NEWBERN SCHOOLS CLOSE.

ary Address by Dr. Edwin Mims, of Trinity College, Heard by Large Audience—Medals and Scholarships Awarded.

Special to The Observer.

Newbern, June 1 .- The commencement exercises of the city graded schools were held Tuesday in the annual meeting last night when ofschool auditorium. Three members of the graduating class read essays. Miss Beulah Holton, on "Edgar Allan Poe;" Miss Ethel Willett, on "Abraham Lincein," and Mr. Albert Marks, on "The German Compulsory School System." The diplemas were presented by Mr. T. A. Green, the president of the board of trustees. The tenth grade mathematics medal was won by Miss progress has been made, in the de-Mary Uzzell; the high school literature medal by John Haywood Jones; the first year Latin medal by Ger-trude Carraway. Mr. R. A. Nunn presented to Mr. Edward Berry $10 in gold for the best paper on "Co-lonial Newbern." Scholarships in the A. and M. College were won by Albert Marks and George Howard; in the University by Stein Basnight; in Trinity College by Mary Uzzell, and in Elizabeth College by Ethel Willett.

The literary address by Dr. Edwin Mims was a gem of its kind. Although the day was the hottest of the Mims was given the closest attention for an hour and his address made a deep impression on the audience. He spoke of a higher and broader education, giving some of the most beautiful illustrations to make clear his ideas. He took up some of the usual criticisms made of educated men and showed their fallacy and then told the audience what he believed the educated man stood for and also some of the qualities which he must have.

Tuesday night in the high school building the reception to the graduating class was held. The members of the board, teachers and the graduating class received the visitors and a very enjoyable social evening was spent. The high school orchestra rendered music during the evening and delightful refreshments were served.

DURHAM SCHOOLS CLOSE.

Forty Seniors Turned Out-Sermon by Rev. Melton Clark, of Greensboro-Banquet Last Night. Special to The Observer

Durham, June 3 .- The closing exercises of the Durham graded schools began last night when Rev Melton Clark, of the First Presbyterian church, of Greensboro, delivered the annual sermon to the graduates.

Forty seniors sat under his preaching and Trinity Methodist church was well filled for the occasion. One of the best numbers of the musical programme was the solo of Miss Mary Duke, rendered in fine soprano voice. West Durham graded schools closed yesterday and Rev. R. W. Hogue, rector of the Chapel of the Cross, of Chapel Hill, made the annual address. It was done eloquently and before an audience as large as the auditorium could seat. This morning at 11 o'clock, began graduation exercises. Following this was the annual literary address of Dr. Graham, of Chapel Hill. To-night at 8:15 the alumni of the high school gave a banquet and the young ladies attended.
