COTTON MARKET.

New York, Feb. 23.—Gaiveston: Tone New York, Feb. 23.—The cotton market easy; middling 94; net receipts 13,714; was more active to-day with the close 'easy at a net decline of 11 to 18 points. The market opened steady at a decline of 1 point to an advance of 2 points, near menths being relatively easy, owing to lower cables, while lace positions felt the Savannah: Tone quiet; middling %; net effect of continued dry weather in the receipts 1,814; gross receipts 1,814; stock Southwest and good trade accounts from the West. Immediately following the fail prices worked a point or two higher than 45; gross receipts 45; stock 21.330. last week's close, but there was no snap the market became weak under talk of sasier spots, unconfirmed rumors of rain in the Southwest, and selling by Wall Street which was supposed to be for the account of people interested in both stocks and cotton, and who had found it necessary to reduce commitments, owing to the weakness of the stock market. Stop loss orders were uncovered on the decline and while there was active buying the demand seemed to come chiefly from shorts with last prices at practicelly the lowest level of the day. The South was a seller here during the middle ses-sion which had a tendency to color the rumors for easier spots and the Southern spot markets officially reported were unchanged to % cent lower, while exporters' limits were said to be generally % cent lower. The New Orleans market was closed for the day but will be re-opened for business to-morrow. Sales, futures, etc., estimated at 200,000.

Receipts at the ports to-day 20,980, against 25,827 last week and 24,845 last year. For the week 140,000 bales, against 140,941 last week and 121,066 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans (not in) against 9,268 last year, and at Houston 5,970, against 5,773 last year.

STOCK MARKET.

New York, Feb. 23.-Suspicion and distrust of the speculative position in the stock market spread with rapid growth te-day and brought the fabric of values down with a crash. The conviction was quick in forming after the throwing open of the steel market to competition last week, that the stock market position was an artificial one and had been brought about by false assumptions of the trade accentuate the weakness to-day, and it gained cumulative force. London sent very heavy selling orders to the New York market for execution as soon as trading began, and this helped the downward rush of prices which began after the opening.

A new set of weakening factors came in the inferences drawn from the reconvening of the Supreme Court at Washington. Decisions were handed down against the New York Central for rebatirg, and the speculative element, for reasons which a lawyer might not follow. jumped to the conclusion that a later decision would uphold the constitutionality of the commodities clause of the Hepburn law and so constrain the anthracite railroads to get rid of their mining properties. Another weak group of stocks was found in the minor railroads that have been exploited for rapid advances on assumptions of mergers or benefits to accrue from their purchase by larger systems. Of the steel trade position the speculative contingent was disposed to take the gloomiest view. There was only a slight check when the room shorts took the day's profits; but the last break of the day was the most demoralized seen throughout, and closed prices at the lowest. Reading sold as low as 118, a loss for the day of 10% points, Upited States Steel sold down to 41% and closed at the lowest, a loss in price since Saturday of were off from 3 to over 6 points for all the active stocks. Bonds were weak. Total sales par val-

Hubbard Bros. & Co.'s Cotton Letter. Special to The Observer.

New York, Feb. 23 .- To the liquidation of the past few days was added to-day the selling by the customers of Wall Street houses of the cotton which they have been holding in anticipation of a revival in the demand from spinners. Spinners, however, are not find-ing any demand for yarns, either here or in Manchester, and while cloth is in fair demand, it is not as active as in December, partly due to timidity of all enterprises pending the revi-sion of the tariff and partly to the fear that the breakdown in the steel situation will, for the moment, cur-tail business. For one of these reasous, there was a continued liquidation from the opening to the close, which was steady at lowest prices for this crop. We do not believe Liverpool will decline as much as expected in the morning-

Chicago train and Provisions. Chicago, Feb. 23.-Wheat for May delivery sold here to-day at 716% per bushel, a gain of % cent compared with the former high record mark for the season, established last Saturday. The advance was the climax of a day of extreme activity in the wheat pit. At the close prices showed a net gain for the day of a shade to % cents.
