T. W. HARRINGTON DIED AT RALEIGH

Mr. Thomas W. Harrington of Western Harnett was stricken with paralysis late last Wednesday while serving in the engraving department of the Legislature at Raleigh. He was immediately taken to Rex Hospital, where he died soon afterward. The funeral was held Thursday. Accompanied by a Legislative committee, including the Harnett delegation, the remains were laid to rest in his native community.

Mr. Harrington was one of the most prominent men of the county, being a member of the Board of Education and a member of the County Democratic Executive Committee. He was intensely interested in all affairs affecting his county, state and nation, and he devoted his best talent for the public cause.

News of his death did not become generally circulated here until Friday. Universal regret was expressed at his passing because of his wide acquaintance among people who knew him as a faithful public servant and the highest type of citizen.

LYCEUM CO. HERE JAN. 28

Lovers of music and other high-class entertainment will be delighted with the next attraction on the Lyceum Course. This is the Wolcott-Ring Company which comes here on Friday night, January 28th, at 8:00 o'clock, in the High School auditorium.

Everyone should bear in mind that this is Redpath Lyceum, and this is sufficient recommendation. Redpath is to Lyceum what 18-k is to gold—it means that everything connected with it is O. K. and guaranteed before it is sent out.

Be sure to make arrangements to see this attraction!

WOLCOTT-RING COMPANY.

Lu Ring is one of the most versatile and talented artists of the Lyceum and Chautauque platforms. He possesses a dramatic, robust tenor of remarkable quality and power which lends itself admirably to opera, oratorio, or concert.

As a violinist, his playing is characterized by a wonderful singing tone. His technic is of the highest order.

COTTON EXPORT MOVE LAUNCHED

ANNUAL SESSION OF AMERICAN COTTON ASSOCIATION GOES ON RECORD ENDORSING EXPORT CORPORATION.

Raleigh.—Delegates to the Second Annual Convention of the American Cotton Association held in Raleigh January 15th went on record as unanimously supporting a co-operative marketing association and the newly organized Cotton Export Company. L. S. Tomlinson, who has been at the head of the State Association during the past year, was re-elected President.

Over a thousand delegates were in attendance at the meeting which was addressed by Richard I. Manning, former Governor of South Carolina, Arthur Sapiro, Attorney for the California Fruit Exchange, and Hollins Randolph, Attorney for the Federal Reserve Board, sixth district.

Governor Manning dwelt at length on the advantages that the Export Corporation would offer Southern farmers and Southern people generally. When the American Products Export and Import Corporation was organized about two months ago, Governor Manning was chosen its President. Joseph Walker of Columbia, S. C., formerly of the cotton firm of Hollowell & Walker, is General Manager for the corporation.

The Corporation plans to stabilize the domestic cotton market by shipping the South's surplus staple to Europe. One shipment has already been made and others will follow very shortly.

Of considerable interest to the convention was an address by Mr. Sapiro, who has had extensive experience in marketing problems. He sketched the work accomplished in California and urged the State of North Carolina to be one of the leaders in the co-operative movement. Mr. Hollins Randolph explained the difference between the American Products Export and Import Corporation and the bankers export corporation, formed under the Edge Act. The Edge Corporation is limited primarily to discounting and cannot deal in commodities, whereas the organization headed by Governor Manning is actually buying and selling cotton and the other chief products of the South.

A state-wide campaign in the interest of the Export Corporation has been launched, and meetings will be held in practically every cotton growing county in North Carolina. Mr. L. S. Tomlinson, President of the State Association, has already arranged a number of meetings which he will address. Wednesday, he will speak in Albemarle; Thursday, January 20th, in Troy; Friday, January 21st, in Shelby; and Saturday, January 22nd, in Brunswick. Mr. O. C. Mazer of the Export Corporation will also speak at the Shelby and Rutherfordton meetings and Mr. H. L. C. Stevens, also a representative of the Export Company, will address the Albemarle and Troy gatherings.

Realizing that the European countries are not absorbing anywhere near the amount of cotton they used to in former years, the cotton men of the South have for months past been looking around for a way to remedy conditions. Indications are that the American Products Export and Import Corporation will solve the question. To enable Europe to secure the cotton it needs, proper credit facilities must be afforded and the Export Company with its $1,000,000 capitalization will be able to extend such credits.

Stock of the American Products Export and Import Corporation is being offered at $10 per share and subscriptions are being received in cash or in cotton or Liberty Bonds at the market price. The company's North Carolina office is located in the State Agricultural Building at Raleigh.

Endorsements of the Cotton Export Corporation have been received from many sources. Governor W. P. G. Harding of the Federal Reserve Board and Governor M. B. Workman of the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta have come out in support of the program. Former Secretary of the Treasury, W. G. McAdoo, has endorsed the movement enthusiastically. Among the North Carolina organizations that are actively supporting the campaign are: American Cotton Association, Raleigh Clearing House, North Carolina A. & E. College, Extension Department; North Carolina Association of Life Underwriters; North Carolina Press Association; Interstate Tobacco Growers' Association; North Carolina Association of Hosiery Manufacturers; Charlotte Chamber of Commerce; Rocky Mount Chamber of Commerce, and many banks and prominent individuals.

The American Cotton Association at its meeting in Raleigh faced squarely the fact that the total cotton exports of the South had fallen off 73% since the pre-war period. In the past the Southern States have looked to foreign capital to finance their exports. Appreciating that this is no longer profitable, the cotton men of this State and of the South generally are banding together to assure the best success of the Co-operative Marketing Idea and the Cotton Export Corporation.

GUANO MILL STARTS FEB. 15

The fertilizer plant of Lillington Oil Mill Co. is nearing completion with the installation of machinery which will turn out one hundred tons of guano per day. Raw material is now coming in, from which the mill will manufacture all grades of fertilizer.

Mr. S. A. Boney, secretary-treasurer of the company, states that he will specialize in cottonseed guano, but will also make a special brand suitable for use on all crops grown in this section. Several different brands will be made, each one adapted to the particular for which it is intended.

Mr. Boney says that of course his company will not retail any fertilizer, the whole product of the mill being sold through dealers, but the mill being close at hand will enable farmers in this vicinity to get fertilizer when they need it, and get their proper grade with ingredients to suit their soil. The company will make special brands for Tomlinson & Co., the largest dealers in this section.

COTTON EXPORT MEETING HELD

Farmers, business and professional men to the number of about two hundred gathered in the courthouse auditorium Monday at 11 o'clock to discuss cotton and the cotton market. The main theme was the new export corporation being formed, or rather, which has already been formed, there being already one shipment of cotton made by the corporation to Europe consisting of about 3,000 bales.

The title of the corporation is American Products Export and Import Corporation, with headquarters in Columbia, S. C. L. M. Butts of Vicksburg, Miss., traveling representative of the corporation was present Monday and took in several subscriptions to stock which included cash and cotton. H. T. Spears, cashier of the Bank of Lillington, subscribed $100 in cash; G. I. Smith, J. B. Barnes, Spears Bros. and H. J. McDonald subscribed one bale of cotton each.

B. P. Gentry presided at the meeting. Mr. Henry T. Spears made a "straight from the shoulder" talk in which he emphasized the necessity of the people of the South helping themselves instead of calling upon others. Mr. Spears' remarks were sharply to the point and were well received by the audience.

Splendid talks were also made by Messrs. Chas. Ross, G. I. Smith and T. D. McLean, district farm agent, who was over from Sanford for the purpose of the meeting.

The lateness of the season probably was cause for lack of ardor for the proposition, there being a feeling among farmers that it is too late for this year's crop to be affected insofar as the farmer is concerned—and next year's crop can take care of itself. This may be said to be "the farmer's" nevertheless. It is to be hoped, however, that all who fail to take due interest in these "welfare" movements will at least see plainly enough that little cotton is needed from the soil in 1921.

TOBACCO CROP ESTIMATES SHOW INTERESTING DATA

Raleigh, Jan. 19.—The December crop estimates released by the U. S. Bureau of Crop Estimates show some very interesting comparisons in North Carolina's 1920 tobacco crop. The production of 384,120,000 pounds showed a 58,812,000 pound increase compared with the revised estimates for the 1919 crop of 325,308,000 pounds. The value of the 1920 crop at December 1st prices as basis places this state $27,062,000 ahead of all others, notwithstanding the remarkable decline in the market prices.

A year ago the season's producers' sales amounted to 295,963,922 pounds, at an average price of $11.63 per 100. The same period in 1920 showed 284,616,901 pounds or about 80 per cent sold of the 1920 crop. The 1920 tobacco has averaged $22.26 or $29.37 per 100 less than in 1919. There remains about 20 per cent of the crop to be marketed, though many of the smaller markets have closed. The average prices during the season were as follows:

FEBRUARY RECORDER'S COURT POSTPONED

On account of a conflict in dates between the Superior Court and the Recorder's Court, on Tuesday after the first Monday in February, there will be no session of the Recorder's Court until Tuesday after the first Monday in March, which will be Tuesday, March 8th.

All persons who have business in the Recorder's Court will take due notice of this postponement and govern themselves accordingly.
