

D. & D. TEACHERS MEET.

The Seventeenth Triennial Convention of the American Instructors of the Deaf Held in Morganton.

Lieut. Gov. Winston Greets the Teachers with a Hearty Welcome—Responses by Dr. E. M. Gallaudet and Others—Tuesday Night's Reception and Other Events of the Meeting—A Notable Gathering of Scholarly Men and Women.

On Saturday, the 8th, at 8 p. m., the 17th triennial convention of The American Instructors of the Deaf met at the Morganton School for the Deaf and Dumb.

The convention was called to order by Supt. E. McK. Goodwin, who extended a cordial greeting to all. He then introduced A. G. Lewis, of Statesville, N. C., who introduced Lt. Gov. Winston, the orator of the evening.

Gov. Winston was specially felicitous and at times eloquent. He spoke with pride of the strides North Carolina has made along educational lines in the past few years, and encouraged the hope that the spirit of education was abroad in North Carolina as never before in her history.

Dr. E. M. Gallaudet, president of the convention and superintendent of the Gallaudet School for the Deaf and Dumb, of Washington, D. C., on behalf of the convention was the first to reply to Gov. Winston's gracious words of welcome, and he did it admirably.

The large auditorium was filled with the delegates and the people of Morganton, and all seemed to have heartily enjoyed the "feast of reason and flow of soul."

The visitors were delighted with the buildings, the grounds and the whole environment and all regarded this as an ideal spot. After the speaking there was a mutual exchange of courtesies between the visitors and the Morgantonnians.

On Sunday morning a religious service was held in the school chapel, some of the visitors attending the churches in town. On Sunday afternoon there was another service in the chapel devoted to the best methods of Sunday school work for the deaf and dumb.

On Monday at 10 a. m. the convention got down to business. The business sessions of each day are from 10 to 12 in the morning and from 2 to 4 p. m. These business sessions are given to a discussion of the best methods of imparting instruction in various branches, with an occasional tilt between the "manualists" and the "oralists."

On Tuesday night Supt. Goodwin and wife tendered a reception to the delegates and Morgantonnians. This was a most brilliant and successful affair and moved off without a hitch. They were assisted in receiving by Mrs. Winstona of the School, State Treasurer B. F. Lacy and daughter, Dr. P. L. Murphy and wife and Mayor A. C. Avery and wife of Morganton. The guests repaired to the large dining hall, where delicious refreshments were served by trained waiters.

The pleasure of the evening was enhanced by the rich strains of an orchestra. A delightful German followed the luncheon and was greatly enjoyed by a large and brilliant assembly. Mr. Alex Murphy, with the ease and skill of an artist, led the German. It is no exaggeration to say that at least 100 couples were on the floor at once.

On Wednesday, morning and evening sessions were held in the schoolroom and were largely attended. On Wednesday night Dr. Chas. D. McIver, of the State Normal, made an address to the convention, and a splendid address it was. He captured his audience, he thrilled and delighted them. He instructed and inspired them. A man of force and magnetism, he easily won the attention and earnest sympathy of his audience. His home friends were proud of his splendid utterances, and when he had finished were prouder of North Carolina. He was followed by State Treasurer Lacy in a short but delightfully appropriate and catchy speech. One of the northern superintendents said to us, after having heard Winston, McIver and Lacy: "Well, sir I can't tell when I have so much enjoyed public speakers. Do you raise many of those kind of men in your State?" We replied in a half bragadoocio way, "The woods are full of 'em."

This has been a notable gathering. More than 30 States are represented and two provinces in Canada, and the register of the D. & D. School shows over 240 delegates. The convention will perhaps finish its work to-day and adjourn to-morrow.

Morganton was specially glad to welcome these consecrated, scholarly men and women and assures them that we feel honored by their presence. Our people are delighted with the visitors, both ladies and gentlemen, and will for years cherish pleasant recollections of their sojourn in our midst.

The War.

Charlotte Observer, 10th.

The only news of consequence from the seat of war during the past week was the report from St. Petersburg to the effect that the Japanese have captured Sakhalin Island, landing troops under guard of battleships and taking possession. Military circles in St. Petersburg are said to be startled by the news, although they were aware of the fact that since Rojstrensky's fleet was out of the way, there was nothing to prevent the Japanese from landing whenever they got ready. The news from Manchuria shows nothing of consequence as having occurred there. President Roosevelt has taken steps to have the belligerents sign an armistice, but so far has not been successful. It seems, however, that this makes but little difference, as there is not much inclination on the part of the forces in Manchuria to do any heavy fighting. It may be, however, that Oyama will endeavor to cut off Vladivostok, by taking a position on the railroad between the port and Harbin.

The situation in the Black Sea has improved, the mutinous crew of the Kuiaz Potemkin surrendering to Roumanian officers.

The peace plenipotentiaries are now en route to Washington and it is likely that they will begin their sessions between the 1st and the 10th of August. They will in all probability be most deliberative in their conferences, and may be in session for months before a conclusion is finally reached.

Death of a Child.

On July 6th little Ruth, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fisher, died at the home of Mr. R. B. Alexander.

The parents, now of Hickory, but formerly of Morganton, some days ago brought the little sufferer to the home of their relative with the hope that a change might bring relief. But relief came with the long sleep, and now the little body rests in Salem churchyard by the margin of the leafy forest, and the gentle winds sigh above another baby's grave.

"Baby's dying, Do not stir— Let her pure life lightly swim Through the sighing Lips of her— Out from us and up to Him— Let her leave us with that smile— Kiss and miss her after while." A Friend.

ONE LADY'S RECOMMENDATION SOLD FIFTY BOXES OF CHAMBERLAIN'S STOMACH AND LIVER TABLETS.

I have, I believe, sold fifty boxes of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets on the recommendation of one lady here, who first bought a box of them about a year ago. She never tires of telling her neighbors and friends about the good qualities of these Tablets. —P. M. SNORS, Druggist, Rochester, Ind. The pleasant purgative effect of these Tablets make them a favorite with ladies everywhere. For Sale by W. A. Leslie, Druggist.

A BRILLIANT RECEPTION.

Several Hundred People Through the Halls and Parlors of the D. & D. School.

The reception tendered by superintendent and Mrs. Goodwin of the D. & D. School on the evening of the 11th to the delegates of the Convention and the ladies and gentlemen of Morganton was in all respects a brilliant affair. Some four hundred people thronged the brilliantly lighted halls and parlors.

The gentlemen, as a rule, were in full evening dress, while the rare richness and beauty of the ladies' gowns was a subject of general remark. The pleasure of the evening was much enhanced by the strains of a skilled orchestra.

In the front parlor the guests were received by Supt. and Mrs. E. McK. Goodwin, assisted by Mrs. Winston of the School, State Treasurer B. F. Lacy and daughter, Dr. P. L. Murphy, superintendent State Hospital, and wife, Mayor A. C. Avery and wife of Morganton. Miss Olivia Grimes, of Raleigh, graciously introduced the guests.

The receiving over, the guests entered the spacious dining-room, where was spread a feast of good things. The rich menu was prepared by a New York chef, and Mr. H. A. Webber, of Charlotte, under the supervision of Mr. Emile Frisard, of Morganton, and was served by trained waiters from the famous Battery Park of Asheville.

At 10 o'clock the va-t tiring repaired to the ball-room either to watch or participate in the dance, which was greatly enjoyed till well-nigh 12 o'clock.

It was truly a brilliant gathering from all sections of the nation. Men of culture, scholarship and letters were there, and the fair women of the North, East and West vied in grace and beauty with their Southern sisters. It was an assemblage worthy of a great, chivalrous and patriotic people. Among the visiting ladies were faces fair as the Ludovician Juno or the Venus of Medici; women who recalled McAntey's description of those who graced the trial of Warren Hastings—"the fair-haired daughters of the House of Brunswick and the beautiful Mrs. Siddons, beautiful mother of a beautiful race." There were Saxon blondes, with deep blue eyes, whose silken tresses rested upon finely chiseled shoulders like a wreath of golden fleece. Among these were Misses D. D. Rice, Dolevan, Wis.; Helen Flagg, Hartford, Conn.; Elizabeth Hunter, Columbus, O., and Ada Alcorn, Houstonville, Ky. And there were Latin brunettes, with black, piercing, eloquent eyes, whose jetty lashes rested like silken rings upon the velvety texture of dainty cheeks. Among these were Misses Ellerbe Holt, Selma, Ala.; Mary Sullivan, Philadelphia; Josephine Bennett, Fulton, Mo.; and Rosaline Bernhardt, Salisbury, N. C. Among the throng of brilliant women none surpassed Misses May Murphy and May Richards, of Morganton. Strangers said that Phoebus was their ancestral god and that into their forms and features had been woven the symmetry and beauty of the golden Aphrodite.

Supt. Goodwin and wife are to be congratulated upon the marked success of a most notable reception. C. M.

They Crowd Out Negroes.

Sanford Express. It may be a surprise to some to know that negroes are not permitted to live in Southern Pines and Pinehurst. This may seem a little strange, when it is remembered that these two towns are composed almost exclusively of northern people. They come south with the idea that the negro is oppressed by his white neighbor, but they are not here long before they lose all patience with them. They know very little about the negro and it seems that they can never understand him. Two negroes recently bought property at Southern Pines and planned to erect residences for themselves and their families for immediate occupancy. There was a howl and a petition signed by twenty of the citizens and property holders of Southern Pines was presented in which they described the proposed acts of the negroes and stated without beating about the bush that "we believe that they can truly be declared public nuisances, and that they will militate against the best interest of the town and its future government. By permitting these buildings to be erected and occupied by their owners and others whom they will induce to occupy them, the property owned by the citizens of that section of the town will be made to greatly depreciate in value and the loss in assessed valuation thereby will be greater to the town than will possibly be gained by permitting them to be built." The colored property owners, both preachers, acted very sensibly in the matter. They addressed a letter to the mayor in which they stated that "It is not our wish to thrust ourselves as unwelcome citizens upon the town, and, under existing conditions, will, for the worth of our property dispose of it, and relinquish our intention to become property owners within the corporate limits of Southern Pines."

Not a cent wanted, unless you are cured. If you are sick and ailing, take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. A great blessing to the human family. Makes you well—keeps you well, 35 cents, T or Tablets. W. A. Leslie.

Trustees' Sale of Lands in Burke County, North Carolina.

By virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain trust deed executed to us on the 17th day of December, A. D. 1902, by Robert E. Smith, of Manhattan, city and county of New York, State of New York, and registered in the Register's office, of Burke county, North Carolina, Book P No. 2, page 238, December 23d, 1902, we will execute a sale at public auction at the Court House in the town of Morganton, North Carolina, to the highest bidder for cash, on Monday, the 7th day of August, 1905, the following described two tracts or parcels of land: Lying and being in the county of Burke, State of North Carolina, described and bounded as follows, to-wit: 1st Tract—Lying on the waters of Wall's Mill creek, beginning on a Walnut about 40 poles on the west side of said creek in the Stations (now swerts) east and west line and runs south 16° west 57 poles, crossing the west prong of I. M. Kincaid's spring branch at 39 poles to a white oak on the point of the ridge between the two branches, thence south 81° west 134 poles to a stake in Sarah McDowell's line; then north with said line 78 poles to a stake in Keaton's line; then with said line 146 poles to the beginning, containing 32 acres, more or less. The same being the tract particularly described in a deed from R. H. Kincaid and wife, I. D. Kincaid, to Julius Clark and wife, Annie Clark, of date the 1st day of May, 1897, as duly recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of Burke county, in Book D No. 2, page 366. 2nd Tract—A joining the above, beginning on a Walnut in the line of the widow Newton Johnson, and the old J. M. Kincaid line on the west side of the creek, running with said line east to the creek; then down the creek with its meanders to the old road of the creek and fork of the creek to a persimmon and Dogwood; then up the spring branch that J. M. Kincaid formerly lived on to the fork of the branch that R. J. Kincaid formerly used on and corners in the fork of the branch in a pile of rocks; then west through the cleared land a short distance to the post-oak corner of R. H. and R. M. Kincaid's line; then north with R. H. Kincaid's line, crossing the branch to the walnut corner, containing 12 acres, more or less. The same being the tract of land conveyed to Julius Clark and wife on the 1st day of May, 1897, by R. H. Kincaid and wife, I. D. Kincaid, as duly recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of Burke county, in Book D No. 2, page 255. Such sale made by request of the beneficial holder of the security above mentioned on account of default made in the payment of the debt secured thereby; subject to a judgment upon the attachment and levy made June 29th, 1902, in favor of Sarah A. McDowell against Robert P. Orr, as by reference to such judgment and attachment proceedings docketed and on file in the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of Burke county, North Carolina, will more fully appear. This 13th day of July, A. D. 1905. I. T. AVERY and W. C. ERWIN, Trustees.
