LOWER PRICES ON COTTON SEED HULLS

We are offering cotton seed hulls at the following reduced prices:

Loose Hulls.....50 cents per 100 pounds
Bagged Hulls.....70 cents per 100 pounds

The prices were formerly 70 cents for loose and 90 cents for bagged hulls. These prices are quoted at our mill in Lillington.

You already know the food value of cotton seed hulls. Now take advantage of these reduced prices and gain more value.

Yours for results,

LILLINGTON OIL MILL COMPANY

PERSONALS.

Miss Bettie Woodall, from near Kipling, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. W. J. Morris.

Hon. R. N. Page of Aberdeen spent a while in Lillington Monday.

We are glad to learn that Mr. R. O. Senter of Kipling is able to be up and walk around. His hosts of friends are earnestly hoping for his entire and early recovery from the recent paralytic attack.

Druggist J. B. Tugwell took a trip over towards Wilmington this week. He will probably take in Wrightsville before returning.

Fuquay Brick Company is in receipt of an order from Contractor Stout of Sanford for 100,000 brick. June Fuquay says there is great demand for brick now, but he is abundantly able to take care of stout orders.

Attorney J. R. Baggett is in Richmond this week on professional business connected with the Lillington Oil Mill Company.

Miss Lucile Spears, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Spears, who is attending summer school in Raleigh for teachers, spent the week-end in Lillington with her parents.

Mr. Milton Long, who has been overseas in the recent war, has arrived in Lillington. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Long. Mrs. Long went over to Dunn to meet him.

Mayor and Mrs. J. C. Thomson spent Sunday in Olivia with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. T. Kearsley. Mrs. Kearsley was Mrs. Anna M. Johnson of Lillington before her marriage a few months ago.

Mr. S. A. Boney took a Northern trip last week in the interest of the Lillington Oil Mill Company.

Mrs. Laura Kirkpatrick, mother of Rev. G. F. Kirkpatrick, went to Montreal this week to spend some time. Rev. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick accompanied her as far as Raleigh.

Messrs. H. M. Spears, J. O. Sutton, K. A. Stewart and C. R. Parker went over to Mount Olive Monday on business. Messrs. Spears and Sutton are Lillington's progressive Irish potato growers and took a look over the potato shippers at Mount Olive.

Ex-Sheriff McArtan, Mrs. McArtan, Mrs. Neill Atkins and Mr. O. L. Johnson spent Friday in Raleigh.

Sheriff Turlington, Deputy Clerk Chaffin and Druggist J. B. Tugwell went to Raleigh Friday to arrange some details in connection with the July 4 celebration.

Surveyor W. M. Green returned last Friday from a trip down in Pender County with Mr. O. S. Bordeaux of Fuquay and others, where they went to map out a tract of land. "Bill" says the White Lake looked good to him from a fisherman's viewpoint, but he was too weary to fish. Everyone knows he must have been very, very tired.

A large delegation of Lillingtonians attended the memorial exercises at Pleasant Union last Sunday. The memorial was held in honor of the memory of Pierce and Erastus Matthews, brothers, of Pleasant Union, who fell while in the service of their country during the World War.

Miss Allen, the popular milliner of Parker Bros., spent the week-end in Raleigh.

Miss Harriet Parks of Raleigh spent Sunday in Lillington with her sister, Miss Carra Parks.

Mr. Milton Senter, who has been in service in France for some months, has arrived home after being discharged from service. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Senter of Kipling.

Messrs. June Douglas and Mack Collins, two Lillington soldiers who have just arrived from a year of service in France, have received discharge and are at home with relatives.

Young men discharged from army service are arriving in the county almost daily now, and everybody is glad to welcome them. Wild Cats, Rainbows, Sunsets, Sammies or Doughboys, whichever they might have been, they are now Harnett County's Honeyboys.

Special attention is called to "Harnett County Reminiscences" in this issue, which is a continuation of former articles. Some interesting reading is in store in future from this same pen. Watch for it.

Misses Helen and Blanche Reade, who have been visiting their sister, Mrs. A. A. McDonald, returned to their home in Durham Monday.

Miss Kate Chaffin is spending a few days in the home of her brother, Mr. L. M. Chaffin.

Dr. J. B. Tugwell left Monday for Wrightsville Beach to attend the State meeting of the Pharmaceutical Society.

Miss Cora Spence of Cokesbury, who has been visiting Mrs. L. M. Chaffin, returned to her home Tuesday.

Rev. N. M. McDonald and Messrs. W. P. Byrd and John Mitchell are attending the district conference of the Fayetteville District, Methodist Church, at Roseboro this week.

Messrs. Walter and Cary Cade of Kipling were visitors Sunday.

WAR TANK ON WAY.

The big war tank to be exhibited in Lillington on the 4th of July is on its way from Camp Meade, Md. The big crusher weighs 12,000 pounds and has a 37 millimeter gun mounted on "deck." It is expected to arrive Saturday. Two experienced tank "chauffeurs" are to demonstrate it.

CAPTURED DISTILLERY SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Deputies Will McArtan and Kyle Matthews made a successful raid last Sunday afternoon in Hectors Creek township. They ran upon a still of about 30 gallons capacity and while not in operation at the time, they saw evidences of recent working. The deputies took in custody Albert Truelove, upon whose place the plant was located.

UNITED STATES TIRE NEWS.

A resourceful motorist whose car has been stuck in the mud does not always have to fall back on a pair of mules to get free. For such an emergency the U. S. Tire Co. offers some suggestions that have proved valuable.

The first calls for having stored away somewhere in the car a stack of old newspapers. When the car gets stuck and the wheels refuse to take hold, feed in some of the old papers between the tires and the mud. Usually only a few will have to be worked in before the wheels will begin to grip and the car starts forward. This method of handling a difficult situation is so simple and so uniformly successful, that every motorist should know of it and carry a pile of old newspapers, unless he is equipped with some other apparatus for such a contingency.

Here is the other method suggested: Put the car in low, and if you cannot feed the gas with your foot evenly, so that the wheels will re-

LILLINGTON, N. C.

MEET ME AT THE HINDENBERG LINE

On July 4th!

IN LILLINGTON

Major F. P. McLendon, who helped to break the original Hindenberg line, will speak. And two of our own boys, who helped to take the "man" out of German, will also tell their home folks how it was done.

EVERYBODY WILL ENJOY THEMSELVES

The tank is on its way, and with its crew of two veterans will show how it scrambled over the famous (infamous) line and made the Hun hunt Berlin.

THE SOLDIERS WILL TAKE RENEWED PRIDE IN THEIR NATIVE COUNTY

The Band—hear that bass!—will be here and even the old witches' joints will forget their rheumatism.

A PICNIC WILL FEATURE THE DAY

And the Dinner! The soldiers munching barbecue and sipping Brunswick stew, and the people devouring whole poultry farms of spring chickens—

GEE! I'LL BE THERE!

MEET ME AT THE HINDENBERG LINE JULY 4th!

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE:
L. M. Chaffin, Chairman.
