THE REALM OF NORTH CAROLINA SOCIETY!

SALISBURY.

Correspondence of The Observer.

Salisbury, Feb. 25 .- The reception given on Washington's Birthday by the Daughters of the American Revolution at the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. W. McKenzie was a brilliant affair and exceedingly enjoyed by the eighty or more invited guests. house was effectively decorated with red carnations and red roses, making a striking background for the beautifully gowned women who thronged its handsome rooms. A delightful musical programme was one of the features of the afternoon. Such well-known musicians as Miss Govelykontz, Miss Julia Crouch, Mra S. H. Wiley, Mrs. McCall, Mrs. D. M. Miller, Mrs. John Whitehead and Mr. Nelson Taylor contributed greatly to the pleasure and success of the entertainment. The guests were met in the reception hall by Mrs. M. C. Quinn and Mrs. R. L. Mauney. Those in the receiving line were: Mesdames W. W. McKenzie, J. P. Moore, D. F. Cannon, Edwin Overman Edwin Gregory, Andrew Buford and Mrs. John Van Landingham, of Charlotte, State regent and the guest of honor on this occasion. Miss Jennie Buford, of Winston, and Miss Cordelia Phifer. of Charlotte, were also honored guests of the Daughters, Mrs. N. P. of Charlotte, were Murphy, Miss Janet Quinn and Miss Nannie Buford presided at the punch bowl, while Mrs. Richard Henderson, Miss Mary Smith and Mrs. George Fisher received the guests in the dining room, where ices, cakes, bonbons and salted almonds were served.

Another charming entertainment on Washington's Birthday was the bridge party given by Miss Mary Ramsay in honor of her house guest, Miss Helen at a vectine party last Tu Brem, of Charlotte. Sixteen interest-ed guests engaged in the game and winners were announced. Mrs. J. D. Carleton receive the first prize, a bunch of love' red carnations, Miss Mary Hende on, the consolation, a box of cryst dised red cherries. Miss box of cryst dised red cherries. Miss Mrs. Estelle English, of Monroe, served punch in the sitting room, while Mr. and Mrs. Watson, Miss Ellen Watson, Miss Bessie Henry and Miss Crawford Smith received the guests. at its close the names of the prize winners were announced. Mrs. J. D. propriate to the occasion, the second course consisting of charlotte russe topped with red cherries and served in continental hats. The score cards were decorated with red cherries and tastened on with pins in the shape:

Miss Mary Henderson was hostess at a delightful bridge party Saturday evening in Miss Brem's honor. In addition to the hostess and her guest of honor those present were: Misses Mary Ramsay, Sallie Barlowe, Rosalte Harnhardt Kathleen Kluttz Messrs. D. Griswold, Gilbert Hambley, Arthur Frazier, Arnold Snider, June

Mrs. Robert Lee Mauney entertained most delightfully Thursday afternoon, her guests being the members of the Thursday Afternoon Bridge Club and a number of her other bridge-playing friends. The game is the fortunate possessor of the highest score. She was accordingly presented with the prize, an extremely pretty pink sachet, Mrs. Mauney served most refreshments. The first delicious course consisted of quait on toast, pattles of green peas, hot beaten bisuit and tea, the second of plum pudding and wine sauce.

Miss Annie Kizer was the gracious hostess to the Wednesday Afternoon Bridge Club this week and to eight additional guests, all of whom spent Friday evening the Chafing Dish Club was charmingly entertained by Miss Rosalle Bernhardt at her home East Inniss street. After a very entertaining game of bridge, Miss Bernhardt invited her guests into the dining room, where a delicious chafing dish supper was served.

The Salisbury Book Club held its first meeting of the new series of books with Mrs. Theodore F. Kluttz This series prom-Tuesday afternoon. ses to be one of the most interesting and instructive ever enjoyed by Notable among the new "Blackstick books are the following: Papers," by Anne Thackery Richie; "Chateau and Country Life in France," Madame Waddington: "The Charles Technique of the Novel," "A Chronicle of Friendship," Will Low, "The Explorer," William Somerset Manghagu: "Halfway House," Maurier Hewlitt, "The Higher Life in Art," John Le Farge.

At the meeting of the Christian Reid Book Clair, with May Edward Cassary

Book Club with Mrs. Edwin Gregory Thursday afternoon, new books were selected and this club is also looking forward to a most interesting six

Mrs. Waverly Strachan was charming hostess to "Le Bas de Sole" Bridge Club and to a number of other chosen friends Friday afternoon. The after noon was most enjoyable and when the game was ended and scores were counted it was found that Miss Mary Smith was again the possessor of the op score. She was presented with the first prize, a pretty silver bodkin set. Miss Julia Crouch received the guest's prize for the highest score, a bunch of andsome carnations. Tempting and delicious refreshments were served.

Miss Mary Smith was hostess to "Le Bas de Sol" Bridge Club Tuesday morning and this last meeting before Lent proved to be one of the most delightful in the history of the Mrs. Frank Robbins won the first prize, a pair of lovely black silk stockings. Mrs. Edward W. Burt won the guest's prize, a pretty potted delicious luncheon lant. A

The many Salisbury friends of Miss Nancy Johnson, of Birmingham, Ala., will be interested to hear of her approaching marriage to Dr. Shry, prominent Canadian banker. Johnson, who is a daughter of Gen. and Mrs. R. D. Johnson, is noted for her beauty and personal charms, and

Mrs. Archibald H. Boyden daughter, Miss Jane, left Sunday night for an extended visit to friends in Philadelphia. They went via Nor-folk in order to be present at Hampton Roads to witness the home coming of the fleet. The Sans Souci Club celebrated Washington's Birthday with Mrs. Charles E. Stevenson at the home of Mrs. I. H. Forest on South Main street. Each guest was blindfolded and was given a pair of scissors with which to snip cherries from a diminutive tree. Great merriment ensued as most of the blindfolded ones snip-Great merriment ensued ped only the empty air. The latest fad, and a most fascinating one, picure puzzles, engaged the attention of Mrs. Stevenson's guests for the remainder of the afternoon. Mrs. Wetpicture first, was presented with the prize, a hatchet tied with red, white and blue ribbon. Ices were served in tiny cocked hats and bunches of artificial cherries were the charming souvenirs. The guests of honor were: Misses Sadle and Mena Davis and Miss Eugenia Harris. Miss Harris. who is a member of the club, came over from Greensboro especially for this occasion.

LEXINGTON.

Correspondence of The Observer.

Lexington, Feb. 25.-Miss Ellen at a velertine party last Tuesday even-ing at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Waten on Sensa Main street in honor of Miss besste Henry, of Winston-Crawford Smith received the guests in the hall. Mrs. Joe Thompson and Miss Pearle Moffitt directed the way to the dining room, where an elegant wo-course collation was served. Prizes for the best original valentines were won by Mr. Archie Dorsett and Miss. Burkhead, of Concord.

Mrs. W. H. Mendelhall in her usual charming and hospitable manner enest score and was presented with a bunch of palma violets. The hostess served a delightful three was presented with a bunch of palma violets.

ed by Mrs. Hartman. After an interesting contest in nations the club prize was won by Mrs. H. S. Radliffe, while the visitor's fell to Miss Gregory, of Lancaster, S. C. ous refreshments consisting of salads nd frozen cream were greatly en-

Miss Arline Trice was hostess to the Hospital. Round Dozen Club on Thursday af- were served. Instead of playing the popular game of nations Miss Trice had Nicholson, J. B. Foster and Miss Octa arranged a pleasant diversion in the Brandon. orm of a literary programme. Ineresting papers were prepared and read on the following nations "Ameri-ca," Mrs. W. H. Mendenhall, "Africa," diss Gertrude Hamner, which was rhyme, Miss Hamner having a deided poetic turn of mind; "Asia," portant part, contributing the afternoon.

Last Friday Mrs. W. H. Dorsett and ner sister, Miss Lena Sheely, charm-ngly entertained complimentary to Miss Bessie Henry, of Winston, who was the guest of Miss Ellen Watson. The first prize was won by Mrs. Percy. who presented it to a visitor, Miss Jennie Brown, of Sallsbury. Second prize was won by Miss Dell Grimes, sachet. The guest of honor, Miss Henry, was given a box of confections. dies. A three-course luncheon followed the the punch room, was in red, with red game.

ner of the club prize, who presented it to Miss Luna Thompson, of Salis-fine. Miss Camille Hunt gave an interesting reading on the subject and Mrs. W. H. Mendenhall also had one their return, Mesdames C. M. Wood Mrs. Robert Currence.

Delicious punch was served by Mrs. on "Drudgery Idealized." After feast- and L. White ushered them into in the re- in the parior, where stood in the re- D. M. Jones, while the salad course ed a three-course collation attesting and the parior, where accomplishments in the ceiving line Mesdames G. E. French, anew her accomplishments in the W. M. Robbins, B. F. Long and R. N. culinary arts. Beautiful cut flowers decorated the rooms. Mrs. Menden a handsome smoke gray messaline saturation and T. L. Craig. Ires and cakes were the party added greatly to the even-served by Mrs. T. W. Wilson, Mrs. Eming's enjoyment with splendid muserved by Mrs. T. W. Wilson, Mrs. Eming's enjoyment with splendid muserved by Mrs. T. W. Wilson, Mrs. Eming's enjoyment with splendid muserved by Mrs. T. W. Wilson, Mrs. Eming's enjoyment with splendid muserved by Mrs. T. W. Wilson, Mrs. Eming's enjoyment with splendid muserved by Mrs. T. W. Wilson, Mrs. Eming's enjoyment with splendid muserved by Mrs. T. W. Wilson, Mrs. Eming's enjoyment with splendid muserved by Mrs. T. W. Wilson, Mrs. Eming's enjoyment with splendid muserved by Mrs. T. W. Wilson, Mrs. Eming's enjoyment with splendid muserved by Mrs. T. W. Wilson, Mrs. Eming's enjoyment with splendid muserved by Mrs. T. W. Wilson, Mrs. Eming's enjoyment with splendid muserved by Mrs. T. W. Wilson, Mrs. Eming's enjoyment with splendid muserved by Mrs. T. W. Wilson, Mrs. Eming's enjoyment with splendid muserved by Mrs. T. W. Wilson, Mrs. Eming's enjoyment with splendid muserved by Mrs. T. W. Wilson, Mrs. Eming's enjoyment with splendid muserved by Mrs. T. W. Wilson, Mrs. Eming's enjoyment with splendid muserved by Mrs. T. W. Wilson, Mrs. Eming's enjoyment with splendid muserved by Mrs. T. W. Wilson, Mrs. Eming's enjoyment with splendid muserved by Mrs. T. W. Wilson, Mrs. Eming and Mrs. decorated the rooms. Mrs. Menden-hall's guests, aside from the regular members, were: Mesdames J. H. Greer, Jacob Leonard, C. C. Hargrave, J. Nowell, of Roxboro; Misses Jennie and Lila Brown, of Salisbury Burkhead, Gregory, Neille Trice, Deadrick, guests and members of the Wednesday Afternoon Club were most graciously D. A. Miller, William Wallace and occasion, and the aftair was in every entertained by Mrs. Dermot Shemwell H. O. Steele served the punch durather home on South Main street. It ing the afternoon. Miss Rose Steph.

casion was in every way a most enjoyable one.

Miss Kathleen Kluttz will entertain the Wednesday Afternoon Bridge Club Friday afternoon.

of crimson carnations and silver canguests were served to delicious cream applause, as did also the solo by Mr. ing at the residence of Mrs. J. L. Armfield.

Miss Liewellyn, Mrs. Roach and Mrs. Marshall Hoover gave of the guests and the general feeling of freedom from formality made this bury; here also delicious punch was an occasion long to be remembered.

The cut for consolation was made by Mrs. Armfield.

Mrs. D. B. Coultrane has returned to the solo by Mr. Armfield.

Mrs. D. B. Coultrane has returned an elegant dinner last Monday in bone of Mrs. Armfield.

Mrs. D. B. Coultrane has returned an elegant dinner last Monday in bone of Mrs. Armfield.

Mrs. D. B. Coultrane has returned an elegant dinner last Monday in bone of Mrs. Armfield.

Mrs. D. B. Coultrane has returned an elegant dinner last Monday in bone of Mrs. Armfield.

Mrs. D. B. Coultrane has returned an elegant dinner last Monday in bone of Mrs. Armfield.

Mrs. D. B. Coultrane has returned an elegant dinner last Monday in bone of Mrs. No. Ped. With yellow ribbons. The booby, and Mrs. Ped. With yellow ribbons, the little will be and cake. The handsome gowns, the beautiful rooms, the life and gately of the guests were served to delicious cream applause, as did also the solo by Mr. Armfield.

Mrs. D. B. Coultrane has returned an elegant dinner last Monday in bone of Mrs. No. Ped. With yellow ribbons. The booby, and was presented to her daughter, Mrs. Ped. With yellow ribbons, the little will be and cake. The handsome gowns, the beautiful rooms, the life and gately of the guests were served to delicious cream applause, as did also the solo by Mr. Armfield.

Mrs. D. B. Coultrane has returned an elegant dinner last Monday in bone of Mrs. Armfield.

Mrs. D. B. Coultrane has returned an elegant dinner last Monday in bone of Mrs. Armfield. served. The score cards were in keeping with the occasion, the picture on the cards telling the same old story of Washington and his hatchet. After an interesting and spirited game the prizes were announced. The club prize, a brass jardiniere, fell to Mrs. J. F. Deadrick; the consolation, a bring of several days to her daughter, Mrs. D. A. Garrison.—Mrs. J. P. Stowe and Miss Nan Ward, of Charlotte, attended the reception of Mrs. L. N. Glenn and Mrs. A. M. Dixon on last Friday.—Dr. J. G. Waldrop and little Miss Alline and Master George Hoover.

J. F. Deadrick; the consolation, a bring of several days to her daughter, Mrs. D. P. Stowe and Miss Nan Ward, of Charlotte, attended the reception of Mrs. L. N. Glenn and Mrs. A. M. Dixon on last Friday.—Dr. J. G. Waldrop and little Miss Alline and Master George Hoover.

J. F. Deadrick; the consolation, a bring of slik hose, was given to Miss. After the games of a pair of slik hose, was given to Miss able to a George Washington anniverage and of the consolation, a work of silk hose, was given to Miss able to a George Washington anniverage were played. The score cards bore the wheel, the emblem of the D. A. R. society. Mrs. William Wallace with pine bought, the emblem of the D. A. M. Dixon on last Friday.—Dr. J. G. Waldrop and little daughter, Mrs. A. M. Dixon on last Friday.—Dr. J. G. Waldrop and little Miss Alline and Master George Hoover.

The regular meeting of the "T. M." Club was held Wednesday afternoon at the residence of Misses Idamale and Lillian Yow on North Main stréet. The afternoon was spent with the aft graded school, the teachers of the Leet, Eleanor I Female College, and a few friends. Martha Moore. The out-of-town guest was Miss Mor-ing, of Ashehoro. A number of progressive games were played in which Mrs. J. O. Purnell received the prize, and presented it to Miss Mor-Dainty refreshments were served and the evening was one of great the hospitable home of Mrs. J. A.

The Round Dozen Club was entertained at its last meeting by Mrs.
S. B. Miller, when a most pleasant afternoon was spent in fascinating handiwork. The special guests were: Mesdames Robert Johnston and Hugh Cowles, and Miss Carrie Hoffman. Delicious refreshments brought the evening to a close.

Miss Lillian Morrison was hostess at a George Washington party to the teachers of the graded school and the teachers of the college last Friday night in honor of her friend, Miss Minnie Fields, of Greensboro. A number of progressive games, appropriate to a Washington celebration, were played. Miss Margaret Scott won the first prize. Miss Fields was the first prize to the firs On Monday afternoon of last week presented with the guest of honor the life of Brigham Young read a letter charming and hospitable manner entertained at bridge the following-named ladies: Mesdames E. C. Clinard. of Winston; Brantley Finch, Gilliam Brown, G. W. Montcastle, J. F. Desdrick, W. E. Holt, Jr., Joe H. Thompson, Misses Camille Hunt, Margaret Graves, of Carthage, Anna Brown, of Winston; Edith Greer and Miss Deadrick, of Clarksville, Teffn. Miss Camille Hunt received the highest score and was presented with a Dorman Thompson. A most enjoyven was bestowed the booby, a large stick of red, white and blue striped candy. A delicious said course with coffee, etc., was served. The guests, outside of the superintendent and principal of the superintendent and principal of the graded school and the control of the guests. To the guests of Mrs. Fox. one of the guests, Mrs. Bella Charles Chadwick, and Miss Helen loved. The first prize was given to

The Elcricemon was entertained by bridge-playing friends. The game is always of the greatest interest to its devotees but when, as on this occasion, a prize is to be played for, interest is quickened with absorption. At 5.3% ofciock time was called and it was found that Miss Mary Smith was for fortunate possessor of the highest for full of the delicious punch was served.

The Elcricemoh was entertained by Mrs. C.M. Steele at its last meeting in a new and novel manner. It was a George Washington party, and a number of Washington proposes for the guests in the hall they were different to the walls. Some Washington proposes of the highest for full of the excellency of her bread and rolls for fortunate possessor of the highest form when delicious punch was served.

The Elcricemoh was entertained by Mrs. C.M. Steele at its last meeting in a new and novel manner. It was a George Washington party, and a number of Washington proposition. At the guests in the hall they were different to the walls. Some Washington proposition are receiving the fortunate possessor of the highest for the excellency of her bread and rolls for bridge. Saurvaine.

The Elcricemoh was entertained by Mrs. C.M. Steele at its last meeting in a new and novel manner. It was a George Washington party, and a number of Washington proposition and prides herself and the fact that in the first table of the walls. Some Washington proposition are receiving the fortunate of the walls. Some Washington proposition and the fact that its and the I. Poston won the prize, a silver as for thimble. The ladies were then in- At the close of the literary hour Mrs. vited into another room where they R. B. Knox delightfully entersined those sent the comfort to the Billingsley Hospital. Delicious refreshments The especial guests were: Mesdames R. L. Poston, George

> Miss Mary Scott was hostess to the Entre Nous Club last week. In the playing of progressive games, Miss Moffatt won the prize. The club was delighted to have with it on this occaston, its last new member, Mrs. George Miss Gregory; "Europe," Mrs. S. E. Edward French. Other special guests were: Misses Moffatt and Black, t part, contributing in no of the college faculty. Tempting re-degree to the entertainment of freshments were served and brought to a close a delightful evening.

> > On Saturday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock, Mrs. B. F. Long was "at the character chosen for net in a home" to some hundred guests in that called forth much appliance honor of our latest bride, Mrs. George the maid, was well taken by Miss honor of our latest bride, Mrs. George Edward French. This elegant home, "Oakhurst." was resplendent with electric lights, shaded candles, beautiful flowers. The entrance hall and the parlor opening from it were adorned with pink carnations and pink, shaded electric lights and candies. The library, which was also the maid, was well taken by Miss Mamie Lyerly, while the citid, little Nellie, Miss Margaret Crowell, won all hearts For genuine fun and laughter the negro to be seen to be appreciated. The parts

to be seen to be appreciated. The parts to the school of the three tramps were well taken and of the three tramps were well taken and of the three tramps were well taken and of the whole play was very entoyable. The library, which was also shades, and red carnations. The den, in which the coffee was served was in. She wore a picture hat of gray, lined with pink and carried pink carnations. Mrs. Robbins were black grenadine; Mrs. Long, black net over nd Llia Brown, of Salisbury Burkead, Gregory, Nellie Trice, Deadrick, f Tennessee.

L. Pegram showed the guests to the punch room, where Mesdames A. C.
Quite a number of specially invited

Barron, A. J. Evans and A. L. Coble

and on leaving each guest was preand on leaving each guest was prethe booby, a hatchet filled with candy.

Lenoir College celebrated their eighhis life and Misses Sadle Parham and the 22d. The question debated was, prize, while Mrs. Goodman received the guest's prize.

West epigyable should adopt a system of next preand on leaving each guest was prebelong the Observer.

Hickory, Feb. 25.—The Chrestonion and Eurmenean Literary Societies of their eighhis life and Misses Sadle Parham and the 22d. The question debated was,
prize, while Mrs. Goodman received the guest's prize.

West epigyable and elaborate stained their eighhis life and Misses Sadle Parham and the 22d. The question debated was,
prize, while Mrs. Goodman received the guest's prize.

West epigyable and elaborate stained their eighhis life and Misses Sadle Parham and the 22d. The question debated was,
prize, while Mrs. Goodman received the guest's prize and prize and

NEWTON.

Newton, Feb. 25 Cm February the 18th Gaither was thrown open to receive the Thursday Book Club at its regular a number of interesting frems. With the study of the afternoon Salt the many beauties of this unique city and pieces.

Willforg read an amount of Cascade

Falls. The book under discussion during the afternoon was Aunt Jane, of Kentucky," by Eliza Calbert Hall, whose name is Mrs. Ellas Calbert O'Benchain. After giving several criticisms on the work, Mrs. Gaither read an interesting found a large comfort stretched upon the frame, ready for quilting. All be-which was followed by a recitation. "Burits frame, ready for quilting. All be-ing supplied with needles and thread, dock's Goat " by Mrs. Long which called the merry party fell to work with a forth peals of laughter. The sweet singwill, and in a short time the quilting ing of "in After Years When I Am Old." was finished. Mrs. Steele will prenoon's programme to a close.

Assisted by Miss Saille Fry the hostess served most enjoyable refreshments and all lingered long around the toldes.

The guests of the righ were Mrs J R. Gaither, Mrs. Belle Wilfong, Misses Annie Foard and Sallie Fry

Athenian Society of Catawba College, assisted by some of the young fadies, gave a very pretty little play in the college auditorium. The dear m's tribuistions were surely many and the hero's part was most excellently carried out by Mr. J. M. Peck. The mere fact that Miss Henrietta Killian was the descent's wife carries with it success for that old lady Her sister, Miss Mary Schneibley, acted the character chosen for her in a manner the maid, was well taken by Miss Mamte.

GASTONIA.

Tuesday Mrs. Elizabeth Hutchison also in red to correspond with its red was hostess to the Pleasure Club. Mrs. W. H. Mendenhall was the lucky winger of the club prize. Who present the correspondence of The Club respondence of The Club was in yellow. The table was very night the Gastonia Commercial Club respondence of the club prize. Miss Luna Thompson, of SalisVisitor's prize fell to Miss of Winston. The Washingwas carried out.

Was covered with a handentertained with its annual reception, which has come to be one of the principal occasions of the social season in tienry, of Winston. The Washing-ton idea was carried out very attrac-tively in both the score cards and delicious cream-color-tively in both the score cards are cards and delicious cream-color-tively in both the score cards are cards and delicious cream-color-tively in both the score cards are cards and delicious cream-color-tively in the score cards are cards and delicious cream-color-tively in the score cards tively in both the score cards and ed freezias—placed upon a round mirthe delightful refreshments served by ror. The chandelier and candles were festoons of ferns, carnations and roses, the dining room was itself perfestoons of ferns, carnations and roses, the dining room was itself percovered with yellow shades. Beneath In the receiving line were the officers feet the centre of the chandelier was tied and members of the board of gover-The Club of Twelve met with Mrs. W. H. Mendenhall on last Wedness day afternoon and a most profitable and interesting meeting it proved to be. The subject chosen for this occasion was "Home Economics." At roll-call each member responded with a famous recipe. Mrs. C. A. Hunt's paper on "Home" was exceptionally fine. Miss Camille Hunt gave an in-The Club of Twelve met with Mrs. a large cream-colored maline bow, nors, as follows: Mr. and Mrs. J. H.

and T. L. Craig. Ices and cakes were served by Mrs. T. W. Wilson, Mrs. Em-ma Jenkins, Mrs. Mattie Perram, Mrs. Laura E. Rankin, Miss Bertie Duffy and Miss Withers.

At the coffee table Mrs. J. R. Dinan presided, assisted by Miss Susie Hoffman and Mrs. L. N. Glenn. There was a large attendance of guests, quite a number of out-of-town tree with cherries.

Monday evening at the armory another one of the delightful series of dances was enjoyed by quite a number of young folks.

STATESVILLE.

STATESVILLE.

Correspondence of The Observer.

Statesville, Feb. 25.—Mr. J. F. Bowles entertained last Friday afternoon in honor of the teachers of the graded school, the teachers of the Female College, and a few friends. pink carnations and ivy and were very beautiful. The Oak View Orchestra

> Thursday Book Club at its regular meeting. Beautiful blooming white narcissus were in great profusion and filled the air with their sweet perfume. The club's magic number of lateresting teems. After the guests had inscribed their names in the dainty register—on whose cover Cupid with bow and arrow to lateresting teems. After the guests had inscribed their names in the dainty register—on whose cover Cupid with bow and arrow looked on delicious refreshments. whose cover Cupld with bow and ar-row looked on-deliclous refreshments were served at the midnight hour. The Lake City found more students than did mustic for this largely attended dance Yosemite Valley Mrs McCoricle told of was furnished by an orchestra of five

The fifth of the Monday evening prize, a hand-made embroidered from a lady describing a visit to one of handkerchief, and on Prof. H. E. Cra-ven was bestowed the booby, a large Young's photograph presented to the lat. Among other enjoyable features.

> Chadwick entertained at bridge Mon-day afternoon, February 22d, From the eight tables Mrs. W. X. Reid re-ceived the prize, a framed picture of present were Misses Mary Bingham, Sargeant Washington as a remem-brance of the day. Miss Josie Person Adeline had a prize a pack of cards, as con-solation for her lack of luck. De-deck of cards. "such a lovely time."

Wednesday Afternoon Book Club for Mrs. Alexander Hall, who was pre-Hall's book is "Walled In," and she from Mrs. personal note Ward, which the club secretary, Mrs. Oline read, together with entertaining sketch of the author. Mrs. Ward had nothing to say for her book. She wrote "it came from too near her heart," but her husband was interested in North Carolina, having spent sometime in our State.

THOMASVILLE.

Correspondence of The Observer Thomasville, Feb. 25.—The Thomas-ville graded school observed Washington's Birthday. Soon after noon recess the seventh, eighth, and ninth grades, under the direction of Miss Meta Liles, rendered a creditable young hopefuls displayed originality of thought and expression, constituted the programme.

Saturday evening Mrs. F. S. Lamelaborately a number of her friends Mrs. Lambeth are most charming could not be exceled. being suggestive of the love our country, its flag and "Father." A most delicious six-course dinner was served and the time spent around the "festive board" was one full of merriment, witty repartee adding much to the galety. The color scheme of red and white was completely carried out and the place cards for the guests were unique and attractive, each being tak en from a familiar scene in ington's life. Mr. Archibald Johnson during the evening gave a most interesting discourse on Washington, referring with beautiful tributes to ing's enjoyment with sic, as some of Thomasville's best talent was among those present,

The Daughters of Confederacy are to give a silver tea Wednesday even-HOW TO HAVE A BEAUTIFUL

YARD. If you want your yard gay with

Correspondence of The Observer.

most effective.

ul was each one that a prize, a dainty season. heart-shaped needle-book, was given to each as a souvenir of this most lose of the meeting. Later in the day, from 8 to 11, host, loyed. The first prize was given to Miss Eva May Brown, while the booby Lore, Frances Goodson, Adeline Morrison, Mary Morrison, Despite the dreariness of the day wherein the guests found it hard to with good things, the papers read by complimentary to thoroughly interesting. Quests of ing so pleasantly spent.

Mrs. Bryan Jones entertained the honor were Mesdames C. C. Hook, of Charlotte, James Harlan, of Washington, D. C., and Miss Camille Hunt, anticipations, accepted Mrs. J. of Lexington. Most delicious refreshments were served.

> pleasant hostess of the Study Club on refreshments were served. Thursday last. With an interesting programme the afternoon was most delightfully spent. "The House of Seven Gables," by Hawthorne, was the book under discussion. The hostess served dainty refreshments after the programme. Mrs. F. H. Haywood was present as a visitor.

Mrs. Harris as heareses the control of Carting the thimble work, all too soon specton's Birthday, the score cards being by the hours of the afternoon. Near this happy occason.

The handsome home of Mrs. J W when she entertained a few friends at bridge. At the close of the games prizes were presented to Mrs. Hook, of Charlotte, and Miss Hunt, of Lex-An elegant luncheon was served, after which the guests depart ed with most delightful memories of this afternoon. Those playing were Mesdames C J. Harris, G. L. Patterson; C. C. Hook, of Charlotte; Misses Kate Means, Ohla Brown, Hunt, of Lexington, and Janet Quinn, of Salisbury.

The Sans Souci Club was entertained on Tuesday by Miss Kathleen Smith and the afternoon was most pleasantly spent.

MADISON.

Correspondence of The Observer.

Madison, Feb. 25 .- Saturday eventables were attractively arranged. G. E. Enves; Misses Cornella and When the guests had assembled Jennie Bowden, Moselle Dicks, Jessie dainty score cards with yellow ribbons and daffodiis attached were dis- and Claudia Fox. tributed, carrying with them a deher beauty and personal charms, and is a great favorite in Salisbury and throughout the State.

The Eurydice Club celebrated Mendelsohn's centenary Tuesday after noon by giving a very delightful musical after the residence of Mrs. Byron Clarke. The programme, which conceils after the residence of Mrs. Byron Clarke. The programme, which conceils after the residence of Mrs. Byron Clarke. The programme, which conceils after the residence of Mrs. Byron Clarke. The programme, which conceils after the residence of Mrs. Byron Clarke. The programme, which consists the state of the selection by was exquisitely randered, and the occasion of the daining room was a Washington party in its truest any ushered into the den, where Messages and other flowers the party of mendelsohn's centenary Tuesday after college after the residence of Mrs. Byron Clarke. The programme, which consists the state of the school building. This was sisted entirely of Mendelssohn's music was exquisitely randered, and the occasional three dames and so loveler affair could dames J. H. Hoffman, J. Steph.

The Eurydice Club celebrated Mendelsohn's centenary Tuesday after and Minse Programme, which consists the nation of the school building. This was found the play the school building. This was sixty of the conclusion it was found to remain the play there was a most pleasing musical density in the attent of the dainty fragrant and charges and other flowers the builty for a number of skilled players and at the home on South Main street. It may ushered into the den, where Messages and other flowers the builty for a number of skilled players and at the matical content of the Castonia to the ability of the Rosental Club of the ability of the attent of the ability of the school building. This was confident to the dainty, fragrant and the play the evening in the addition of the school building. This was confident to the dainty, fragrant and the play the school building. This was confident to the dainty fragrant and the hours of the school building. This was co with several solos in a voice of unusual sweetness. At the midnight hour the happy company made their departure, after an evening that will linger in the memories of those present as a very delightful social event in the hands of two such charming

On Friday evening, February 19th, the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Kemp, of Mayodan, always lovely, was surpassingly so when its doors were opened to a few invited guests and its host and hostess dis-pensed hospitalities in the form of an elegant eight-course dinner. the guests arrived they were met at the door by the charming little daughfurnished music for the occasion.

The dance given last Thursday night in the Cotillion Club Hail by Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Martin was a very delightful one. The receiving party consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Rhyne, of Newton, Miss Agnes Martin, Concord, Feb. 25 .- On Thursday af- ter, Miss Evelyn Scales Kemp. yellow, hall in violet and sitting room an immense red bell. The centrein pink, were all pretty and attractive, but the dining room was the chief object of artistic beauty. Here fully upon a handsome lace ciotis, red was the prevailing color and with while from the four corners of the the soft lights of many candles was table dainty red shaded candles cast a soft radiance upon the silver and Besides discussing the news of the cut-glass. Each course, from the day, the guests were very much in- grape fruit cocktail to the after-dinner terested in dainty handiwork and in mints, brought forth with pleasing the guessing contest, and so success-surprises all the delicacies of the

Before the close announcement was made that the dinner was in comhappy occasion. An elegant four-course luncheon was served at the close of the meeting.

After cigars were thoroughly enjoyed by the gentlemen present, the guests were shown into the music room, where a number of plane selec-tions were given by Miss Dalsy Busick, with solos by Mrs. Kemp fol-lowing, and with her voice of exquisite aweetness the guests were held spellbound to the close.

After an evening to be pleasantly work, Mrs. Gaither read an interesting letter from the author herself. In this lightful refreshments ended a very missive Mrs. Oftenchain says she is a descendant, a grandianighter of Mrs. Jimmie Lee Walthail and lightful hours spent with this deservedly popular couple.

> The young people of the town enpink carnations as the first prize and the Julia Magruder Club enjoyed a joyed one of the most delightful Mrs. Bryan Jones the second prize, a most pleasant meeting with Mrs. W. dances of the season on Monday even Dainty refreshments C. Houston on Tuesday afternoon, ing, February 22d, at Cardwell's Hall, were served at the close of an hour The programme, as usual, was replete given by the young men of Madison ring the changes in appreciation of Mesdames J. C. Gibson, G.L. Patter- Dancing continued from 9 to 1, with such a levely time."
>
> Son and L. D. Coltrane being most many regrets for the close of an even-

> > The Embroidery Club, with glad Webster's invitation to meet with her home spent one of its most pleasant Mrs. John M. Craven was the and profitable afternoons. Delicious Friday afternoon the Book and an unusually pleasant afternoon. In the dining room Misses May Carpen-The last meeting of the Euchre ter and Dalsy Busick presided at the Club for the season was held on Sat-urday at the home of Mrs. C. J. Har-the refreshing beverage, sparkled a ris on North Union street, with Mrs. delightful accompaniment of humor Y. M. Muore, Mrs. C. L. Smith and and wit. Thus, with music and dislittle red hatchets. After a time spent the close of the meeting Mrs. Mathen playing Mrs. Aubrey Hoover was son, assisted by Mrs. James Scales, found to have won the prize. Dainty served delicious cream and cakes. refreshments were a fitting close to The cavited guests were Mesdames Jexas Pratt. T. F. Webster, Robert Webster, James Scales and Charles D. Mclver, Misses Lindsay and Mat-Cannon, Jr., was the scene of a most thews will be hostesses to the club at pleasant affair on Monday afternoon, its next meeting.

Those people who were so much inerested in civic improvement that they could face the inclement weather of Friday evening, were given many valuable suggestions from the heart of a woman who is deeply absorbed the cause. At this meeting, when Mrs. Charles D. McIver and Superintendent Hayes gave talks and ganized a Woman's Association for the Betterment of Public School Houses, movement was agitated propitious of great improvement in the town and neighboring vicinity of Madison,

RANDLEMAN.

Correspondence of The Observer. Randleman, Feb. 25 .- The Round Dozen Book Club was charmingly entertained Saturday afternoon at the ing the palatial home of Mr. and Mrs. H J Penn, in south Madison, was a A very interesting paper was read by H J Penn, in south Madison, was a scene of unusual brilliancy, when Misses Auvila Lindsay and Lilian Matthews jointly entertained at cards, Barker and Mary Ferree. In the complimentary to their charming exciting contest which followed Mrs. guests, Miss Huzel Harmon, of Thomas E. Marshall won the prime, a of Thomas E. Marshall won the prize, a High Point, and Miss Catherine hand-painted blotter. Most dainty Rives, of Martinsville, Va. The and delicious refreshments, fruit as follows: Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Rives, of Martinsville, Va. The and delicious refreshments, fruit frappe, angel food and chocolate cake, baid Johnson, Misses Mary Johnson, epition half by Miss Lindsay, assisted completed this altogether pleasant afBlanche Austin and Jim Lambeth, by Mr. W. G. Lindsay, and were ternoon. Those present were: Messhown into the card room, where the dames S. Bryant, Thomas E. Marshall.

> FLOWERS POR SOUTHERN GARDENS. Every flower lover should got the Dixie Garden Handbook. It is not a confusing catalogue, but an experi selection of Chuice Bulbs, Roses and other Flowers, Shrubs, Trees and