In one of the recent articles by S. J. H. when talking of the will man... (text continues with religious reflections on the will and the heart).

There is an old hymn beginning thus: "If the prayer there are thousands of souls whose sincere desire is for the recovery of the Editor of the Observer..."

IN MEMORIAM

Annie Auleno Flynn-Kerner.

Our departed sister, Annie Auleno Flynn-Kerner, was born May 15th, 1839, and died March 17th, 1909, at her late home in Charlotte, N. C.

She was the wife of Richard P. Kerner, of this place. Nine children blessed this union. Six of them with the devoted husband and father are alive and remain to mourn her loss... (text continues with a detailed biography of Annie Auleno Flynn-Kerner).

These were a grand father in the home... (text continues with reflections on the value of a good father and the impact of his example).

NEAR DEATH IN BIG POND.

It was a thrilling experience to Mrs. Ida Soper to face death. "For years severe lung trouble gave me intense suffering," she writes, "and several times nearly caused my death. All remedies failed and doctors said I was incurable. Then Dr. King's New Discovery brought quick relief and a cure so permanent that I have not been troubled in twenty years." Mrs. Soper lives in Big Pond, Pa.

Good Cough Medicine for Children.

The season for coughs and colds is now at hand and too much care cannot be used to protect the children. A child is much more likely to contract diphtheria or scarlet fever when he has a cold. The quicker you cure his cold the less the risk. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the sole reliance of many mothers, and the sole reliance of many mothers, and the sole reliance of many mothers.

One of the most entertaining preachers I ever heard is Rev. J. H. Weaver, now at Hickory station. He is a North Carolinian, born in Ashe county and for many years a member of Holston, but automatically fell into the W. N. C. Conference in 1896, when it was organized at Concord. I first met Dr. Weaver when he

She had lived 66 years, 10 months and 18 days when her end came, but she was not old. She was young.
