BIG CROWD AT COMMENCEMENT

County Commencement exercises last Friday were attended by large crowds. Patrons, teachers and students from the schools in Harnett county gathered in Lillington to take part. For the past month a series of group commencements had been held throughout the county and the winners in the contests at these commencements met at Lillington at the countywide commencement where similar contests were held. The following were declared by the judges winners for the county:

Subject Matter Contests.
First grade—Phonics—Chalybeate Springs school.
Second grade—Reading and reproduction of a story—Duke school.
Third grade—Written language story—Duke school.
Fourth grade—Arithmetic—Chalybeate Springs school.
Fifth—Spelling—Barclaysville and Olivia schools.
Sixth grade—Letter writing—Pine Grove school.
Seventh grade—Declamation and Recitation contest—Declamation, Grayson Biggs, Lillington school; Recitation—Aline Stewart, of Mary Stewart school.
While the subject matter contests were being held in the various classrooms a very creditable program consisting of recitations, declamations, choruses and stories was rendered in the auditorium. An address was delivered by Supt. S. B. Underwood of Pitt county schools, after which Supt. Fitzgerald presented the seventh grade certificates and announced the winners in the contests.
In the afternoon quite an interesting athletic program was carried out. The following schools were declared winners:

1. Running broad jump—Long Branch school.
2. Running high jump—Barclaysville school.
3. Relay race—Duke school.
4. 100-yard dash—Long Branch school.
5. Sack race—Olivia school.
6. 50-yard dash (girls)—Coats school.

The best school exhibit from each group was brought to Lillington. The exhibits were very good indeed, and each school had a right to be proud of its work. The schools represented in this line were: Duke, Barclaysville, Olivia Branch, Patterson, Parker and Lillington.
Miss Marian Swain, home demonstration agent, has been doing splendid work with her sewing classes in the schools, and her exhibit was very creditable.
Even though Friday was a rainy day it did not keep the people of Harnett county from attending commencement. It is gratifying to know that the people are interested in the schools, and with their cooperation next year it is hoped to have even better group and county commencements.

A 1920-21 CATASTROPHE.

Messrs. Landis Bros. Co.,
Anywhere, U. S. A.
Dear Sirs:
Enclosed is check for $10.00 to be credited on account ($5,000.00 still due) my inability to do more at present is due to financial smash-ups. The story is one simple in the telling but horrible in its realization. I have been hit between "the lamps," smitten upon both cheeks, daubed in the face with a bucket of mud. My locks have been shorn with a cross-cut saw, my nails trimmed to the quick with a black-diamond file. I have been gored in the sides with a weaver's beam, been gagged, bound, and put in stocks. To sum up in the cold hard facts, I've been hit in the stomach with a 5 lb. axe. I've been frailed and trapped by the devil (debit) and beheaded (yes sir) by the withdrawal of credit. Otherwise I am financially fit and fine and just as soon as I collect the third installment due on that yearling I sold fast spring I'll send another remittance by check, registered letter, M. O. or parcel post. Do not send any more monthly statements, they are calculated to bring on nervous prostration and the practice is fast becoming obsolete and considered impolite.
Most Resp'l.,
Your Erstwhile Good Customer,
OBEDIAH HARDUP,

DISTRICT COMMENCEMENT OF COLORED SCHOOLS

He lined up his educational forces at the "hill" on Main street and marched through town and on out to Skawtown where the exercises took place. There were several hundred in the parade, which made a very creditable showing.

TOBACCO STEPS HIGHER IN SCALE OF VALUE

Raleigh, April 13.—The North Carolina tobacco crop made another record step with its March sales made by the 114 warehouses that operated on 31 markets. The total sales reported were 21,528,883 pounds, averaging $14.17 and about 85,000 pounds not reported. The season's crop sold amounts to over 430,000,000 pounds, averaging about 21 cents. This surpasses the government's estimate by almost 50,000,000 pounds and is 10,000,000 pounds more than was expected even a month ago.
The Winston-Salem market led during March with 4,749,086 pounds sold, averaging $13.61 per hundred pounds, of which 3,991,364 pounds were sold by farmers. Wilson was second with 3,336,955 pounds, averaging $15.20 and of this 2,586,955 pounds were first hand sales. Roxboro averaged the highest price at $19.67 on 392,870 pounds.
Wilson made a record season's sale with 62,607,026 pounds, exceeding the Winston-Salem market by over 2,000,000 pounds.
Only two-twentieths of one per cent of the sales have failed to be reported to date. The bordering markets conservatively estimate that 16,000,000 pounds of North Carolina farmers' tobacco is sold in adjoining states in excess of that brought in and sold. The total producers season's sales reported amount to about 414,000,000 pounds.
The nation's 1920 crop of 1,520,000,000 pounds was being made and sold while 31 per cent was exported; 52 per cent of the 1,390,000,000 pounds grown in 1919 was exported; and 28 per cent in 1918. The farm value of the United States tobacco crop in 1920 was $298,000,000, averaging 19.2 cents; 1919 was $569,000,000 at 38.9 cents and 1918 was $403,000,000 at an average of 28 cents.
The 1920 crop was inferior in quality, and with the decreased export the decline in price is reasonable. Exported cigars increased 4 per cent and cigarettes decreased 2 per cent. This means that a large stock of tobacco is on hand to compete with the 1921 crop.
March prospective plantings indicate a 40 per cent decrease in acreage in North Carolina, but with the decline in fertilizer prices and the gradual loosening of financial conditions this decrease will perhaps prove to be too much decline.

RALEIGH LETTER

(Special Correspondence.)
(By Maxwell Gorman.)

Raleigh, April 13.—The annual meeting of the North Carolina Sunday School Association has been in session in Raleigh the last three days and there is a large attendance, including some 40 expert Sunday school workers representing all of the evangelical churches. Gilbert T. Stephenson, of Winston, is president, D. W. Sims of Raleigh secretary of the association.

Among the prominent men engaged in the work is Lieut. Gov. W. B. Cooper, member of the executive committee of the North Carolina Sunday School Association and teacher in Grace M. E. church Sunday school, Wilmington. Gov. Cooper presided at the session of the adult division of the meeting today.

Other distinguished workers from a distance include Dr. Gilbert Glass, Richmond; Prof. H. H. Harris, Emory university, Ga.; Mrs. Maud Jenkins Baldwin, Chicago, superintendent children's division, International Sunday School Association; Dr. Joseph Broughton, Atlanta, superintendent, Tabernacle Baptist Sunday School; J. A. Brown, Chadbourn, of Presbyterian Sunday School, and member of executive committee; Dr. William A. Brown, Chicago, a member of staff of International Sunday School Association.

The organization stands for those interests common to all Sunday school workers. It is a systematic effort of workers from the various denominations to create public sentiment in favor of more and better denominational Sunday schools. It strives to help by way of suggestion not by authority; therefore, it helps many, it hinders some.

It seeks helpful cooperation, not union. Its conventions and institutes discuss methods of work, not church doctrine. These conventions and institutes are really free schools of methods on Sunday school work, open to all who will attend. Leaders in thought in the various denominations help in this work.

In its work the North Carolina Sunday School Association is interdenominational, for in its various conventions and institutes leaders from various denominations take part. But in results it is denominational, for if a worker puts into use the methods he hears discussed in these meetings, he increases the efficiency of his own denominational Sunday school.

Farm Labor Conference.
It is announced that farm and labor officials of North Carolina will take an active part at the farm labor conference to be held in Washington, D. C., April 14 and 15, by the People's Reconstruction League. Benjamin C. Marsh, secretary of the league, said that R. W. H. Stone of Greensboro, president N. C. Farmers' Union; Dr. J. M. Templeton of Cary, vice president, and W. L. Bagwell of Raleigh, secretary-treasurer, will represent their organization at the conference.

The State Federation of Labor is expected to send several representatives.
According to Secretary Marsh other farm and labor organizations to be represented at the conference include the Farmers National Council, the American Federation of Labor, the International Association of Machinists, the United Farmers of America, the Railway Brotherhoods and number of state farmers bodies and federations of labor.

Plan Legislative Campaign.
The conference is to plan a campaign for the enactment of legislation favorable to the farmer, labor and the general public. Issues to be discussed at the conference include the railway crisis, the need for short time credit for farmers, packer control legislation and annual taxation policy.

Senator Borah, Senator Ladd and Representative Frear are among the members of congress who will address the conference.

A FREE PIG

To the boy or girl who brings in the largest number of subscriptions to Harnett County News between now and May 1st, will be given absolutely free a pure bred Duroc Jersey pig. The pig can be seen at the stock farm of Atkins & Dechent near Lillington. He is a pure bred pig and registered. Mr. Farmer, bring your boy or girl in let them look at the pig and then get busy.

men of North Carolina and was personally known to many men of national reputation. His service to President Davis was the proudest spot in his heart and he never ceased to boast of it.

Jones was born in Warren county, N. C. After the war he headed a negro fire department in Raleigh and became a minor city official. He turned Republican in politics, but always voted for Representative William Ruffin Cox of North Carolina, who represented the state in the House in the 48th and 49th congresses. Later when Gen. Cox became secretary of the United States senate he took Jones to Washington with him and gave him a messenger's job in the senate. That was in 1893. Since that time he has had several jobs about the capitol and was a messenger in the senate stationery room until a short time before his death.

Beware of "Get Rich Quick" Stock.
There is considerable comment and some feeling concerning the statement sent out by Insurance Commissioner Wade concerning the alleged "blue sky" stock operations of the International Petroleum Co. of San Antonio, Texas, and involving the business character of Roland F. Beasley, until recently state commissioner of public welfare and whose reputation among the people here who have known him has been unquestioned. Commissioner Wade stated that the concern has no state license and that its efforts to sell blue sky oil stock to citizens of North Carolina is illegal; that the company's advertisements presume too much on the argument that one of its officers, Mr. Beasley, till recently was a state officer and now represents the oil corporation, after having thoroughly examined into the affairs of the company and becoming satisfied that it is doing a perfectly legitimate business, etc.

Mr. Beasley has sent word from Texas that his company has not a single solicitor for business acting personally as such in North Carolina, that all its advertising in this state has been done through the United States mails, and that if the company was not straight the United States authorities would have barred it from the use of the mails long ago. He adds that the reason the company has not yet taken out license in North Carolina is because the tax is prohibitive.
As it has no agents working personally in the state, it is not necessary for the oil company to pay the high license and that what he and his company are doing is both legal and legitimate.

Be that as it may, the warning of the insurance commissioner against all blue sky stocks, the purchase of some of which the last few years has played the Dickens with many North Carolina investors, especially among the farmers, is timely and should serve as a caution in future transactions of the sort, no matter whose names are connected with the oil and other "get rich quick" concerns offering stock for sale.
They Hope to Get the Money.
Gov. Morrison and Treasurer Lacy have been to New York in quest of investors who would buy state bonds and the confidence displayed by the governor on the eve of his departure seems to be borne out by developments. Th understanding is that the money will be available as needed for both road building, construction work provided for at the state institutions and other purposes. The special session of the Legislature, which some of the critics of the administration have been predicting will probably not become necessary in the opinion of Gov. Morrison, Chairman Doughton of the house finance committee and others, during the last few days on state business, and who are much better qualified to pass judgment on the subject than the critics.

Power Company Rates to Mills Up Again.

IN THE COURT OF THE RECORDER

The civil side of the Recorder's Court was held on Tuesday. Due to the large number of criminal cases which always are ready for trial at the regular time of the sitting of the court, which is the first Tuesday after the first Monday of each and every month, the court and the bar passed a resolution in March that henceforth the court would sit for the trial of civil cases on the second Tuesday.

Only a few cases were ready for trial, and but one contested. On account of the illness of Judge McLean, L. L. Levinson, vice recorder, presided. Judge Levinson conducted the court in a very creditable manner, showing that he is a good understanding of the venerable and beloved Colonel McLean. The one case upon which he was called upon to decide was that of an automobile running into a buggy, greatly to the damage of said buggy. Judge Levinson decided that, not having seen the buggy as it emerged from the wreckage, and that owner of the buggy's evidence was not preponderant, the automobile man was not liable for his decision, which was pleasing to the court, because His Honor stated that this was a question to be passed upon by 12 men instead of by one.

COMMENCEMENT NOTES.

The County Commencement, held at the Lillington school house last Friday, the 8th, was a success from most any angle it might be viewed. Doubtless more people would have attended but for the threatening and rainy weather. But evidently the rain in the morning held off until most all had started from home, for while it was yet raining quite hard the automobiles and truck loads began to arrive, and before ten o'clock the grounds were covered with cars, and the house was more than full of people.

The forenoon exercises were all conducted in the house, consisting of singing, speaking, contests in spelling, arithmetic and judging of exhibits.

Some of the awards were as follows:
The Lillington schools were given the decision on best school exhibit.
The Chalybeate Springs school 5th grade was given first prize on work in arithmetic, and Barkers school first in spelling.
Grayson Biggs of Lillington was given first honors in declamation contest, and Alice Stewart of Mary Stewart school first in recitation.

DR. HUBERT POTEAU TO LECTURE IN LILLINGTON

On Sunday, April 17, Dr. Hubert McNeill Poteau of Wake Forest College is expected in Lillington and will address the people of Lillington and vicinity on the subject of "Church Music." Perhaps no man in the state has given more thought and study to this subject than Dr. Poteau and everyone interested in the matters of Sunday school, young people's societies and church music will hear him with pleasure and profit.
Dr. Poteau comes as director of the Wake Forest Glee Club which gives a concert in Lillington on Saturday evening, the 16th. The lecture on Sunday will be given at the Baptist church at 11 o'clock. Everybody is invited and will be welcomed. Special music will be rendered.

Industrial power to a large number of industrial plants of the state—the object being to hold the big octopus to old contracts which would compel it to furnish power for some years yet to the little octopuses for less than the power company can transmit, the latter claims.

Publication of a story indicating failure of the Southern Power Co. to furnish the corporation commission with evidence of its tax valuation on property in South Carolina drew from members of the commission the statement that no such information had been demanded of the petitioning power company or its attorneys.

Members of the commission made plain the distinction between tax values and reproduction values of the company's property, pointing out the tax values are fixed by the state's taxation authorities and not by the commission. The values of the Southern Power Co. in South Carolina are contrasted, in the publication this morning, with the figures submitted by the commission.

Attorneys for the cotton mills resisting the rate increase have received the tax figures from the South Carolina authorities. On the question of demand for them, the commission pointed out today that Vice President Lee told attorneys for the mills that his company had no objection to these figures going into record.

ANDY COLLINS, VETERAN OF WORLD WAR, LAID TO REST IN HIS NATIVE SOIL SUNDAY

Probably the largest attendance at any funeral in recent times in Harnett county was that which paid last respect to the remains of Andy Collins at Olive Branch Sunday. Soldier Collins was killed in France on November 3, 1918. He was a member of the 81st division.

The remains were escorted to Lillington by Private Joe Reese, Co. H, 54th Infantry, Camp Meade, Md. The comrade and fallen hero arrived Saturday morning. Members of the local post American Legion made arrangements for a military funeral to be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock and members of the Legion were seen once more to do the khaki to pay tribute to the Cause, the Flag, the Soldier. Guns were secured from Camp Bragg for firing the salute at the grave.

It is estimated that fully twelve hundred people witnessed the funeral ceremony and interment at Olive Branch cemetery. Although the weather was threatening, the people did not hesitate to honor the soldier who fell in the discharge of his duty to his country.

SUMMER TERM E. C. T. S.

The outlook for the 1921 summer term of the East Carolina Teachers' Training School is brighter than ever. For a number of years the summer school at this institution has been exceedingly popular because students taking the full eight weeks term get credit for one-third of a school year and thereby advance the grade of their certificate very rapidly. This is recognized as a place to go for real work for the summer term is run under the same regulations as the regular sessions of the school.

The 1921 summer term is more popular than ever because the board of trustees of this institution has recently approved and authorized a four year course of study leading to a degree. One term's work of this course will be given this summer and already a large number of the graduates of the institution has applied for admission.

The four year course enables the teachers to secure the state's highest grade of certificate, thereby commanding the best salary. Not only the student body and graduates of this school, but all who are interested in teacher training are delighted with this new course. This school already has a well earned reputation for turning out good teachers and now it is offering the teachers better opportunities as it makes this advanced step in teacher training.

This is the one institution in the state that devotes every energy to preparing teachers for the elementary schools. Its big problem is to train teachers for the rural schools and in this great work it has the hearty endorsement and cooperation of this county. We predict in advance that every room will be engaged before the date of opening, June 14, because the report comes that applications for rooms are going in rapidly. We would advise the teachers of this county who anticipate attending this school next summer to send in their applications early. The entire cost for eight weeks is only $45, which includes every item of expense except railroad fare.—E. C. T. S. Bulletin.

PERTINENT FACTS ABOUT THE POULTRY INDUSTRY

Dr. B. F. Kaupp, professor of poultry husbandry at State College, offers the following pertinent facts about the poultry industry:

The poultry industry is one of America's most important agricultural enterprises, producing $1,250,000 in wealth annually. The industry supports many industries entirely and contributes largely to the support of others. It is estimated that over $600,000,000 worth of grain products are consumed annually by poultry.

The American farmer can produce eggs at a profit of 25 cents a dozen, but when eggs sell below this price paid to the farmer he loses money. To protect this enormous industry, large poultry centers like the section around Petaluma, Cal., are insisting on a protective tariff on eggs, this to be based on the tariff rates based on the difference in cost of production at home and abroad. They insist that the tariff shall be enough to make the cost of Chinese and other foreign eggs at least 25 cents a dozen in the United States.

Poultry is one of the most profitable departments of the farm, and if properly handled will net a nice balance, besides furnishing eggs and fried and roast chicken for the table, and eggs to trade at the store for groceries and clothers for the children. Mr. Farmer, what department has eased the strain on your pocketbook more than a small stock of chickens?
