The reception in honor of Dr. S. L. Morris in the parlors of the Second Presbyterian church, all evening was a most delightful affair. Between the hours of 8 and 10:30 o'clock a large number of the members of the church and congregation called to meet Mr. Morris at a most delightful evening was spent.

Misses Madeline and Adelaide Orr leave to-morrow for New Orleans to visit friends. They will remain sometime after Mardi Gras.

Charlotte Chapter, D. A. R., will meet Saturday with Mrs. H. L. Adams at her home on Graham Terrace. All members of the chapter who intend being present are asked to notify Mrs. Adams by Friday. Members will bring their dues for the year.

Mrs. H. L. Adams will go to South Carolina this morning to visit her mother. She will return Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stinson will take possession of their pretty new home—the corner McCausland house on Morehead street—this week.

A reception will be given in the parlors of the First Presbyterian church Thursday afternoon between the hours of 4 and 6 by the Woman's Auxiliary of the Aid and Orphanage Society to which all the members of the church and congregation are invited.

The Home Mission Society of Tryon Street Methodist church met yesterday afternoon for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year. The following-named were chosen: Mrs. B. D. Heath, president; Miss Ella Dowd, first vice president; Mrs. J. S. Spencer, second vice president; Mrs. W. J. Black, third vice president; Mrs. E. C. Register, recording secretary; Mrs. H. K. Boyer, corresponding secretary; Miss Connie White, treasurer, and Mrs. W. B. Pickens, assistant treasurer.

Mr. W. Frank Dowd will receive this afternoon at her home in the Dowd Apartments in honor of Mrs. Thomas W. Alexander.

An entertainment to which every child in Greater Charlotte is given a cordial invitation and the promise of a thorough good time will be the George Washington tea next Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The place is the Marguerite Shop on North Tryon street, which is convenient and easily accessible. An admission of five cents will be charged and inside, it is said, there will be diversions and interesting amusements which will put a moving picture show in the shadow. The members of the Young People's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the Second Presbyterian church are arranging the affair and are doing all that can be done to make it enjoyable. The money cleared will be devoted to charity hospital work in Koshing, China. Dainty refreshments will be served at moderate cost.

The event of the afternoon is the bridge whist party which Mrs. Charles Platt will give at her home on Elizabeth avenue.

The pre-Lenten dance of the Charlotte Cotillon Club is scheduled for to-night at the Selwyn. The hours are from 9 to 12. The Richardson Orchestra will furnish the music.

Miss Martha May Carr will entertain the Epworth League of Trinity Methodist church at her home, No. 1409 South Boulevard, this evening. The young people of the church are invited to attend.

The many Charlotte friends of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Vosburg, who are now living in Greenville, S. C., will be interested to learn that they intend to return to Charlotte the last of this week to make their home. Mr. Vosburg travels for the Importers' Coffee Company, of New Orleans.

Mrs. C. E. Hooper will entertain the members of the literature department of the Woman's Club at her apartments at the Buford Hotel this morning. The programme is as follows:

"The English Theatre Before Shakespeare," Mrs. H. D. Burkheim.

"Distinguishing Features of the Elizabethan Drama—How It Differed From the Classical, the French and the German," Mrs. P. S. Gilchrist.

"Life, Works and Influence of Ben Jonson," Mrs. W. S. Stewart.

"Discussion—The Influence of Dramatic Art," Mrs. Charles Platt.

There will be a meeting of the household economics department of the Woman's Club at the Carnegie Library Thursday morning at 11 o'clock.

Miss Lottie Aldred, who has been the guest of her aunt, Mrs. George Norman, on Mint street, for several weeks, will return to her home in McAdenville this evening, accompanied by her friend, Miss Frances Taylor, who is just recovering from a serious operation at the Charlotte Sanatorium. Miss Taylor will be Miss Albee's guest several weeks, and then she will return to her home at Wakeboro, taking with her Miss Albee, who will remain for several weeks.

Miss Abl. of New York, spent Friday and Saturday of last week in the city looking over the field offered her by the First Presbyterian church. She will notify the local committee of her decision with reference to the position of city missionary the latter part of the present week.

WARNING TO HOUSEKEEPERS. We must warn all housekeepers to use smaller quantities of Blue Ribbon vanilla. Being a true, high quality extract, it requires about one-half of ordinary quality.

There is nothing in all this world that is cleaner or sweeter than a clean baby.

And there is no better way to keep a baby clean than by the regular and frequent use of Ivory Soap.

A white soap, it yields a snow white lather—a lather that cleans, but does not injure, the most delicate skin.

Ivory Soap 99 1/100 Per Cent. Pure.
