The Morganton Hospital

Asheville Citizen.
Friends of the insane asylum at Morganton are hoping that the next session of the North Carolina legislature will open its heart and give that institution some sadly needed financial aid.
The Morganton asylum is practically tested to its full capacity throughout the year, and it is believed that another wing, specially designed to meet the requirements of acute cases, could be built for $75,000 or $100,000.

Here we might state that this institution is one of which North Carolina might well be proud, for there are few, if any in the United States better managed or kept in finer condition than is the Morganton asylum, in charge of Dr. John McCampbell, for several years its able and popular superintendent.
It was the recent pleasure of the writer to visit the Morganton asylum, and there we learned much that surprised us. Everything around the institution told of excellent management and a careful attention to duty on the part of the staff and employees.
We cannot recall that any one of the many institutions of like character visited in several years could make any better showing.
The Citizen believes, then, that when Dr. McCampbell appears before the legislature for aid his appeal will not be in vain.

It is a great work which the Morganton asylum is doing, and in the discharge of its mission it flourishes no trumpets but moves on quietly and effectively. It is unfortunate for the human race that such an institution should be necessary but since we cannot change the workings of nature we should aid and encourage those who are administering to the wants of the most unfortunate class of human beings. We can imagine no fate more terrible than the loss of one's reason, but the horror with which one contemplates such an affliction is somewhat mitigated by the knowledge that our great commonwealth provides homes where skillful brains and hands seek to add occasional light to the long night of mental darkness.
And if we remember rightly, past legislatures have not done their full duty by the Morganton asylum; the few appropriations it has been able to obtain have not been sufficient to carry out the work contemplated, while other state institutions, not nearly so much in need, have been bountifully assisted. This end of the state should see to it that our neighbors in Morganton are given every assistance when we next go to Raleigh.

Wm. Avery Gibbs.

Marion Progress.
Wm. Avery Gibbs was born in Burke county, this state, March 10th, 1852. When about twenty years of age he went west where he remained till about two months ago when he returned to this section. While in the west he was engaged in mining. On June 19, 1889, in the state of Idaho, he was married to Miss Nellie Tillsbury who survives him. For the past few years he has been in declining health and returned to the place of his birth thinking that possibly the change would materially help him, but about two weeks ago he contracted a cold which deepened into pneumonia because of which he died at his rooms at Mr. Jas. Morris's on Geden street, Friday morning, November 3rd. He leaves to mourn his death besides his devoted wife two sisters, Mesdames Todd and Theodore McGimsey of Burke county, one half-brother, Mr. Harrison Gibbs of this county, an adopted daughter, Mrs.
A. V. Moore of San Diego, Cal., and many friends.

He was an earnest christian and spent much of his time in his last years doing purely religious work.
Funeral exercises were conducted from the home of Mr.
Morris by Revs. Edward Leng and J. C. Story and the body was laid to rest in the city cemetery.

Cyclones in the West—Death and Loss of Property.

Chicago Dispatch, 11th.
Reports received tonight by the Associated Press indicate that cyclonic storms coming between the adornably warm period and the following cold wave, have caused death and widespread destruction in southern Wisconsin, eastern Iowa and in Illinois today.

Seven deaths, several dying and scores of injured are known to be lying in the wake of the storm and suffering because of the bitter cold and sleet and snow already is being reported. Southern Wisconsin was hardest hit, according to early reports. Near Orfordville, Rock county, five persons were killed and another is not expected to live. At Virginia, Ill., several were found seriously, perhaps fatally, and fifty others slightly injured.

In Iowa a 50-degree drop in temperature, accompanied by a driving storm of sleet, tied up traffic for many hours.
Property loss mounted up rapidly in the cyclonic blizzard. Nearly every public building in Virginia, Ill., was demolished; farmers' homes were wiped out in Wisconsin and the damage was increased by the heavy downpour of rain, sleet and snow.

Later reports indicated that the dead in Rock county, Wisconsin, alone would reach a dozen.
Two deaths at Milwaukee, Wis., were reported to the train dispatcher of the Chicago Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad but the wires were blown down before the report could be verified.

Severe weather conditions are reported all the way from the Rocky mountains. In Chicago the wind blew 44 miles an hour and in Yellowstone park and at Helena, Mont., the thermometers registered eight degrees below zero.

Death of Rev. Dr. J. C. Moser.

Hickory Special, 12th, to Charlotte Observer.
Rev. Dr. J. C. Moser died rather suddenly this afternoon from a stroke of paralysis. He was 62 years of age and had been pastor of Holy Trinity Lutheran church here for twenty-five years. He is survived by a widow and four children, three sons and one daughter. He has been in failing health for a number of years and only a year ago had given up the pastorate of his church here.
In his death the religious life of this community loses one of its strongest men and Hickory one of her noblest citizens. No funeral arrangements have as yet been made.

His friends point with pride to the fact that should Mr. Simmons be re-elected he will be the ranking Democratic member of the finance committee, the most powerful legislative committee in the world, on account of the re-irement of Senator Baily. If a Democratic President is elected the chairmanship of this committee carries with it the ex-officio leadership of the majority of the Senate, a position that has never been held by a North Carolinian and not by a Southerner in the past 60 years. They look upon the defeat of a man who has gained such powerful influence and prestige in shaping the legislation of this country as nothing short of a calamity.—Concord Times.

Fearful Slaughter In China.

Manchus Fall Upon Reformers and Butcher Them Like Sheep.
Nanking, China, Dispatch, 10th.

Historic Nanking this evening is in the shambles of the Manchu butcher. The sun set upon a scene of fire, rapine, desolation and butchery unrecorded in modern history.
To-night 12,000 Manchu and imperial old-style soldiers hold Purple Hill, where they are entrenched, while from beneath their stronghold they are driving before them hordes of Chinese out of the city. Innocent Chinese, leaving everything behind them, are fleeing, terror-stricken and destitute, to shelter in the fields at the rear of the reform forces.
The latter, numbering between 20,000 and 30,000, are impotent to check the slaughter or avenge the slain because of their lack of ammunition. The revolutionists had delayed a second concerted attack upon the Manchus pending the arrival of ammunition expected from Shanghai. The Manchus took advantage of the situation.

The revolutionists made a determined effort but did little shooting and there were few casualties. The main body of the reformers remained in camp three miles distant from the city awaiting the arrival of ammo-nition. Reinforcements are also coming from every direction.
They are raw and ragged recruits but a battle promises to be desperately fought.

The foreigners are being treated with the utmost consideration. When the gates were opened this morning, the people thronged toward the country, each carrying his belongings and driven by the imperialists.
Soon afterwards the carnage began. Since the night of November 8, when the first attack was made by the revolutionists, the Tartar general has endeavored to terrorize the inhabitants by wholesale executions. Those whose queue had been cut off were beheaded by the dozen, but to-day when the order for a general slaughter was given, the whole native city was invaded by Manchu soldiers who ruthlessly massacred men, women and children. The aged, the young and babies in arms were shown no mercy.

Thousands of Chinese poured from the gates until at noon today it was estimated that fully 70,000 persons had escaped. Before nightfall 20,000 more, representing every class, the merchants, the gentry and coolies, had gotten away. Meanwhile, the Manchus scoured the narrow streets of the city and the houses of wealthy merchants were sacked. Any queueless victim was beheaded immediately.
The correspondent of the Associated Press saw several women executed and their children stabbed and trampled under foot.
The order appeared to be that every one wearing anything which suggested the white badge worn by the reformers must be killed forthwith. A white pocket handkerchief marked the possessor for death. White shoes, which are worn by the Chinese as a sign of mourning, were a signal for the execution of the wearer. The horror of the massacre cannot be described. An attempt to-night to estimate the number of innocent people and non-combatants slain would be futile.

The Chinese found wearing foreign clothing immediately fell a victim on his advanced taste, but foreigners were not molested.
Their protests against the massacre were of no avail.

sacres, however, were disregarded and even laughed at. The correspondents of the Associated Press worked throughout the day within the outer walls of the city, eight miles from the telegraph station, with which they communicated, and to which they were permitted access through the courtesy of the railway officials. Fires sprang up everywhere and a large section of the native city was burned. To-night the Manchu, driven to bay, cornered and glutted with blood, having despoiled the goods of 200,000 inhabitants, watches the flaming city from the height of Purple Hill and awaits the morrow.

Fifty-Two Wagons of Cotton a Day Record at Bristol's Gin.

Stateville Landmark, 9th.
A record business has been done at Mr. L. B. Bristol's cotton gin during the past few days.
Mr. Bristol has built up a good seed cotton market and growers from far and near who prefer selling their product as it comes from the field are now hauling to Bristol's gin. Tuesday 52 wagon loads of cotton were received at the gin, nearly all of it coming from the northern section of the county, and 45 of the wagons were unloaded and their contents handled that day, while the remaining seven, which came in just about dark, were held till next morning. The gin has to be operated the entire day and a portion of the night to meet the demands, but all customers are taken care of. The cotton handled Tuesday aggregated about 40,000 pounds and a good part of it was bought by Mr.
Bristol at from 3.50 to 3.75 cents the pound. At prevailing prices this cotton ginned in a single day is worth about $1,500, but if the staple was bringing the price it brought along about this time last year the amount would be nearer $3,000. A good many farmers who are not willing to sell at the prevailing prices are having their staple ginned and stored, with the hope of getting a reasonable price later.
[Mr. Bristol's many friends up here will be glad to hear of the good business at his gin.—THE NEWS-HERALD.]

Bears Plentiful.

Lenoir Falls Correspondence.
Three bears in one morning, the first day's hunt and before 10 o'clock, is the record made by Mitchell Burleson and his son, Commodore, famous bear-hunters of this place, with Mr. and Mrs.
F. T. Martin, of Canton, Ohio.
The chase was not a very long one, for the bears were fat from the heavy chestnut mast and the hounds were fresh. The game was taken on Steel's creek, about ten miles from this place.
The hunts start from here, where the guides and hounds are. Mr.
Burleson says there are more bear and also wild turkeys.

Football Game at Richmond, Va., Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, Nov- ember 30th, 1911, Between University of North Carolina and University of Virginia.

For the accommodation of persons desiring to attend the football game and others going to Richmond on this date, the Southern Railway will operate a special train from Charlotte to Richmond on November 29th, arriving at Richmond morning of November 30th, and returning, leave Richmond at midnight November 30th.
Very low round trip tickets will be sold for this special train from Charlotte to Danville inclusive, and from all branch line stations for regular trains connecting with the special train at junction points. Detailed schedule and rates will be furnished in few days.
This is a rare opportunity to visit Richmond at an exceptionally low rate, and it is also expected that this game between North Carolina and Virginia will be the greatest football game ever played. Train will consist of first-class coaches and Pullman cars, and those desiring Pullman reservations should apply to nearest agent, or to the undersigned.

TESTED AND PROVEN.

There Is a Heap of Solace in Being Able to Depend Upon a Well-Earned Reputation.
For months Morganton readers have seen the constant expression of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills, and read about the good work they have done in this locality. Not another remedy ever produced such convincing proof of merit.
J. M. McGalliard, Green St., Morganton, N. C., says: "I suffered from weak kidneys for several years and I was made miserable by a dull ache across the small of my back. I did not have much strength and the secretions from my kidneys were unnatural.
Finally I got a supply of Doan's Kidney Pills from the Burke Drug Co., and they gave me great relief. I heartily recommend this preparation to other kidney sufferers." (Statement given January 17, 1908.)
RE-ENDORSMENT.
Mr. McGalliard was interviewed on February 13, 1911, and he added to the above: "I still think very highly of Doan's Kidney Pills. This remedy has never failed to give me relief when I have used it."

TRAIN NO. 37 JUMPS TRACK.

Engineer Kenny, of Thomasville, Instantly Killed When the Limited Passenger Train Leaves the Track Between Reidsville and Benaja.
Greensboro Dispatch, 12th.

Train No. 31, the Southern Railway's limited passenger train between New York and New Orleans, was derailed this morning between Reidsville and Benaja, about 20 miles north of Greensboro. Engineer W. A. Kenny, of Thomasville, one of the veteran guardians of the throttle of the Southern's system, was instantly killed.
The accident occurred in a cut.
Five cars left the track and turned over against the embankment. None of the passengers were seriously injured. The track was torn up for a distance of about 200 yards. But for the fact that the cars turned over against the embankment it is likely that many lives would have been lost. Mr. Frank M. Caldwell, of the staff of the Charlotte Chronicle, was a passenger, but escaped uninjured.

The cause of the wreck is a matter of conjecture, though one railroad man expressed the opinion that the sudden change of temperature last night caused a break in a rail by what is known to science as readjustment of atoms after sudden changes of temperature. Another report is that it was due to spreading rails.
No official report has been made.
The scene of the wreck is only a few miles from Reedy Fork and Rudd wrecks within the last few years.

A Few Directions to Servants.

Dean Swift had something to say concerning tips in his ironical "Directions to Servants." "When a gentleman is going away after dining with your master," he wrote in the section of advice to butlers, "be sure to stand full in view and follow him to the door, and as you have opportunity look him full in the face—it may bring you a shilling.
If the gentleman has lain a night in the house get the cook, the housemaid, the stableman, the scul-lion and the gardener to accompany you and stand in his way in the hall in a line on each side of him. He must have less money or more confidence than usual if any of you let him escape. And according as he behaves himself remember to treat him next time he comes."

Points of Difference.

for farming was explaining at length the many difficulties she encountered in pursuing her fad. "I really am a farmer," she protested, and then added regretfully, "al-almost all I plant I lose."

"Therein differing from me," courteously rejoined her table companion, a rising young physician, "for I find in my case that all I lose I plant."

told her little daughter not to then put the pot back in its place.

Her mother on her return no-"I should say, 'Finish the pot, as you have begun it, but don't do it

The Fountain Head of Life Is The Stomach

A man who has a weak and impaired stomach and who does not properly digest his food will soon find that his blood has become weak and impoverished, and that his whole body is improperly and insufficiently nourished.

DR. PIERCE'S GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY makes the stomach strong, promotes the flow of digestive juices, restores the lost appetite, makes assimilation perfect, invigorates the liver and purifies and enriches the blood. It is the great blood-maker, tissue-builder and restorative nerve tonic. It makes men strong in body, active in mind and cool in judgement.

This "Discovery" is a pure, glyceric extract of American medical roots, absolutely free from alcohol and all injurious, habit-forming drugs. All its ingredients are printed on its wrappers. It has no relationship with secret nourishments. Its every ingredient is endorsed by the leaders in all the schools of medicine. Don't accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this time-proven remedy or snow composition. Ask your druggist. They must know of many cures made by it during past 40 years, right in your own neighborhood.
