BRIEFS
A Few Minor Happenings in and About the City.
The pipe organ at Tryon Street Methodist church will be thoroughly overhauled and tuned this week.
A fresh coat of paint has improved wonderfully the appearance of the Postal Telegraph Building on South Tryon street.
There is to be an Old Fiddlers' Convention in the auditorium at Latta Park this week. Mr. Walter W. Poole has the affair in hand.
Cards have been received in the city announcing the meeting of the North Carolina and Virginia Hotel Association at Asheville, June 3-13. Addresses will be made by Governor W. W. Kitchen and prominent hotel men of New York. Several of the Charlotte hotel men will attend.
COMMENCEMENT BEGINS.
Baccalaureate Sermon of Elizabeth College by Rev. Dr. J. Henry Harms This Morning at First Baptist Church—Other Events of the Glad Season.
The initial event of the commencement of Elizabeth College will be the baccalaureate sermon by Rev. J. Henry Harms, president of Newberry College, at the First Baptist church this morning at 11 o'clock. This will be followed to-night at 8:30 o'clock by the annual sermon to the Y. W. C. A. of the institution by Rev. Dr. A. A. McGeachy, at the Second Presbyterian church.
The alumnae meeting, the art exhibition and reception and the annual concert by the faculty will make tomorrow one of the busiest and happiest days of the commencement season. The alumnae meeting will be held at noon. The art exhibition, always a pleasant occasion, will last from 3:30 to 6 o'clock in the afternoon, and the concert will be given at 8:30 o'clock in the college auditorium.
Tuesday will be devoted to class day exercises, which to the student body is the most interesting of the ceremonies of commencement. These exercises will begin at 10 o'clock. The graduating exercises proper will take place Wednesday night, the annual address to be delivered by Rev. Harris Mallinckrodt, rector of St. Peter's Episcopal church. These exercises will mark the close of commencement and of one of the most satisfactory years in the history of the college, a year of effective work in every department of this popular institution.
All of the exercises are public and the friends of the pupils and of the college are cordially invited to attend.
