When You Yawn a Good Deal

In the day time, and feel tired and discouraged, you have every symptom of a bad liver.

Simmons Red Z Liver Regulator (The Powder Form) is a fine tonic for a disordered liver. It acts promptly. The bilious impurities which have interferred with the free action of the liver are driven out, the stomach is cleansed and strengthened so that it can thoroughly digest food. The bowels are purified and a regular habit re-established.

It is a good medicine for constipation. Promotes the circulation of the blood, and drives out the malarial and febrile elements.

A Batch of Live Items Culled From the Papers of Our Neighbor Counties.

CATAWBA.

Newton Enterprise, Feb. 20th.

License was issued by the Register of Deeds Monday for the marriage of Mr. J. F. Schlosser and Miss Bettie Rupert. Mr. Schlosser is native of Switzerland, but he and his bride have been living in Hickory for several years.

The sand-bay road in the southern part of town and between Newton and Hickory is coming through the test of snow and rain in line shape. It is as firm as in dry weather. But further south, the Maiden road, where an inferior grade of top soil was used, we are informed is getting pretty muddy and cutting into ruts. The lesson from this is, that none but good soil should be used in the future, even if it has to be hauled for miles.

After a lingering illness of many weeks, Capt. Eli Fry died Monday morning at 6 o'clock. He was a son of Mr. Joe Fry and was the last but three of a large family, the survivors being Messrs. Claud R. and William R. and Miss Sallie Fry, all of Newton. He was 65 years old, and was just reaching young manhood at the close of the war. Last spring, not quite a year ago, he was married to Mrs. Kirkpatrick, of Mecklenburg county, a sweetheart of his youth who had married another and been widowed.

Mr. W. C. Feimster is in Lenoir this week appearing on the side of the State in the trial of Walter Poovey for killing Gus Ward, about two years ago. Ward was a Catawba county man and the homicide occurred just across the line in Caldwell county as the young men were returning from a dance. Poovey was then only about 17 years old. He fled and made his way to Canada. He returned about two months ago and gave himself up to the sheriff. He said when he returned that he had gotten wages while gone which he saved to defray the expenses of his trial. He will plead self-defense.

Hickory Democrat, Feb. 20th.

Mrs. Eck Abernethy, of Morganton, came to our city Monday on a visit to relatives.

Mr. M. M. Best, of Morganton, attended the entertainment given at Claremont College Monday night, spending the night with his brother, Mr. C. C. Best.

Monday morning a horse was found lying beside the railroad track in Highland, dead. It later developed that it was a horse belonging to Fate Eckard, of near Connelly Springs, and had been struck by an east-bound freight train and carried on the pilot of the engine for this distance, something like 9 miles.

Mr. P. C. Hahn was a pleasant caller at our office Monday evening. He told us that he spent two very pleasant nights last week with an old friend of his, Mr. John Isenhower, of Conover, R. I., and that while there Mr. Isenhower showed him a pair of shoes that he had made twenty years ago. Mr. Isenhower has worn these as his dress shoes for Sunday ever since, and they are in good condition yet. Mr. Isenhower says that they will last him ten years more.

CALDWELL.

Lenoir Topic, Feb. 20th.

Mrs. W. W. Williams died this morning at 8 o'clock at her home near Granite Falls, after a brief illness with pneumonia. She was 44 years of age and leaves her husband and 8 children. Her remains will be buried tomorrow (Thursday) at 11 o'clock at Ebenezer church. Deceased was a daughter of the late Wilson West and only sister of Mrs. John Tolbert, of Lenoir.

Mr. E. L. Steele has purchased Mr. M. I. Cloer's barber shop, and Messrs. A. S. Wilson and O. F. Strother will run it. Mr. Wilson has been with Mr. Cloer for some time and Mr. Strother, who has been in Lenoir for several years, has been in Shell's shop under First National Bank for some time. Both are skilled and efficient barbers and will make good in business together.

Mrs. Eliza Jane Brinkley, wife of James H. Brinkley, died at her home in Little River township on Sunday, Feb. 1st, at 9 o'clock a. m., after a lingering illness, which she bore with christian fortitude. The burial services were held at Dudley Shoals Baptist church Monday at 2 o'clock p. m., Rev. J. W. Bumgarner officiating. Mrs. Brinkley was about 55 years of age. She was Eliza Jane Miller before her marriage to Mr. Brinkley. She had been a member of the Baptist church for a number of years and lived an exemplary christian life. She leaves a husband and seven children, three sons and four daughters and many other relatives and friends to mourn her death.

MCDOWELL.

Marion Progress, Feb. 20th.

Mrs. D. F. Giles and little daughter, Jewel Reid, are visiting relatives at Fonta Flora.

Miss Edna Gibson, of Bridge-water, is taking the teachers' course at Nebo High School.

Miss Annie Glass, principal of Belfont School, spent the weekend at her home in Morganton.

The many friends of Jewel Reid, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Giles, who was operated upon for tonsil trouble at the hospital recently, will be glad to know that she has entirely recovered.

Mrs. Agnes Hyams and Miss Mattie Perry were summoned to Greensboro last week by the serious illness of the latter's sister, Mrs. D. R. Hyams. Mrs. Hyams returned Tuesday and reports her daughter-in-law convalescing.

The commencement exercises of Garden City School were given last Saturday and Sunday night. The educational address was made at 11:00 a. m. by the Hon. Charles McKesson, of Morganton, who took as his subject, "Character Building." Prof. Hinshaw, of Rutherford College, had expected to be present but was detained by illness.

In the superior court in the case of State vs. Mrs. M. A. Browning and two children, John and Sterling, aged 13 and 11, Mrs. Browning was sentenced to two years in the State prison and the two children will be placed in the Jackson Training school during minority. They were charged with breaking in the Marion Bargain House and adjudged guilty of stealing numerous articles of merchandise and robbing the cash drawer of a small amount of cash. The crime was committed last December.

CLEVELAND.

Shelby Star, Jan. 25th.

Recently there was a sale at the Wright homestead near Fallston and some of the oldest relics in the state were unearthed and disposed of. Two years ago Mr. Hicks Wright died and recently his two maiden sisters died, one on one day and the other on the following day. It became necessary to settle up the estate and Mr. W. D. Lackey was appointed administrator. The Wright family has been remarkable in many respects. It is said their rule of life was never to spend any money. The present-day argument to raise the necessities of life at home was nothing new to them, for they practiced it all their lives, and these three lived at the old home place a mile east of Fallston for four score years. It is said that Mr. Wright never spent a dollar except to pay taxes. They would sell produce at the stores and if they were not in the market for anything just then, they would take a due bill to be used when they did need merchandise. On one occasion they had enough due bills to pay for a nice buggy and were such misers that some time ago $900 was discovered in a guano horn in one of the out-buildings. Even at the sale after it was thought that all money had been found, an old kettle was about to be auctioned off when it was discovered that therein was $97.50 in gold. A big crowd attended the sale and the things brought far more than their physical value because of their age.

Col. P. J. Sinclair Dead.

One of the Oldest and Most Prominent Citizens of Western North Carolina.

Marion Dispatch, 1st.

Col. P. J. Sinclair, one of the best known citizens of Western North Carolina, one of the oldest and best known members of the local bar, died this morning at 6 o'clock. Colonel Sinclair was paralyzed January 7, 1908, since when he has been confined to his bed almost constantly. Colonel Sinclair was born on the island of Tyree, Scotland, March 17, 1837. He came to this country at the age of three years with his father, who was a Presbyterian missionary. After living many years in Nova Scotia, his family moved to Fayetteville, N. C. At the outbreak of the war between the states he organized Company A, 5th North Carolina regiment of infantry. His skill, courage and bravery won him many promotions. At the close of the war, he was lieutenant colonel of his regiment. He was loved and respected by all his men and trusted by his superiors. At the close of the war he came to Marion and began the practice of law. Again his talent and personality gained him many distinctions. He was chief counsel for the C. C. Railway company from its organization until it passed into the hands of the Southern; thereafter, he was counsel for the Southern until he gave up active practice. In private life Colonel Sinclair was a most exemplary citizen. An elder in the Presbyterian church, a prominent Mason, a sterling Democrat, he has left his imprint upon this whole section of the State. Many prominent families of the State are relatives of the family. Besides a widow he leaves the following children: Mrs. George I. White, of Marion; Dr. J. A. Sinclair, of Asheville; L. C. Sinclair, of High Point; Mrs. Maud Lonon, of San Francisco, Cal.; Dr. P. D. Sinclair, of Morganton; Misses Moffit and Julia and Master Malcome Sinclair, Marion. [The interment was from the home at 10:30 Monday.]

The Rutherford College quartette sang at Glen Alpine Sunday.

Prof. M. T. Hinshaw has been confined to his bed with tonsilitis for the past week. We trust he will soon be able to resume his work again.

Prof. E. J. Harbison visited at Glen Alpine Saturday and Sunday.

Cary S. McLeod visited relatives at Lenoir last Saturday and Sunday.

Seawell Avery, of Avery, spent the week-end here with friends and relatives.

The dramatic play given here Feb. 21st for the benefit of the Athletic Association, was well patronized, the proceeds amounting to about forty dollars. The five-dollar gold piece which was offered for the best name suggested for the play, was awarded to Mr. John Cline, of this place, whose suggestion was "Where True Hearts Masquerade." Miss Willie Cherry was the author of this most creditable play.

The fourteenth open debate of the Platonic Literary Society will be held in the college auditorium, Friday evening, March 6th, at eight o'clock. The program is as follows:

Address of Welcome—by President.

First Declaration—"The History of Freedom," R. W. Edwards.

Second Declaration—"Cut Off from the People," C. F. Phillips.

Oration—"The Spirit of the Age," John Cline.

Debate—Query: "Resolved, that the South Should Encourage Foreign Immigration." Affirmative—J. A. Russell, H. W. Wellman.

Negative—D. E. Earnhardt, W. E. Hauss.

Journalist—W. W. Morse. Judges' decision and reception. Rutherford College, Mar. 2, 1914.

Less Dyspepsia Now—Here's the Reason.

The fact that there is less dyspepsia and indigestion in this community than there used to be is largely, we believe, due to the extensive use of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, hundreds of packages of which we have sold. No wonder we have faith in them. No wonder we are willing to offer them to you for trial entirely at our risk.

Among other things, they contain Pepsin and Bismuth, two of the greatest digestive aids known to medical science. They soothe the inflamed stomach lining, check heartburn and distress, help to digest the food, and tend to quickly restore the stomach to its natural, comfortable, healthy state.

There is no red tape about our guarantee. It means just what it says. We'll ask you no questions. Your word is enough for us. If Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets don't restore your stomach to health and make your digestion easy and comfortable, we want you to come back for your money. They are sold only at the 7,000 Rexall Stores, and in this town only by us. Three sizes, 25c, 50c and $1.00. -W. A. Leslie, Morganton, N. C.

Pearsall Candidate For Chairmanship.

Raleigh Dispatch, Feb. 20th.

Raleigh friends of Col. P. M. Pearsall of Newbern received today a letter from him to the effect that he had decided to be a candidate for the chairmanship of the State Democratic Executive Committee at the special meeting of the committee just called by Chairman C. A. Webb on March 10.

His friends are insisting that Colonel Pearsall is the logical man for the chairmanship, that he is a veteran campaigner who has been in close touch with the management of the party for 15 years and would bring to the chairmanship a thorough familiarity with the political conditions of the State. He was private secretary to Governor Aycock, and they say contributed his part to the success of that brilliant administration, also that as secretary of the Executive Committee for the campaign of 1900 he displayed marked ability, rendering the party valuable service.

[Col. Pearsall is a brother of Miss Kate Pearsall, of Morganton, and a nephew of the late Dr. P. L. Murphy, superintendent of the State Hospital for the insane here.]

State News.

District Attorney Hammer has been permitted to move his office from Winston-Salem to his home town, Asheboro.

Statesville's fourth bank—the People's Loan and Savings Bank—was recently organized and will soon be ready for business.

Following a missionary institute conducted last week by Rev. F. P. Siler the Newton Methodists have undertaken the support of a missionary in the foreign field.

Caldwell County Commencement will be held in Lenoir April 3rd. On the same date the schools of Cleveland will hold their commencement at Shelby. The Shelby papers say that moving pictures of the parade and athletic events of the day will be made.

A $100,000 Masonic temple is in process of construction in Charlotte, and on Wednesday afternoon of this week the cornerstone of the building was laid with most fitting ceremonies. The Grand Lodge of North Carolina Masons convened in honor of the occasion, and many dignitaries of the order were present.

In Gaston county recently a gang of book agents forced their books on many people, principally the public school teachers of the county, telling them that they could not obtain certificates from the county board next summer unless they had these particular books in their possession. Other counties in the state should be on their guard against these defrauders.

COATED TONGUE MEANS LAZY LIVER.

A Lazy Liver Needs a Dose of Dodson's Liver Tone—Guaranteed to Take Place of Calomel.

When your doctor looks to see if your tongue is coated, he is trying to find out if your liver is working properly. A few years ago doctors had to prescribe calomel—there was nothing else to give.

Recently in many sections of the country Dodson's Liver Tone has practically taken the place of calomel as a liver remedy. Dodson's Liver Tone is mild, pleasant tasting and harmless—which makes it a fine medicine for use when your children become bilious and constipated. But the most remarkable feature of Dodson's Liver Tone is the fact that Leslie's Drug Store, who sells it, guarantees it absolutely. The druggist will return your money without argument if a bottle fails to give entire satisfaction.

Price 50c. We suggest that you get a bottle to-day and have it ready for the next member of your family whose liver goes wrong.

MOTHER OF FIVE A LAWYER

Brooklyn Woman Also Finds Time for Charity Work—Has Daughter Public School Teacher.

Home duties, including the care of her five children, are considered a delightful diversion by Mrs. Flora Groden of Brooklyn, who, having passed all the requirements, has been admitted to the bar. Mrs. Groden has satisfied the committee on character which examined her credentials in the appellate division of the supreme court.

Mrs. Groden is forty-two years old and has been married more than twenty-four years. She is a graduate of the girls' high school, and in 1910 received a degree of LL. B. in the New York University law school. A daughter, Gertrude, twenty-two years old, is a public school teacher. Outside of her home duties and the time devoted to her study of law Mrs. Groden also gives considerable attention to charity, being an organizer of the Brooklyn Hebrew Home for the Aged.—New York Herald.
