THE REALM OF NORTH CAROLINA SOCIETY

Mrs. Alfred Meniorial Firiggs. Fields. that was

Mrs. MITS. Miss Isabel is work by Mrs. were Jerman, Mrs.

Mrs

There was tre attendance, owing M. Neill.

Happest University breved herself a flor instruction abert Browning Hirthday Prowas rendered with striking Bermoon or the Bare Miles Miss Grace Margaret Irvin

burgday afternoon

Dir ger-Sir-Community mit-Monday Shokespeare's UK betself n base arrang t & M. Cel-luit, Switz-

. Holland,

Profitted;

a Club the downing one frank viewlutins, Also by Miss at the Among drs M. Ninch tieen de-general from 6 to shire. Mrs. and the ing about sting with in the enof callers se hool. harty Thursthe pleasing and prov-

inwn peo-

MONROE.

Correspondence of The Observer. Monroe, May 13 .- Charming and beautiful in every detail was the party given Friday afternoon by Mrs. N. C. English and Mrs. Estelle Stewart. complimentary to Miss Pattie Lee, announcing her engagement to Mr. Warren Stack, of Monroe. Only the intimate girl friends of the bride-tobe were invited. These were as follows: Misses Edna Harris, Bess Dun-Frances Alexander, Nancy Watlap, kins, Lessie Houston, Bright Ogburn, Kate Fairley, Cornie Fairley, Beth Mary Davis, Pat Adams, Alice Scales, Florida Morris, Alice Anna Chreitzberg and Bess Austin Progressive hearts was played, and field. t seemed singularly appropriate that the bride-elect should make the highest score at this game. She was presented with a beautiful bunch of carnations. Tea was served during the progress of the game. But it was till the hostesses led the way to the dining room that any hint was given of the announcement to be Suspended over the large doors opening into the dining room was a large wedding bell filled with rice and confetti, which Mrs. Stewart showered upon the bride-to-be as she passed under, Mrs. English then gave a "toast to the bride," and Miss Cornie Fairley played Mendlessohn's "Wedding March." The dining room was beautifully decorated in pink and white. Carnations were the flowers used. Pink and white ribbons extend. ed from the chandelier to the corners of the table and on these were strung numbers of wedding bells. Wide bands of satin ribbon were laid across the table and these were painted with the initials L and S. Pink and white bags of rice, were given as favors of and a penny. The ring fell to Miss hospitable home, the beauty of which Scales, the thimble to Miss Morris and the money to Miss Davis. All the re- of magnificent Marechal Nell roses freshments were in pink and white, and lilies of the valley. the cakes being heart-shaped.

has been made in Monroe in many a tention during the hour given have attended since childhood,

Mr. Stack, who is cashier of the Bank of Union, is a young man of fine character and attractive person-He has a multitude of friends will rejoice to hear that he has won his heart's desire.

Friday evening from 8:30 to 11 clock Miss Sarah Whitfield delightfully entertained a number of her most uniquely carried out in every detail, the decorations being very elaborate. Progressive forty-two was amusement of the evening, the prize winners being Miss Florida Morris. Mr. Archie Lee and Professor in receiving by Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Belle Wilfong, Gore and Mrs. R. V. Houston. The dainty refreshments were served by little Misses Hattie Beasley, Marie enjoyed the hospitality of Miss Whitfield were Misses Florida Morris, Mary E. Stewart, Ola Bruner," Margle and Goldie Ritch, Bess! Austin, Alice Stack and Mary Putch; Messrs. Archie Lee, Cheathama Crook, Compton, Miller. Morgan, W. C. Brewer, Tom Fletcher and Professor Wilson

The Van Dyke Book Club met with Mrs. W. C. Crowell last Tuesday afternoon. The chief business of the meeting was the election of officers for next year.

The result was as follows: Mrs. V Dixon Sikes, 'president; Miss Pat Adams, vice president; Mrs, W. C. rowell, secretary, and Mrs. Estelle Stewart, treasurer, Dainty and delictous refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Miss Nancy Watkins was the charmng hostess of the Thalia Book Club at their last meeting. In a word-forming contest Mrs. N. C. English and Miss Mary Davis tied for the prize, which the former drew. The invited guests, besides club members. were Mrs. L. C. Bickett and Miss Arna Clarkson. The hostess served delicious ices and cake.

WASHINGTON.

Correspondence of The Observer

Washington, N. C., May 14.—On last Wednesday afternoon Mr. R. S. delightful launch party and excursion to Bath, about twenty miles down Pamlico river. The pleasure party was given in honor of Miss Ruth Pilcon, of North Whikesboro, who has been a member of the faculty of the their hearers were Misses Rudisill, Washington public schools for the Rosseau, Arrowcod, Mrs. Gwyn Harof Mr. W. F. Harrell, which was chartered for the occasion.

he oldest town in the State and was first settled early in the seventeenth century and is full of interesting Among the most interesting places visited by the party was an old church that was built of brick brought over from England. After viewing the church, the party visited the ruins of the mansion of North Carolina's first colonial Governor, also the ruins of the Castle of Teach, the famous pirate, more commonly known as Blackbeard, who figured in early co-ionial history and made his headquarters in Pamlico and Albemarle sounds. After visiting the different places a light lunch was served at the Bath Hotel and the party returned to this city at 11 o'clock. The return trip moon shedding its brilliance over the waters and a stiff breeze blowing was most charming. The following were invited guests: Misses Ruth Pilson: Claudia McCullers, Minnie Morrison, Annie Payne, Margaret Jarvis, Emma Carter and Mes. J. B. Sparrow, chape-rone: Messrs. R. G. Moss, F. S.

Worthy, C. L. Payne and R. S. Neal. Another function of the week was a delightful informal reception given on Saturday afternoon from 4 to 6 by Mrs. N. C. Newbold to the faculty friends at the attractive home of Miss of the Washington public schools. The Elia Campbell. Delicious frappe was handsome residence on the corner of served in the hall and the evening Main and Pierce streets was tastefully was pleasantly passed in playing revally entertained by their charming | course, followed by ice cream, cake hestess. The principle feature of the and coffee, were served. afternoon was a guessing contest, in which each correct guess entitled the Lerson to a white carnation and the guest holding the largest number of carnations was awarded the prize. After the game Miss Lillian Campbell was presented with the first prise, a handsome hand-painted vase. During the afternoon dainty and delicious refreshments were served by little the singing of Mrs. Gwyn Harper, Misses Carlotta Nicholson and Helen The following were invited Shaw. guests: Misses Emma Carter, Claudia McCullers, Ruth Pilson, Annie Jarvis, Minnie Morrison, Katle Moore, Florence Ledbetter, Estelle Davia, Annie Payne, Annie P. Nicholson, Annie Cox Stack, Bertha Smith, Hallie Horne, and Miss Cooper; Mesdames Bright ard Ronner and Miss Florence Win-

> On last Wednesday morning at the iome of her father, Miss Katie Clark as happily united in marriage to Mr. Lynn Lancaster, of this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. Sullivan at 10 o'clock in the presence of a few intimate friends and relatives. The bride was handsomely gowned in a brown tailored traveling Immediately after the ceremony the bridal couple drove to the Norfolk & Southern depot, leaving on the 10:53 train for a tour of the Northern cities. The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. J. H. Clark, of this city, and has hosts of friends in the city. The groom is employed in the Postal service here.

NEWTON.

Correspondence of The Observer Newton, May 14.—The last meeting of the Thursday Book Club was a red letter one in its annals for 1909, carnations, attached to crepe paper for the beautiful day found seventeen its twenty members gathered In these bags were a ring, a thimble within the walls of Mrs. John Younts'

had been enhanced by the profusion

The Philippines was the subject to No more interesting announcement, which the members devoted their atday. The wedding will take place study, and many entertaining papers June 23 in the First Methodist church, were read. Mrs. G. A. Warlick read which both the contracting parties a most interesting letter written the arching trees, where rustic seats were day before the battle of Manila. Mrs. Miss Lee is the only daughter of W. H. Everhart gave a sketch of Ma-Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Lee and every- nila under the old and new regime. in Monroe knows and loves her. Mrs. J. A. Gaither spoke of the geological Philippines. Mrs. C. E. Wehler told of the islands since becoming a United States possession. Mrs. C. McCorkle gave an account of ten ears work over in these islands. Mrs. G. H. West showed the work of of President Taft while judge in these new possessions. Mrs. W. C. Kenyon of the various races scattered over the many islands, their customs friends at her beautiful suburban and habits. Mrs. L. L. Wetherspoon home. The color scheme of pink was told of the ceding of this territory to the United States and Mrs. L. F. Long

The hostess gave a brief review her book, "The Fly on the Wheel." The guests of honor on this occa-Miss Whitfield was assisted sion were Mrs. P. M. Mull and Mrs.

read a description of the islands from the view of a soldier.

Miss Mattle Reinhardt entertained ightfully Saturday night at her home served in South Newton. Games and music and business began. The result of whiled away the hours and the guests the election of officers was: President, whiled away the hours and the guests were refreshed with delicious ice cream and cake. Those partaking of Miss Reinhardt's hospitality were Misses Annie Caldwell, Louise Little. Ethel Brown, Neva Bolick, Mary Sue ochrane, Minnie Reinhardt, Matt Williams, and Messrs. Lewis Phillips, Chester Crowell, Jesse Hunnicutt. Willie Trott, Rob Wilson, Onslow Bacen, Randelph Wolfe, David Gaither, Ivan Stewart, Macon Williams and Robert Ransom

The dancing set of young people gave a very enjoyable dance at the Virginia Shipp Hotel on Friday night. Those taking part were Misses Isabel and Marie Bost, May Williams, Laura Miller; Miss Shaffer, of Salisbury; Miss Grace Yount; Mesers. A. B. Coon. R. A. Little, Slaughter, Locke McCorkle, Eagles, Davis, George Hoke, Robert Shipp, Harold Mehaffey; Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Long, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Mcorkle and Mrs. Virginia Shipp.

WORTH WILKESBORO.

Correspondence of The Observer. North Wilkesboro, May 14.—On Friday evening of last week the last meeting of the Athena Book Club, until next fall, was held with Miss Ella and Mr. Walter Finley at their beautiful colonial home, Oakland. The house was prettily decorated with Neal, of this city, was the host at a cut flowers, the hall, where punch was served, being in green and pink. After the usual current events and criticisms of the books, a most delightful musical programme was rendered. Among those who charmed test session. The pleasure-seekers per and Mr. W. Martin. Delicious embarked on the handsome gas boat refreshments were served, after of Mr. W. F. Harrell, which was char- which Mr. T. B. Finley, in behalf of the club, presented to Miss Arrowood, Bath enjoys the distinction of being the retiring president, a handsome volume of Shakespeare and a large bunch of carnations. Those enjoying the hospitality of Miss Finley, besides the members of the club, were Misses Spainhour and Rosseau, Mr. and Mrs. Holman, Messrs. Edmund Robinson, and Gardiner, of Baltimore.

The last meeting of the Friday Afternoon Book Club was held with Mrs. J. C. Clements on Friday. In an attractive corner of the vine-covered porch laden with roses, punch was served by Mrs. W. P. Horton. After the club had been called to order by the president, Mrs. Trogdon, Mrs. Clements announced that all present were to give a reading or join in an old-time spelling bee. The prize for the best reading was presented to Mrs. C. M. Rock, and the puize for the best speller was presented to Mrs. J. G. Hackett. A tempting salad course was served by little Misse Margaret Gwyn, Corinne Clements and Lucile Cardwell.

Mrs. Arthur Finley entertained a few of her young friends at a delightful tea Thursday evening.

Monday night Miss Walding was a charming hostess to a number of her decorated for the occasion and the games, a different game at each table. William the Silent was the work of Sallie Foard left for her home in guests were cordially received and Refreshments, consisting of a salad the evening.

Friday evening at 5 o'clock the music pupils of Miss Arrowood gave a delightful recital at the handsome home of Mrs. J. R. Finley. The pupile acquitted themselves admirably, and the pleasure of the evening was greatly enhanced by the violin playing of Miss Isabel Arrowood and

Wednesday evening Misses Pilser. and Finiey were at home to a large number of their friends in honor of the Misses Arrowood, guests of Mrs. Arthur Finley.

LEAKSVILLE.

Correspondence of The Observer. Leaksville, May 14.-The Chelidon Club met with Miss Daisy King, Wednesday afternoon. The rooms were decorated with dogwood, and other "spring's beautiful progeny." cordial welcome was accorded each member of the club and to quite a number of visitors. There is no busi-ness to record in the chronicles of the Chelidon, so after the usual preamble, entertainment proper began, which consisted of a flower contest.

The answer to each question was the name of a flower.

Mrs. Percy Williams and Misses May Carter and Hattie King proved themselves most familiar with flowers, and succeeded in guessing the greatest number, but in cutting, Miss Hattle King was successful and received therefor the prize, a vase. Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Stocks en-honor of her daughter, Mrs. Jones, of Kernersville. The guests were ushered into the dining room, where punch was served. The Chalmers Glenn Chapter of the

C., met with Miss Mary Lily

Mrs. Hobbs entertained most delightfully at an "al fresco" party Wednesday afternoon, in honor her sister, Mrs. Jones. The hostess herself seemed a part of jeyous spring as she met her guests under the overprofusion. An brimming with delight was drained. and then luxurious refreshments were dispensed. About forty ladies par-took of this hospitality, and treasure memories of a gracious hostess.

The History Club met with Miss Jessie King Thursday and held an extra session of business and pleasure combined. Punch was served by Miss Mary Lily King behind a bower of green in the hall. The by-laws called for this annual meeting for the election of officers for the ensuing year, so the hostess would not consign her guests to unremitting labor, but introduced a prelude, in the way of a guessing contest, which was entitled, "Buried Germans," and comprised the hidden names of the Illustrious Germans in the past year's study. The contest was very interesting and resulted in several tying for the prize, but in cutting, Mrs. Moir won the prize, a stenciled centreplece. After the refreshments, strawberry ice cream and cake, were Mrs. Harris; vice president, Grissom; secretary, Miss Nell Flagg.

The Thimble Club met with Mrs J. Taylor on Friday and spent a delightful afternoon. The hostess was ably assisted in receiving by Mrs. Flynn, who also assisted in serving the elegant refreshments.

MAXTON.

Correspondence of The Observer. Maxton, May 14 .- The Merry-Go-Round Book Club was delightfully entertained on Friday by Miss Courtney Nunn at the Maple Shade Hotel. On entering the door, the hostess pinned a half of some flower on each guest. Miss Mattie W. McLean distributed little envelopes, marked "M. G. R." in club colors, containing a poems, "The Queen o' the May." with missing words to be filled in. Miss Lillian McNair, being the lucky one, was asked to sit on the beautiful white throne to be crowned the Queen of May by the president. The crown was of Marechal Neil roses.

Everybody was then told to match partners to go to the dining room, where a salas course with siced tomatoes was served, followed by delicious strawberry cream and cake. The programme for the day was then "Sketch of Margaret Sangrendered: ster," by Miss Hallie Austin; poem from Ella Wheeler Wilcox, Mrs. J. F. McLean; selection from "Master's Violin," Miss C. B. McNair; selection from "Lady of Decoration," Miss Hazel Morrison. The following members were present: Misses Courtney Nunn, Bee Weatherly. Mabel Wooten, Bess Williams, Ella Steed, Kate Sutherland, Hazel Morrison, Carrie Lee Shaw, Mattle B. McLean, Mattle McLean, Emma Belle McRae, Mary McKinnon, Bess McNair, Virginla Everett, Clarkle Belle McNair, Margaret Barnes, Lillian McNair, Margaret Baldwin, Lillian Austin, Leila Barnes, Hallie Austin, Sallie Austin and Mrs. J. F. McLean. The visitors were Miss Everett, of Laurinburg, and Miss Hawley, of Charlotte.

ROCKINGHAM.

Correspondence of The Observer Rockingham, May 14.-Mrs. Carrie Jones announces the engagement of her daughter. Caroline, to Dr. N. C. Hunter, of Rockingham. The marriage will take place in June.

The Phoenix Book Club held a very interesting meeting with Mrs. George Entwistle on Tuesday afternoon. The membership of this club is limited to sixteen, most of whom were present to enjoy the exchange of current literature and the delicious cream served by the hostess. Among those present were: Mesdames J. B. Underwood, H. S. Ledbetter, John S. Ledbetter. W. B. Cole, W. N. Everett, H. C. Deckery, W. C. Leak, Ada Nuttall and Kate Cole.

The Guild of the Golden Fleece met, as usual, on Monday night and

DURHAM.

Cerrespondence of The Observer. Durham, May 14 .- In honor of her guests, Miss Sallie Hill and Mrs. Witherington, of Faison, Mrs. I. F. Hill entertained at cards Friday afternoon. The five tables were in the hall, library and dining room, where five-handed euchre was played. After an hour and a half of spirited play the three prizes were award-For the first prize, Mrs. J. A. of the young lady's prize. These gifts of a salad course, an ice course and tertained a large number of ladies in line, Sunday morning, there was a marriage, the parties being joined in wedlock while sitting in a buggy in the road. The groom is Mr. C. T. Townsend and his bride is Miss Lillie Sallie, the daughter of Mrs. D. Sallie.

Those present were: Mrs. William L. Erwin, Mrs. J. Harper Erwin, Mrs. the future. Bessie Leak, Mrs. John C. Michie, Mrs. William L. Wall, Miss Louise Carr, Mrs. A. E. Lloyd, Mrs. Jones Fuller, Mrs. Raiph Fuller, of Atlanta, Ga.; Mrs. Williams, of Faison; Mrs. W. A. Guthrie, Mrs. J. A. Robinson, Miss Ethel Carr, Mrs. Louis A. Carr, Mis Joe Taylor, Mrs. Otis Smoot, Mrs. E. J. Parrish, Mrs. John Wylle, Mrs. Howard Foushee; Mrs. Wingfield, of Richmond, guest of Mrs. A. E. Lloyd; Mrs. Victor 8. Bryant, Mrs. J. S. Carr, Jr., Mrs. James S. Manning: Mies Sallie Hill, of Falson; Mrs. Beal of Hagerstown, Abernethy, Brent Ramseur, Md.; Miss Nellie Fuller and Mrs. L. F.

it was just before time for the hurch services to begin, when the minister was approached and asked to unite this couple in marriage. He asked them to come into the church, but the groom said it would suit him better to have the vows said right there in the road, so Rev. R. H. Jones spoke the words that made them husband and wife.

The largest of the audiences attending a graduating recital at the Conservatory of Music heard the exercises which won the diploma for Mr. James N. Umstead, Jr., of this Monday evening. Perfect weather conspired with the musically inclined public to crowd the auditorlum. Mr. Umstead was assisted by Miss Annie C. Whitmore, whose voice was at its very best, and by Miss Kinne, violinist, whose two solos were the antecedents of tremendous applause. Her encores were rated just as highly.

Miss Willie Smith, delightfully enertained the Bridge Club Tuesday afternoon from 4 till 6. It was a regular meeting of the club, and as a good many were unable to attend, others were invited to fill the vacan-On arriving at the home on Man-gum street in North Durham the guests were greeted by Mrs. Crawford Biggs, who served punch on the front On entering the house they were met by the hostess, gowned in white and red. One was almost bewildered by the profusion of red roses seen everywhere. The tables were marked with little silver bells, score-cards were beautiful lady heads.

At the close of the exciting games of the afternoon it was found Miss Lila Wright had made the highest Refreshments in two courses were served. Those invited were: Mrs. A. Cobb. Mrs. Edgar Cheek, Miss Nannie Mangum, Miss Hattie Owen, Mrs. W. G. Branham, Mrs. W. H. Fallon, Mrs. L. A. Carr. Mrs. E. J. Parrish: Mrs. Godsey (guest of Mrs. Parrish), New York: Mrs. Otis Smoot, Victor S. Bryant, Mrs. William Morris. Mrs. John F. Wiley, Mrs. T. M. Mrs. W. J. Griswold; Mrs. Rankin, Mrs. B. U. Brooks, Mrs. Sumpter Brawley. Mrs. Ralph Jones, Mrs. W M. Yearby, Mrs. R. T. Faucette, Jr., Mrs. John M. Manning, Mrs. James S. Mason, Mrs. James Manning, Mrs. W. J. Griswold, Mrs. J. C. Michie, Mrs. J. S. Carr, Jr., Mrs. Jones Fuller, Mrs. Joe Graham, Miss Lila Wright, Miss Jean Venable, Miss Ethel Carr. Miss Lottle Sharp, Miss Vivian Nor-ton, Miss Gribble, Miss Jee Taylor, Miss Katle Watkins, Miss Kate Tay lor, Miss Ruth Greene, Miss Jean Holeman, Miss Hattle Holeman, Mrs. K. Powe, Miss Mary Hanes, Mrs. T. M. Gorman, Mrs. Mahler Kramer, Miss Mary Weldon Huske, Mrs. Paul Taylor, Miss Louise Glass, Miss Sallie Glass, Miss Louise Carr, Mrs. I. F. Hill, Mrs. Julian Duncan, Mrs. H. E. Seeman and Mrs. Biggs.

There was a meeting of the Roundabout Club Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Annie L. Long at her home on Pettigrew street. Several guests beside the club members were present. A number of animated games of flinch, the club game, was played, after which dainty refreshments were

The delegates from St. Philip's Episcopal church to the convention left Wednesday morning. They were Rev. Thomas L. Trott, assistant rector; Rev. Sidney S. Bost, rector; Mr. W. L. Wall, Mr. W. A. Erwin, Mr. J. A. Robinson, Major W. A. Guthrie. From the ladies' auxiliary the delegates sent were Mrs. L. A. Carr, Mrs. H. W. Winston, Miss Lauria Nash and Mrs. I. N. Carr.

The City High School entertained the parents, friends and all interested in the school at an exhibit Tuesday afternoon from 4 till 7. A great many people visited the school building and inspected the work done by the children. On account of the popularity of the exhibit, the superintendent consented to entertain another day at the same bours. Over 275 registered on Tuesday afternoon. In addition to the white scholars, there were a number of splendid exhibits sent by the co'ered schools.

Miss Louise Hackney has returned from a visit in Chapel Hill. -Mrs. J. Gilmer Korner, of Kernersville, has was fortunate to have as hostess Mrs. been on a visit to her son, who is a W. C. Leak. A resume of the life of student in Trinity College. —Miss Salisbury after a short stay at the of Fayetteville, and Mrs. Mollie R. Normant, of Lumberton, who came down to attend the graduating recital of Miss Rozier, their sister, have returned to their homes. —Miss Pattie Owens, of Franklinton, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Cox on Trinity avenue. - Miss Mary Ruffin Green has returned from a visit to friends in Raleigh. -Mrs. J. M. who has been in Mississippi for some time, is at home on a visit. -Miss Mary Clark, of Rougemont, is the Robinson and Mrs. W. L. Wall out. guest of her sister, Mrs. Lillian Par-Mrs. Robinson being the fortunate rish, in East Durham. —Mrs. J. B. rish, in East Durham. -Mrs. J. B. winner. The visitors' prize was won Christian has returned from a visit by Mrs. Beal, of Hagerstown, Md. to her daughter, Mrs. A. A. Butler, Miss Louise Carr was the recipient of Hertford. —Mrs. M. C. Herndon has returned from a visit in Ashewere unusually appreciated, being ville. -Miss Lessie Peay has left for brought from abroad by the hostess. her home in Pittsboro, after spending Delicious refreshments, consisting a short while with Miss Rosa Green, on Dilliard street. -Mr. J. B. Page

HICKORY.

and family, of Weldon, have moved

Correspondence of The Observer. Hickory, May 14 .- A delightful entertainment was given in the chapel of Claremont College on the evening of May 6 by local talent, which was enjoyed by a large audience. The songs were rendered charmingly by Mr. Hugh D'Anna, with choruses by Misses Annie Laurie Abernethy, Ruth Lucile Shuford, Margaret Bost, Annie Warlick, Grace Abernethy, and Messrs, At Antioch church, just across the Julius Ramsey, Will Rudisill, James Shuford and Roy Stapp. Mrs. W. L. Clinard was a beautiful and gracefu! impersonation of "Spring," while six girls-Vera Gibbs ng little Janie Menzies as the "Pop-'Daisy." "Rosebud." Gertrude Clinard as the Violet," Alice Cilley as the "Buttercup" and Catherine Menzies as the "Forget-me-not"-were as sweet and > and Master John Aiken gave "Gee! few weeks they will leave for their Be Sweet to Me. Kid," and received new home at Eatonton, Ga. The best The bright little play, "Ici on Par-lovely as the flowers they represent-

Watts Hospital. -Mrs. D. S. MacRae, , lais Francais," was, of co feature of the entertainment.
Charles Bagby impersonated "Regulus Rattan;" Mr. Will Rud
"Victor Dubois;" Mr. Rufus hour was an ideal "Mr. Spriggi Miss Ava Harris, "Mrs. Spriggi Miss Helen Chadwick, "Ang Spriggins;" Mrs. W. L. Clinard, " Rattan," and Miss Lucile Shu 11 of the chara 'Anna Maria." All of the charact were well cast, and, under Mrs. E. L. Shuford's efficient drilling, such actors could not fail to give an enjoy able evening.

CONCORD.

Correspondence of The Observer. Concord, May 13 .- A most delightful card party was given by Miss Grace Brown Saturday afternoon complimentary to Miss Nancy Brown, of Charlotte, who was the guest of Miss Ohla Brown for a week, Bridge to Durham, where they will live in whist was the game of the afternoon and the prize was won by Miss Emma Finlayson, of Tarboro; and the guest of honor was presented with a beautiful deck of cards, as a souvenir of this pleasant occasion. clous ices, strawberries and were served. Phose present were: Misses Nancy Brown, Marguerite and Misses Nancy Brown, Marguette; Em-Blandina Springs, of Charlotte; Em-ma Finiayson, of Tarboro; Chis ma Finiayson, Montgomery, Mar-Gibson, Wilma Correll; Mesdames Louis Brown and Richmond Reed.

> Mrs. P. T. Durham was hostess to the Study Club on Friday afternoon of last week. In addition to the regular programme a most entertaining talk was given by Rev. Plato Dur-ham, on "St. Peter's Cathedral, Rome," and was most thoroughly enjoyed by all who were present. Dainty refreshments closed this pleasant

Mrs. Fred C. Odell is the guest of Mr. W. R. Odell .- Mrs. R. A. Brown Misses Maud and Grace Brown ar visiting friends in Gastonia -- Miss Mary Howie, of Harrisburg, guest of Miss Elma Boyd.—Mrs. R. E. Harris and daughter, Elizabeth, sang "Busy Mister Bee." her usual sweet voice, and Miss Gladys Reid and Master John Alken gave "Gee! few weeks they will leave few weeks they will l wishes of a host of friends will follow

When candy is under discussion, the whole story of perfection, of consummate purity and of the most entrancing deliciousness of flavor is told in the name "Steere's."

Sold by all Druggists and Confectioners. Appreciated by all people.

Exclusive Agency Granted

THE "Queen Quality" factory has no dull periods. It runs fifty weeks out of the fifty-two. Dull times do not affect "Queen Quality" shoes. They are a standard article. always in demand. See our new summer low cuts at $2.50, $3.00 and $3.50 the pair.

BELK BROS.