S. S. CONVENTION MET AT ANTIOCH

On last Saturday and Sunday the Baptist Sunday School Convention covering the county was held at Antioch church at Marners. Because of illness at Rex Hospital, Rev. J. A. Campbell, who is president of the organization, could not be present and Rev. Sidney Edgerton of Buies Creek was elected for that place with E. H. Ballentine as secretary.

The attendance was a breaker of all records, both on Saturday and Sunday. Quite a large number of visitors as well as delegates were present, among them many of the Lillington people. The messages on "The Why of the Sunday School" by Hon. L. L. Levinson and that of Rev. J. L. Martin on "Soul Winning" Saturday night were unusual utterances. Among other matters a Sunday School Institute for the association at Antioch some time during August and decision for the next convention at Antioch were made. The July union meeting will be held with the church at Hawls.

LAYING OF CORNERSTONE ORTHOPAEDIC HOSPITAL

Gastonia, June 2.—Marking a new era for the little cripple children of North Carolina of sound mind, the laying of the cornerstone of the North Carolina Orthopaedic Hospital in Gastonia on the morning of June 8 will be a most notable occasion. The ceremonies will be in charge of the North Carolina Grand Lodge of F. and A. M. with other fraternal orders of the State assisting. Governor Thomas W. Bickett will be the chief guest of honor.

For nine years R. B. Babbington has been working to make this institution a reality and at last sufficient funds have been received from private contributions together with the State appropriation, to begin the work. It is already well under way. It stands on a high knoll east of Gastonia from which one may see one of the most magnificent views in this section of the State, the wide rolling Piedmont, dotted here and there with cities and towns. Contributions are still being received from all sections of the State.

The exercises attending the cornerstone laying will be most impressive and will be attended by thousands from all sections of the State. Gastonia is preparing to extend the glad hand to the throngs.

The officials of the institution are as follows:
President, R. B. Babbington, Gastonia; secretary, M. B. Speir, Charlotte; treasurer, J. Lee Robinson, Gastonia.

Executive committee, R. R. Ray, McAdenville, chairman; R. B. Babbington, Gastonia; M. B. Speir, Charlotte. Trustees, F. C. Harding, Greenville, chairman; R. B. Babbington, Gastonia; M. B. Speir, Charlotte; J. Lee Robinson, Gastonia; R. R. Ray, McAdenville; C. B. Armstrong, Gastonia; George Blanton, Shelby; W. C. Bivens, Wadesboro; J. H. Giles, Glen Alpine; Governor T. W. Bickett, ex-officio chairman.

LILLINGTON POST, AMERICAN LEGION, ELECTS OFFICERS

Pursuant to call, the Lillington Post of the American Legion met on last Friday night for the election of officers for the year 1920 (and for other routine business. The following officers were elected and installed:

Commander—H. H. Spears.
First Vice-Commander—Oscar S. Atkins.
Second Vice-Commander—J. E. Davis.

Adjutant—L. M. Chaffin.
Historian—J. H. Withers, Jr.
Finance Officer—G. D. Monroe.
War Risk Officer—W. G. Mordecai.

On July 4th there will be a special meeting of the Post and all ex-servicemen, for the purpose of presenting to the fathers and mothers of the men who died in France the Diplomas of Honor given by the French Government. A speaker of State reputation will deliver an address and the diplomas and there will be other features of interest.

The next regular meeting of the Post will be on Friday night, June 25th, at 8:30 o'clock, in the courthouse.

Let's build up!

PROHIBITION NATIONAL COMMITTEE ADDRESSES LETTER TO PEOPLE

To the Citizens of America:
One year of prohibition has brought more laughter to children and more smiles to women than any other legislation.

It has turned almshouses and breweries into facerios, falls into corners, and brought their inmates forward into the great industrial army.

It has added untold billions to the nation's wealth, transferred money from the saloon tills to savings banks and newly erected homes.

The 18th amendment has increased farm and city values, quickened industry and brought to the United States the greatest era of prosperity ever known.

The pro-liquor element is doing its utmost to repeal the Volstead act. It would nullify the 18th amendment, which would mean the overthrow of national prohibition and its attendant prosperity.

The liquor minority proposes to attain its ends by capturing the national conventions of the political parties.

The dry majority, as demonstrated by ratification in 45 States, must control these conventions.

We ask you to get every State, district and local organization, of whatever kind within your reach, to adopt resolutions substantially as follows:

"Be it resolved, that we hereby authorize our names to be used at each and every political convention to be held in 1920, notifying the leaders of all parties that we will support such parties as specifically endorse by platform declaration the 18th amendment as interpreted by the Volstead act, or some measure equally effective; and nominate candidates unequivocally committed to its enforcement."

Immediately wire a copy of your resolutions to each of the following persons who have agreed to act as custodians of these resolutions for their respective parties:

S. S. Senator Arthur Capper, Washington, D. C. (Republican); U. S. Senator Morris Sheppard, Washington, D. C. (Democrat); Congressman Charles H. Randall, Washington, D. C. (Prohibitionist).

The crisis is real. Time is short. Republican convention meets June 8. Democratic convention June 21. Immediate action is necessary.

Signed: Arthur Dean Devan, Clarence True Wilson, E. J. Pithian, Chas. Scanlon, Irving Fisher, Daniel A. Poling, Frances E. Beauchamp, Francis Baldwin, J. H. Kellogg, Margaret Wintringer, Virgil G. Hinshaw.

BROADWAY MAN WOUNDED WHEN NEGRO SHOOT HIM

Sanford, May 31.—Ed Lynch, a white farmer, 35 years old, living about 10 miles east of Broadway in Harnett county, was brought to the Central Carolina hospital here Saturday night seriously wounded, from a pistol shot entering his mouth and penetrating the back of his neck.

The shot was fired by John Cameron, 23 years of age, a negro of the Broadway section who recently returned from the army, and the tragedy occurred about 6 o'clock Saturday afternoon on the streets of Broadway, following an altercation between the two men. Broadway was considerably wrought up over the affair, and a posse of 300 men were scouring the woods for the negro Saturday night and all day yesterday, with the assistance of bloodhounds, but up to the present hour the negro has not been apprehended.

Corn, peas and other farm products will bring good prices at Tomlinson & Co. Fetch 'em in.

Sanford, May 21.—Robert N. Page, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor of North Carolina, was greeted as a conquering hero by people of the Seventh district whom he represented in Congress for 14 years, when he made his initial speeches in his own bailiwick today.

He spoke to a crowd of 700 people in Laurinburg at noon. Seating capacity of the Scotland courthouse was not near adequate to accommodate those who came from all parts of the country to hear him.

Mr. Page arrived here late this afternoon. One of the biggest crowds ever to attend a political speaking is turning out to hear him. Mr. Page is "Mister Bob" to everybody in this section, and everywhere he stops he is besieged by old friends. This warm welcome is reflected in his bearing.

The hard trip through the bad roads of the east and the long jumps left him a little jaded when he started for home Saturday night, but his old-time vigor has returned with his advent in the Sandhill country.

Mr. Page was introduced in Laurinburg by W. P. W. Weatherspoon and here by Clanson L. Williams, a candidate for the State Senate in this district. He is being entertained here by Dr. F. B. McCracken. He will speak tomorrow afternoon in Wadesboro and tomorrow night in Monroe.

IN THE BARBER'S CHAIR.

"Poor Jim has been sent to a lunatic asylum," said the barber, flourishing a shining razor over his customer.

"Who's Jim?" asked the man in the chair.

"Jim is my twin brother, sir. He kept broodin' over the hard times, and I suppose he finally went crazy."

"Is that so?"

"Yes, he and me worked side by side for years, and we were so alike we couldn't tell each other apart. We both brooded a great deal, too. No money in this business now."

"What's the reason?"

"Prices too low. Unless a customer takes a shampoo it doesn't pay to shave or haircut. Poor Jim, I caught him trying to cut a customer's throat because he refused a shampoo, so I had to have the poor fellow locked up."

"Makes me sad. Sometimes I feel sorry I didn't let him slash all he wanted to. It might have saved his reason. Shampoo, sir?"

"Yes!"

WOMAN SUFFRAGE UPHELD BY COURT

Washington, June 1.—The Supreme Court, in an unanimous opinion, today held that Federal constitutional amendments cannot be submitted to popular vote for ratification by States having referendum provisions in their constitutions.

The method of ratifying amendments, the court held, is a national power specially granted by the Federal constitution and the States have no authority to provide otherwise. In so holding, the court declared inoperative provisions of the Ohio State constitution authorizing submission of Federal amendments to a referendum for ratification and overturned State Supreme Court decrees dismissing injunction proceedings brought by George S. Hawks, Cincinnati attorney, in a taxpayers' suit to enjoin submission of the prohibition and woman suffrage amendments to a referendum vote.

Look to N. C. to Pass Suffrage. While the Supreme Court of the United States was today driving another nail in the wellnigh covered coffin that enshrined the body of J. Harveys, that same forum of political omnipotence was also clearing the decks for North Carolina to capitalize Delaware's sin of omission and let the Democrats win final credit for extending the ballot to the women.

In its decision upholding the constitutionality of Ohio's ratification of the 18th and the proposed 19th amendments, the court not only puts the hope of the wets further away than ever, but it carries unbonded joy alike to the hearts of Republican politicians gathering in Chicago and Democratic chieftains setting their sails for the Golden Gate. The "tip" that has been passed out freely for the past 30 days proves to be nothing more than a myth born of a perennial thirst.

North Carolina Next. Aside from the decision of the court as it will affect the major parties in their convention deliberations, the overruling of the State Supreme Court of Ohio—makes solid the 35 States which have ratified the Susan B. Anthony amendment to the constitution and leaves but one State needed to confer full franchise rights upon all the women of voting age and qualifications in the United States. While the anti's are training their guns on the North Carolina solons getting ready for the special session in July, the suffragists are looking confidently to North Carolina for victory.

WHERE THANKS ARE FEW. We've thought over it a good bit, and we've about come to the conclusion that there's no profession on earth in which the worker gets less appreciation and more knocks and abuse than in the newspaper game. And we have also reached the conclusion that the reason all newspaper editors go to heaven when they die is they get so much of the other place while they're on earth.

No matter how nobly the editor boosts for the development of his town and community, no matter how loyally he may support a friend in politics or extol the virtues of a citizen of the town, no matter how loudly he sings the praises of the town belle about to be wed or how gently he lays a wreath of pretty words on the grave of a departed citizen, he seldom hears those magic words "Thank you." And few times in life does he catch a whisper of that cheering sentiment, "Well done."

But let him make a slip in his paper—let him say Bill Jones did something he didn't do or Mrs. Brown said something she didn't say, and everybody in town takes a whack at him. This is true in the newspaper game everywhere in the world; and being a part of the world, Lillington is no exception. But with all the knocks, with all the lack of thanks and little cheering words that could be said but are left forgotten, the editor drives right on boosting, and he always will. He was born to help the other fellow and, like the birds, learned early in life that if no one else feeds him, heaven may. And maybe that's why the Lord keeps so many editors on earth—to keep the balance of the world from soaring or turning stale.

I have been a citizen of North Carolina for seven years and of Harnett County two years.

I am a graduate of Mississippi State College and have had ten years experience in bookkeeping and auditing work. I held a position with the auditing department of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad for six years, leaving that place for the farm.

I believe I am qualified for the place I seek and if nominated and elected I propose to put forth my every effort to perform the duties of the office in a businesslike and satisfactory manner.

I shall greatly appreciate your vote and influence at the primary June 8th.

Don't forget that Tomlinson & Co. are buyers as well as sellers. They want farm produce.

METTS REELECTED HEAD VETERANS

Fayetteville, June 1.—Gen. James I. Metts was reelected commanding general of the North Carolina division U. C. V. at the first business session of the annual reunion here this afternoon. Gen. W. E. Kyle was also reelected commander of the Third Brigade, these constituting the only elections.

The attendance on the opening date reached a point between 450 and 500. This was swelled by arrivals tonight. The opening session was held in the high school auditorium this morning. After prayer by the chaplain, Rev. E. A. Osborne, the veterans were welcomed on behalf of the Daughters of Confederacy by Mrs. Felix Harvey, president; for Cumberland county veterans, by Major E. J. Hale; by Mayor Williams for the city, and Commander D. S. Hollings for the American Legion. The welcomes were responded to by Col. A. H. Boyden of Salisbury.

"The Stars and Bars Forever," a song written for the North Carolina U. C. V. was sung by Mrs. A. T. West of this city. The matrons, spouses and maids of honor were introduced to the convention by Col. W. P. Wood, these being Mrs. Marshal Williams, matron of honor for the State; Miss Mamie Holt, sponsor for the State; Miss Sallie Haigh Underwood, camp sponsor; Miss Lucy Anderson and Miss Harriet Harrison, maids of honor for the State, and Misses Edna Bennett, sponsor, and Josephine Dunlap, maid of honor from Anson camp, the youngest ever appointed to these positions, being ten to eleven years old.

A band from Wilson furnished excellent music. After singing "The Old North State" the convention adjourned until afternoon.

The attendance having far exceeded expectations, a call was made on the people of the city late today to throw open their homes to the old veterans which met with such a ready response that tonight all visitors who have thus far arrived have been provided with homes. The influx of old soldiers and other visitors early overtaxed the seemingly adequate arrangements which had been made, and tonight every hotel in the city had been filled in addition to the barracks of the Donaldson Military School, where the larger number of the veterans are quartered.

A reception at which Gen. Metts and Mrs. Harvey were the guests of honor was given in the parlors of Lafayette hotel tonight. An informal reception was given by Major E. J. Hale on the lawn of his Haymont residence to the veterans this afternoon.

The old soldiers are finding a warm welcome and generous hospitality and the people of the city have vied with each other in helping to make the stay of the veterans pleasant. A large number of automobiles bear placards, "Veterans' Car" as an indication that it is at the command of the old soldiers.

Tomorrow will be perhaps the busiest day of the session. In the morning there will be a general get-together meeting of the veterans, the Daughters of the Confederacy, Sons of the Confederacy, American Legion and citizens of Cumberland county. At 1 o'clock a dinner will be tendered by the Fayetteville chapters of the Daughters to the visitors, at which Governor T. W. Bickett will make the principal address. At 4 o'clock the citizens of Fayetteville will give a reception to the veterans which will be followed by a visit to the State home for Confederate women. The big parade will be held at 6 o'clock in the evening, and the day will be wound up with a grand ball.

Col. Fred A. Olds arrived from Raleigh today with 24 old heroes from the Soldiers' Home.
