TE INTERURBAN EDITION KER HIGH-WATER MARK.

ion of The Observer Co ained 6,600 Inches of Classified Advertising, More Than Was Carried liefure By Any North Carolina Nosvepaper—Its Size of One Hundred Pages Was Unapproached in North Carolina and the Amount of Board of Trade Advertising Has er Been Equalled By Auy Southnt For This Section Entire was an Observer Production

nexampled in the history of North line journalism and, with but exception, unapproached in that of the entire Southern States, the Innformation had been gained from the ervative advance notices which had been published from time to time.
The pevious flood-tide of Tar Heel townstiam was The Observer's 64urnalism was The Observer's es Christmas edition of 1907.

ed at the psycological moment a great constructive era of indusuing decades, the paper was quickrectated by the public. This rders which poured in through the il. Some ordered hundreds of copies stand trial before a fair court. for the benefit of particular towns.
Thousands for advertising purposes are being sent throughout the North and Northwest and to all parts of the fact and the further probability that an even larger demand would make itself felt when the quality of the was seen, that provision was e for the printing of extra copies. This makes it possible still to rders for copies to be mailed at ten people expressed amazement hat a newspaper office in a city of hardly exceeding 40,000 people could publish of its own resources an edin of 100 pages and send these to ubscribers with the current news of the day on the regular trains on the day of issue. This was especially true of those who had not had much riunity in the past to compare Charlotte morning paper with published in cities of from 50,to 250,000 inhabitants, with a to ascertaining whether or not 000 20 250,000 inhabitants, with Queen City was abreast of, or in to its news service.

MADE IN THE SHOP. Most noteworthy is the fact that the transmission lines radiating to all towns along the route, was no ex-C. G. Schauck, who has charge of to-engraving plant of the pavertising was far ahead of the larg-came disorderly and a nulsance. d thing and have resolved that the outside world shall know about it also. They have been quicker than those of other sections to learn the lesson that municipal advertising pays divilends just as certainly as does that for private enterprises.

The net result will be that pledmont and South Carolina will be advertised within the next few days than ever heretofore in history. The manner in which the towns along the route entered into the rit of the undertaking demonstrated that they are alive in every sense of the word and will enlist their best efforts to secure the fullest possible Burning trash in the rear of the industrial development, availing them residence at No. 909 West Fourth

RIPE FOR DEVELOPMENT. the facts and illustration show. beat faster, especially those of towns were in themselves vin- beavy risks. It is of course merits the Southern Power Company projected. For not only does the moment they may be pressed ecades, aided by other agencies, have show in Charlotte. the interurban will find a mod- aspirations. well-equipped, progressive city has had its eyes to the front many years and is admirably the new system. The towns which the route are already sufficiently that Winston-Salem. July that Winston-Salem. large and husky in population and commercial assets to prove feeders of no mean value to the passenger and freight traffic of the electric railroad They and the environing country have already reached the stage at which nly the electric stimulus is necessary cause them to blossom forth into gally enhanced productive powers. The preparation of the 100 pages of the interurban edition by trained writes connected with The Observer Comar, the printing of these and the the monster edition, he one of the nost formidof all the tasks in connection to interest The Observer's all departments. Yet the done with such system and personal pride in it on each man who had a part r that it was accomplished inted to my nothing imposition, press work n of the articles by m of the staff.

SELF-DEFENSE IN DAVIS CASE.

Shot Will Chishelm While His Life CHECK FLASHER SENTENCED Was Endangered—Prisoner Discharged—Clothing Thief Held For Recorder Smith Ordains That Young Superior Court—Greek Fined For Man Who Affixed His Signature.

Tom Davis, the negro who was apprehended in Winston several days ago on a charge of an assault in this city, was freed by Recorder Smith yesterday. During last March the prisoner engaged in an affray with Will Chisholm, and in the melee, shot his opponent through the hip. cording to the custom of his race, Robert L. Mills, a member of a not mattering whether he was right prominent family in Georgia, was or wrong in his action, Davis took to sentenced by Recorder Smith yes-"the tall and uncut," and was only captured several days ago. From nesses of the affair, Davis had shot entirely in self-defense, and at the time of the shooting, was threatened terurban Edition of The Observer yes; the hand of Chisholm. Upon the city several weeks past, and since testimony of the witnesses the recorder his arrival has flooded the local ons of most of those whose only allowed the overloyed negro to banks with small checks bearing his ation had been gained from the emerge from the confines of the court name. The attempts of Mills as a room with great pleasure and alacrity. "con" man were really pitiful. Inupon the pres and cens of the mat- stead of paiming off a check for a If Tom had only stopped to deliberate ter, and reflected that the law might large amount and shaking the dust have cast a merciful optic upon him of barlotte from his feet, the young as syldenced even before it had seen becomes engaged in an affair of this belight of day by the thousands of character, will leave town at the first opportunity rather than remain and to them. The avenging side of the tribunal is all that they behold. Paul Pragan, colored, was arrested orid. It was in anticipation of this in Winston at the same time with Davis, but did not fare so well at the hands of the recorder as did his fellow-prisoner. Pragan was charged with the larceny of a quantity of fense was not what might be called impregnable by any means. that the assault smacked of brutality, upon the Greek. When arrested tional. every single one of the more than that he would not go to the station Mills attempted to have the manner of his going.

tion. They realize that they have a the rule recently instituted in the recorder's court for the recovery of a greater portion of the revenue derived from the recorder's court for the city. By means of a civil action, the entire damages awarded by the recorder go to the municipality, while in a criminal retion, only a small percentage finds its way into the coffers of City Treasurer Wearn, selves of the exceptional means which street in Woodlawn engaged the atare to be available. And all of this tention of the fire departments yestolon of the entire country will of ne- tenants who had recently occupied essity be attracted, especially that the home, which is the property of eraons who are contemplating a Mr. W. S. Dorr who lives next door, ange of location and are seeking a had moved out, and left the trash delightful clime in which to dwell, near the fence in the rear. It became with fertile soil to cultivate or profit- ignited. Those living nearby fought enterprises in which to investit entil there was no water available fortunes and their talents, and telephoned in an alarm to the in the lines and between the Fifth street station. The firemen being the lines are parties out turned in box 35, response being resd the intelligence, the civic confi-made from both uptown stations. The dence and enthusiasm which is per-blaze was extinguished by the use of meating this entire sction, a confi-chemicals. The water was cut off dence born of achievements of knowl- when the alarm was rung, but the when the alarm was rung, but of present resources and potentiali- liquid was turned on though it was not requisitioned.

SMALL AFTERNOON FIRE.

For First Time in Many Years Fire have given up his reformation Alarm Rinus With Water Connection Off-No Damage Results.

The sounding of the ill plarm just In addition to all these considers at this time causes man a heart to ing forth the merits of the different surance men whose companies carry and possible to secure pressure in fightjudgment of the backers of ing fires where the water supply is the Southern Power Company 'n so low, so it is necessary to keep the selecting this as a field for the im-mense traction development which is time, as there is no prophesying the graphy make such an enterprise service. The firemen are well posted. easily feasible and assured of success however, and resourceful in making under wise management, but the ef-use of all expedients known to the forts of the residents in the past craft. Prospective fires stand little son sufficient in developing these soon as notified pounce upon them sources to a great extent. In Chan, like furles and speedily squeich their

> Will Show That Winston-Salem Deserves Million-Dollar Postoffice.

Winston-Salen., July 26 .- To show the city during his brief stay. that Winston-Salem deserves a million-dollar postoffice, will be the in tention of the committee of promithe postoffice authorities in Washington Friday in regard to the new building, for which an appropriation of $259,900 was made at the last Congress. Senators Overman and Simmons and Representatives Sted-man, Page and Small have promised to do whatever possible to have the authorities see the absolute needs of an adequate government building here, which is one of the largest revenue payers that Uncle Sam has, are

Pleads Guilty to Manslaughter and Gets Four Months. Winston-Salem, July 26 .- Four months on the county roads was the sentence meted out to Dave Allen, a ing lake and comes out alive-unless sentence meted out to Dave Allen, a negro, who killed his brother-in-law, Arthur Harvey, on June 4 last, the pleas of manslaughter being accepted in the superior court here, Judge Council presiding it was shown that Allen remonstrated with Harvey for abusing his wife, who was Allen's slater, and that Harvey attacked him, whereupon he met death by a pistol wound.

No matter where you spend the ho months—order The Observer sent to rou—telephone 78.—

MILLS SENT OFF TO JAIL

to Many Worthless Checks During His Brief Stay in City, Shall Sp 30 Days as an Inmate of County Jail-Expected Funds, With Which to Make Good His Numerous Checks, Only Eplanation of De-

Robert L. Mills, a member of a terday to a term of 30 days in the county fail. The charge against the young man was that of passing worthless checks upon various concerns of the city. Mills arrived in the city several weeks past, and since under the circumstances, the city n would stick someone with a $1 should have been saved consider or $2 check, and remain in the city able expense in its search for him. The largest at concealment. achievement which augurs un-achievement which augurs un-and he would have been saved much written by Mills, was that which was difficulty in avoiding this search. In written by Mills, was that which was nine cases out of ten, a negro who given to the Central hotel for a becomes engaged in an affair of this board bill. Upon the discovery that the bit of paper which bore the name of yesterday's defendant and stand trial before a fair court. The out value, the hotel officials gave the day, announced through its foreman plaintiff and defendant will continue young man notice that a certain length of time would be allowed him to make the money good, and that Mills would be prosecuted. tricated himself from this predicament by summoning a local minister to his aid, a friend of his father's, Another who took up the check. check for $2 was given to Mr. Charles clothing from August Wlegand, and Ritch of the Buford pool room. was bound over to the next term of check was made out upon a blank superior court under a $100 bond. The evidence was strong against the when Mr. Ritch discvered that Mills defendant from the start, and his dehad no account in that institution, thinking possibly he had made a mis-C. C. Trakas was charged with an take and intended to fill it out upon assault upon a small colored youth by the Charlotte National, he carried it the name of James Aller. The as- there but was likewise informed that sault took place on North Tryon the name of Mills was not upon its street, immediately in front of the books. Mills, hearing that Mr. Ritch Casino moving picture show. The intended to prosecute him for the foreigner struck the small boy with worthless check, managed to secure his clenched fist several times, and the requisite face value of the pa-Recorder Smith was of the opinion saying that he had made a mistake, etc., and that the check should have lead of, many of these with regard and placed a fine of $10 and the costs been made upon the Charlotte Na-The few pointed remarks upon the Greek. When arrested tional. The few pointed remarks an injury sustained by a mule be-shortly after the occurrence by Officer which his mendacity brought fourth. McKnight. Trakas made quite a are best left unsature of the hotel. McKnight, Trakas made quite a are best left unsaid. After stinging scene, protesting in broken English the pool room feature of the hotel, 200 cuts for the illustrations in this house. It was the original purpose of cashed in the office of the Buford for was made in The Observer shop the officer to only summon him to $12, but was refused. Finding the The elaborate cover page, depicting appear in court, but when rebellion check business rather dull, shortly the water falls, the power house and appeared on the horizon, the Greek before his arrest, the young man alappeared on the horizon, the Greek before his arrest, the young man alwas hastened to headquarters with most negotiated another branch of soant ceremony, nor did he tarry upon the J. Rufus Wallingford game. He procured a blank of the Western Will Neal, colored, was fined $25 Union Telegraph Company, and filand the costs for a large and greatly ling out a message addressed to enjoyed drunk, in which he was chief himself, to the effect that his aunt The Observer yesterday carried 6. and foremost participant several had died and was to buried in Jacksection ever appeared before in the columns of a North Carolina newsumns of a North Carolina newsto so far overcome his customary of the gospel of his acquaintance in to so far overcome his customary of the gospel of his acquaintance in the company of the company of the gospel of his acquaintance in the company of the company o came disorderly and a nuisance.

Mr. L. A. Lockwood was fined $10 minister was on the verge of supplying the wherewithal, when it occurred to him that Jacksonville was and the costs for exceeding the speed limit of the city on Tuesday. This fact illustrates the progressiveness of the town and cities of this section. They realize that they have a section in the city instituted in the rule recently instituted in the rule recently instituted in the city of the firm of the city by the firm of the city severage system draining into Phifer's creek. The plaintiff is represented by Mr. Cameron and Col. Leroy Kirkpatrick; and the city by the firm of the city severage system draining into Phifer's creek. The plaintiff is represented by Mr. Cameron and Col. Leroy Kirkpatrick; and the city severage system draining into Phifer's creek. The plaintiff is represented by Mr. Cameron and Col. Leroy Kirkpatrick; and the city severage system draining into Phifer's creek. The plaintiff is represented by Mr. Cameron and Col. Leroy Kirkpatrick; and the city severage system draining into Phifer's creek. The plaintiff is represented by Mr. Cameron and Col. Leroy Kirkpatrick; and the city severage system draining into Phifer's creek. followed. that the duplicity of Mills was ex-Shortly after his incarceraposed. tion in the station house, the father of the youth was communicated Georgia, but a mesage was with in received from the aged minister to the effect that he declined to participate in the affair, and that the law could take its course. It is understood that the young man's family have aided him several times in the past under similar conditions.

> hopeless HE EXPECTED MONEY. When arrigned in the city court, Mills admitted that he had never had a cent to his credit in any Charlotte banking institution, only offering the defence that he was expecting money from a brother Atlanta, Ga., and also from The Piedmont, upon which publication he formerly occupied the position of circulation manager. was with these expected funds that Mills claims he intended to redeem the worthless checks which he had Several local ministers of the A. R. P. Church, were introduced to testify in behalf of the youth, but were not able to say anything extremely complimentary to his character, other than he was possessed of self-sacrificing and consecrated father, who had devoted his life to his ministerial labors, Recorder Smith was apparently at a loss for some time, as the most applicable punishfor Mills, but finally, decided that the attitude of the defendant had been so extremely bold and desatisfy the demands of the law was accordingly decreed that Mills should spend the coming 30 days of his existence as an inmate of the Mecklenburg county jail.

The youth who ran amuck of the law in this city, is originally from Georgia, but was for several years a resident of Due West, S. C., where his father occupied the pulpit in the R. P. church of that place. While in Due West, Mills attended Erskine College, being dismissed in his junattractive personality and address and had made many acquaintances in nent citisens which will leave here Sensation of the Season Lakewood Park

> Don't fail to see "Happy" Jack Taylor, the most daring stunt-artist in the country, in his flery diving performance. A mass of flames he descends a chute 60 feet into the burn-

Goes the noted Diavalo one better. Courts death at every performance The most spectacular stunt ever performed in North Carolina. Don't look at it unless you have a Performances at 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon and 3:30 o'clock at night the balance of this week.

The Golden Hour

You can hear the sound of his increasing dollars when the progressive merchant acts on his good judgment and buys his shoes in Charlotte. The very shoes themselves would cry out if we did not speak for them and declare why they should be handled by every shoe store in the Carolinas.

Foreman Company

Wholesale Distributors of the Pullman and Other Brands.

MISTRIAL IN ALLEY CASE.

ifter Deliberating For Hours, Jury Announces That No Agreement Can Be Reached—Case of Mr. Parks Kirkpatrick Versus City of Charlotte Begun Yesterday -Plaintiff Takes Stand.

At the opening of the morning session of superior court yesterday, the jury which had been out on the case of S. W. Alley versus the Charcalled for the sum of $15, was with- lotte Pipe & Foundry Co. since Monthat it was absolutely unable to agree until next week. upon a verdict. Judge Adams put unless th's was done immediately, he the customary question as to whether ex- there was not some hope that an agreement might be reached, and when a negative answer was returncase which has probably consumed as much time as any civil action which was ever tried in Mecklen-burg county. It is understood that of the Union National bank, but it men of the jury were in favor of returning some plaintiff, but the twelfth was strong as the Rock of Gibralter, and declined to agree to so much as a penny for Alley. Many hours were spent by the remainder of the jury in an attempt to persuade the dissenting juror to enter into their way of thinking-but to no avail.

Immediately after the announcement by the foreman had been made menced upon the case of D. B. Swar-inger versus G. W. Smith, supervisor roads. The affair was based upon bridge in the county. The plaintiff claimed that the injury to the animal was due to the negligence of the defendant, in that in his official capacity of supervisor of roads, he did not see to it that the bridge was kept in proper repair. The jury returned a verdict in fevor of the defendant, and of course no damages were awarded to the plaintiff he much discussed case of Mr.

Parks Kirkpatrick versus the City of Charlotte was taken up at the afplaintiff sues the municipality for the sum of $10,000, which he claims is the amount of damage which a tract with the result the city by the firm of Maxwell and Numerous character were sent to the stand by the torneys for the plaintiff, in order to excellent testify borne by Mr. Kirkoatrick. conclusion of the favorable evidence of the witnesses, Mr. Kirkpatrick himself took the stand and testified to the condition of his property, before and after the present sewerage conditions. On the cross examination of the attorneys for the plaintiff. nearly every question propounded for the witness brought forth a chorus of objections from the defense s much so that Judge Adams was kept extremely busy sustaining and over-ruling objections. Mr. Kirkpatrick

To Be Supreme And On Top

In any department of human effort, one must produce something better than has been produced before. This Jexplains the supremacy of "The Old Reliable Stieff Plano." Quality and purity of tone have made it the king of all pianos. This coupled with the fact that it is sold direct from he maker to the individual home, makes it imperative that was followed by Mr. John Hall, who also proved to be an important wit-ness for the plaffitiff, substantisting the testimony of Mr. Kirkpatrick, At the conclusion of the cross ex-amination of Mr. Hall, the court adjourned until this morinng. From the present outlook, it seems that this case will be a rival of the Alley case in point of time consumed. It is hardly probable that the facts will eb turned over to the jury for deliberation before Saturday, and it is most probable that the lengthy evidence and the speeches for the

With the Sweet Tone. SOUTHERN WAREROOMS 5 West Trade Street, Charlotte, N. C.

C. H. WILMOTH, Mgr.

FOR SALE

Six 8-foot and two 6-Showcaser Counters. Oak. plate glass, mahogany finish. suitable for jewelry store, Will also sell complete outfit Jewelry, Ring and Watch Trays, oak finish. Can be seen in our new

BRUNS GARIBALDI,

Weather Calls for Lots of Better come in and let us fit you out. We are showing the prettiest lines this summer we have ever shown.

The biggest hit of the season is the new silk and ien mixtures with the soft turn up cuffs.

Several new patterns with two collars to match the shirt.

Straw Hats are still ing at half price.

STYLISH LIVERY

Our Landaus, Surreys, Traps and Buggies, etc., are siways in Vet-class condition, and the ble assot ment of Our Livery is the largest and best every kind of vehicle that is neces sary for a city livery. Send Your Livery Orders to Us

Reid Livery Company Phone Nos. 2270 and 2271. 209-11 West Fourth Street.

Tais is an excellent time consider the purchase of an up-to-date time and money-modern filing equipment sufficiently to explain its uses without incurring the risk of over-systematizing. Let show you how we use it in our own business.

POUND & MOORE CO

205-207 South Tryon St. Thones 37 and 10.

The Observer seven days the week-devoted to the upbuilding of the Carolines with leased wire service, a large corps of special correspondents gets all the news that is fit to read. Sent to your address anywhere three

All the news that is fit to print-

Quickly Relieved

Woodall & Sheppard's HEADACHE CURE Price 25c.

System Means Dollars to You

While auditing the accounts of an old and reliable firm in one of the neighboring towns recently we came across an item of $495.00 that had fectly good, and collection of this amount was made at once

This firm never really believed in auditing or having any particular system before, but we are assured of their work from now on.

Hasn't the same thing happened in your office? Let us find out.

The System Department Observer Printing House Box 763,

> BLAKE'S DRUG SHOP Ou the Square. Prescriptions Filled Day

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

and Night. QUICK

SERVICE in the drug business. That's what you get here. Every order, large Registered prescriptionists only are employed.

or small, is rushed to

John S. Blake Drug Co.

"Propes 41 and 300 Registered Nurses' Directory.

The Observer—seven days to the week—devoted to the upbuilding of dress for $8 the year.

Does Quality and Service Count With You?

Season in and season out you will always find a strictly High-Class Stock of Clothing, Hats, Furnishing Goods and Shoes on our counters. We believe in giving the best values possible to every customer of our store, no matter how small or howlarge his purchase may be,

Our motto is to give the best service possible and the same treatment to every one. If you're not already a customer of ours make it a point to visit us when you are again in need of anything that an upto-date man's store carries.

Ed. Mellon Company You Can Always Get It at Mellon's