PROHIBITION BILL PASSES.

After a Hard and Bitter Fight the Tennessee House Passes the State-Wide Prohibition Bill by a Vote of 62 to 36—If Governor Patterson Will Enforce It His Veto.

Nashville, Tenn., Jan. 13.—The bill to prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquor in Tennessee passed the lower house of the General Assembly this evening at 8:15 o'clock. The vote was 62 to 36. Fifty votes is a majority. Twenty-two Republicans voted for and one against the measure.

The measure passed by the one favorably acted upon yesterday by the Senate and now goes to Governor Patterson. He is expected to veto it, but under the constitution his veto only operates as a suggestion, not as a stay, and a bare majority may pass the bill over the Executive's unfavorable action.

The bill provides that prohibition shall become effective July 1st, 1909. The battle attending the passage of the prohibition bill was probably the mercest ever known in the Tennessee House of Representatives. For almost seven hours it was waged, the local option, or administration, forces contesting every inch of the ground.

Throughout the discussion the galleries were packed and several times the Speaker at the request of local optionists, asked the sergeant-at-arms to exclude visitors from the floor of the house. When the final vote was announced the cheers from the galleries were deafening, the demonstration being repeated in the galleries lasting several minutes.

To-night the State-widlers are jubilantly asserting that the bill will be passed over the Governor's veto by about the same vote originally received in each house.

C. F. KING SENTENCED. Judge Gives Him Ten Years or More at Hard Labor in the State Prison—Dramatically Reviews the Story of His Life to the Court—Declares That Thomas W. Lawson is Responsible For His Downfall.

Boston, Jan. 13.—Cardenio Fluvus King, former financial agent and broker, who maintained palatial offices in Boston and New York, and who for a short time was publisher of a daily paper here, was to-night sentenced by Judge Schofield, in the Superior Criminal Court to serve a term of ten years at hard labor in the State prison at Charlestown.

On December 29th King was convicted on 27 counts of an indictment charging him with larceny and embezzlement, and securing by false pretenses $22,000 from his customers.

The sentence following a dramatic statement by King in court, during which he reviewed the story of his life, his flight from Boston and his travels in England, France and Ceylon. He declared that he was innocent of any wrong intent in any of his acts and in closing his address to the court he said: "I am a man secretly fighting him and bringing him to financial ruin."

Mrs. King and her two sons sat inside the rail close to the prisoner as a sentence was pronounced. King was immediately taken to the Charles street jail and then to the State prison.

The last move of Mr. King's attorney to secure a delay took form of a motion for a stay of execution, which sought to have the imposing sentence delayed until Saturday. Judge Schofield declined to grant the request, and imposed the sentence.

King made an assignment on February 21st, 1908. His liabilities were placed at $297,884 and his assets at $13,653. He was missing from the city four months, but in June he returned and surrendered to the police.

BUTLER IN THE BACKGROUND? Former Populist Senator Said to Have Had Something to Do With the Landing of Sewall—Appointment Will Likely Go to the Senate To-day—Mr. Webb Not Worried Over the Smith Contest.

Washington, Jan. 13.—The judgeship fight appears to be over. Tomorrow or next day the appointment will go to the Senate, and it is not believed that any fight will be made on Sewall's confirmation. The lawyers and would-be captives think well of him, his ability and character. Judge Walter H. Neal, who is here visiting his sister, Mrs. J. H. Bell, at Cleveland Park, said to me this afternoon that Sewall was a man of good habits, and would make a capital judge.

After the smoke of the battle has cleared the finger prints of the fine Italian hand of former Senator Marion Butler are seen. He was the first to suggest the name of Sewall, and the last to quit fighting Judge Adams. The White House has been his hunting grounds for two weeks. Those on the inside have watched the contest with great interest.

Representative Webb returned in this line here. Mr. W. L. Dobson, one of Yorkville's oldest merchants, and well-to-do extensive credit, or lien business.

Dynamic Wrecks House. Leadville, Col., Jan. 13.—Mrs. Richard Luterbach, wife of a prospector, was killed, and Miss Esther Schuster, a guest of the former at her home near Mitchell, 15 miles west of here, was badly injured when a mysterious fire in the Luterbach cabin set off several sticks of dynamite today.

Muscular Pains Cured. "During the summer of 1903 I was troubled with muscular pains in the instep of my feet," says Mr. E. Pedlar, of Toronto, Ont. "At times it was so painful I could hardly walk. THE DEATH RECORD.

Miss Margaret Barber, of Cleveland. Correspondence of The Observer. Salisbury, Jan. 12.—Miss Margaret A. Barber, aged 63 years, died at Cleveland this morning of tuberculosis. She was a sister of Mr. W. T. Barber. The funeral will be from Christ Episcopal church to-morrow at 1 o'clock.

Miss M. A. Barber, of Cleveland. Special to The Observer. Salisbury, Jan. 13.—Miss Margaret A. Barber, who died at Cleveland this morning of consumption. The deceased was 63 years of age. The funeral will be held from Christ Episcopal church at Cleveland to-morrow afternoon at 1 o'clock and will be conducted by Rev. S. J. M. Brown.

Rock Hill Annual Poultry Show On. Correspondence of The Observer. Rock Hill, S. C., Jan. 12.—The second annual show of the Rock Hill Poultry Association began to-day and will continue through Friday. The exhibit is being held in the open air, and Secretary Rice informs The Observer correspondent that fully 800 birds have been entered, mostly from North and South Carolina, and that the show this year will make a very favorable showing indeed as compared with the year referred to. The exhibits are more numerous than last year and are far better.

An important meeting of the State Bar at Plymouth Rock Club of South Carolina was held here to-night, and there was a full attendance of its members.

Mrs. M. Moses, of Rollins. Special to The Observer. Rollins, Jan. 13.—Mrs. Monilton Moses died at 4 o'clock this morning as the result of burns received the day after Christmas. She was preparing supper at an open fire-place when being seized with a fit of dizziness, fell forward into the fire. In her fall she upset a kettle of boiling water, so that in addition to her burns she was badly scalded. The burns, while severe, were probably not so serious as the scalding, but her constitution, enfeebled by an illness and a long life of hard work, was unable to withstand the shock. She is survived by her husband, Mr. C. W. Cameron, and three daughters, Mrs. Marshall Moses, Mrs. Samuel MacArthur and Mrs. Milton Moses, Jr. Funeral services will be held to-morrow and burial will be at the Missionary Chapel at 11 o'clock.

Mrs. M. Moses was a kind friend and good neighbor and will be greatly missed in the little settlement.

TRIAL OF TRIO POSTPONED. One of the Defendants Charged With the Murder of Richmond Man Turns Out to Be a Cocaine Fiend and His Condition Halts Hearing—Governor Kitchin Makes One Appointment—Former Governor Glenn Leaves on a Lecture Tour—Other Items From the State Capital.

Observer Bureau. Raleigh, Jan. 13. Governor Kitchin had a very busy day. One appointment was announced, that of Miss Travis, of Halifax county, as the probable defendant in the case of Mr. E. L. Travis, of that county.

Governor Glenn left at 1 o'clock this morning for the North. His last act while Governor before leaving his office was to write a letter to his wife at Winston-Salem. Last evening he received a telegram from a plain citizen, "Bob Glenn," but always at the service of North Carolina. He has extended his contract as a lecturer so that it goes over into 1910. He speaks to-morrow night at Manchester, N. H., and to-night at one he delights in—namely, "The South."

It was expected that in a day or two the new directors, superintendent, etc., of the penitentiary will be announced, your correspondent having been informed more than a fortnight ago that the present staff was an entire change in the management.

The Agriculture Department to-day issued its report for the month of December, as to the sales of leaf tobacco in the warehouses in the State, these being at about fifty points. Winston-Salem led, with 2,497,799 pounds; Raleigh, with 1,751,795; Rocky Mount third, with 1,254,228; Greenville fourth, with 1,040,225. The total was 13,282,190. This only applies to first-hand sales, including dealers, re-sales, etc., a grand total was 16,225,424.

To-day the time set for the trial of Earl Cotton and the men charged with him of the murder of Dr. E. W. Smith, of Richmond, last November, but there was a sudden turn, the county physician making a statement that Cotton was insane and that the other men were sane. It had been necessary to allow him to take this drug with daily decreasing doses and last Saturday it was reduced to eight grains, but this week, on account of Cotton's great excitement, the dose was increased to 12 grains. It was stated that Cotton was a pervert on account of this drug and that nobody could believe a word he said and that his own lawyers did not know whether anything he stated was true or not. The doctor said he could get him in shape as to eliminate the cocaine entirely. The trial was then postponed until March.

PRITCHARD TO BE ORATOR. He Will Address the Veterans of Gaston County on the Occasion of the Celebration of Lee-Jackson Day. Special to The Observer. Gastonia, Jan. 13.—On next Tuesday, January 19th, the Gastonia Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, will celebrate Lee-Jackson Day as a joint anniversary of the birthdays of Lee and Jackson. The celebration this year promises to be even more elaborate than is the custom. One of the main features of the day will be a dinner which will be served to the veterans by the ladies of Gastonia, in the rooms over the John F. Smith store.

The orator of the day will be Judge Jeter C. Pritchard, of Asheville, who has accepted the invitation of the ladies to be present and address the veterans. Judge Pritchard, who is one of the United States Circuit judges, is now holding court in Richmond, Va., but has written Mrs. T. L. Craig, president of the local chapter, that he will be here on next Tuesday, making the trip from Richmond especially to fill this appointment.
