CICOTTE OF THE BOST ON AMERICANS, ONE OF LEADING PITCHERS IN LEAGUE.

Judging by the great form he is in at present, Eddie Cicotte, the star terday for Norfolk where he will be pitcher of the Boston Red Sox, su rely will give George Mullin, of De-troit, who is now leading the winning twirlers in the American League Emporia division, the Norfolk-Selma with a high percentage, a good run out of the first eight games he has pitched. In 1908 he pitched twenty-three games, winning eleven and Mr. Finlater goes from the agency losing twelve. He was taken out of five games and finished ten for here to the position of dispatcher, a other pitchers. Cicotte's entrance into the majors precipitated a storm of guesses as to the right way to pronounce his peculiar name. The aimost universally accepted fashion was "CI-cot-ty." Finally the player himself was appealed to, and declared that his name was pronounced as if spolled See-cott.

Afraid to talk much to-day. That points in all but the seventh inning, when double-header lingers here.
