SALVATION ARMY REVIVAL

Hall on West Fifth Street the Scene of Interesting Meetings—Services Sunday Night, Last Night and To-Night.

Special siege meetings are announced by Capt. C. Alfred Smith, of the Salvation Army, every night in the street meetings that are being held throughout every section of the city and his untiring efforts are being crowned with success at the Army Hall, No. 11 West Fifth street.

Sunday night every evening a portion of the hall was crowded with an interested audience, which had gone to listen to "The Gospel in Song." The captain gave an interesting talk on "The Ways to Obtain Salvation." His talk was pointed and had much weight with the people. Last night there was another unique meeting known as a "Hallelujah Love Feast." From beginning to finish there was much enthusiasm.

To-night there is to be another special kind of gathering, "Feeding the Needy." The captain has arranged to serve coffee and buns to all comers and he hopes to capture the multitudes who are careless regarding their souls' welfare.

Extensive arrangements are also being made to welcome Col. and Mrs. R. E. Holz, the Atlantic coast provincial leader of the Salvation Army who will conduct a special rally at the Y. M. C. A., Thursday, February 4th.

MILITIA RECOMMENDATIONS.

Assistant Secretary Oliver Favors Some of the National Board's Recommendations But is Opposed to Others—Time Has Not Yet Come For the Adoption of the Cap and Collar Insignia.

Washington, Jan. 25.—As the representative of the War Department, Assistant Secretary Oliver has acted upon a number of recommendations made by the national militia board designed to increase the efficiency of the organized militia. The recommendation for detail of non-commissioned officers of the army for duty with the organized militia was approved, conditioned upon the settlement of the question of the right to pay the expenses for quarters, heat, light, medical attendance and traveling expenses out of the Federal appropriations for the militia.

Approval was given to the recommendations for a second series of inspections with the view of reporting on the organization, armament and discipline (instruction) of the organized militia; for a system of correspondence schools for the militia, and the issue of horses for militia field artillery to be charged against Federal appropriations.

Mr. Oliver disapproved recommendations for the allowance of pay and traveling expenses of officers of the militia engaged in giving instruction in rifle practice or on continuous duty at rifle ranges, on the ground that such payments are not authorized by law. The recommendation for the issue of white gloves as part of the clothing allowance was disapproved on the ground that white gloves do not constitute a part of the field service uniform.

Adoption of cap and collar insignia to identify the wearer as a member of the first line of the national force, etc., was approved with the proviso, however, that the time is not yet ripe for the adoption of such insignia. The recommendation for an allowance for ammunition cases, bandoliers and clips is still under consideration.

NEGRO CARRIED TO RALEIGH. Sheriff of Sampson Saves Will Ward From Sunday-Night Mob, and He is Now in Penitentiary.

Observer Bureau, The Holloman Building, Raleigh, Jan. 25.

This morning Sheriff McPhail, of Sampson county, brought to the penitentiary for safe-keeping the young negro, Will Ward, charged with attempted felonious assault upon Mrs. Mollie McLeod, of Sampson county. McPhail formed twice to lynch Ward, and the military guarded him for a night and day. Then the danger was thought to be over, but yesterday the sheriff found that a mob would form to lynch him last night, so he was very quietly removed from the jail and taken in a vehicle across the country to Fayetteville, and thence he was brought here by the sheriff.

The Mooreville Cotton Mills is authorized to increase its capital stock from $300,000 to $400,000.

Will File Charge Against Senator Stephenson.

Madison, Jan. 25.—Definite and specific charges will be filed against United States Senator Isaac Stephenson at the meeting of the Senators to-morrow morning. "This was the decision of State Senator J. A. Blinn, of Decatur, to-day." "It being a constitutional provision that a United States Senator must be voted for at noons, the Senate, if it considers the charges of a sufficiently serious nature, may vote blanks to-morrow," he said.

Both houses will ballot separately for United States Senator at noon to-morrow, Isaac Stephenson, Republican, was the nominee of his party at the fall primary.

Death of Mr. James Hollingsworth.

At the advanced age of 87 years, Mr. James Hollingsworth died yesterday morning very suddenly at 7 o'clock at his home, No. 305 Elizabeth avenue. A native of Patterson, N. J., Mr. Hollingsworth came South many years ago and had spent practically all his life in the service of railroads. For a time he was a resident in Hamilton, moving from there to Charlotte where he and his wife, who survives him, had since made their home. He was a man of straightforward and upright character, a conscientious worker and a good citizen who was held in esteem by all who knew him.

What Do You Want on the Job?

Let us assume the roof leaks. It must be stopped. Two men apply for the job. One has been at it all his life—he knows how. The other doesn't—but is willing. Who would get the job?

That applies to clothing. The tailor-men who fashion our clothing know how. They have the capacity and the ability to tailor the most costly clothing in the States.

It is not logical to suppose that the same tailor-men can and will invest in an expensive suit which is wholly foreign to garments produced by tailor-men who do nothing else.

You are certain to find the ear-marks of distinctiveness and impressiveness in every one of our suits and overcoats.
