THE FARMERS' INSTITUTES. Places Where They Are to Be Held This Summer—Other Details to Be Arranged Later. The committee appointed to select the places for holding farmers' institutes in the county this summer have chosen the following:

Capp's school house, Sharon, Oak Dale, Derita and Cochrane's Academy. The department of agriculture was requested to send Prof. W. F. Massey, also Mesdames Hutt and Holland.

The following committee on arrangement was appointed: Oake Dale, Messrs. W. S. Abernathy, A. Thompson, M. M. McCord, Sharon, W. S. Pharr, W. C. Crosby, W. B. Lee and W. D. Stanford. Cochrane's Academy, W. L. Hood, Capt. J. T. Renfro, J. E. Spigar, Derita, Walter Cochrane, H. Howland, B. J. Hunter and J. P. Hunter. Capp's school house, Robert Capps, Park McKnight and Mr. Torrence.

At the Academy. Good sized crowds attended the vaudeville performance at the Academy of Music last night. The bill, which is being offered by the management of the local playhouse this week, is far above the average vaudeville entertainments which have been presented in this city. Professor Cannon and his Australian comedians, give one of the most novel specialties that has ever been seen in this city. There are seven acts on the bill, and each one was well received. There will be a matinee performance each afternoon at 4 o'clock. The first show at night will begin promptly at 8 o'clock.
