BRIEFS

A Few Minor Happenings in and About the City.

—Marriage license was issued yesterday morning to Mr. D. E. Brown and Miss Rhodena Taylor.

—There will be a full rehearsal of the May festival chorus to-night at 8:30 o'clock at the Second Presbyterian church.

—Mrs. Laura Brown, who was hurt in an accident some time ago, has been taken to the Presbyterian Hospital for treatment. Her injuries are painful.

—Mr. George King has returned to the Southern Express service after an absence of about a year. He has had an experience extending over a number of years.

—The many friends of Mrs. C. P. Henderson will learn with regret that she has been taken to the Presbyterian Hospital, where she will undergo an operation.

During Mr. Whitehead Klutz's stay in the city on Saturday next, when he will deliver the Confederate Memorial Day address, he will be a guest at the home of Captain S. B. Alexander, on West Trade street.

—The friends of Mr. Eugene B. Graham were glad to see him on the streets yesterday, after an illness of a week or more with the mumps. He has been at his home on West Vance street.

—Sergeant J. W. Harrison, of the United States hospital corps, with headquarters at Fort Bayard, N. M., arrived in the city last night, and will spend his vacation of several weeks in Charlotte, with his uncle, Mr. J. P. Sossaman.

—"Doing Well" was the report yesterday from Ed Pharr, the colored boy injured in the automobile accident Tuesday afternoon near Hopewell church. No bones were broken and there was no evidence of internal injuries.

—Mr. Richard Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wade H. Harris, who is attending the V. P. L. at Blacksburg, Va., is spending several days here with his parents, on account of his health. Mr. Harris hopes to return to school within a day or two.

—Prof. Carl Benthelm will shortly place on sale in several stores of the city, metallic paper weights of President Taft, with the inscription, "W. H. Taft, Charlotte, N. C., May 20, 1909." Prof. Benthelm expects many of the souvenirs to be sold.

—Mr. Joe Klouse is planning an automobile trip to Atlanta, Ga., for the first week in June. He proposes to run his Rambler automobile, leaving Charlotte on the morning of June 8, and to take the trip easily until he reaches Atlanta. His wife and two daughters will accompany him.

—The many friends here of Dr. Adolphe G. Brenizer, Jr., who has been abroad for the past three years studying medicine, will be interested to know that at present he is taking a special course in surgery in Vienna, Austria. Dr. Brenizer, after he is hoped, will locate in Charlotte after his return from his present study.

MR. W. H. TORRENCE DEAD.

Well-Known Citizen Dies After Illness of a Few Days Only—Funeral This Morning at 11 O'Clock.

The death of Mr. Walter H. Torrence, which occurred yesterday morning at 2:30 o'clock, at his home No. 560 Elizabeth avenue, was learned of with much sorrow by his many friends in the city. Mr. Torrence had been ill only a few days and the news of his death was a great shock to them. He had only been ill since Sunday and the immediate cause of his death was hemorrhage of the stomach.

Mr. Torrence was 56 years of age and is survived by a wife, who was Miss Margaret Ellison, of Statesville, and five children, Messrs. Charles Torrence, and Walter Torrence, and Misses Laura, Mary and Margerie Torrence. Besides these, one brother survives him, Mr. Charles L. Torrence, of this city.

The funeral services will be conducted this morning at 11 o'clock from the residence, Rev. Dr. A. A. McGeachy, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church, assisted by Rev. Harris Mallinckrodt, rector of St. Peter's Episcopal church, officiating. The pallbearers will be Messrs. J. P. Long, A. J. Theis, J. W. Keenan, R. F. Stokes, W. C. Maxwell and ex-Judge F. I. Osborne.

Mr. Torrence was a son of Charles L. and Philadelphia M. Torrence and was born and reared in Charlotte. He was a brother of the late Stephen Torrence, who died here about three years ago, after a lingering illness.

Animal Has an Idea While Being Unhitched and Runs Forth to Execute It. Apparently, Then Returns—Young Girl Struck.

A horse belonging to Mrs. Cecye Craig, while being unhitched in Hoss' stables on West Fourth street yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock, suddenly suffered a brain-storm, broke away from its keepers and dashed out the door, with the harness clinging to it. Turning into Church it soon reached West Trade and sped toward the Square. Near Klouse's butcher shop it turned in upon the sidewalk and created havoc. If it aimed at breaking a monotony which nowhere existed yesterday, it succeeded. The horse ran into a young daughter, 6 or 8 years old, of Mack Ruess, Serbian, who lives on East Trade. She was given medical attention, but beyond minor cuts and bruises no injury was found. A negro was also hurt somewhat in the general mixup. As if satisfied that it had done all the damage it could do on such short notice the horse whirled around, retraced its steps and stopped not until it was safely within the stable again.

At the Alamo.

The Jolly Four Quartette, of Atlanta, has been engaged by the Alamo and will sing at the theatre the remainder of the week. This quartette was heard to advantage last night and at each performance responded to a number of encores, their "Seven-Up" song being among their best efforts. On the same bill Mr. and Mrs. J. Murray Smith and Eddie Foyer will appear in new roles.
