

SUPREME COUNCIL WILL MEET TODAY

United States Will Not Be Represented at the Conference.

Questions in connection with the peace treaty with Turkey comprised the first business to be taken up by the supreme council of the allies at its first formal session yesterday. This was decided upon at a conference in the Duvachan palace, where the sessions are to be held, attended by Premiers Nitti, of Italy; Lloyd-George of Great Britain and Millerand of France.

It developed definitely that the United States would not be represented at the conference of the three great powers — Nitti, Millerand and Lloyd-George — have expressed very decided regret that the United States government was taking no part in what is regarded as one of the final acts of the peace conference.

As far as can be sensed, the feeling is that the absence of America is only a temporary one and that the reasons for her present detachment are likely to disappear.

For the present, however, the prime ministers, foreign ministers and ambassadors of France, Great Britain, Italy, Japan, Belgium and Greece at the meeting are occupied with problems particularly affecting themselves and there is no disposition to dwell unduly upon the lack of American participation.

The first meeting of the conference opened at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning. Another subject which has not been much mentioned as yet, but which will be brought before the council before its close, will be the condition of international exchange and the position in which Italian industry has been placed by lack of coal. The Hungarian treaty will have to be passed upon finally. With the prospect ahead that the present Hungarian government may refuse to sign it. Then there is the vastly important question of compelling Germany to fulfill the treaty at Versailles, regarding which an early declaration by the conference is expected.

Sessions were held morning and afternoon, with the possibility that evening meetings also may be arranged for.

The Jugo-Slavs are not represented and it appears doubtful if the Adriatic question will be taken up.

DAILY PAPERS CUT SIZE DUE TO PAPER SHORTAGE

The Charlotte Observer began this week with eight pages daily, the cut being forced on account of the acute paper shortage. The Observer announces that very little display advertising will be carried and that this step is taken now in order to avoid absolute suspension later on. The Greensboro Daily News appeared Sunday with less number of pages than usual and will reduce the size of the week-day issues. The big Georgia dailies are ordering two per cent of their supply in sheet news in order to save the Georgia weeklies from destruction. The Yorkville Enquirer last week ordered one car of paper for future delivery at a cost of 15 cents per pound or $5,000 more than their present car is costing.

FINANCIAL COLLAPSE NOW FACES GERMANY

And Collapse Will Come Within Year if People Don't Change, Says Ministry of Treasury

Financial and economic collapse confronts Germany within a year, if the people do not realize the situation of the country and reform their methods of living, said Dr. Wirth, minister of the treasury, addressing the British committee of the National Assemblée.

"If we cannot bring our financial policy in line with economical principles," he exclaimed, "I confess I see no way out. Another increase in wages will soon be demanded, particularly by the workers on the state railroads, and I shudder to contemplate the next railroad budget. It was hoped the deficit would not exceed seven billion marks, but it will not be less than twelve billion, according to estimates."

How Diphtheria is Contracted.

One often hears the expression, "My child caught a severe cold which developed into diphtheria," when the truth was that the cold had simply left the little one particularly susceptible to the wandering diphtheria germ. If your child has a cold when diphtheria is prevalent you should take him out of school and keep him off the street until fully recovered, as there is a hundred-times more danger of his taking diphtheria when he has a cold. When Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given it quickly cures the cold and lessens the danger of diphtheria or any other germ disease being contracted.

Life Was a Misery

Mrs. F. M. Jones, of Palmer, Okla., writes: "From the time I entered into womanhood . . . I looked with dread from one month to the next. I suffered with my back and bearing-down pain, until life to me was a misery. I would think I could not endure the pain any longer, and I gradually got worse. . . Nothing seemed to help me until, one day, . . . I decided to

TAKE CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

"I took four bottles," Mrs. Jones goes on to say, "and was not only greatly relieved, but can truthfully say that I have not a pain. . . ."

"It has now been two years since I took Cardui, and I am still in good health. . . I would advise any woman or girl to use Cardui who is a sufferer from any female trouble."

If you suffer pain caused from womanly trouble, or if you feel the need of a good strengthening tonic to build up your run-down system, take the advice of Mrs. Jones. Try Cardui. It helped her. We believe it will help you.
