WORK OF THE U. D. C.

resident General Issues Bulletin to the Daughters, Outlining the Work of the Organization.

The Observer is asked to publish this open letter from the president reneral to the Daughters of the Con-

To the United Daughters of the Confederacy:

Again your president sends greetings to you with all good wishes, that the springtime has brought you health and happiness, and harmony of action and endeavor, with the largely attended. The programme is hopeful resurrection i son that na-ture teaches, that, if fruition shall MONDAY, MAY 31. come to us later, this is the season of labor. Therefore, it becomes my of labor. Therefore, it becomes our Haywood street to Patton avenue, or duty to urge you to summon your Patton avenue to Pack Square, around Forces for the work that is before Patton avenue to Pack Square, around Pack Square and back to Auditorium Pack Square area. shall be fulfilled.

The committees of the general as-sociation, U. D. C., have formulated plans for this purpose, and ask your co-operation. The chairman of committee on education, Miss Mary B. Poppenheim, Charleston, has ably outlined this work, in most comprehensive form, and it is requested that State presidents and chapter presidents in States where no division exista-will appoint a State committee on education to carry out her plan. State division presidents will give support and aid to the work of Mrs. J. Raders Robinson, historian general, U. D. C., for without such support she cannot execute the excellent plan proposed for the advancement of this fepartment. State and chapter registrars are asked to respond promptly to the request of Mrs. James Britton Ganti, registrar general, U. D. C., for data and records of their offices.

It is well to call your attention to the near approach of the annual reunion of our dear veterans of the Confederacy, which will be held in Memphis. Tenn. June 8. 9 and 10. Let us rally to their banners, which will be proudly unfuried, and show them by word and deed, that we cherish their service and sacrifice, that we may still be to them, as in the past, an inspiration and strength.

The chief commemorative work of k n. the general association, U. D. C., 18 away. the placing of two monuments, one on the battlefield of Shiloh-where gallantly fought and fell many of the South's bravest defenders, led by the great chieftain, Albert Sidney Johnwho fell there, a sacrifice to his Southland-and the erection of monument in the Arlington National Cemetery, where sleep some of our Confederate dead. This has a triple claim upon you, for resting as it will, on the soil of the home of Robert E. Lee, it will be a memorial to that peerless commander, again it typify the spirit of the Confederate States, which was the defense of constitutional government; and it will further mark the spot where, through the magnanimity of a provision Congress, honorable place was given to some of our Confederate dead, and where daily care is shown to their graves. Shall we be less thoughtful our dead? The executive committee of the Arlington Confederate Monument Association. Cal Hilary A. Herbert, chairman, 18 askganization, to set aside one day in the near future, for concerted action in ing every chapter through this orcollecting funds for this purpose. The committee's plan will be sent out to you, and your president asks your carnest and active co-operation, which, if had, a large sum may be realized, with little individual cost. The veterans are asking your assistance in the purchase of the home and birthplace of President Jefferson Davis, at Fairview, Ky. Send con-tributions to Maj. John H. Leathers, Louisville, Ky. Let each chapter give something to this worthy historic object.

ASK PAY ON YEAR BASIS. School Commissioners to Be Petitioned to Devote the Surplus in School White Teachers During Summer.

A very interesting proposition which will be presented to the new board of school commissioners is that to pay the teachers in the white. schools their regular salaries during the summer months. Strong support is aligning itself on the side of the teachers, who are among the ablest in the State and whose salaries are far from commensurate with their abilties and the invaluable service they render the city. At present, it is stated, the salary paid every male employe of the school department, from Leuperintendent down to janitor. who number in their ranks some of as brilliant young women as Charlotte contains receives compensation during the summer months. So exacting are school duffes during the term that is practically impossible for them t prepare themselves to enter another pursuit in summer. Their year's salaries therefore are only nine times the emolument for one month and totally out of proportion to the service ren.) ered. If they were paid the year round. It is argued, as are the men, the vacation time could be spent in

FUNDS FOR THE LIBRARY.

Ladies of the City to Have a "Tag' Day For the Purpose of Raising Funds For New Books For the Pub-He Library

"The public library," declared Charlotte woman yesterday, "Is one institution that the city cannot afford to allow to stand still or be retarded in its isefulness. The ladies have taken hold of the work to raise funds to buy new books, and other-wise increase its usefulness. The people as a whole should lend a helping hand in every way possible according to their opportunity and means Going over the librarian's report for 1909, the following extract shows clearly the need of new books. and also shows the benefit the library has been to the public at large. "In recording the history of the work of the month just passed the statistics show an interesting condition. The number of books in the library December 31, 1908, was 5.353 volumes: the 23d of March, 1909, the number of registered readers was honly about 3,000 circulate, we have retailing, managed to circulate 35,292 volumes A jury had been empaneled Sat in 1908 and since the opening of urday afternoon and the term of crim-library in July, 1903, 209,327 volumes inst court was stretched over a frachave been issued for home use: In the face of these figures it does seem that the city cannot afford not to situation about 4 o'clock and returnsupport the library If the under-taking had been a failure, if we had Messre J. A. McRae, city atfornes failed to get the people to use the library, then there might be some criticism. If we had supplied only 2,500 persons with books on an ap propriation of $2,500 a year, surely $1 a head is not too much to expend for library purposes. Now that we have e.253 people using the library It is only right that we should have the proportionate appropriation. The demands upon a public library in a thriving, growing city like Charlotte are very great and should be met by a liberal support. Our work with the city schools and high schools of the county is quite a sufficient answer to "Why do we need a public li-
