lly dear friend Mr Reinhardt. I have been making a little time write to you for a few days now, for some reason and others I have not had time, this dont minds one good business. I have work one and injoy my self some, but one good business. I flich reason I dint had chance to from Havana, where I had my fam all, for one month, my self stay here part of the time, and back now your letter of the 2 inst. this takes two letters now that I have to aswer you for this reason. I put my self up and stards to write, I have areat pleasure in it, the troubles is that I have to do it in English, and - quite a blg work for me.

I have not yet fold you, that we coiled in due time the nice Christmas presents you sent us all, I wish could make you the History of this arrival, but is to much for me, and ather wait until you come and tell i ou you spoke, all I can tell you now - that every body was very very hap by, very very please, and that we all an tell, my littles girls, enjoy the ulla so much that I can asure y hat I have had the greatest time, the leest pleasure, seeing them glad and happy, this pleasure I don't forget it or a long time.

Every thing arrive in fine shape ut one cut glass out of the 6 one roke, the Cloks I put to work the ame night that got here, and is doing ie a big yob, you will see it when have the pleasure to see you very

As in the States business here is dull, tobacco was sold for lower to than ever, and yet has but litte demand, for this I am not very lad, and dont see how I can take my vacations this summer.

I wish you will come for your rigars, I have a cigar maker, now making them and I will be very glad handle them to you directly, and have you injoy them, Mr. Ramseu is now here. I meet him in Havana 4 days ago, he told me that you promise to come to meet him in Ha ana that he was not going to stay ery long, at must 15 days, so answer the if we have bad luck and can not have you down, so that I will send the Clgars.

There is lot of American this year a Havena, more it is said than we er had, you can see them all over the City, and there is also lot of musement, it is realy to bad that sen can not come, and more yet that I don't think that you will see my omination in any news paper, as I tont want to accept any political yob. have made my mind for long time to make my living on private busi-ness, not to depend of any one and less of a Political situation.

I hope that at last you will deside to spend a little time with us, and that before very long I will have the pleasure to hear that you are on your way to Havana, I will be awfull glad with my best regards for every
