MORGANTON GRADED SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT.

Morganton has always been justly proud of her graded school, but at such times as commencement these feelings of pride are stirred afresh. We are proud of the past of our graded school, and look with great expectation to its future.

The year just closing has been one of the most gratifying in the history of the school and the exercises extending from Friday until Monday were a fitting climax to the year's work. Each exercise throughout the commencement reflected credit on those who had charge of the school during the past year.

"The Flower Carnival" given on Friday night by grades one to six, inclusive, was a success in every sense of the word. The costumes of the little folks very fittingly suggested flowers or things impersonated, as Spring, Earth, etc. The drills and songs were especially good, and represented a great deal of care and patience in the training of the children. The little fairies in the play looked as if they had been dropped from Fairyland. Little Miss Miriam Goodwin was very attractive as Queen of the Fairies and Miss Jessie Fisher equally so as Queen Flora. In fact, each child taking part looked her best and did her best. Little Bernard Lazarus was not at all embarrassed at being the only boy on the stage, but as Spring, did equally as well as the little girls.

The acts were as follows:
Act I—Making of Flowers.
Act II—Marriage of Earth and Spring.
Wedding March of Flowers.
Garland Drill.
Homage of Fairies.

Saturday was known as Senior Evening. There were six in the graduating class this year, viz: Walton Avery, Edward Haney, Oliver Webb, Mary Bellmer, Eliza Pearson and Mary Shuping.

Although it was the first appearance of some of them before the public, they did not appear at all "scared to death," as the president of the class, Walton Avery, expressed it in a short address of welcome. From the class history, written by Miss Eliza Pearson, it was found that this class came into existence seven years ago, the date of the beginning of the graded school. Its number at graduation was only one-tenth of what it was then.

The statistics given by Edward Haney contained some rather amusing facts and the paper was well written.

Miss Mary Shuping, in the prophecy, predicted a very bright future for each member of the class. Oliver Webb's oration had as its theme the class motto: "Labor conquers all things." In the class "will," Miss Mary Bellmer bequeathed to different grades in the High School the sacred things of the class. Each paper was well written and given well; they were a credit to the class and to the school.

Immediately following the class exercises the Honor Roll for the session 1909-1910 was read by Prof. E. W. S. Cobb, the superintendent, and certificates for perfect attendance and for scholarship in the respective grades were presented by Mr. B. F. Davis, chairman of the Board of Trustees. It is a noteworthy fact that several of those who were perfect in attendance also received the highest honors in their grades.

The sermon on Sunday night by Rev. James Long was up to his usual standard of excellence. "Temple Building" was his theme and the thoughts impressed were that we are all temple builders; that it is important that each have high ideals and noble purposes and that the achievement of these ideals is one of the greatest things in the world.

To the graduates, Monday was the all-important day of com-

Two North Carolina Negroes Remembered by Carnegie Commission.

The Landmark has occasionally mentioned awards made by the Carnegie Hero Fund Commission, which has the administration of the proceeds of a fund founded by Andrew Carnegie for the award of medals and money to persons who have performed some unselfish heroic deed.

A number of awards were made by the commission (which has headquarters at Pittsburgh, Pa.) a few days ago and two North Carolina negroes were among the fortunate ones. Last August while the Pee Dee river was in flood Col. H. G. Myers of Memphis, Tenn., and Mr. A. J. Little of Little Mills, who were traveling to Little Mills by buggy, attempted to cross the river. They were in the ferry boat which was in charge of three negroes, Frank Snuggs, Jule Snuggs and Oscar Colson. By an accident the boat was overturned and sank and the occupants were swept into the river.

On the bank of the river at the time was Harvey Tomlinson and Frank Forrest, colored, who immediately took a small row boat and went to the rescue of the party. Oscar Colson was still clinging to the sunken ferry boat and in attempting to rescue Colson, Tomlinson and Colson were drowned and Forrest was swept

EX-CONGRESSMAN WILLIAM BOWER SUCCEEDS TO PARALYTIC STROKE.

End Comes at His Home in Lenoir After Years of Suffering—Served Eighth District in the Fifty-Third Congress and Was a Leader in State Politics.

Lenoir Special, 12th, to Charlotte Observer.

Hon. W. H. Bower, former Congressman from this district, died at his home here about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. For several years prior to his death he had suffered from the effects of paralysis, having had several strokes, the last one occurring last Thursday.

In the passing of Mr. Bower the State has lost a brilliant and unique figure. In fact, as was said by one of his friends to-day, he lacked little of being a great man. He possessed to a marked degree the elements that go to make the orator the leader of men. Being noble and handsome in personal appearance, with an excellent voice, a command of language and a certain indefinable magnetism irresistible to men, he could, at one time, with the sweep of his powers carry the masses as few men are able to do. Another Roman has gone hence.

William Horton Bower was born in Wilkes county, North Carolina, June 6, 1850; received an academic education at the noted Finley high school, Lenoir, and other academies; finished his education at the age of 16. He studied in the office of Col. G. N. Folk of Lenoir and was licensed by the Supreme Court to practice law in 1870. In 1876 he removed to California, where he taught school until 1880, when he returned to his native State. Was elected to the Legislature from Caldwell county in 1882, and to the State Senate in 1884; was appointed solicitor of the tenth judicial district by Gov. A. M. Scales in 1885 and the following year was elected solicitor without opposition; in 1890 was defeated for Congress by W. H. H. Cowles on the 14th ballot. Mr. Bower was elected to the Fifty-Third Congress as a Democrat from the eighth congressional district, re-

Balloon Ran Into Overhead Snowstorm—Dropped to Earth, Occupants Injured.

Center, Ky., Dispatch, 11th.

Numbed by a snowstorm encountered at an altitude of 20,000 feet and dropped rapidly to earth from a considerable height because of inability to control the balloon, A. Holland Forbes, of Bridgeport, Conn., vice president of the Aero Club of America, and J. C. Yates, of New York, received injuries last night after a flight of 400 miles from Quincy, Ill.

Their balloon, the Viking, descended with such precipitation that both aeronauts were bruised and stunned, and the balloon was partly wrecked. It came to earth near Center, Ky., and dropped through the final 100 feet of space like a stone. The balloonists will recover. They were unconscious all last night, largely because of cold.

MORGANTON GRADED SCHOOL BUILDING.

No Climate Like Ours.

Moore's school history, of North Carolina says that this State is most favorably located, not subject to the cold of the north nor the extreme heat of more southern climes. Moore's history may not be the best kind of a school book, may be rather dry and tedious, may state things negatively—for instance, that Honorable So and So was not in a certain Legislature—but that history Moore wrote is everlastingly right when it talks North Carolina climate. Just think about our escape from the recent cold. The mountains piled up under in the western part of the State turned the cold wave which came sweeping across the continent from out the far Northwest, turned it down the great Mississippi valley and protected the piedmont and eastern section of the state from the freeze which blighted vegetation in other parts of the land, even in places far south of us. No climate in the world like ours!

Each one of this bright class of boys and girls shows promise of a very successful future.

Just after the graduating exercises Capt. W. T. R. Bell, of Rutherfordton, delivered the Annual Literary Address, being presented in a very happy style by Mr. Jno. H. Pearson. Capt. Bell is well known in Morganton and his friends were glad of an opportunity of hearing him. He is indeed a splendid type of the old-time Southern gentleman. His address contained many reminiscences of the old school and the old-time teacher. There was a plea for the conservation of some of the old ideas of education in this transition period in education.

We expected something good from Capt. Bell and we were not disappointed.

Mr. McKesson was in his happy from his boat and down the stream. Later his son, Greely Forrest, rescued Frank Forrest, and the two went back to the scene and brought off all others who were alive. Myers and Little were both rescued without any injury.

This was called to the attention of the commission by Rev. T. W. Chambliss, of Wadesboro. The commission gave Frank Forrest a medal and $500 and the widow of Harvey Tomlinson a medal and $15 a month as long as she lives or until she remarries; and she is also allowed $2 per month additional for each dependent child under 16.

Sensible People Don't Have Big Head.

The "bighead" is a popular way of expressing a common and very frequent ailment, says an exchange. It arises from various sources but the real foundation is lack of self-reliance. A little money develops it in some people; a few good clothes give it to others. An office where a chance is given to exercise a little authority is often the cause of it, while others get it by having a little better job than their associates. The truth is no sensible person gets the "big head." The ones who become "stuck up" and still necked from sources of any kind, are weak in intellectual caliber.

COMMANDER JULIUS A. PRATT POST NO. 143 DEPT. ILL., G. A. R.

Mr. Isaac Cook, Commander of above Post, Keokuk, Ill., writes: "For a long time I was bothered with backache and pains across my kidneys. About two months ago I started taking Foley's Kidney Pills and soon saw they were doing just as claimed. I kept on taking them and now I am free from backache, and the painful bladder misery is all gone. I like Foley's Kidney Pills so well that I have told many of my friends and comrades about them and still recommend them at every opportunity." W. A. Leslie.

You can not have a better motto on your walls this crop-growing season than the sentiment from Sidney Lainer's poem: "Thar's more in the man than thar is in the land." A farmer in one of our sand-hill counties said to us the other day: "I can take you right out here to the farm of a man who makes one hundred bushels of corn to the acre, and right adjoining him is another farmer who makes only ten bushels per acre. The land is the same, and it is only a difference in the man."

CHARLOTTE HARDWARE GROWS.

Separating Wholesale and Retail Departments—New Building on Corner of Sixth and Railroad With 25,000 Feet Floor Secured—Increasing Salesmen From Four to Six.

Charlotte Observer.

To keep pace with the extension of its business and the growth of Charlotte, the Charlotte Hardware Company is enlarging its stock of goods and separating the wholesale and retail departments. The company has been very successful during the four years of its life and it has become necessary to secure more floor space and make an addition to the stock of goods in order to cope with the growing business. Mr. W. W. Haggood is erecting a building at the corner of Sixth street and Railroad 60x170 feet, two stories high with a basement which has been leased for the wholesale department of the concern. This building will be of mill construction and furnish 25,000 square feet of floor space. Being in close proximity to both the Seaboard and Southern tracks the shipments can be received and dispatched in short order without cost of drayage. This building will be devoted entirely to wholesale, while the office will be maintained at the retail department on East Trade street where it is at present.

DANGER IN DELAY.

Kidney Diseases Are Too Dangerous for Morganton People to Neglect.

The great danger of kidney troubles is that they get a firm hold before the sufferer recognizes them. Health is gradually undermined. Backache, headache, nervousness, lameness, soreness, lumbago, urinary troubles, dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease follow in merciless succession. Don't neglect your kidneys. Cure the kidneys with the certain and safe remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills, which has cured people right here in Morganton.

J. P. May, Fairground road, Morganton, N. C., says: "About three years ago I began to suffer from severe pains through the small of my back, which were frequently followed by headaches and dizzy spells. My kidneys were disordered and the secretions from these organs were unnatural. I also felt tired and languid nearly all the time and came to the conclusion that my kidneys needed a tonic. I finally began using Doan's Kidney Pills and my kidneys have given me no trouble since. Doan's Kidney Pills cured me and consequently I am pleased to recommend them."
