of the supine indifference of men whom Des Moines, Iowa, July 27 .- When the state paid to guard and protect William J. Bryan awoke Monday he them. They told of these men being found awaiting him General John B. subsidized by convict lessees, and of Weaver, of Iowa, who, in 1892, was the Populist candidate for president. General Weaver boarded the train at Colfax, Iowa, while Mr. Bryan was dressing, but soon the two men were pending resolution, which calls upon engaged in earnest conversation over the political situation.

General Weaver some time ago identified himself with the Democratic party and is a strong friend of Mr. Bryan, Mr. Bryan had a good night's rest. Before going to bed he was serenaded in his car by a male quartet from a theatrical company, bound west. He greatly enjoyed the treat and clapped his hands frequently. At Newton, Iowa, Monday morning, a large crowd gathered about the car and called for Mr. Bryan. He was only partially dressed, but putting his head out of the window of his state-

FATAL EXPLOSION

One Boy Killed, Another Fatally Injured at Red Oak. Atlanta, July 27 .- One boy was almost instantly burned to death, another is expected to die, and the depot at Red Oak, on the Atlanta and West Point railroad was burned to the ground, as a result of the explosion of a barrel of alcohol Sunday afternoon.

The two boys struck a match near the barrel, causing the explosion, and but for the heroism if a third boy who pulled them through a window, the second as well as the first boy would have lost his life.

The dead boy is Walter Smith, 15 years of age, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Smith, the former a blacksmith at Red Oak. His companion, who is perhaps fatally injured, is Will White, son of Mr. and Mrs. John White, of Red Oak. Mr. White is also a black-

Boy Husband Sulcides. Chicago, July 27 .- A special to the Tribune from Sergeant, Ky., says that Leonard Hall, the fifteen-year-old son of Elder Joseph Hall, a Baptist preacher at Hilliard, committed suicide on Sunday, in the home of his father, by shooting himself with a shotgun. For several weeks the boy has been despondent. He was married two months ago to little Miss Rhoda Profit, barely twelve years of age, his schoolmate, with whom the boy husband had not lived happily, it is said.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal-coudition, hearing will be destrosed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrah, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

TERRIBLE MASSACRE RECALLED. Pitiable Case of Patrick McGuire, a Survivor of the Samar Tragedy.

New York, July 27 .- The terrible massacre of men of company C, of the Ninth infantry at Balingiga, Island of Samar, on September 28, 1901, by treacherous Filipinos, when Captain Connell and more than forty others of the command were massacred, is recalled by the case of one of the survivors of that day, Patrick McGuire, of Brooklyn, who is in a hospital dying from poison taken with suicidal intent. McGuire was only eighteen years old when he enlisted in the Ninth infantry. He did his part in the attempt of the survivors to drive off their foes and was one of the eighteen to escape. But the horrors of that day so preyed on his mind that two years ago his mind failed entirely. He was sent to St. Elizabeth's, the government insane hospital at Washington, and remained there until ten days ago, when he had so far recovered that his mother was allowed to bring him back to Brooklyn. But the old terror was still with him and Sunday night he escaped his mother's watchful eyes and took the poison which the doctors fear will cost him his life.
