BRIEFS.

A Few Minor Happenings in now About the City.

-The Brown and Lester Musical Comedy Company is performing this Miss Nancy week at the Casino, on North Tryon

-There was a good sized audience present last night at Latta Park, to see the performance of "Grimes' Cellar Door," by the Mackie Comedy Company.

-Mr. W. M. Orr, commercial agent of the Queen and Crescent Route, has opened offices at the city office of the Southern Railway on South Tryon

-The Primary Sunday School Teachers' Union will meet at the Second Presbyterian church this afternoon at 5:30 o'clock instead of 4:30 the twenty- as previously announced. -The friends here of Mr. F. M. Simmons, of this city, will learn with regret that he is quite ill. Mr. Simmons was taken to the Presbyterian Hospital yesterday, and it is hoped that his recovery will be rapid. -The "old hoss" sale of the uncalled for packages at the Seaboard Air Line freight depot, will be held to-day at their office, No. 245 East Trade street. The auctioneering will commence at noon.

—The many Charlotte friends of Rev. Dr. W. W. Pharr, of Mooresville, will be interested to learn that his condition is somewhat improved. Dr. Pharr suffered a stroke of paralysis several months ago.

-One of the negroes at work yesterday at the Wadsworth farm dled empleton and suddenly shortly after the noon hour, from apoplexy. Death came while he was at work and caused much excitement among the other hands. The body was brought to the city and was prepared for hurial.

> which · visited -The rainstorms other places in this section yesterday threatened to visit Charlotte in the early part of the night, lightning at considerable distance being con-
