Reidsville, Jan. 27.—The question of a recorder's court for Reidsville is being agitated and so far as can be learned there appears to be very little opposition to it. It will be known in a few days exactly what will be the outcome of this agitation.

Washington, N. C., Jan. 27.—A little son of a Mrs. Murphy, of this city, had the misfortune to break his leg Sunday afternoon. He was playing and in some way he fell, sustaining a compound fracture of the leg just above the ankle. From last reports he is doing as well as could be expected.

DAIRYING IN SOUTH CAROLINA.

Special Agent of Government Giving Advice and Suggestions.

Anderson, S. C., Jan. 27.—Prof. J. E. Dorman, special agent of the bureau of animal industry, dairy division of the United States Department of Agriculture, who is stationed at Clemson College, spent yesterday in the city and county. In the afternoon he visited the farm of Mr. J. J. Martin, ten miles west of the city, to inspect his stock, equipment, etc., at a small dairy farm which Mr. Martin has operated for some time and which he now intends to improve and enlarge. Suggestions as to how the business should be handled for successful operation will be given Mr. Martin, and if desired Professor Dorman will furnish plans for the necessary buildings, proper sanitation and the construction of stalls, etc.

This is Professor Dorman's second visit to Anderson within the last few weeks, and he has recently submitted plans to Mr. F. B. Crayton, manager of the Genesee dairy, for new buildings that are to be erected there. He says the interest in dairying in South Carolina is fast growing, and that this State furnishes a great field for it.

PULLING FOR NEWBORN.

Chamber of Commerce Determined to Boost the Town.

Correspondence of The Observer. Newbern, Jan. 28.—The first regular meeting of the chamber of commerce was held at the court house last night. The committee on constitution and by-laws made its report, which was adopted with a few amendments. J. M. Brunson then introduced Mr. E. H. Hyman, of Washington, N. C., as the speaker of the evening. Mr. Hyman is secretary of the Washington chamber of commerce and gave the Newbern chamber the result of his long experience to the organization and work of a chamber of commerce. Much interest was manifested and everybody seemed disposed to "boost" Newbern and pull together for the good of the city. Something like $50 extra was raised for the expenses of the chamber in carrying on its work. Newbern's advantages will be advertised and every effort made to get new manufacturing enterprises to locate here. The great idea of the meeting last night was "Pull together for greater Newbern, and do it now."

The new owners have ample means to finish building the road, which they will accomplish. Bird S. Coler closed the deal. Having also purchased the Greensboro Electric Company, the concern will do big things for Guilford county. Mr. Steele will not say what the consideration was, but it is understood to be $35,000.

Kinston Pedestrian Victim of Side-walk Spectating.

Special to The Observer. Kinston, Jan. 27.—A distressing accident occurred on South McLewain street this evening about 5 o'clock. TRIED TO BURN THEIR WAY OUT Prisoners Imperil Their Lives in Effort to Escape.

Yorkville, S. C., Jan. 27.—An unsuccessful attempt was made by several negro prisoners to burn their way out of the York county jail a few weeks ago. As a result the two that are believed to have been the ring-leaders are now chained down in their cells. It is a well-known fact that the jail is anything else than secure and that an expert could easily make his way out with little or no trouble. Several years ago the matter of properly equipping the building was agitated, and the work was recommended by one or more grand juries, but the county commissioners failed to have it done for the reason that the necessary funds were not available. It will be recalled that about 12 years ago Marion Reese and Dan Luckie were convicted by a York county jury for murdering a man named Williams at Blacksburg and sentenced to life imprisonment, and that shortly afterwards both of them, together with five or six negro prisoners, escaped. Reese, engaging the two, escaped. Subsequently one or more of the negroes was captured, but the white men never have been, notwithstanding the fact that large rewards were offered for them.

BISHOP STRANGE IN BETSY CITY

Services Held by Him in That City and Neighboring Towns.

Special to The Observer. Elizabeth City, Jan. 27.—Rev. Robert Strange, D. D., bishop of the Diocese of East Carolina, is in the city on official business. Monday night he preached in St. Phillip's Episcopal church, colored. Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock he conducted the service at St. John's Episcopal church at Weesville. Last night in Christ Episcopal church, this city, the bishop delivered one of the most powerful and eloquent sermons ever heard in the city. After the regular service a large class was confirmed in a most impressive service. A large crowd of representatives of every denomination in the city was present to hear the eloquent and noted bishop, who is extremely popular and much beloved throughout this section. This morning at 11 o'clock Bishop Strange held services at St. Joseph's chapel at Camden court house. Rev. Dr. Claudius F. Smith, rector of Christ church, accompanied the bishop in all of these visits and was much gratified at the great interest evinced in the services.

NEGRO CAUGHT IN NEW JERSEY.

Notorious York County Character Run Down by Sheriff Brown.

Special to The Observer. Yorkville, S. C., Jan. 27.—On the night of January 17th, 1906, Wallace Jackson, a notorious negro blind tiger and all-around bad character, fired five shots with a revolver at George Robinson, another negro. One of the bullets struck Robinson in the back of the head and glanced off, while another penetrated his lungs and went entirely through his body. The shooting took place at the home of Jackson, where Robinson had gone to induce his wife, whom Jackson had enticed away, to leave Jackson and go with him to Rock Hill to live. Immediately after the shooting Jackson fled. Robinson recovered and is now living here. Sheriff Brown has never abandoned hope of landing Jackson behind the bars and has had him located at least once since his departure, but before the sheriff could have him arrested he was warned and got out of the way. Last Tuesday the sheriff received a telegram from the police authorities of Newark, N. J., that they had Jackson. Wednesday Deputy Sheriff Quinn left for Newark with the necessary papers and yesterday he reached here with Jackson.

Hospital Nurse-Matron

Gives Valuable Recipe For Constipation, Liver Trouble and Piles.

A trained nurse and matron of one of New York's large hospitals gives valuable advice for the treatment of constipation and the prevention of contagious and infectious diseases. She says: "Intestinal indigestion, dyspepsia, wind biliousness, heart-burn, heart palpitation, piles and painful evacuations are directly due to it, while all the fevers and contagions are more likely to attack the constipated individual. Children are robbed of health and brain-power by these poisons. Mothers, never permit any member of your family to be constipated 24 hours, and you will have little sickness and few doctor bills. Use the following prescription: Get 'one ounce aromatic fluid cascara,' 'one ounce compound essence cardiol,' and 'two ounces aromatic syrup rhubarb.' Mix, and adults take 1/2 to 2 teaspoonfuls after each meal, and give children five drops to a teaspoonful, according to age. I think every intelligent family should keep this in the home."
