CHARLOTTE DAILY OBSERVER, FEBRUARY 21, 1909.

THE REALM OF NORTH CAROLINA SOCIETY

charming hostess. The decorations

Juck Boyd, are visiting Mrs. W. T.

MOORESVILLE.

was guest of honor

Kluitz in Salisbury-

OXFORD.

Correspondence of The Observer Carford, Feb. 18 .- The social life in Oxford has been for the past trek ting red hearts marked with table and Misses Mamie Huss and Laura Sloan, especially pleasant. Saturday af effective couple numbers. In this way the guests lives and cakes and bonbons were noon Mrs. S. H Smith entertained a' found their places at the tables, which served in the east parlor by Mrs. Lola bridge whist. The accomplished host- were decorated with red hearts, hyacintha Rankin, Miss Birdie Duffy and Miss the plano, Miss Grace Patterson, vio-ess has made her home in Oxford and jonguils. A dainty luncheon was May Stuart, Master James Sloan rejust one year, in which time she has served consisting of saind in heart cases. Crived cards in the hall. Music was just one year, in which time she has served consisting of said in brais these. furnish delightful game of cards the greats coffee cheese and saited almonds. Val. Missea were ushered into the during from and sented at a table beautiful with its initia delightful meeting. The greats not this delightful meeting. The greats not elaborately hand-painted china. ele- including the club members were Meegant cut giass and handsome sliver. prised choicest demonster of the sea Dark of countries I T Morris, prised choicest demonster of the sea Dark of countries Fa, and Misers Larra, son. Music added a charm to the Silmson Maggie Lee Erwin Tony Cares surroundings of one of the most en- chara Month joyable entertainments given here re- Thorus and Miss Johnson, of Roscoke. cently.

was given in henor of Mrs. Cred-shaw's guests Mrs. Handolph. Marfreshments were served.

present. There courses were enjoyed forming a love story. Miss Etta Blair Dixon were at home to B number of The party was given in honor of Mrs. Was the fortunate winner of the prize a their friends. Thursday afternoon by Miss Louise Gregory Those on with a wate served by the nostees joying Mrs. Cannady's hospitally ware Mesdames J. C. Roberds J. ALREMARIE. Miles, S. H. Smith, B. K. Have, R. Marshall, of Lynchburg, D. Hon-itz, of Charago, W. H. Hunt, F. H. T. Horsfield, C. G. Elliot, A. A. Chap-inan H. G. Williams, W. H. Britt L. De LaCreix, T. L. Booth, J. Powell, E. T. Rawlins, W. Powell, E. T. Rawlins, W. W. Phelps, L. Stark: Mosses Jeannette Biggs, Nette Trigory, Irwin Stark, Pannie Gregory, Margaret, Currin, Cabutt, F Mary B. Williams, K Hunt, Belle Cooper, Leah Perry, of follows: Henderson:

Wednesday afternion the Social Club was entertained by Mrs. Harry Williams in honor of her sister-in law, Mrs. Joslah W. Cannady, ['be house was preitily decorated with paims and other flowers from the inservatory. The star pin was won-V - Jeannette Biggs and the club Miss Irwin Stark Refresh inte in three courses were served 11 isrven, A. A. Williams, E. T. Rawlins, W. H. Britt, J. C. Robards, H. Smith, W. H. Hunt, A. A. Chapman, J. B. Powell, J. A. Miles, D. Bonitz, Randolph Marshall, T. L. Eooth, Horsfield, N. Burwell, W. L.

were discussed and books exchanged Af Mrs Sifford, Mrs. Clifford, Mrs. J. H. fer adjournment the hostess distributed Kennedy, Mrs. W. Y. Warren and dames D. R. McCrary, E. G. Morris, H. Nannie Bulla Juna

The home of Mrs. E. H. (reeshaw Mr and Mrs. W.A. Coffin gave a gowned ladies added splendor to this Friday afternoon when a britge party accessing Mrs. The handsomelycharming valentine party at their home brilliant occasion. Receiving with brilliant occasion. Receiving with Mrs. Gilliant and Mrs. Adams were binor of Moss Myttle Holes of Greens. Miss Irvin, of Morgenton; Mrs. A. M. shaw's guests Mrs. Handolph Mar-shall, of Lynchburg Va Mrs. Iudi-ley Bonitz, of Chilage, and Mrs. Iudi-siab Cannady. All the decirations being fans and Japanese design, the favora-being fans and Japanese plates was presented in Mrs. Marehall a cricheted tie to Mis-Bonitz and a Japanese viase to Mis-Bonitz and a Japanese viase to Mis-cents and a Japanese viase to Mis-cents and a Japanese viase to Mis-being fans and a Japanese viase to Mis-freebments were served. re- in conten of red learts, such one having traig poured tea in the hall, assisted in it the name of a young lady present, by Miss Suste Hoffman. In the sit-Mrs N. H Cannady entertained the stid regiven a boi and arrow with Thursday Bridge thin Besides the which to perce a heart. In this way regular dub members there were failed to an appropriate. Wilkins, Laura Page, Lottie Blake many invited guests and a most de- least enters. The questions were lightful afternoon was enloyed by all witten in while on red hearts. Every

The party was given in to nor of Mrs. Use the formation whiter of the prize a their friends. Toursnay, afternois, Josiah Cannady, who was married ted heart shaped hox of Lowney's hore from 4 to 5 and from 5 to 6 at the during the past were. In the game the light refreshments of hot choice home of Mrs. L. W. Glenn, This was of bridge the highest score was made that the lives and maisimallow sand-

Consequence of The Observer.

Albemarie, Feb 18-Misses Ida The doorations throughout were Ferguson and Ethel Dunlap broke the beautiful and attractive. Delicious remonotony of the peason by giving a freshments in courses were served, most unique valentine party last Pri-Horton on North First street. Origi- the guest of Mrs. R. A. Love. Miss nal and unique invitations, heart. Addie Etwin of Morganton, is visi-shaped, were issued, which read as ing Mrs. L. N. Glenn. day evening at the home of Mrs. H. L.

On Friday eve. February twelfth We'll drink a toast to your good health. From eight-thirts 'ill, twelve o'clock Misses funnap and Forguein will answer. Correspondence of The Observer (

We delete one of the above hearts available to resting a delightful bunch of two T = 4 themselves of the optorbuilts allows the grows were asked to gath for the spectrum to the spectrum t Mise Willie Femberton re- MUS Po-D. Bohnit, Harsheld, N. Burwell, W. L. Book, Horsheld, N. Burwell, W. L. Deace, L. N. Stark, Miss Perry, Misses Fannie and Nette Gregory, Ir-burt, Flora Hunt, Carrie Hobgood, Mars B. Willie Pemberton with J. A Groves Miss Nellie Hearne with F. H. Neff, Miss Nellie Hearne with F. H. Neff, Miss Nellie Hearne with F. H. Neff, Misses Gregory. Misses Crewford Smith, Pattle Walser Lanet Gregory. freshments. Miss Pattle McCain with Archie Fer- sell many friends in his home guson, Miss Sue McCain with D. D.

MAXTON.

Maxion, Feb. 18 - The Edinburgh

Greene and J. W. McLaughlin, of Reeford, and Misses Mattie McCall, GASTONLA.

Gastonia, Feb. 18 .- A well-attended and thoroughly enjoyable of the many social events of the season was the reception Tuesday afternoon given by

The deporations throughout

Mrs. J. M. Sloan and Mrs. R. L. Swat

Correspondence of The Observer

Correspondence of The Observer

Mrs. Plato Durham was hostess to furnished during the afternoon Misses Ethel Gray and Nellie Rose the Emery Club Tuesday and the oc-

Mrs. E. W. Gilliam and Mrs. J. served. Leon Adams received more than a hundred of their friends Wednesday afternoon from 4 to 5 and from 5 to 6 at the home of Mrs. Gilliam on South Broad street. This cory bungalow home was made more attractive | ter the games. by its elaborate decorations of carnations and roses in profusion and fea-toons of ferns. The handsomely-Harris, than whom there is no more rons, of which Mrs. Blenn is a mem ber, and the I. C. Club, of which Mrs. Dixon is a member. There were two receiving lines the Matrons with Mrs. Glenn in the parlor and the 1. C's with Mrs. Dixon in the sitting room.

Miss Sadle Tate, of Morganion

DUNN

Do not paries, but he on time. 18th. She institut ine Argoniums of And perchance you'll neet your Valenmen her, at her pretty home on Broad All who were so fortinate as to re-street for an evening of pleasure. Af-orive one of the above hearts avail-ter serving a delightful bunch of two-d themselves of the university avail-

Mis pope is one of Dunn's most will Diger long in the memory of ceiving party and served to each guest chocolate and sandwiches. During the evening most exquisite music was oncerning certain ones of the happy Trogdon rendered by Miss Janie Patterson at party.

Miss Parham then showed the couples out to the dining room, which was beautiful in its decorations, the bell color scheme being in lavender and white. A most delleious salad course casion was indeed pleasant and enjoy- was served, with chocolate and wafable. Delicious refreshments were ersafterwards. Valentines, most uniqu in their production were given each Those present were: Misses Kuest. The Euchre Club was entertained Meta Liles, Sadle Parham, Dixle by Mrs. John M. Craven Friday. The Hester, Margaret Cates, Marjorie prize was won by Miss Louise Means. Snell, May Summer, Idamale Yow, Dainty refreshments were served af-ter the games. Lillian Yow, Mamis Harris, Blanche Austin and Mayfield Cole, and Messrs. The Sorosis Club was sutertained and Jim Lambeth, Woolen, Martin. Saturday of last week by .... B. E. Ragan, Burgin and Dr. Easley.

Mrs. A. A. Springs, of Washington, throughout the home were suggestive N. C., is expected to urrive in Thom-of the valentine season and were most asville, Saturday, to visit Mrs. C. A. and Mrs. Gwyn Harper. considered very serious but It Mrs D. B. Coltrane left Tuesday Fletcher Cox leaves Friday for High r a week's visit to her daughter. Point, when she wil make her home

Mrs. D. A. Garrison, at Gastonia - with her father Mr. J. N. Pickett. Miss Blanche Boyd and little nephew. The meeting of the Tuesday After noon Book 11 b at the home of Mrs. John T. Cramer Tuesday afternoon ed their silver wedding at their home Saturday evening. The house was was one of the most pleasant of the season. The entire club always looks forward with great pleasure to the Correspondence of The Observer Mooreaville, Feb. 18 — One of the most pleasant social events of the sea-son was the reception given Frida; Afternoon from 4 to 6 oclock by Mesdames Pascal Boyd and George Mesdames Pascal Boyd and George han reading for Mrs. Kesler) a sketch Jones at the home of Mrs. Boyd on "Eastern Heights." This handsome bome was beautifully and artistically decorated with green ferns, potted plants and smilax. On entering the hall build was enjoyed by the club, as was hall little Miss Mildred Lones delinities. dress of silk mull over lavender taffeta three courses.

trimmed with valuace, and Mrs. Boyd. Sour knock. Call for your partners and we'll all meet Dunn. Feb 18.—Miss Mary Pope was becomingly attired in blue cloth trimmed in satin. In the dining room, meet The regular meeting of the ladies' The regular meeting of the ladies' the trimmed in satin. In the dining room, meet the root of the trimmed in satin. In the dining room, meet the root of the the trimmed in satin. In the dining room, meet the root of the trimmed in satin. The regular meeting of the ladies' the trimmed in satin. In the dining room, meet the root of the the trimmed in satin. The regular meeting of the ladies' the trimmed in satin. In the dining room, meet the root of the the trimmed in satin. The regular meeting of the ladies' the trimmed in satin. meet With Mrs. Horion on North First sheet Do not parket, but he on those, and we have And perchance soull meet sour Valen-in the Lorelels, of which she is a lorge electroller cast is soft red its a lighthoust in the time for the opening of the described with carnations intervaled in the base and a neat sum of $30. with asparagus fern. Mesdamics Mar-was realized. This society has done reditable work, having raised $177 Houston served a delicious said this year, and being only four years

WASHINGTON.

tions were read from the writings of Mrs. W. W. Gienn and Miss Ida Purs-Julia Ward Howe, Lousia M Alcott and ley. In the dining room, where a de-licious salad course was served, were then given paper in the dining room, where a de-licious salad course was served, were then given paper were discussed and books exchanged Af Mrs. Stifford, Mrs. J. H. artistically decorated in hyacinths, poem "An Old Sweetheart of Mine." Course was served, consisting of tur- have a State-wide reputation for lav-they surpassed all previous records. The guests were then given paper and pencil with which to show their baten biscuits and hot coffee, fol-lowed by ice cream, cake and mints. The lower floor of their pretty new The lower floor of their pretty new home was thrown open and with the lovely floral decorations and soft glow of numerous electric lights, Besides the members of the club those who enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Trogdon were Mesdames Charles Smoot, Gwyn Harper, John Thomas, of Winston, and F. D. Hackett, and made a beautiful setting for the "moving picture show" of fair women and Misses Angle Safford and Ella Campgallant men.

> Tuesday afternoon Mrs. W. E. Wal-Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Fintey enter-tained the Athena Book Club at their on was at home, with Mrs. E. W. Phifer, Mrs. Ernest Erwin and Mrs. I. S. handsome home at its last regular meeting. The author studied during Avery, as guests of honor. Misses Eva Walton and Lillian Avery receivthe evening was Charles Dickens, Interesting papers were read by Miss Ella Finley, Mrs. Arthur Finley and Mrs. Gwyn Harper. Delicious re-freshments were served. Those presed in the hall and ushered the guests into the parlor, where Mrs. Walton, assisted by Mrs. W. A. Leslie, present-ed them to the charming trio of brides. Mrs. Walton and Mrs. Leslie wore handsome white nţ, besides the members, wera Miss wore handsome white cloth suits. Mrs. Phifer was most becomingly at-Hyman, of Greensboro; Mrs. Louis tired in old rose silk, with garniture

Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smoot entertained a number fect ideal of the youthful bride, in of friends at an elegant 6 o'clock dinner. The table was resplendent trimmings of lace and pearls. Mrs. Erdinner. The table was respirated in the cen-with silver and cut glass and the cen-tropiece was red carnations and ferns. After the perfectly served meal, whist was played and the prize, a bunch of the decorations of pink and green and called the perfect of the server of the serve arnations, was presented to Mr. Wal- delicious ices and cake were served ter Horton. The invited guests were by Misses Eloise Erwin, Julia Er-Misses Rudisill and Crist; Messrs. win and Florence McKesson and Ma-Walter Horton and Henry Blair, Mr. ry B. Presnell.

A valentine party was given by the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Thursday Mrs. D. C. Pearson gave an elegant six-course luncheon, Cards were laid for eight, and church Tuesday night over the Depos-it and Savings Bank. A silver offer-ing was taken at the door and a nice sum was realized. C. A. Ross, Mrs. W. H. Johnston, Mrs. G. P. Erwin, Mrs. W. H. Allen, hurch Tuesday night over the Depos-Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Myers celebrat- Mrs. Hobbie and Mrs. Innes.

One of the most beautiful social events of the season was the valentine bridge party given by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Chaffee Saturday even-ing, February 13th. They had taken here this sesson. A large number of cupid as a partner and with such an handsome silver articles were received. ally who can wonder at the bewitching charms of their united efforts. The pretty cottage home was a blaze of light and the soft radiance fell on crimson hearts, of every size hung in most artistic fashion on doors, above windows and adorning walls and manwhom he had alwards of the tele. Mrs. Center and Myers. Miss Brown was hostess at a brilliant recep-tion given in honor of Mr. William Gil-haw been and Miss Olive Grey. In the partor the guests were received by Mrs. Center and very interest-they were cordially greeted by Mrs. Dick Templeton and Miss Olive Grey. In the partor the guests were received ing description of the trip. Mrs. Cra-by Mrs. Jones, who wore a lovely ing description of the trip. Mrs. Cra-dress of silk mull over lavender taffeta the courses. society no more notable event is recorded valentine verse and must find a mate than this Beautifully gowned women with the other half. When wested at and men in evening dress, of Lexington the tables, the fair jansless gave each and various nearby towns, attended the one a lovely hand-painted score card, reception in numbers, two hundred and After a very enjoyable game it was fity invitations having been issued. The found that Mrs. Stephen Frisard had hotel was a blaze of light and the rooms were artistically decorated. Little Misses Frances Holt Montcastle "something to beat with." Delicious block ice cream and cake were served and the happy guests departed regretparlor Mrs. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. ting that valentine day comes but once

ELIZABETH CITY.

The german was led by Mr.

with

W. T. Old, with his bride, who was Miss Margaret Hanes, of Winston-Salem, assisted by Mr. Frank V. Scott with Miss Nellie Smith, of Ports-artistically decorated in tinsel and a During the projusion of flowers. During the evening more than a hundred and fifty friends called. This was one of the most elaborate functions given LEXINGTON. Correspondence of The Observer. Lexington, Feb. 18-Last Friday night

Wilson and Mr. Armour.

were artistically decorated. Little Misses Frances Holt Montcastle and Dorothy Mendenhall received cards at the head of the stairs, while in the Brown, Mr and Mrs B. H. Finch, and a year. Miss Margaret Graves received the guests. In the spacious hallway Misses amille Hunt, of Lexington, and Anna Brown and Bessie Henry, of Winston-Salem, graciously served the punch.

Mrs Luther Stark entertained the Parker, Miss Nena DeBerry with S. was the game enjoyed by the guesta of Ansonville, with H. A. Scott, Miss The club pin was won by Mrs. Thomas, Alice Maury with T. C. Rivers, Miss L. Booth, and the star pin by Miss Lena Spinks with S. H. Kluttz, Miss Nette Gregory. Elegant refreshments, Margaret Call with Clyde Hostan, were served and dainty score cards in E. W. Joyner and Mr. and Mrs. Hor-Dutch design were presented to the form

Mrs. Dr. B. K. Hays entertains the hours for departing arrived and ed at bridge during the past weik all vote the evening as one of the Score-cards in valentine design we're most pleasant spent in the city for The in ... the entire season presented to the guests. ourr' play in this favorite game was greatly enjoyed, after which elegant refreehments were served.

Miss Matthe Ruskerellie, of Rich mond, Va, and Miss Borden, of Maxion, Feb. 18 --The Editform Goldsbore, are visiting Miss Margaret Currin on High street.--Mis ( G ) Elliott has gone to New York (IV) with her artistic tasts it pocked as r ers of the Duan graded school and Currin on High street.—Miss (~ G Elliott has gone to New York (Uty to visit relatives —Miss Leah Perry has returned to Henderson after the ting friends in Oxford —Mrs. Percy Mongomery has retarded to her Mongomery has retarded to her home in Lexington, Va —Mrs E R Ballou is visiting heriglighters in Darville, Va —Miss Southe Taylor at-tended the dance and recetton at Chaptel Hill Erislay night—Mrs. 8 W, Cooper, of Excetteville, has Te-turned home after visiting relatives

A reception, elaborate in every Miss It D. Croom, less skilled, normanner and elegant in ministest dei divint, with the guidance of her tall, was given to Mr and Mrs A. A poncil than with experience from Chapman Saturday atternion in hon- Unputs darts, received the bools, a Untrespondence of The Observer or of Mrs Frank H Gregory. The Unhaltime bride and groom, standing. Concord, Feb. 18.--It would or of Mrs Frank H Gregory. The innumber of the first shared penwiper. Each field to imagine a more pleasant oc-Lucy Landle and readed in the batt guest than drew from a red heart, num-by Mrs N Hillman Cannad. The shared how a little red heart, num-fered and they were mained for a grow of Mrs A A. Chapman Mrs R. receiving parts in the partial consist-ed of Mrs A. A. Chapman Mrs R. O. Gregory, Mrs F. H. Gregory, Mrs. Josiah Cannady, Miss Leah Per-Receiving in the Ultrack were T. Lanter Mrs. H. " Wolf Miss Mrs T Fannle Gregory, serving at the punch bowl were Mrs. D. A. Bonitz of Chicago, and Miss Bennet Gregory the dining room, where one hundred wax candles shed softest light amid iscorations of cut flowers and palms a salad course was served. in daintlest style, by Misses Janet Gregory, Annie Crews and Julia Winston served.

Brown Milean.

ASHEBORO.

Correspondence of The Observer Ashebory, Feb. 18 .- Among the most delightful of the social affairs of the season are numbered the last two meetings of the Bandolph Book Club On January at the home of Mrs. Sloan on York 22th Mrs. H. E. Mofflitt was hostess and street. last Saturday afternoon the club had for the hall, parlor and dining room conits hostess Mrs. Elljah Mofflitt This besisted of carnations with ferns and St. Valentine's eve when all minds turn heartward, the guests were delight-this already well-appointed home. Re-ed to find themselves ushered into beau-osiving with Mrs. Sloan and Mrs. tiful rooms gaily decorated in red hearts. Swan elub programme, which was a trane, of Concord; David A. Garrison, The very interesting one, was thoroughly en-

Mrs Luther Stark entertained the Parker. Miss Nena LoBerry with S Social Club Juring the past week in D. Arrowood, Miss Dera Dry with a most enjoyable manner. Eachire R. Latl. Miss Minute Lon Dunlap, was the game enjoyed by the guests. of Ansonvule, with H. A Scott, Miss of Ansonvule, with H. A Scott, Miss

Many expressions of delight were ing of the possible history of each untaining topics to be used were distributed, those received by the men being in violets and those by the latiles in maiden-hair fern. The histories were made by suggestive clip-pings from magazines. The club colpings from magazines. violet and green, were carried out in the refreshments.

On the afternoon of February 13th Falls.

W. Cooper, of Exvertexille, has termine seen followed Mrs Vernon Lites read an interesting second of the tie, with Miss Harper coming out the winnady are at home from their bridat tour.
Miss Mary E Williams gave as charming indee parts Weinsday and then Mrs C E from charming in homor of her sister Mrs Dudies and Mrs. J. W Tanady
A reception elaborate in every

CONCORD. hed Concord, Feb. 18 .- It would be difdainty little boxos, fied with red rin-bon which held artful little clupids in Wedgewood favors. A delightful solad course and bontions were then served This was a valen-

Besides the regular members of the The study of American universities The study of American university interesting the articles found in the owner and interesting the following were guests and university cities engaged the in-the study of American university cities in the articles found in the owner are the gold wishbone was given each as a souvenir. Greene and J W. McLanghiln, of sponded to with some fact about the club meets next with Miss Fan-American institutions. An interesting nie Louise Neal.

r Bennettsville S. C. Mattle Wiswall, raper on "Boston, the Birthplace of the Nation," was read by Mrs. S. W. Williams, and an entertaining article on "Harvard University" was read by Mrs W. R. Harris, followed by the Correspondence of The Observer.

"Lesson Reviews" by Mrs. R. S. Thomasville, Feb. 18.—Last Mon-Wheeler. An attractive feature of the day evening the Thomasville Plotet, programme was a guessing contest, brilliantly lighted, was the scene of Jumbled Universities," and to Mrs. much merriment and enjoyment for Permberton was given the prize, a gold, the young peope of the town, with heart-shaped pin. Mrs. Stephens Misses Liles and Parham as hostesses. drew the booby, a red valentine. A St. Valentine was remembered and most elegant iuncheon was served at the bright red hearts made approthe close of the meeting. The guests, printe decorations. During the first besides the members, were Misses of the evening the crowd was delight-Kathryn Krueger, of Charlotte, and ed to hear Miss Sumner sing.

potted plants, which added beauty to Annie Burkhead, of Manning, S. C. A decidedly pleasant affair was the valentine perty at the home of Mrs. told of her first love. It is always a W. D. Pemberton Monday evening, given by the Golden Links of Central M. E. church. Aside from the social good as she same "Tou Give Me Your were Mrs. Kirby, Mrs. Coul-T. W. Wilson, H. M. Eddleman. In Frilay evening, February 12th, at the nome of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Clir. bearts The ortee a local basis of dice residence was prettily decorated in Clinard and Mrs.

Misses Clara Mills, Ruth Brawley, Carey Whson, Audrey Kennett, Dalsy Yates, Eloise Hawthrone, Mary Smith, Mary Shout. Johnsle Rankin Bell Many expressions of delignt were person present. Numbered booklets McNeely, Ella Cornelius, Lena Howand, Voltie Sarratte, Bert Neil, Mary J Shulenberger, Lottle Beaty, Mesers. John Rankin, Gus Leazer, Ernest Mills, Fred Freeze, Jay Shulenberger, Arthur Miller, Coward Johnston Frank Lowrance, Roy McNeely, Guyn Johnston, Mack Deaton, Fred Hymes Deaton, Pelham Cloniger, Edgar Me-Neely, Davies McLelland, Harvey

LAURINBURG.

Laurinburg, Feb. 18 .- Tuesday Miss

Mes

Misu

Virgie Streater was at home to the Elizabeth Browning Book Club, Besides the club members, the following dames Lula Clayton, Maud McIntosh,

Miss Lizzie Dowdy. "The Origin of St. Valentine" was read by Miss

Grace Gill, after which Misses Annie

Rose, Roberta Cobb and Em Wash-

As this was a valentine meeting, a ington Gill read valentine selections.

heart contest was very appropriate.

drawn on the board as hearts. Mrs. Maud Mcintosh received a lovely gold stick pin for drawing the most per-

The guests were then shown into the dining room, where Miss Streater had beautifully decorated the table and room in red hearts, to remind the guests of St. Valentine. Delicious re-freshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Misses Betty Mc-

Stroater then brought in a large white cake, which she said was a valentine cake, and desired each guest to find her fortune by cutting a slice.

There followed much merriment over

THOMASVILLE.

Dougald and Roberta Coble.

fect.

M. Hubbard, W. H. Cooper and

Correspondence of The Observer.

named guests were present:

by the hostess and little Roth Lutz, lie Hargrave, and Tillie Haughton pre-Those present on this occasion were sided over the punch bowl. After sided over the punch bowl. After the game dainty and delicious refreshments were served by Olive Burbank, Isabelle Carter and Winnifred Nicholson. The game played was six handed euchre and Mrs. Moore, winning the first prize, was presented with a handsome pair of slik hose, Miss Julia Hoyt Moore was awarded the twenty-hand prize, a slik bag, the consolation failing to Mrs. Trenholm. Mrs. Packard proved charming hostess and the afternoon was thoroughly enjoyed by all the 25 guests who attended.

Mrs. E. W. Ayers was the charm-ing hostess at her home on Market street last Friday evening at an informal reception given in honor of Miss Ann Whitiker, of Kinston, who is the guest of her nieces, the Misses The resi-Mayo, on Second street. dence was brilliantly lighted and tastefully decorated in a color scheme of red and white. A number of old-fashioned games were indulged in by During the evening each the guests. Gaither and Miss Linda Clement. man was presented with a heart, with the name of some famous literary character discribed thereon, while while each lady was given a similar heart bearing the name of the wite of each The men found their character. The men found their partners and escorted them into the dining room, where dainty refreshments were served.

Each guest, while blindfolded, drew some home of Mr. John B. Sparrow served fruit gelatine, whipped cream on West Second street Misses Claudia and cake. her heart on a blackboard. St. Valentine would never have recognized some of the peculiar-shaped objects

McCullers, Ruth Pilson and Minnie Morrison were the hostesses at a de-At her home on Main street Thursday afternoon Mrs. Paschal Bradley lightful informal valentine reception. Each guest on entering was given a heart bearing a part of a quotation, while the other missing part was on the heart given to the lady guests, entertained the Thursday Afternoon Embroidery Club. The literary feature of the meeting's programme was presided over by Mrs. R. R. Anderion. The hostess, assisted by Mrs. thus completing his quota-nding the lady whose heart Stewart, served assorted fruits. tion by finding the lady bore it and she becoming his partner for the evening. Progressive heart dice was indulged in by the young people. Miss Emma Carter, making the highest number of points, was awarded the first prize, a handsome Christy picture entitled "Fisherman's tork," while the best prize a brok-Mrs. Mark Brown and little daugh-

Luck." while the booby prize, a brok-en heart, was awarded to Mr. B. G.

be given Thursday night by Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Hanes and the Z. Z. Z. Club reception by Miss Adelaide Galther have been postponed on ac-count of the death of little Regina taining their guests, while Master Thomas Sparrow kept the score. The evening proved a success in every way Sayre McGlamery.

MORGANTON.

Morganton, Feb. 18 .- Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Pearson entertained most delightfully on Monday evening in hon-or of Dr. and Mrs. E. W. Phifer, as genial host and gracious hostens at Rose Villa. Mr. and Mrs. Pearson

The entire house was dark-FLOWERS FOR REOUTHERN GARDENS.

GARDENS. Every flower lover should get the Dixie Garden Handbook. It is not a confusing catalogue, but an expert selection of Choice Builbs, Roses and chocolate was served by Misses Agnes Walters and Beatrice Mvers. During other Flowers, Shrubs, Trees and Fruits that are sure to succeed in the the evening progressive hearts was played. The first prize was presented famous women writers by Mrs. W. C. Hannon and Miss May McAllster, selec-enjoyable of the smaller dances this The out-of-rown guests were Mrs. E. C. Clinard and Mrs. B Brown, Misses Anna season. The german took place in Brown and Bessle Henry, and Messra, the Elks' Club parlors, which were William Brown, Rainey Burton and Frank Bailey, all of Winston-Salem; charmingly decorated for the occasion. Music was furnished by the Misses Margaret and Allie Graves, or Luthermann Orchestra. The number Carthage: Mrs. Estelle Stewart, of Monof visiting girls present added much pleasure and attractiveness to the oc-Misses roe > MOCKSVILLE. Correspondence of The Observer.

Mocksville, Feb. 18 .-- Mrs. John with Miss Stewart was hostess to a number of mouth, Va. her friends at a "cat" party Saturday afternoon. A most interesting list of questions to be answered with words HOW TO HAVE A BEAUTIFUL whose first syllable represented a fel-

Sarah Gaither, Miss Adelaide

YARD. ine was given each guest. Miss Sarah If you want your yard gay Gaither won first prize, a cat picture dainty, fragrant Roses and other flowers this year, get the Dixie Gard-den Handbook. It tells just what daintily framed, and Mrs. Barber was presented the second prize, a hand kinds to plant in Southern Gardens. mirror. The hostess served delicious cream and cake. Those present were: Write for it to-day. It is free for the asking. We tell you just how to grow everything you buy of us. Ad-dress Chattanooga Nurseries, 102 Mrs. King, Mrs. Z. N. Anderson, Mrs. R. P. Anderson, Mrs. R. N. Barber, Mrs. LeGrande, Mrs. Spencer Hanes, Mrs. Bradley, Mrs. Kirk; Miss Sallle Mission Ridge, Chattanooga, Tenn. Hanes, Miss Ruth Booe, Miss Leonora Taylor, Miss Battle, Miss Alice Lee casion.

SECURITY

is peace of mind, it is comfort in the home. But are you secure against the sudden attacks of pneumonia, croup, colds, inflammation and congestion 2 There is no security against these without a bottle of GOW-AN'S PNEUMONIA PREP. ARATION. It stands for peace and comfort in the home. External, quickly absorbed. All druggists. $1.00 to 25c.

DOES YOUR WAIST NEED CLEANING?

We have made the dry cleaning of waists-especially fancy net or other elaborate creations-an art.

We clean them so perfectly that they really appear new when we finish them. The cloth is freshened, the colors brightened, - the -- spots and wrinkles all removed and the walst given a perfect pressing.

D

It is returned to you sweet, clean and free from odor. It costs but a small sum, and will be long remembered by all who were their guests.

each man

NORTH WILKESBORD. Correspondence of The Observer.

North Wilkesboro, Feb. 18 .-- The Thursday Afternoon Book Club was delightfully entertained last week by Mrs. W. F. Trogdon at her beautiful home. ened and lighted only by the soft glow of many candles. The parlors were Miss Hester read an interesting padecorated in palms, ferns and white carnations. In the front hall hot per on St. Valentine. In her usual carnations.

Correspondence of The Observer.

bright and witty way Miss Johnson er, of Asheville, are the guests of Miss Adelaide Gaither. Moss. After the game dainty refresh-ments were served the guests. Mrs. J. B. Sparrow and Mrs. V. M. Har-grave assisted the hostesses in enter-The masquerade party that was to

Miss Alice Lee entertained a number of her friends Monday afternoon at her home in south Mocksville.

Miss Marie Allison entertained the Z. Z. Z. Club Tuesday afternoon at her home in South Mocksville. Nations, the club's favorite game, was the feature of amusements. Miss Sarah Miler was the fortunate winner of the club prize, a jewelry case, and to Mrs.

