Mr. Ed Pierce, formerly of Morganton, now of Hickory, and Miss Annie Lane, daughter of Deputy Sheriff S. S. Lane, of this place, surprised their friends last Saturday by getting married in Winston-Salem, whither they had gone on an excursion. They will make their home in Hickory. THE NEWS-HERALD joins their friends in very best wishes.

News comes from Greensboro that a new building under way there is being built especially for Congressman Blackburn's Tar Heel paper, that the paper will appear October 1st, will be 12 pages, issued seven days in the week, and that Col. W. S. Pearson, of Morganton, will be editor-in-chief. It is also stated that the other Republican daily, the Industrial News, will appear two months earlier with Cyrus Thompson and R. D. Douglas as editors.

Dixon, who has been with the hospital for some time, will return to Belwood to resume his practice there, and Dr. C. E. McLean has already returned to private practice.

The Sick.

Mr. R. T. Claywell's little daughter Laura is some better to-day.

Mr. W. A. Spencer is seriously ill at his home, near the depot.

Mrs. Theodore Glass is still in a critical condition. Dr. Long, of Statesville, came up to see her last night again and performed a second operation.

Dr. Allison, Miss Kate Price and Mrs. W. R. Trexler are, we learn, improving.

Mrs. Rasmusell is still very sick.

One On Us.

Bro. Archibald Johnson, editor of Charity and Children, Thomasville, has one on THE NEWS-HERALD, sure enough. We have known him for a number of years and always looked upon him as a preacher—why we are unable to tell—because he is such a good fellow, we suppose. On his way from the press convention at Asheville he stopped in Morganton and THE NEWS-HERALD called him Reverend and somehow or other got it that he preached in the Baptist church while here. Hence the following in him yesterday: "Confound your time, Cobb! I make the above remark to prove to you that I am neither a preacher nor a Doctor of Divinity."

Well, it is up to us, Bro. Johnson—anything you name.

Mr. Mabe Enters Suit Against the Woodmen for Damages.

The following item in Tuesday's Charlotte Observer from its Morganton correspondent has been one of the leading topics of conversation on our streets this week:

"W. P. Mabe has brought suit for damages against Messrs. J. D. Boseman, J. A. Poteet, R. E. Coleman and W. T. Clark, members of Council Oak Camp, Woodmen of the World, the amount claimed not being named in the complaint. On May 4 Ed Made, a son of the plaintiff, was initiated into the mysteries of the lodge of Woodmen of the World and, after the regular lodge initiation a side degree was given the young man, in which, it was claimed, he was forced to sit on a tin-bottom chair with a lighted candle under it, and it was several weeks before he was able to sit again. An operation was performed and it was only last week that he was able to go to work again. The defendants deny that he was forced to sit on the chair and a breezy time is promised when the case comes up for trial. Both sides have employed lawyers to fight the case to a finish."
