TRINITY.

Correspondence of The Observer. Durham, March 6 .- Commencement here this year promises to be one of the most interesting and noteworthy of many years, and judging from the programme which has been completed by the committee in charge of it, it will be a big occasion. It has al-ways been the custom at Trinity to secure as commencement speakers the most prominent men of the country, and this has always been a distinguishing feature of the commencement occasions, This year the community will be most fortunate in being able to hear mome of the best and most forceful speakers available for such occasions. coal bins.

The first exercise of the occusion this year will be the baccalaureate address delivered by President Kilgo on Sunday evening, June 6th. The board of trustees will hold its annual meeting on Monday afternoon, June 7th. Tuesday morning, June 8th, the time to time. commencement sermon will be preached by Rev. Hugh Black, D.
