NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

As Told by the Papers in the Neighboring Counties.

McDOWELL.

Marion Democrat, Oct. 2nd.
Sheriff Mashburn brought one Loma Webb from Morganton Tuesday on a charge of breaking into George Gibson's house at Nebo.

The damage done by the fire in the Nichols residence was adjusted, Wednesday, at the agency of Squire W. F. Craig, and promptly paid by the Traders Insurance company, of Chicago. The amount was $100.

Carrie, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. B. A. Cheek, who is at the Biltmore hospital, is rapidly improving and expects to return home to Marion within the next week. Mrs. B. A. Cheek, her mother, still remains with her.

An interesting wedding took place Sunday morning, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Morgan, when their niece, Miss Hattie Whitesides, of Rutherford county, was united in marriage to B. M. Noland, of Asheville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. S. Wilson, pastor of Presbyterian church.

The members of the new county board of education met Tuesday and organized by electing D. E. Hudgins chairman. The board then proceeded to the selection of county superintendent and by unanimous vote elected Professor E. E. Sams to succeed Attorney W. F. Wood. The county board proposes to inaugurate some needed reforms and were unanimous in the matter of consolidation of the districts so as to get better school houses and State assistance.

Other McDowell Items.
Marion News, Oct. 1st.
The Marion Lyceum Club re-organized Monday night and will give another series of entertainments this winter.

Isaac T. Avery Esq., of Morganton, was in town Friday. He delivered an able address before the Anti-Saloon League on Friday night.

Pastor C. S. Cashwell of the Marion Baptist church, has under consideration notice of unanimous calls to the Baptist church at Dallas, N. C., and also Breward, N. C.

Things are getting a little warmed up over the election. Both sides are hard at work and somebody is going to be fooled. The "wets" are confident of the victory and the "drys" are just as confident.

The meeting of the Anti-Saloon League Friday night was well attended and it is reported to have been the best meeting that has been held. The addresses delivered by I. T. Avery, Esq., of Morganton, and Rev. W. S. Wilson were exceptionally fine and produced a good effect.

Starvation in Porto Rico.
New York Dispatch to Charlotte Chronicle
"The people of Porto Rico are practically in a starving condition," said George Robinson, of St. Louis, who returned from that island today. "Despite the reports that have been circulated by Governor Hunt and Northern Republican papers regarding the alleged prosperity of Porto Rico, the people in the interior of the island would be in a starving condition. It is a fact that many families do not taste bread once a week."

"The people of Porto Rico are in a most pitiable condition. They are most loyal in their attachment to the United States and have made no protest against the American rule lest their action in this regard should be considered as disloyalty to this country."

CATAWBA.

Newton Enterprise, Oct. 2nd.
With cotton at 9 cents many of our farmers will hold their crops for better prices.

The many friends in Catawba county of Hon. J. F. Reinhardt will deeply sympathize with him in the loss of his most estimable wife on September 21st.

We are glad to note that Mr. Geo. W. Lowe is again able to be about in his yard. Mr. Lowe has lately suffered from a third stroke of paralysis, which though a very slight one has left its mark upon him. Last March Mr. Lowe reached his eighty-eighth birthday.

The Seventh Adventists in Salisbury practiced social equality in fine style last week when they baptized three white and five colored persons at the same time. The Adventist woman wiped the water from white and black faces alike with the same towel as the parties came up out of the water of Town creek.

In another column we give the statement of the Newton Board of Trade committee on educational facilities, showing what might easily be done towards a good graded school in our town if our people would be willing to pay a local tax. Few towns of the size of Newton are without a graded school and it would certainly be a good step forward in the right direction. We have always favored a graded school in our midst and now is certainly the time to start the movement towards one.

Other Catawba Items.
Newton News, Sept. 30th.
The Crusaders still attract crowds on Sunday from Newton. About 30 went to Hickory Sunday and Sunday night to hear them.

Mr. Alex. Shuford of Hickory was married Monday night to Miss Maud Ferguson of Waynesville. The ceremony took place at Spartanburg where Miss Ferguson was at school.

The C. & N. W. Ry. continue to improve their line. They are working now on a steel bridge which will cross Maiden creek. This road has made more improvements in the past two years than any other in the State.

The meeting at the Baptist church is being well attended. It began Sunday night and will continue through the week. On account of this meeting Rev. and Mrs. John Welch will not begin their meeting until next week.

We are sorrow to chronicle the death of Mrs. J. F. Reinhardt, wife of Senator Reinhardt of this District. Mrs. Reinhardt was a most estimable woman and had many friends among the people of all classes in her neighborhood.

Mrs. E. R. Stewart is back from Blowing Rock. She has had a very successful season at her hotel, "The Skyland Inn," this season. Blowing Rock has been full to overflowing all summer and all the hotels have had all they could do to accommodate the guests.

DO GOOD—IT PAYS.
A Chicago man has observed that "Good deeds are better than real estate deeds—some of the latter are worthless. Act kindly and gently, show sympathy and lend a helping hand. You cannot possibly lose by it. Most men appreciate a kind word and encouragement more than substantial help. There are persons in this community who might truthfully say: "My good friend, cheer up. A few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will rid you of your cold, and there is no danger whatever from pneumonia when you use that medicine. It always cures. I know it for it has helped me out many a time." Sold by W. A. Leslie, Druggist.

CLEVELAND.

Shelby Star, Sept. 30th.
Mr. Andrew Hoyle, of Delight, has one of the smallest dogs on record. It is seven months old and only seven inches high and weighs just nine pounds.

Cotton has decreased in price during the past week and it is only 9 1/4 cents on the Shelby market, which is some higher than at larger towns in this section. The price ought, and we believe will be higher.

Uncle Peter Lucas, who was 85 years old last May and who has goods laid up for many more days, plowed and hoed a crop of corn the past summer and says he has made a good crop, plenty to do him and his wife by his own labor. That he has made more and better corn than any of his six tenants and renters.

Mrs. E. V. Watterson, of near King's Mountain, exhibited a quilt at the Star office Monday which is 70 years old. Mrs. Watterson bought the calico from Messrs. Albert Homesly, A. W. Quinn and Ancil Hardin, the first stores that were put up in Shelby. She had come to town to buy her hat, and there wasn't any, so she bought the calico at 30c per yard. The quilt is well preserved.

The State Saturday permitted the domestication of the Carolina Monazite Company, which was chartered in New Jersey, but which now becomes a North Carolina corporation with headquarters at Shelby, the capital stock being $50,000 and Sidney Wren and others, of Philadelphia, being the stockholders. The company is domesticated under chapter 766, acts 1903, and not under the Craig act, which the Supreme Court has declared invalid.—Raleigh cor. Charlotte Observer.

The series of meetings at the Shelby Methodist church conducted by Rev. E. C. Glenn, the well-known evangelist, have resulted in much good and aroused deep interest. Pastor Sherrill and the other ministers of the town have joined in the meetings and the Christian people of the town have been active in the services and large crowds have attended regularly from day to day. All this week business houses of the town have closed during the hours of services and the people of the town have manifested much interest in the meeting. There have been very many conversions and a general awakening of Christian people and church members.

The Star chronicles herewith the death of three of Cleveland county's oldest and most highly respected citizens. The first is Mr. J. Smith Hopper, who died at his home in Earl station Wednesday after an illness of several days with a tumor of the stomach. Deceased was 89 years and six months old. He was a consecrated member of Buffalo Baptist church and his body was laid to rest there last Thursday. Rev. T. Dixon conducting the funeral services.

"Uncle" Billy McCall, of Cleveland Mills, whose serious illness was noted in a previous issue, died September 22nd, and was buried last Wednesday at the Lucas graveyard. Rev. J. V. Denny conducting the funeral services. Deceased was 95 years of age—probably the oldest man in the county, and he lived a consistent Christian life. He was a prominent citizen and at one time served as county commissioner and magistrate, and held other positions of trust and honor. Dr. J. E. Osborne, one of the oldest and most widely known physicians in Cleveland county, died Wednesday night, after an illness of many months, at his home in No. 10 township. Dr. Osborne was 81 years old and a man of vast experiences and large usefulness. He was a most successful physician and in the days of his vigorous manhood he went night and day and administered to the needs of a large number of patients.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR
Cures Colds; Prevents Pneumonia

CALDWELL.

Lenoir News, Oct. 2nd.
Cabbage brought $1.30 cash on the streets here Wednesday, an unusually high figure for this season.

Miss Emma King, who is attending Davenport College, received the sad intelligence of the death of her father at Forest City last Sunday. She was nearly prostrated with grief but left at once via Morganton and Marion to attend the burial. Dr. Weaver accompanied her.

The nineteenth annual session of the Caldwell Baptist Association, which was held last week, was in some respects the most satisfactory session ever held. The attendance was large during the entire session, many visiting members being present. All the churches in the association were well represented and reported improvements along all lines. Many questions of interest were ably discussed, and some very helpful and instructive sermons were preached during the meeting.

For some time counterfeit money has been floating around in Watauga county, N. C., and Johnson county, Tenn. Mr. Jont H. Brown was down from Watauga yesterday and told us that a number of the men engaged in the business had been captured among them Dick Arnold and a man named Hall were caught with a lot of spurious coin and the machinery to make it. Pink Henson and John Hodges are also in the toils, being bound over to court in the sum of $1,500 each. There are a good many others thought to be implicated and the officers are after them. The spurious money was made by gold-plating silver coin.

Other Caldwell News.
Lenoir Topic, Sept. 30th.
Mr. S. J. Ervin, Esq., of Morganton was a visitor court week.

Mr. Tillman Kincaid and family have moved from Morganton to Lenoir.

Court convenes again November 30th for the trial of civil cases only.

The crowd at Sunday's Association was a very large one. All the town churches were crowded.

Mr. L. M. Parks last week finished the telephone line between Lenoir and Wilkesboro. It is now "Hello, Wilkesboro!"

Dr. Moore is "proseeding" with his medicine business in North Carolina we presume. He has "proseeded" out of Lenoir we know.

Mr. S. L. Patterson has so far recovered his health as to be able to return to Raleigh Monday to resume his duties as commissioner of agriculture.

WATAUGA.
Boone Democrat, Oct. 1st.
No more court until next spring, but it promises to be a humming term.

Chestnuts are beginning to open but the crop promises to be light.

The market wagons are beginning to run regularly now and produce is, we hear, bringing a good price at Lenoir.

THE LITTLE COUNTRY PAPER.

When the evening shade is fallin' at the endin' of the day,
An' a feller rests from labor smokin' at his pipe o' clay,
There's nothin' does him so much good, he fortune up or down,
As the little country paper from his home town.
It ain't a thing o' beauty an' its print ain't always clean,
But it straddles out his temper when a feller's feelin' mean,
It takes the wrinkles off his face an' brushes off the frown,
That little country paper from his home town.
It tells of all the parties an' the balls of Pampkin Row,
'Bout who's spent Sunday with who's girl an' how the crowd'll grow,
An' how it keeps a feller posted 'bout who's up an' who's down,
That little country paper from his home town.
Now I like to read the dailies an' the story papers, too,
An' at times the yaller news an' some other trash—don't you?
But when I want some readin' that'll brush away a frown
I want that little paper from my home town.
—Denver Post.

R. B. GLENN WILL RUN.

Sends Out an Open Letter to People of the State.
The following letter to the people of North Carolina has been sent out by R. B. Glenn, who will be a candidate for the gubernatorial nomination:

To the People of the State:
Unable to answer all letters received. I take this method of announcing to my friends through out the State, that I will be a candidate before the next Democratic State Convention for the office of Governor.

Having been actively canvassing the State for twenty-six years, the people know me, so I will open no headquarters and enter into no scramble for the nomination. I can campaign for my party and beg votes for my friends, but it is a new role to electioneer for myself, so I will submit myself into the people's hands, asking them to let my candidacy be known, so that those desiring to aid me can do so, by seeing that I get in the primaries all the votes to which I may be entitled.

To be Governor of North Carolina, is a high and laudable ambition, and I most earnestly desire to attain this high office, as both a token of the people's esteem and a proof of their confidence in me.

If nominated, I will canvass the State, using every effort to insure Democratic success, which means the State's safety and prosperity. If elected, knowing no man or class of men in the discharge of my duty, I will strive to advance all the interests of the State, endeavoring to procure "the greatest good to all, without detriment or injury to any." Having faith in the people I believe I will be nominated. If, however, any of my worthy competitors are selected by the convention, I will cheerfully abide its decision and continue in the future, as in the past, doing all I can to promote Democracy, as my party's success is to be valued more than my personal ambition. I regret that I cannot meet the people face to face and discuss with them the great issues before us, but this seeming impracticable, I leave all to them in convention assembled. Respectfully,

R. B. GLENN,
Winston-Salem, N. C., Sept. 22, '03.

As he had with him his favorite pets, three beagle hounds, we take it that he has vacated his hole on the mountain until the roses come again.

MR. DEWEY WRITES A LETTER.

Doesn't Disclose His Whereabouts But is Evidently in North Carolina.
The editor of the Raleigh News and Observer Wednesday of last week received the following letter from T. W. Dewey, defaulting cashier of the Merchants' and Farmers' Bank of New Berne:
MY DEAR SIR: There have incidentally fallen into my hands some of the reports published in both Raleigh and Charlotte papers concerning my delinquencies, etc., which I denounce as malicious lies—one in particular, two columns long, with scarcely a semblance of truth from the beginning to the end. The facts are grave enough, but I will swear by all past associations and by my hope of forgiveness to aggregate one-half of amounts published.
I have not as yet attempted any defense, and if I ever do there will be a few shattered panes in the glass houses of some of those "prominent families of New Berne" who seem to have "swallowed their consciences" (if they had any to swallow) and are now so eagerly and harshly sitting in judgement against me; and while I say this, I have not a word of reproach for any one who is trying to do me justice, whatever the penalty of that justice may be. This I consider the unpardonable sin—to speak maliciously or disparagingly of human souls, hungering for hope. When the man without brains does it, he can be pardoned for knowing no better. When the man with brains does it he should be ashamed to look his fellow mortals in the eyes. It is a sin ten times deeper than giving a stone to those who ask for bread, or giving poison to those who ask for a cup of cold water. My heart has never been intentionally evil; nor am I the recipient of any ill gotten gains. I realize to the fullest capabilities of a proud and sensitive nature (for the pall has hung hourly before my eyes), the turpitude and lasting shame (in their every phase) of my errors, and remorse must be my eternal portion in this life. I have never had any other idea than that of returning voluntarily, if not otherwise, when I felt that I had the strength and courage to do so, for my present sufferings are far greater than the law of man can inflict. I wish to live only for the innocent ones dependent upon me. There is nothing we cannot live down, and rise above and overcome. I would rather learn sympathy and nobleness of heart through sin than never learn it at all.

Truthfully,
T. W. DEWEY.
The letter doesn't reveal Dewey's whereabouts but it is postmarked on the railway mail route between Greensboro and Goldsboro and is, the News and Observer says, directed in a lady's hand. The letter, however, is written in Dewey's hand. It was mailed at 11:35 September 30 and received in Raleigh at 4:30 p. m. the same day. It has recently been claimed that Dewey is in hiding in North Carolina and this letter may mean that this is true.

A petition signed some time ago by 3,000 persons has been presented to the Italian government asking for a pension of $360 per annum to be conferred on a woman named Maddalena Garunetta, who has given birth to sixty-two children—fifty-nine boys and three girls, during her married life. In nine years she presented her husband eleven sets of triplets, three groups of quadruplets, one group of six, and the other eleven came singly. She is 57 years old and incapable of work.

THE OLD RELIABLE

Absolutely Pure

Here's An Idea to Attract People to Church.

A special to the Philadelphia Record from Chicago has this interesting intelligence: "Rev. Dr. John Boyd, of the First Presbyterian church, of Evanston, has solved, or thinks he has solved, the problem of filling the churches Sunday evenings. He argues that a hot beef sandwich is better than hot preaching; if beautiful women and splendid singing will not attract to the services, only one thing will and that is a hearty meal. Consequently a new plan will be tried. This will be the programme at the church to-morrow evening:
"Hot roast beef sandwich; Hymn No. 388, four stanzas; hot coffee, chocolate, hot tea; brief talk by elder; lobster salad; patriotic hymn; chafing dish indigestible, prepared by beautiful girls; olives, pickles, radishes, young onions; Doxology. [Dr. Boyd was at one time pastor of the Second Presbyterian church of Charlotte. The Charlotte folks may be thankful they were rid of him before he turned crank.—Statesville Landmark.]

HE LEARNED A GREAT TRUTH.
It is said of John Wesley that he once said to Mistress Wesley: "Why do you tell that child the same thing over and over again?" "John Wesley, because once telling is not enough." It is for this same reason that you are told again and again that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cures colds and grip; that it counteracts any tendency of these diseases to result in pneumonia, and that it is pleasant and safe to take.
