GRADUATING EXERCISES FRI. NIGHT.

A Most Successful Year's Work—The Superintendent's Beautiful Remarks in Presenting the Diplomas—Rev. W. F. Powell's Address; a Gem of Oratory—The Honor Roll.

The graduating exercises of the Morganton Graded School were held in the Court House last Friday night in the presence of a large and representative audience. Plans had been made for an extensive celebration in the hope that it could be held in the new auditorium but on account of unavoidable delays this had to be abandoned.

The occasion marked the close of a most successful year's work and all present seemed thoroughly appreciative of the excellent program rendered.

The first feature of the evening was the opening hymn by the school: "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name." The singing was much complimented. Rev. W. M. Bagby, of the Methodist church, in a feeling prayer, asked God's blessings on the occasion and on the lives of the young ladies who were ending their work in the school.

THE THESES.
Miss Mary Wilson read her graduating thesis entitled: "The Influence of Religion in American History." It showed much study and careful preparation, and the influence of "the power of belief" was traced from the days of Columbus to the present day. There were in it many good things worth remembering, among them being the statement that little things may be done idly but all the great and good things of life come from careful thought and deep conviction.

Miss Pearl Holloway's subject was: "Historic Morganton." The subject itself commanded attention and the audience followed closely the admirable presentation of some of the things that has made this section renowned in history. She discussed the history of the community and county from the earliest times and mentioned many heroes and heroic deeds.

Miss Grace Woodward's subject was: "The Disappearance of the Fire-side," and it was a strong appeal for the simplicity of the old home which has been lost in recent times when the home has ceased to be the centre of the heart's desires. The result of the change, she argued, is a loosening of the family ties, and a consequent lack of reverence for the home that is the basis of citizenship. "Great trees grow in quiet places, and many of the greatest men and women have come from humble homes characterized chiefly by simplicity and strength."

The audience listened attentively to the reading of the theses and showed their appreciation by liberal applause, which was also given to the beautiful song that followed: "The Days of Yore." The theses will be published in full in subsequent issues of THE NEWS-HERALD.

DIPLOMAS PRESENTED.
The presentation of the diplomas by Superintendent Craven was about as near perfection as anything of the kind possibly could be, every word seeming to have been made for the particular use to which he put it. He

FORTUNATE MISSOURIANS.
"When I was a druggist, at Livonia, Mo.," writes T. J. Dwyer, now of Graysville, Mo., "three of my customers were permanently cured of consumption by Dr. King's New Discovery, and are well and strong today. One was trying to sell his property and move to Arizona, but after using New Discovery a short time he found it unnecessary to do so. I regard Dr. King's New Discovery as the most wonderful medicine in existence." Surest Cough and Cold cure and Throat and Lung healer. Guaranteed by W. A. ences along the great road of life. You are prepared for it with knowledge, with mind power and with that best of all guarantees against trials and tribulations, that noblest thing in God's world—the pure character of a good woman. On these diplomas, engraved on imperishable parchment, is the great seal of the State of North Carolina. Let it inspire you to abiding love for our good old State and for our community and our homes. In this seal appears the motto "Esse Quam Videri" ("To Be Rather Than To Seem")—a great motto for a great State or for a great life. Whatever you may seem to be, or others may think you to be, strive that you may ever have the comforting consciousness that in your heart of hearts you are what you ought to be."

"Miss Mary Wilson, you have written of 'The Influence of Religion in American History,' and as a young woman crossing the threshold of life, you will do well to cherish the thought that from the hearts and homes of the people must start the powerful wave of belief that makes itself felt in the destinies of nations."

"Miss Pearl Holloway, you have told us of 'Historic Morganton,' and you mentioned that the victory at King's Mountain which 'broke the backbone of the British power in America' and won everlasting honor for the manhood of this section, was in touching earnestness as the diplomas were handed to the young graduates, and the beautiful scene was one to be long remembered by all present.

Mr. J. H. Pearson, chairman of the Board of Trustees, in presenting the speaker, spoke in behalf of the board in appreciation of the work of the superintendent and of the teachers who had faithfully co-operated with him. He said that the relations of the superintendent to the Board of Trustees had been without friction and perfectly harmonious and that the accomplishment during the year was nothing short of remarkable. He then presented Rev. W. F. Powell, pastor of the Baptist church, to deliver the Literary Address, and who (he said) had not been in the community but a short while but had in that time gained the admiration of the people by his ability and christian character.

THE ADDRESS.
Rev. Mr. Powell began his address on "The Outlook in Life" with some spontaneous humor that captivated the audience, and he then spoke eloquently and earnestly for thirty minutes. The address was a gem of oratory and thrilled the hearers with the feeling appeal for "vision" in the life's work.

"At the close of our school year," said he, "when we turn from the lessons mastered to that deeper problem, the planning and living of a life, we come face to face with the sovereignty of choice."

Throat Coughs

A tickling in the throat; hoarseness at times; a deep breath irritates it;—these are features of a throat cough. They're very deceptive and a cough mixture won't cure them. You want something that will heal the inflamed membranes, enrich the blood and tone up the system.

Scott's Emulsion

is just such a remedy. It has wonderful healing and nourishing power. Removes the cause of the cough and the whole system is given new strength and vigor.

Fe-No-Pep-Zone
CURES
That splitting headache or any other kind, relieves neuralgia and steadies shaky nerves. Pleasant to take and leaves no bad effects.
Read from Rev. L. M. Roper, D. D., the Pastor of First Baptist Church of Spartanburg, S. C.:

"I have been looking for several years for a headache remedy that relieves the pain and at the same time removes the cause of pain.
Fe-no-pep-zone is such a remedy. Of many good remedies for headache which I have tried Fe-no-pep-zone is much the best. It is pleasant to take. It is a safe remedy even for persons of very sensitive, nervous temperament. It is effective for any headache that results from loss of sleep, excitement, weariness or indigestion, and it leaves no unpleasant behind it."
