"I recall the fact that two or three years ago I needed a Cotton Mill Superintendent and wrote asking to advertise for one in your 'Daily Observer,' and I received through you quite a number of applications. I now want to sell my cotton mill. I am too old to run it longer and have no one to whom I could turn it over that is competent to operate it. would dispose of it at a great bargain to any one who understands the mill business and has some money to invest in that way. It is a yarn mill with an annex equipped with looms, etc., for making first-class duck cloth. I would sell tenant houses and five acres of land adjoining. We have a growing town, fine schools, water-works and electric lights. I enclose N. Y. check $10.00. Please insert 'ad' in The Daily Observer which will embody the above facts and carry same as long as the amount enclosed will pay for and then discontinue. A great bargain awaits any one that might be interested." The above is a letter instructing us to advertise a cotton mill for
