Notice to Creditors of B. F. Davis & Son

The death of Mr. B. F. Davis, the senior member of the firm, has necessitated the collection of all accounts due the firm, in order to make a settlement of the business. We hope our customers will realize that we are now compelled to collect, and that they will not blame us if we are forced to employ attorneys to force collection of all accounts which are not paid promptly. We have been very indulgent, but conditions are such that we must now act.

This July 8th, 1920.

ANNOUNCEMENT

We wish to announce the opening, on the corner of East Union and Water streets, of our New and Modern Filling Station and accessory store.

The station is equipped with the newest and most approved fixtures, including electrically driven pumps which enable you to see both the quantity and quality of gas and oil which you purchase.

We have plenty of room to accommodate the largest cars and trucks and by purchasing your gas at our Filling Station you can save time and avoid the congestion which is usually found in front of garages.

We will carry a stock of tires and a general line of automobile accessories at the Filling Station.

We will also be especially well prepared to wash cars.

We will welcome you at our Filling Station and promise you prompt and efficient service.
