

Social and Personal

Mrs. J. L. Sexton has returned from Georgia where she visited relatives and friends. Miss Mamie Dawson has returned from New York. Dr. and Mrs. W. W. McKenney, of Salisbury, who came over for the Saturday night, returned home yesterday.

The calendar of the Woman's Club meetings with its several departments for March is as follows: March 4th, Thursday, 11 a. m., club meeting. March 4th, Thursday, 11:30 a. m., literature. March 10th, Wednesday, 4 p. m., music.

A social event of this week that promises to afford pleasure as well as to accomplish good is the silver tea to be given by the board of managers of the Alexander Rescue Home at the residence of Mrs. John M. Scott on South Tryon street, Thursday afternoon from 4 to 8 o'clock.

Mrs. R. S. Busbee and son, Master Simmons Clarkson Busbee, will return to-night from Birmingham, Ala., where they have been the guests of Mrs. J. M. Tull. Mrs. Tull will accompany them, going to Concord after a day or two in this city.

Miss Marguerite Springs returned yesterday from Davidson, where she attended the junior exercises Friday and Saturday. Miss Norma Alexander and guest, Miss Mary Robertson, of Derbrook, Miss, and Misses Lottie Alexander and Estelle Hargrave returned yesterday from Davidson, where they attended the junior exercises.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Connolly, of Taylorsville, were registered, among the guests at the Selwyn yesterday. MR. CANSLER'S POSITION. Altogether consistent before Mecklenburg Delegation in Raleigh as to Public Service Corporations—The Facts Set Forth.

Mr. E. T. Cansler has returned from Raleigh, where he went to appear before the Mecklenburg delegation, as a member of the committee of ten to urge that the original draft of the charter as ratified by the board of aldermen (save that clause prescribing that the mayor shall be chosen from within the board) be submitted to the people for acceptance or rejection at the polls in a single day.

IT CAME FROM SOMEWHERE. Without a Depository to Furnish Liquor at Cost Enough People Secured It to make the Police Department Stock Rise. There was liquor in Charlotte Saturday night. Aites, the records on file at the city hall, attest further: some dozen tussled heads on the inside looking out yesterday.

There was liquor in Charlotte Saturday night. Aites, the records on file at the city hall, attest further: some dozen tussled heads on the inside looking out yesterday. The inward haul became plentiful toward midnight on the first named date and continued at intermittent intervals until noon of yesterday. Those who will be this morning arraigned on the charge of undue intoxication in a public place include: Francis Moore, a colored woman, who was disorderly; Luis White, another, who was also disorderly (a woman who gets drunk is almost always disorderly, too); A. F. Howard, white, also disorderly; J. Dean, Jake Simpson, Ellen Banks, colored, and disorderly; Will Elliott and Tom Withers, who was as limp as a fish rag. "Aid down," testifies the charge against him.

Preparedness an Essential to Advancement. Rev. W. M. Kincaid, D. D., at the First Presbyterian church yesterday morning preached an interesting sermon on "Watchfulness." Taking as his text, Matthew, 25:12, "Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour when the Son of Man cometh," the minister urged preparedness as one of the fundamentals in religion as in life.

USE LESS-BETTER RESULTS. Some housekeepers use too much Blue Ribbon lemon or vanilla extract at a time. Being a "drip down" of great strength it goes twice as far as ordinary extracts.

PERSONAL. The Movements of a Number of People, Visitors and Others. Prof. J. A. Bivins, superintendent of the Monroe graded schools, was a visitor in the city yesterday. Mr. M. F. Crawford, of Fayetteville, spent yesterday at the Stonewall. Mayor R. E. Davidson, of Atlanta, Ga., was the guest of friends in the city yesterday.

Mr. Joe B. Efrid has gone to New York to join his brother, Mr. H. M. Efrid, and buy goods for the Efrid department stores. Mr. J. H. Furman, of Lincolnton, spent yesterday at the Selwyn. Mr. W. B. Logan, of Charleston, S. C., was a guest at the Selwyn yesterday.

Mr. Walter Huff, of Macon, Ga., spent yesterday in the city with friends. Mr. L. M. Robertson, of Birmingham, Ala., was registered yesterday among the guests at the Selwyn. Mr. J. F. Reinhardt, of Stanley, was a guest at the Central yesterday. Mr. J. H. Kerr, of High Point, spent a few hours in the city yesterday.

Mr. R. L. Adams, of Concord, was a guest at the Central yesterday. Among the visitors in the city yesterday were Messrs. D. B. Harwell and Charles M. Stiles, of Davidson. Mr. E. K. McDonald, Jr., of Monroe, spent yesterday in the city.

Mr. W. L. Burroughs, of Jacksonville, Fla., spent yesterday in the city with friends. Mr. A. P. DuBoise, of Camden, S. C., was a Charlotte visitor yesterday. Mr. John P. Sanders, of Charleston, S. C., was registered at the Buford yesterday.

Mr. C. A. Burlingame, of Gastonia, spent yesterday in the city. Mr. N. A. Bost, of Statesville, was registered at the Buford yesterday. Mr. W. F. Blair, of Greensboro, spent yesterday in the city.

Among the guests at the Buford yesterday were Messrs. R. L. Jenkins and George Price, of Mount Holly. Messrs. W. L. Matthews, G. R. Carey, George Blum and C. Woodbury, of Columbia, S. C., spent yesterday in the city, stopping at the Stonewall. Mr. M. W. Tenchy, of Henderson, was among the guests of the Stonewall yesterday.

Mr. Charles F. Bahnsen, of Farmington, spent yesterday in the city with friends. He stopped at the Stonewall. Mr. W. A. Hall, of Landis, was in Charlotte yesterday. Mr. Banks R. Cates, manager of The Observer Printing House, returned last night from Asheville, where he spent several weeks.

Among the guests at the Southern Manufacturers' Club yesterday were Messrs. H. P. Pemberton and T. L. Ross, of Concord. Mr. M. S. Standifer, of New Orleans, salesman for Penick & Ford, the molasses house, arrived in the city last night, accompanied by Mr. James E. Eaves, of that concern. They are at the Buford, where they will remain several days.

Mr. M. D. Jacobson, of Rockingham, was a visitor in the city last night, stopping at the Central. Mr. E. T. Taylor, of Wilmington, is at the Selwyn. BRIEFS. A Few Minor Happenings in and About the City.

The Mercy General Hospital is being repainted, green. The county commissioners and board of education meet to-day. The Lyman Twins in The Yankee Drummers' at the local theatre to-night.

Madame Nazimova and company Sunday in Charlotte yesterday. They play in Columbia to-night. Mrs. W. S. Wear, who suffered a broken arm as the result of a fall several days ago, is getting along nicely. Rev. Dr. A. A. McGeachy preached a most instructive sermon at the Second Presbyterian church last night from the text, "We would see Jesus."

There is only one soap that can be compared with Ivory Soap, and that is genuine, unadulterated, white Castile Soap. Very little of it is for sale in this country. The so called "Castile" soap sold by the majority of drug stores is not "Castile" Soap at all; it is a cheap and inferior imitation of a meritorious article.

Ivory Soap 99 1/100 Per Cent. Pure.

Present Cause of Methodist Orphanage. Earnestly presenting the cause of this proposed orphanage of the Western North Carolina Methodist church to be established in Winston-Salem, Rev. J. P. Rodgers, its field agent, occupied the pulpit of Tryon Street Methodist church yesterday morning and that of Brevard Street Methodist church last evening. Preparations are being rapidly effected for this home, which promises to be a great force in educating and uplifting the homeless of this denomination.

No Claimant For Bicycle Found. No claimant has as yet appeared for the bicycle sold by Will Bost, colored, for $1 at Derita Saturday afternoon. The wheel, worth $20, was brought to town yesterday and a diligent effort is being made by the police to locate the owner from whom it is charged, it was stolen. The negro has served a term on the gang recently, it is said, for the theft of a bicycle.

White House Coffee. Drink White House Coffee. The Best Grocers.

SPECIAL NOTICES. BEST THE CHEAPEST AGAIN. 1 1/2 flavoring extracts the best in the cheapest and most satisfactory. Blue Ribbon lemon and vanilla go twice as far as ordinary extracts, and produce the most delicately flavored desserts and cakes.
