

THE NEWS-HERALD.

The News-Herald
—IS THE—
Best Advertising
Medium
—IN THE—
Piedmont Section

T. G. COBB, Publisher.

THE BURKE COUNTY NEWS
THE MORGANTON HERALD Consolidated Nov. 29, 1901

Subscription Price, $1 Per Year In Advance

VOL. XXIV.

MORGANTON, N. C., APRIL 9, 1908.

No. 1.

FULL TEXT OF THE PROHIBITION BILL.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

SECTION 1. That it shall be unlawful for any person or persons, firm or corporation to manufacture or in any manner make, or sell or otherwise dispose of, for gain, any spirituous, fermented or malt liquors or intoxicating bitters within the State of North Carolina: Provided, this act shall not be construed to forbid the sale of such spirituous, vinous, fermented or malt liquors or intoxicating bitters by a legalized medical depository, or by any licensed and registered pharmacist, for sickness, upon the written prescription of a regular licensed and actively practicing physician or surgeon having the person for whom such prescription is made under his charge, which said prescription shall specify the amount of spirits required: Provided further, that wines and ciders may be manufactured or made from grapes, berries or fruits, and wine sold at the place of manufacture only, and only in sealed or crated packages containing not less than two and a half gallons per package; but no wine, when sold, shall be drunk upon the premises where sold, nor shall the package containing the same be opened on said premises: and, Provided further, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the sale of cider, in any quantity, by the manufacturer from fruits grown on his lands within the State of North Carolina.

SEC. 2. That all liquors or mixtures thereof, by whatever name called, that will produce intoxication shall be construed and held to be intoxicating liquors within the meaning of this act: Provided, that medicinal preparations manufactured in accordance with formulas prescribed by the United States Pharmacopoeia and National Formulary which contain no more alcohol than is necessary to extract the medicinal properties of the drugs contained in such preparations, and no more alcohol than is necessary to hold the medicinal agents in solution, and which are manufactured and sold as medicines and not as beverages, shall not be held or construed to be or to come within the meaning or provisions of this act.

SEC. 3. That any physician or surgeon who shall make any prescription (except in case of sickness) for the purpose of aiding or abetting any person or persons who are not bona fide under his charge to purchase any intoxicating liquors, contrary to the provisions of this act, and any licensed and registered pharmacist who shall sell or otherwise dispose of, for gain, any spirituous, fermented or malt liquors or intoxicating bitters without the prescription of a legally qualified physician or surgeon, or who shall duplicate the prescription of a physician or surgeon for intoxicating liquors for any person or persons not bona fide under such physician's or surgeon's charge, without the written direction of the physician or surgeon who gave the same, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined or imprisoned, or both, in the discretion of the court, for each and every offense; and all licensed and registered pharmacists selling intoxicating liquors by prescription as aforesaid shall keep a record thereof, which shall bear the true dates of the sales, the names of all persons to whom sales were made, the names of physicians or surgeons upon whose prescription the sales were made, which said record shall be subject at all times to the inspection of the solicitor of the district, the sheriff and other peace officers of the county, the mayor and police officers of the city or town in which said licensed and registered pharmacist's business is located, and all other persons; and any licensed and registered pharmacist failing to keep the record aforesaid, or refusing to permit the examination of such record by the officers named or other persons, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction be fined or imprisoned, or both, in the discretion of the court.

SEC. 4. The place where delivery of any intoxicating liquors is made in the State of North Carolina shall be the place of sale thereof, and any station or other place within said State to which any person shall ship or convey any intoxicating liquors for the purpose of delivering or carrying the same to a purchaser shall be construed to be the place of sale: Provided, that nothing in this act shall be construed to prevent the delivery of any intoxicating liquor to any licensed and registered pharmacist in sufficient quantities for medical purposes only.

SEC. 5. Nothing in this act shall be construed as making it unlawful to sell to any minister of religion or other officer of a church wine to be used for religious or sacramental purposes.

SEC. 6. That nothing in this act shall be construed to prevent the county commissioners or governing body of any city or town from prohibiting the sale of spirituous, vinous, fermented or malt liquors or intoxicating bitters by any licensed and registered pharmacist in their respective counties, cities or towns: Provided further, that said county commissioners or governing body of any city or town may levy a special privilege tax upon any licensed pharmacist licensed to sell spirituous, vinous or malt liquors.

SEC. 7. That all laws or parts of laws in conflict with this act be and the same are hereby, to the extent of such conflict, repealed: Provided, however, that nothing in this act shall operate to repeal any of the local or special acts of the General Assembly of North Carolina prohibiting the manufacture or sale of other disposition of any of the liquors mentioned in this act; but all such acts shall continue in full force and effect and in concurrence herewith; and indictment or prosecution may be had either under this act or any special or local act relating to same subject: Provided, that, if the provisions of sections one to nine (inclusive) of this act shall fail to go into effect on the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and nine, because of the failure of a majority of the votes cast in the election hereinafter provided for to be "Against the Manufacture and Sale of Intoxicating Liquors,"

BEWARE OF QUINTESSENCE FOR CATARRH THAT CONTAINS MERCURY.
As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the danger they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure is manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.
Sold by Druggists. Price 75c per bottle. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

PLenty of Trouble
Is caused by stagnation of the liver and bowels, to get rid of it and headache and biliousness and the poison that brings jaundice, take Dr. King's New Life Pills, the reliable purifiers that do the work without grating or griping. 25c. at W. A. Leslie's drug store.

Consumption is less deadly than it used to be.
Certain relief and usually complete recovery will result from the following treatment:
Hope, rest, fresh air, and—Scott's Emulsion.
ALL DRUGGISTS: 50c. AND $1.00.

MANLY McDOWELL,
MORGANTON, N. C.

CONFIDENCE

when eating, that your food is of highest wholesomeness—that it has nothing in it that can injure or distress you—makes the repast doubly comfortable and satisfactory. This supreme confidence you have when the food is raised with

ROYAL Baking Powder Absolutely Pure

The only baking powder made with Royal Grape Cream of Tartar

There can be no comforting confidence when eating alum baking powder food. Chemists say that more or less of the alum powder in unchanged alum or alum salts remains in the food.

QUESTIONS ON MARRIAGE.

What is marriage? Marriage is an institution for the blind. When a man thinks seriously of marriage what usually happens? He remains single. Does a girl ever think of anything but marriage? Only how to get married.

Should a man marry a girl for her money? No, but he should not allow her to become an old maid because she is a rich girl.

Is an engagement as good as marriage? It's better. When the minister says, "Do you take this man for better or worse," what does he mean? The bride-groom's people construe it one way, and the bride's people interpret it another. It is very sad.

When a man marries has he seen the end of his trouble? Yes, but it is usually the wrong end.

HE GOT WHAT HE NEEDED.
"Nine years ago it looked as if my time had come," says Mr. C. Farthing, of Mill Creek, Ind. Ter. "I was so run down that life hung on a very slender thread. It was then my druggist recommended Electric Bitters. I bought a bottle and I got what I needed—strength. I had one foot in the grave, but Electric Bitters put it back on the turf again, and I've been well ever since." Sold under guarantee at W. A. Leslie's drug store. 50c.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR stops the cough and heals lungs

PASSING OF A GOOD MAN.

"Uncle" Asbury Puett Dies at the Age of 90 Years—A Beautiful Tribute from a Neighbor.
To the Editor of The News-Herald:
Our venerable friend and neighbor J. A. Puett, who died at the home of his son, T. E. Puett, on the morning of the 4th inst., having been a good man, of extraordinary moral worth, deserves more from his fellow citizens than a mere passing notice of his birth and death.

He was perhaps the oldest man in Burke county, being in his 90th year. He served in the U. S. Army in the Indian war, or in moving the Indians from the border of this State. He served his county as sheriff and deputy sheriff and magistrate for many years. And along with this he served the church and his God as class-leader and Sunday school superintendent for many years, resigning in favor of younger men.

While he was a man of apparent delicate physical structure, he stood among the giants of vital force and energy.

He was strict Methodist of the Wesleyan type for perhaps three-quarters of a century; he was a student of the Bible, and from this and the phenomena and natural handwork of God that came in his vision he drew the heavenly inspiration which moulded his character and life and made him a citizen of the Kingdom of heaven.

His idea of human greatness was measured by a high idea of true worth and christian excellence.

He lived above and out of reach of the smutted rabble. He was truth incarnate, if men reach that point.

He knew no local gossip. His comment on the misguided, the wayward and the fallen in reputation and character were few, and gentle as the morning dew that washes the dust from the petals of the rose and the lily.

He was a servant of the commandments; the Golden Rule was the monitor that stood at the door of his conscience with the drawn sword of the spirit, while the spirit of retaliation and revenge passed up to the court of Him to whom vengeance be-longeth.

It may be well said of him that he followed closely the line dotted by the hand of duty from early manhood until the mercury of life almost touched the century mark.

Kindness to his family, courtesy to his friends, love and charity to his neighbors, and hospitality to all were his prominent and ever present characteristics.

The end of such a life must be unalterably full of unspeakable joy, having through family affliction and self abnegation crossed all the troubled waters of life, and while the lengthened shadow of life reaches from the sepulcher of day back to the glittering gates of morning, he casts his eyes morningward over the landscape of his life and sees nothing but good deeds rising like mountains in the dim distance awaiting the rising sun of the resurrection.

"Mark the purest man, and behold the upright man, for the end of that man is peace."
J. G. Hood.
Chesterfield, April 6, 1908.

Notice to Republicans.
The Republicans of Morganton township, precincts Nos. 1 and 2, are hereby notified to meet in the Court House on Saturday, April 11th, to elect delegates to the county convention on Saturday, the 18th.

S. HUFFMAN,
C. F. McKESSON.

A TWENTY YEAR SENTENCE.
"I have just completed a twenty year health sentence, imposed by Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which cured me of bleeding piles just twenty years ago," writes O. S. Woolver, of LeRayville, N. Y. Bucklen's Arnica Salve heals the worst sores, boils, burns, wounds and cuts in the shortest time. 25c. at W. A. Leslie's drug store.

PROHIBITION SPEAKING.
At Linville church, in Linville township, on Saturday, April 25th, speaking to begin at 10 o'clock a. m. C. F. McKesson, I. T. Avery, and P. W. Patton have been invited to address the meeting. Dinner will be served to all by the ladies. Rev. W. F. Elliot will also preach a temperance sermon at the above church on Sunday, 26th. A large crowd is expected on both of above dates.

Another prohibition rally will be had at Friendship church, Icard township, next Sunday morning, April 12th. Speakers, Jno. M. Mull, Rev. J. D. Larkins, Rev. P. L. Terrell, and Judge Avery. Dinner will be served for all and a large crowd is expected.

Death of Mrs. Eliza Houk.
For The News-Herald.
Mrs. Eliza C. Houk died Thursday, March 26th, in her 73rd year.

For many months she had been suffering with Bright's disease, and although death was expected, it always comes as a shock.

For many years she had been a consistent member of the Episcopal church. She died, as she had lived, with an abiding faith in the Savior's love.

She leaves a husband, Mr. John A. Houk, a daughter, Mrs. H. O. Wilson, four grandchildren, besides many friends, to mourn the loss. She was laid to rest in the old family burying ground at Gilboa.

Mr. Houk wishes to express his thanks to his friends and neighbors for the kindness shown during the illness and death of his wife.

"Tis a loved one gone
To await us there."
L. A. W.

Consumption is less deadly than it used to be.
Certain relief and usually complete recovery will result from the following treatment:
Hope, rest, fresh air, and—Scott's Emulsion.
ALL DRUGGISTS: 50c. AND $1.00.

MANLY McDOWELL,
MORGANTON, N. C.

QUESTIONS ON MARRIAGE.

What is marriage? Marriage is an institution for the blind. When a man thinks seriously of marriage what usually happens? He remains single. Does a girl ever think of anything but marriage? Only how to get married.

Should a man marry a girl for her money? No, but he should not allow her to become an old maid because she is a rich girl.

Is an engagement as good as marriage? It's better. When the minister says, "Do you take this man for better or worse," what does he mean? The bride-groom's people construe it one way, and the bride's people interpret it another. It is very sad.

When a man marries has he seen the end of his trouble? Yes, but it is usually the wrong end.

HE GOT WHAT HE NEEDED.
"Nine years ago it looked as if my time had come," says Mr. C. Farthing, of Mill Creek, Ind. Ter. "I was so run down that life hung on a very slender thread. It was then my druggist recommended Electric Bitters. I bought a bottle and I got what I needed—strength. I had one foot in the grave, but Electric Bitters put it back on the turf again, and I've been well ever since." Sold under guarantee at W. A. Leslie's drug store. 50c.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR stops the cough and heals lungs

PASSING OF A GOOD MAN.

"Uncle" Asbury Puett Dies at the Age of 90 Years—A Beautiful Tribute from a Neighbor.
To the Editor of The News-Herald:
Our venerable friend and neighbor J. A. Puett, who died at the home of his son, T. E. Puett, on the morning of the 4th inst., having been a good man, of extraordinary moral worth, deserves more from his fellow citizens than a mere passing notice of his birth and death.

He was perhaps the oldest man in Burke county, being in his 90th year. He served in the U. S. Army in the Indian war, or in moving the Indians from the border of this State. He served his county as sheriff and deputy sheriff and magistrate for many years. And along with this he served the church and his God as class-leader and Sunday school superintendent for many years, resigning in favor of younger men.

While he was a man of apparent delicate physical structure, he stood among the giants of vital force and energy.

He was strict Methodist of the Wesleyan type for perhaps three-quarters of a century; he was a student of the Bible, and from this and the phenomena and natural handwork of God that came in his vision he drew the heavenly inspiration which moulded his character and life and made him a citizen of the Kingdom of heaven.

His idea of human greatness was measured by a high idea of true worth and christian excellence.

He lived above and out of reach of the smutted rabble. He was truth incarnate, if men reach that point.

He knew no local gossip. His comment on the misguided, the wayward and the fallen in reputation and character were few, and gentle as the morning dew that washes the dust from the petals of the rose and the lily.

He was a servant of the commandments; the Golden Rule was the monitor that stood at the door of his conscience with the drawn sword of the spirit, while the spirit of retaliation and revenge passed up to the court of Him to whom vengeance be-longeth.

It may be well said of him that he followed closely the line dotted by the hand of duty from early manhood until the mercury of life almost touched the century mark.

Kindness to his family, courtesy to his friends, love and charity to his neighbors, and hospitality to all were his prominent and ever present characteristics.

The end of such a life must be unalterably full of unspeakable joy, having through family affliction and self abnegation crossed all the troubled waters of life, and while the lengthened shadow of life reaches from the sepulcher of day back to the glittering gates of morning, he casts his eyes morningward over the landscape of his life and sees nothing but good deeds rising like mountains in the dim distance awaiting the rising sun of the resurrection.

"Mark the purest man, and behold the upright man, for the end of that man is peace."
J. G. Hood.
Chesterfield, April 6, 1908.

Notice to Republicans.
The Republicans of Morganton township, precincts Nos. 1 and 2, are hereby notified to meet in the Court House on Saturday, April 11th, to elect delegates to the county convention on Saturday, the 18th.

S. HUFFMAN,
C. F. McKESSON.

A TWENTY YEAR SENTENCE.
"I have just completed a twenty year health sentence, imposed by Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which cured me of bleeding piles just twenty years ago," writes O. S. Woolver, of LeRayville, N. Y. Bucklen's Arnica Salve heals the worst sores, boils, burns, wounds and cuts in the shortest time. 25c. at W. A. Leslie's drug store.

PROHIBITION SPEAKING.
At Linville church, in Linville township, on Saturday, April 25th, speaking to begin at 10 o'clock a. m. C. F. McKesson, I. T. Avery, and P. W. Patton have been invited to address the meeting. Dinner will be served to all by the ladies. Rev. W. F. Elliot will also preach a temperance sermon at the above church on Sunday, 26th. A large crowd is expected on both of above dates.

Another prohibition rally will be had at Friendship church, Icard township, next Sunday morning, April 12th. Speakers, Jno. M. Mull, Rev. J. D. Larkins, Rev. P. L. Terrell, and Judge Avery. Dinner will be served for all and a large crowd is expected.

Death of Mrs. Eliza Houk.
For The News-Herald.
Mrs. Eliza C. Houk died Thursday, March 26th, in her 73rd year.

For many months she had been suffering with Bright's disease, and although death was expected, it always comes as a shock.

For many years she had been a consistent member of the Episcopal church. She died, as she had lived, with an abiding faith in the Savior's love.

She leaves a husband, Mr. John A. Houk, a daughter, Mrs. H. O. Wilson, four grandchildren, besides many friends, to mourn the loss. She was laid to rest in the old family burying ground at Gilboa.

Mr. Houk wishes to express his thanks to his friends and neighbors for the kindness shown during the illness and death of his wife.

"Tis a loved one gone
To await us there."
L. A. W.

QUESTIONS ON MARRIAGE.

What is marriage? Marriage is an institution for the blind. When a man thinks seriously of marriage what usually happens? He remains single. Does a girl ever think of anything but marriage? Only how to get married.

Should a man marry a girl for her money? No, but he should not allow her to become an old maid because she is a rich girl.

Is an engagement as good as marriage? It's better. When the minister says, "Do you take this man for better or worse," what does he mean? The bride-groom's people construe it one way, and the bride's people interpret it another. It is very sad.

When a man marries has he seen the end of his trouble? Yes, but it is usually the wrong end.

HE GOT WHAT HE NEEDED.
"Nine years ago it looked as if my time had come," says Mr. C. Farthing, of Mill Creek, Ind. Ter. "I was so run down that life hung on a very slender thread. It was then my druggist recommended Electric Bitters. I bought a bottle and I got what I needed—strength. I had one foot in the grave, but Electric Bitters put it back on the turf again, and I've been well ever since." Sold under guarantee at W. A. Leslie's drug store. 50c.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR stops the cough and heals lungs

PASSING OF A GOOD MAN.

"Uncle" Asbury Puett Dies at the Age of 90 Years—A Beautiful Tribute from a Neighbor.
To the Editor of The News-Herald:
Our venerable friend and neighbor J. A. Puett, who died at the home of his son, T. E. Puett, on the morning of the 4th inst., having been a good man, of extraordinary moral worth, deserves more from his fellow citizens than a mere passing notice of his birth and death.

He was perhaps the oldest man in Burke county, being in his 90th year. He served in the U. S. Army in the Indian war, or in moving the Indians from the border of this State. He served his county as sheriff and deputy sheriff and magistrate for many years. And along with this he served the church and his God as class-leader and Sunday school superintendent for many years, resigning in favor of younger men.

While he was a man of apparent delicate physical structure, he stood among the giants of vital force and energy.

He was strict Methodist of the Wesleyan type for perhaps three-quarters of a century; he was a student of the Bible, and from this and the phenomena and natural handwork of God that came in his vision he drew the heavenly inspiration which moulded his character and life and made him a citizen of the Kingdom of heaven.

His idea of human greatness was measured by a high idea of true worth and christian excellence.

He lived above and out of reach of the smutted rabble. He was truth incarnate, if men reach that point.

He knew no local gossip. His comment on the misguided, the wayward and the fallen in reputation and character were few, and gentle as the morning dew that washes the dust from the petals of the rose and the lily.

He was a servant of the commandments; the Golden Rule was the monitor that stood at the door of his conscience with the drawn sword of the spirit, while the spirit of retaliation and revenge passed up to the court of Him to whom vengeance be-longeth.

It may be well said of him that he followed closely the line dotted by the hand of duty from early manhood until the mercury of life almost touched the century mark.

Kindness to his family, courtesy to his friends, love and charity to his neighbors, and hospitality to all were his prominent and ever present characteristics.

The end of such a life must be unalterably full of unspeakable joy, having through family affliction and self abnegation crossed all the troubled waters of life, and while the lengthened shadow of life reaches from the sepulcher of day back to the glittering gates of morning, he casts his eyes morningward over the landscape of his life and sees nothing but good deeds rising like mountains in the dim distance awaiting the rising sun of the resurrection.

"Mark the purest man, and behold the upright man, for the end of that man is peace."
J. G. Hood.
Chesterfield, April 6, 1908.

Notice to Republicans.
The Republicans of Morganton township, precincts Nos. 1 and 2, are hereby notified to meet in the Court House on Saturday, April 11th, to elect delegates to the county convention on Saturday, the 18th.

S. HUFFMAN,
C. F. McKESSON.

A TWENTY YEAR SENTENCE.
"I have just completed a twenty year health sentence, imposed by Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which cured me of bleeding piles just twenty years ago," writes O. S. Woolver, of LeRayville, N. Y. Bucklen's Arnica Salve heals the worst sores, boils, burns, wounds and cuts in the shortest time. 25c. at W. A. Leslie's drug store.

PROHIBITION SPEAKING.
At Linville church, in Linville township, on Saturday, April 25th, speaking to begin at 10 o'clock a. m. C. F. McKesson, I. T. Avery, and P. W. Patton have been invited to address the meeting. Dinner will be served to all by the ladies. Rev. W. F. Elliot will also preach a temperance sermon at the above church on Sunday, 26th. A large crowd is expected on both of above dates.

Another prohibition rally will be had at Friendship church, Icard township, next Sunday morning, April 12th. Speakers, Jno. M. Mull, Rev. J. D. Larkins, Rev. P. L. Terrell, and Judge Avery. Dinner will be served for all and a large crowd is expected.

Death of Mrs. Eliza Houk.
For The News-Herald.
Mrs. Eliza C. Houk died Thursday, March 26th, in her 73rd year.

For many months she had been suffering with Bright's disease, and although death was expected, it always comes as a shock.

For many years she had been a consistent member of the Episcopal church. She died, as she had lived, with an abiding faith in the Savior's love.

She leaves a husband, Mr. John A. Houk, a daughter, Mrs. H. O. Wilson, four grandchildren, besides many friends, to mourn the loss. She was laid to rest in the old family burying ground at Gilboa.

Mr. Houk wishes to express his thanks to his friends and neighbors for the kindness shown during the illness and death of his wife.

"Tis a loved one gone
To await us there."
L. A. W.

QUESTIONS ON MARRIAGE.

What is marriage? Marriage is an institution for the blind. When a man thinks seriously of marriage what usually happens? He remains single. Does a girl ever think of anything but marriage? Only how to get married.

Should a man marry a girl for her money? No, but he should not allow her to become an old maid because she is a rich girl.

Is an engagement as good as marriage? It's better. When the minister says, "Do you take this man for better or worse," what does he mean? The bride-groom's people construe it one way, and the bride's people interpret it another. It is very sad.

When a man marries has he seen the end of his trouble? Yes, but it is usually the wrong end.

HE GOT WHAT HE NEEDED.
"Nine years ago it looked as if my time had come," says Mr. C. Farthing, of Mill Creek, Ind. Ter. "I was so run down that life hung on a very slender thread. It was then my druggist recommended Electric Bitters. I bought a bottle and I got what I needed—strength. I had one foot in the grave, but Electric Bitters put it back on the turf again, and I've been well ever since." Sold under guarantee at W. A. Leslie's drug store. 50c.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR stops the cough and heals lungs

PASSING OF A GOOD MAN.

"Uncle" Asbury Puett Dies at the Age of 90 Years—A Beautiful Tribute from a Neighbor.
To the Editor of The News-Herald:
Our venerable friend and neighbor J. A. Puett, who died at the home of his son, T. E. Puett, on the morning of the 4th inst., having been a good man, of extraordinary moral worth, deserves more from his fellow citizens than a mere passing notice of his birth and death.

He was perhaps the oldest man in Burke county, being in his 90th year. He served in the U. S. Army in the Indian war, or in moving the Indians from the border of this State. He served his county as sheriff and deputy sheriff and magistrate for many years. And along with this he served the church and his God as class-leader and Sunday school superintendent for many years, resigning in favor of younger men.

While he was a man of apparent delicate physical structure, he stood among the giants of vital force and energy.

He was strict Methodist of the Wesleyan type for perhaps three-quarters of a century; he was a student of the Bible, and from this and the phenomena and natural handwork of God that came in his vision he drew the heavenly inspiration which moulded his character and life and made him a citizen of the Kingdom of heaven.

His idea of human greatness was measured by a high idea of true worth and christian excellence.

He lived above and out of reach of the smutted rabble. He was truth incarnate, if men reach that point.

He knew no local gossip. His comment on the misguided, the wayward and the fallen in reputation and character were few, and gentle as the morning dew that washes the dust from the petals of the rose and the lily.

He was a servant of the commandments; the Golden Rule was the monitor that stood at the door of his conscience with the drawn sword of the spirit, while the spirit of retaliation and revenge passed up to the court of Him to whom vengeance be-longeth.

It may be well said of him that he followed closely the line dotted by the hand of duty from early manhood until the mercury of life almost touched the century mark.

Kindness to his family, courtesy to his friends, love and charity to his neighbors, and hospitality to all were his prominent and ever present characteristics.

The end of such a life must be unalterably full of unspeakable joy, having through family affliction and self abnegation crossed all the troubled waters of life, and while the lengthened shadow of life reaches from the sepulcher of day back to the glittering gates of morning, he casts his eyes morningward over the landscape of his life and sees nothing but good deeds rising like mountains in the dim distance awaiting the rising sun of the resurrection.

"Mark the purest man, and behold the upright man, for the end of that man is peace."
J. G. Hood.
Chesterfield, April 6, 1908.

Notice to Republicans.
The Republicans of Morganton township, precincts Nos. 1 and 2, are hereby notified to meet in the Court House on Saturday, April 11th, to elect delegates to the county convention on Saturday, the 18th.

S. HUFFMAN,
C. F. McKESSON.

A TWENTY YEAR SENTENCE.
"I have just completed a twenty year health sentence, imposed by Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which cured me of bleeding piles just twenty years ago," writes O. S. Woolver, of LeRayville, N. Y. Bucklen's Arnica Salve heals the worst sores, boils, burns, wounds and cuts in the shortest time. 25c. at W. A. Leslie's drug store.

PROHIBITION SPEAKING.
At Linville church, in Linville township, on Saturday, April 25th, speaking to begin at 10 o'clock a. m. C. F. McKesson, I. T. Avery, and P. W. Patton have been invited to address the meeting. Dinner will be served to all by the ladies. Rev. W. F. Elliot will also preach a temperance sermon at the above church on Sunday, 26th. A large crowd is expected on both of above dates.

Another prohibition rally will be had at Friendship church, Icard township, next Sunday morning, April 12th. Speakers, Jno. M. Mull, Rev. J. D. Larkins, Rev. P. L. Terrell, and Judge Avery. Dinner will be served for all and a large crowd is expected.

Death of Mrs. Eliza Houk.
For The News-Herald.
Mrs. Eliza C.