PEACE NEGOTIATIONS ARE FIN-ALLY BROKEN BY BALKAN ALLIES.

ADRIANOPLE TO BE TAKEN

Allies Will Combine Their Armies and Assault the City-Early Fighting London, England.-The peace nego tiations, which reached a deadlock over the cessation of Adrianople, on January 6, were finally broken by a note which the plenipotentiaries of the Balkan allies presented to Rechad Pasha, head of the Turkish delega-

Rechad Pasha, after receiving the note, said:

"The consequences may be of the gravest nature. The responsibility lies not alone with the allies, but with the powers, who encouraged the Balkan states and have shown no fairness toward Turkey, although before the war they solemnly proclaimed the principle of the unchangeability of he status quo."

The plan of the allied governments so far as the plenipotentiaries are in formed, is to concentrate their forces on Adrianople immediately after the expiration of the prescribed four days. if the surrender of that fortress does not occur in the meantime. They believe that a few days' bombard ment by the big siege batteries which now surround Adrianople, will bring about its capitulation, The Balkan representatives declare that all reports that Roumania would aid Bulgaria against Turkey are unfounded, and they added that if Roumania should take advantage of the claims by force while the Bulgarian

Raleigh,-That the North Carolina national guard may be put in the best possible shape is the spirit which is tant General Lawrence W. Young, where he and Capt. R. C. Langdon of the United States army, now attached to the guard are busily engaged in outlining plans of work. There are to be put into force amendments to the existing military law so as to comply with the requirements of the regulations governing the organized militia as prescribed by the secretary of war. The new plan will consolidate the three business departments, that of the quartermaster general, paymaster general and commissary general, these all to be combined in the quartermaster corps. The new bill which meets the approval of the combatant branch of the North Carolina national guard calls for a general reduction of the rank of the staff officers of the quartermaster corps. The quartermaster SULZER AFTER WALL STREET general, who has had the rank of as colonel, and the highest rank of officers of the quartermaster corps will be major.
