.

In 1908 there were four clerks and two substitutes killed and 104 seriously and 138 slightly injured. (Text continues with details of the railway postal statistics.)

THE REGULATIONS COVERING "SAMPLE" COPIES ARE TREATED AT LENGTH IN THE REPORT.

The regulations covering "sample" copies are treated at length in the report, the Postmaster General concluding with the statement that the publishers, with rare exceptions, have endorsed the position of the department and commended it for the course it pursued. (Text continues with details of the regulations.)

GREAT RELIGIOUS CONFERENCE.

Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America Will Hold Meeting in Philadelphia This Week. (Text continues with details of the religious conference.)

TWO VICTIMS SUFFOCATED.

Two of the men had been suffocated, their bodies not being scratched. (Text continues with details of the suffocation incident.)

WORK WILL CONSUME DAYS.

The opinion was expressed to-day by a number of expert miners that the mine will not be cleared of victims for several days. (Text continues with details of the rescue work.)

STAMP-VENDING MACHINES.

Experiments with stamp-vending machines, says the Postmaster General, are still being conducted, with every prospect that the device which developed in the preliminary trials will be introduced to the public convenience. (Text continues with details of the stamp vending machines.)

COUNTRY'S NATURAL RESOURCES.

Members of the President's National Conservation Commission Will Get Together Tuesday to Prepare an Inventory of What Each State Holds as Reserve Forests. (Text continues with details of the natural resources report.)

REMOVAL STATIONS ADVOCATED.

The Postmaster General puts himself on record as being decidedly opposed to the law which prohibits the establishment of postal stations more than five miles beyond the corporate limits of a city, although he says no restrictions are to be placed on the extension of the free delivery service. (Text continues with details of the removal stations.)

THE FLEET COMING HOME.

Sixteen Vessels of the Sumner Squadron Will Leave Manila December 1st and Are Expected to Reach Hampton Roads or New York the 23d of February. (Text continues with details of the fleet's return.)

OKLAHOMA TOWN FLOODED.

Continued Downpour of Rain Overwhelmed the Oklahoma River and Guthrie the Inhabitants Are Navigating the Streets in Boats. (Text continues with details of the flooding.)

RAILWAY MAIL SERVICE.

Figures relating to the railway mail service show a decrease of 15 in the number of railway postal clerks killed and 21 injured as compared with the fiscal year 1907. (Text continues with details of the railway mail service.)

TWENTY-FIVE BODIES OUT

VICTIMS HORRIBLY MUTILATED

Officials of the Marianna Mine Admit That 138 Men Went into the Mine Sunday Night. (Text continues with details of the mine disaster.)

TWO VICTIMS SUFFOCATED.

Two of the men had been suffocated, their bodies not being scratched. (Text continues with details of the suffocation incident.)

WORK WILL CONSUME DAYS.

The opinion was expressed to-day by a number of expert miners that the mine will not be cleared of victims for several days. (Text continues with details of the rescue work.)

STAMP-VENDING MACHINES.

Experiments with stamp-vending machines, says the Postmaster General, are still being conducted, with every prospect that the device which developed in the preliminary trials will be introduced to the public convenience. (Text continues with details of the stamp vending machines.)

COUNTRY'S NATURAL RESOURCES.

Members of the President's National Conservation Commission Will Get Together Tuesday to Prepare an Inventory of What Each State Holds as Reserve Forests. (Text continues with details of the natural resources report.)

REMOVAL STATIONS ADVOCATED.

The Postmaster General puts himself on record as being decidedly opposed to the law which prohibits the establishment of postal stations more than five miles beyond the corporate limits of a city, although he says no restrictions are to be placed on the extension of the free delivery service. (Text continues with details of the removal stations.)

THE FLEET COMING HOME.

Sixteen Vessels of the Sumner Squadron Will Leave Manila December 1st and Are Expected to Reach Hampton Roads or New York the 23d of February. (Text continues with details of the fleet's return.)

OKLAHOMA TOWN FLOODED.

Continued Downpour of Rain Overwhelmed the Oklahoma River and Guthrie the Inhabitants Are Navigating the Streets in Boats. (Text continues with details of the flooding.)

RAILWAY MAIL SERVICE.

Figures relating to the railway mail service show a decrease of 15 in the number of railway postal clerks killed and 21 injured as compared with the fiscal year 1907. (Text continues with details of the railway mail service.)