Good Roads Support.

If any citizen of this community cannot think of a good reason for supporting a movement for good roads he will find it in the subjoined list. The state of Ohio during 1911 enacted a law revolutionizing methods of road construction and repair in that state. In furtherance of the good roads work in Ohio the Good Roads Federation has started a campaign to secure a constitutional amendment permitting the issuing of bonds for state aid to road construction. As a part of its campaign the Federation issued a bulletin giving the following reasons for supporting the project:

If you are a farmer, because your farm will increase in value, you can raise more profitable crops, your cost of hauling will be lower, you can market your products when your prices are best, your children can get to school, your family can attend church, your physician will be in closer touch with you, your boys and girls will stay on the farm, you will have better mail service, more social life, and happier conditions all around.

If you are a merchant, because good roads enlarge your trading radius, and make it possible for purchasers to reach you every day in the year, and thereby increase your sales.

If you represent a chamber of commerce or a board of trade, because the public roads are commercial feeders to the cities, and every improvement of these roads means a greater prosperity to the cities through increased agricultural production and greater stimulus to all industries.

If you are a highway official, because you are striving for better methods of road construction and maintenance, and more efficient road administration.

If you are a railroad man, because improved roads mean greater production, consequently more traffic, prevent freight congestion, bring more industries, more roads, more tourists.

If you are an automobile user, because you can get the benefit of your machinery every day in the year, your repair bills will be lower, longer and better tours will be possible at all seasons of the year.

If you are a dealer in farm products and implements, because you can receive the products and deliver the implements at all times.

If you are a publisher or editor, because improved roads make wider circulation possible, increase advertising by stimulating commercial enterprises, and because road improvement is the most important economic question of the age.

If you are a manufacturer of road machinery or road materials, because road improvement means more business.

If you are the proprietor of a hotel, because improved roads mean more tourists and more commercial travel. New England, with its system of good roads, gets $60,000,000 a year from tourists alone.

If you are a banker, because good roads will increase agriculture, commerce, and manufacture, depositors, deposits, and dividends.

If you are a progressive citizen, because you cannot progress so long as your state and nation remain in the mud.

CLEAN OPEN RACE.

With Six or Seven Strong Candidates in the Field.

"It is a clean, open race with six or seven strong candidates in the field."

With this statement Norman E. Mack, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, gave his view of the situation in the Democratic party and the contests for the presidential nomination.

Mr. Mack made the declaration after a day of conference with William J. Bryan and party leaders from all sections of the country, after the meeting of the national committee in Washington.

Friends of Gov. Woodrow Wilson, Champ Clark, Oscar W. Underwood and other candidates considered as leaders in the race were disturbed by reports that Mr. Mack and other party managers were lending their influence to support of Gov. Judson Harmon, of Ohio.

"There is no truth in such a report," said Mr. Mack. "I was not elected chairman of the national committee to aid any candidate for any office and I have not been partisan to Governor Harmon's candidacy or that of any other man. I have discussed the situation with leaders from several sections, but I have not given any one more encouragement than all the others in the race."

Yes, The Merchant Has a Snap.

"Yes," remarked the country merchant to the newspaper man, "I certainly have a snap. The wholesale houses send me duns every month and draw on me at sight; but if I send a bill to a farmer he comes in swearing mad and quits tading at my store. While I am hard up for money, many of those who owe me are sending cash in advance to mail order houses. If I contribute money to any cause, people say I am bidding for trade; if I don't they say I am a hog. Every day I am expected to dig up for everything that comes along, from a raffle ticket to a church fund, by the people who say I ought to because they do their trading here; but my friends, Skeers and Chawbuck, neither buy tickets nor help the church funds, and yet get cash in advance business, and if I were to circulate a subscription paper among the wholesale houses I trade with I would get the laugh proper.

"If I sell a pair of pants I must treat the family to candy and cigars; if I buy a load of potatoes I must do the same. Customers who are able to pay, hang onto their money, while I pay 8 per cent at the bank to get ready cash. I have a big business during hard times and poor crops from people who are willing to trade with me providing I can duplicate catalog prices and wait until after harvest for my money.

"My scales weigh too heavy when I sell sugar and too light when I buy butter. I am a thief, a liar and a grafter. If I smile I am a soft-soapy hypocrite; if I don't smile I am a grump."

"Yes, this certainly is a snap." And then he looked over $10,000 worth of book accounts, all good, and wondered how he could raise $350 to a meet sight draft tomorrow.

Subscriptions to the Y. M. C. A.

To the Editor of The News-Herald:

We deem it useless to go into a discussion of the value and importance of a Young Men's Christian Association. Worldwide in its influence for good, it has reclaimed thousands of young men and boys from the paths of iniquity and changed them into good and useful men—yea more, into upright, zealous christians. The young men of Morganton, inspired with the lofty purpose of doing something for their fellows have organized such an association in our midst and it is up to the people of this community to give them aid and encouragement.

They need a gymnasium apparatus, games and recreative exercises, a library, papers and magazines. Money is also needed for payment of coal, lights, water, room rent and janitor.

A committee felt that for this purpose the sum of $500.00 was necessary to put the association on its feet. A partial canvass of the town has been made and $374.99 has been subscribed. It may be well to state that some of the subscribers stated to the committee that they felt a deep interest in this association and if necessary would increase their subscription.

The following is a list of those who have so far subscribed and the amount:

J. E. Erwin	$25.00
A. M. Kistler	20.00
Dr. I. M. Taylor	20.00
Dr. C. E. Ross	15.00

J. A. Beach	1.00

Friends, there is still needed $125.00. Can't you subscribe to this most worthy cause? Can't you give something to lift some boy to a higher and better life? Morganton has never faltered in her life; she cannot afford to falter now.

Respectfully,
THE COMMITTEE.

P. S.—Send subscriptions to J. D. Bowman, Sec. & Treas., or to Jno. M. Mull, Chairman, and send them now, if you please.

COLDS VANISH.

The Sensible Overnight Remedy for Sensible People

After you have used your stomach with pills, powders and vile nostrums and still retain possession of that terrible cold do what thousands of sensible people are doing. Do this:

Into a bowl three-quarters full of boiling water pour a scant teaspoonful of BYOMBI (pronounce it High-ome) cover bowl and box with a towel and breathe for five minutes the soothing, healing vapor that arises.

Then get into bed and awake with a clear head in the morning. BYOMBI does not contain opium, cocaine or any harmful drug. A bottle of BYOMBI (Inhalant) costs 50 cents at Leale's Drug Store and druggists everywhere. Guaranteed for catarrh, asthma, croup and catarrhal deafness.

An Iconoclast.
"All over Europe my wife has made speeches by boldly doubting cherished traditions," said the traveler, "but her skepticism respecting Alfred the Great embroiled her in the most serious difficulty. An old gentleman who sat with this, blue fingers spread above the feeble blaze from which my wife, red-faced and shivering, endeavored to extract a little warmth, expatiated on the cake-burning episode. Said my wife: 'Don't tell me that old yarn again, please. I don't believe a word of it.'"

"Why not?" he demanded.
"Because," she said, "there never was a fire in England hot enough to burn cakes."

"Her report did for the old gentleman what the first had failed to do, it made him hot, but even so, he never forgave her."

Incumbance.
"No," said Mr. Curzon: "I don't do the least disapprove of my daughter's marrying a title."

"What you seem disatisfied."

"I am. What I object to is the fellow that goes with it."

Character's Commercial Value.
Character has commercial value and sometimes men are honest according to law solely because it is polite, or polite, according to social requirements because it pays. But the honesty and courtesy of such men are not virtues. They are handmaidens of civility. They contribute nothing to self-respect. They have no moral content, and serve only to aid in bolstering up a vicious character. However, it is a tribute to the kingliness of character that either for its market value or because of its inherent worth, men clothe themselves in its appearance when they do not seek the substance. —From "The Sixth Sense," by Charles H. Brent.
