HOME DEMONSTRATION NOTES.

Last Tuesday we met over at the Lillington High School building and demonstrated bread making, Parker House rolls and the 20-minute dough—testing the yeast before using it. About 15 women and girls were present. Those who want the Fleischmann yeast twice a week can get it through this office, but will have to put in the order a few days before getting it.

Parker House rolls:
1 cake Fleischmann yeast.
1 pint milk, scalded and cooled.
2 tablespoonsful sugar.
4 tablespoonsful lard or butter, melted.
3 pints sifted flour.
1 teaspoonful salt.
25-minute dough:
2 quarts flour.
2-3 cups water.
1 tablespoonful salt.
2 tablespoonsful sugar.
1 tablespoonful shortening.
6 cakes Fleischmann yeast.

The temperature of this dough should be 88 F. after mixing. It is then allowed to lay 20 minutes. It should then be punched and turned over. Then made up into the pans in the next five minutes. This is allowed to double up and baked in the usual way. A smaller batch can be made by dividing the ingredients into halves.

On Thursday afternoon the Christian Light Community Club met with good attendance. We made two fireless cookers and discussed the value of them as not only a home convenience but to "make mother's work easier." After the meeting Mrs. Brown, with whom we met, served ice cream and cake which was enjoyed by all.

MISS FANNIE BROOKS, Demonstrator.

TRADE BOARD IS FORMED HERE

At a meeting of citizens in the courthouse auditorium Tuesday night at 8 o'clock a Chamber of Commerce was formed with the following officers: J. C. Thomson, president; B. P. Gentry, secretary-treasurer; directors J. B. Barnes, Chas. Batman, B. A. Parker, J. O. Sutton, H. T. Atkins, L. D. Burwell.

The Board of Directors was appointed a committee on by-laws and constitution, who will frame the working plan of the body. The organization will meet next Tuesday night to perfect its plans. Reports of committees will be submitted and passed upon at that time. In the meantime a canvass will be made for new members and it is practically certain that almost every business and professional man in Lillington will join.

Those attending the meeting, each of whom signified their intention of uniting with the trade body, were as follows: N. McLaughlin, J. A. Marsh, J. R. Baggett, B. P. Gentry, J. C. Thomson, L. D. Burwell, D. H. McLean, W. P. Byrd, J. B. Barnes, Chas. Batman, J. F. Batts, H. T. Atkins, N. S. Atkins, B. A. Parker, J. O. Sutton, C. R. Parker, I. C. McKinney, Hiram Baggett, Marvin Edwards, W. F. Hockaday, J. H. Dixon, John Green, W. L. Sutton.

There were some who were unavoidably detained from the meeting but whose efforts will be put into the organization wholeheartedly and help to present Harnett's county seat to the public with a united front.

The bright outlook for Lillington's future business prosperity is prompting the business men of the town to take on new life and interest in the movement to work in harmony and to "pull" together for the upbuilding of the community. The Chamber of Commerce of Lillington is expected to put forward measures that immediately appeal to those seeking a desirable location.

Let's build up! Watch Lillington!

WHY DOES NOT SENATOR DEBATE REPUBLICAN LEADERS, ASKS BROOKS

Greensboro Candidate Thinks North Carolina Should Speak From Senate Floor in Rebuttal of Republican Vilification of the President and His Administration—Aspires to Lead Fight Against Radicalism of Johnson, Militarism of Wood and Reactionary Forces of Senators Penrose and Lodge.

Aubrey L. Brooks challenges Senator Overman to meet him in five or more joint discussions in different parts of the State, so that the people may be able to judge for themselves as to which is better fitted and qualified to serve them for the next six years.

Senator Overman has declined the invitation, and declines to come to the State and make speeches.

Brooks said: "What North Carolina needs in my judgment is a fighting democracy. Fighting, not by letter writing, but by men who are willing to get down on the ground and go among the people of the State, meet them, learn their wants and needs, and then go back to Washington and fight their battles."

"It is not enough for Senator Overman to say that he has supported President Wilson by voting for the measures he recommended. We have all supported him. For ten months past the U. S. Senate has been quarreling and wrangling, and has done nothing for this nation, while the entire civilized world is ablaze with disorder and distrust."

"The people want a change. They demand a government which is more responsive to the forces which are shaping our destinies—the educational, industrial and religious forces. For nine months Republican leaders in the Senate have ridiculed and denounced the President, abused the League of Nations and vilified the work of the administration."

"Why has not Senator Overman engaged these Senators in debate and fight on the floor of the Senate to defend the things which our boys sacrificed and died for in France, and which the people in this country are so dearly interested in?"

"Mr. Wilson says the defeat of the League of Nations will break the heart of the world. The vicious assaults made in the Senate on him and the League have nearly destroyed his health. Is it not time that North Carolina should speak on the floor of the Senate its convictions, and its determination to bring out of this world crisis an understanding between civilized nations of the earth which will guarantee the settlement of their disputes with brains and not with bullets?"

"I do not aspire to be merely a blind follower, but a leader of the new forces which are shaping the destiny of the world, a progressive democracy which anxiously looks forward to the future, and resolutely determines to keep up the fight against the vicious radicalism of Johnson, the militarism of Wood and the reactionary leadership of Senators Penrose and Lodge."

TO PROVIDE BETTER HOTEL FACILITIES
Sanford, May 22.—The hotel situation in Sanford since the burning of the Sanford hotel some weeks ago has been rather acute, though the other hotels in the city have become rapidly adjusted to the new conditions. Mr. W. A. Maness has given a contract for extensive additions to his hotel, and when it is completed it will be thoroughly equipped with all modern conveniences and improvements.

MR. THOMAS WITHDRAWS.
Mr. E. R. Thomas of Duke, who announced himself a candidate for the House of Representatives, has decided to withdraw. Mr. Thomas finds that the duties of a legislator would take considerable of his time away from his business, which he cannot well afford to sacrifice at this time. His many friends will regret to learn of his withdrawal, as they felt Harnett county fortunate in securing Mr. Thomas as their representative.

FROM OLIVIA

Olivia, May 24.
The setting of tobacco has been carried forward rapidly during the past week and despite somewhat unfavorable conditions the condition of the crop appears good.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Olivia Presbyterian church met at the home of Mrs. H. C. Cameron on Thursday afternoon. We understand that the ladies expect to erect a booth somewhere in Olivia's business section and sell ice cream and cake on Saturday afternoons to raise funds for the society. A number of the ladies and young folks met at the church Saturday afternoon and gave the church and churchyard a thorough cleaning.

Mrs. DeWitt McNeill, who has resided at Asheville for some time, is at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Olive. Mr. McNeill is a salesman for the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company and will have his headquarters at Fayetteville instead of Asheville as heretofore.

Mr. H. C. Cameron has moved his sawmill in charge of Mr. L. C. Seawell to a new location below Pineview. Mr. Cameron has just purchased two tractors of the caterpillar type for use with this mill and expects to increase the output of his Olivia plant.

We are in hearty accord with the editorial statement of The News last week regarding its intention to furnish a square deal for all, but not so hearty regarding the proposed intention of conducting the coming campaign in a manner befitting a perfect lady. Our motto is treat 'em rough.

CANDIDATE FOR HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
I hereby announce myself a candidate for Member of the House of Representatives from Harnett County subject to the action of the Democratic Primary to be held on June 5th.

N. A. TOWNSEND.

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF HARNETT COUNTY:
Being busy with my farm work, I will not be able to make a thorough canvass of the county in behalf of my candidacy for the office of County Auditor. I am, therefore, making this statement through the county papers.

I have been a citizen of North Carolina for seven years and of Harnett County two years.

I am a graduate of Mississippi State College and have had ten years experience in bookkeeping and auditing work. I held a position with the auditing department of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad for six years, leaving that place for the farm.

I believe I am qualified for the place I seek and if nominated and elected I propose to put forth my every effort to perform the duties of the office in a businesslike and satisfactory manner.

I shall greatly appreciate your vote and influence at the primary June 5th.

C. N. WARE.
