

BROADWAY ROUTE 1 NEWS

(By Mrs. W. B. Johnson)

It was a pleasant visit this writer had with the members of the Woman's Auxiliary at Flat Branch Church last Sunday. The purpose of the visit was to complete plans for the Group Conference which will be held there on October 10. Learning a long time ago to be on time at a meeting we started out rather early which gave us plenty of time for observations along the road and at the church. The first thing to impress us on the way was the black cotton patches around the home of Mr. John Moore which tells us that cotton picking has really begun in that section and we know that fall is just around the corner. Arriving at the church our first impression was that we were as near home as we could possibly be as far as the appearance of the church is concerned as it looks for all the world like our own Mt. Pisgah church. Later when speaking to Mrs. J. A. Marsh about the resemblance she informed me that they modeled the Sunday school rooms after Mt. Pisgah's and this certainly was news to me and it could be news to other Mt. Pisgah folks. With at least thirty minutes of time before the scheduled meeting which was to be at 3 p. m. I took a stroll out to the cemetery and by observation it was easy for me to tell that many of the families in this section are Scotch, the Mac's predominating, these being McCormick, McArtan, McDonald and McLean.

I know you Barbecue folks will be surprised to learn that I did not know the date of your afternoon preaching service so that I could give this information to some nice young ladies of Flat Branch so that they may attend the service, but you can rest assured that I lost no time finding out when I came home. (This was where a newspaper came to my rescue.) And I am doing as they asked me to do, namely, put it in this column (oh yes they read it.) Girls, Annie, Martha and Estelle, services at Barbecue are as follows: Second Sunday morning at 11 a. m. and Fourth Sunday afternoon at 3 p. m. (If I happen to be wrong in this I'll have the wrath of preacher Biddle and the whole Barbecue congregation on me.) The newspaper where I got my information about this is The Sanford Herald and unless the time has been changed since the announcement was published it is correct.

We expected to see the court house in Lillington packed and jammed last Saturday afternoon to hear the Phillips murder trial but such was not the case and we are wondering why. Is it because folks have lost interest in murder trials? I remember when you could hardly find a seat when a man was on trial for his life. There were plenty of seats to spare as the state sent witness after witness to the stand in an effort to convince the 13 man jury that Charlie Phillips killed his wife at their home near Angler on August 18. Phillips heard himself branded as a wife beater, a killer and a bigamist without visible emotion but when his daughter Marie, six years old took the stand to tell of his cruelty to her mother and his threatening to kill her, he showed signs of nervousness. It was one of the most dramatic moments of the trial and you could have heard a pin drop as all spectators craned their necks for a view of the young witness and listened attentively so as not to miss a word of her testimony. All the evidence is circumstantial. There were no eye witnesses to the alleged murder.

We regret very much the illness of our good friend Mrs. Mamie Dickens at her home on this route. According to her husband her condition remains about the same. We wish for her an early recovery.

Sunday was one of those days we can't do anything about. Hot if you get what I mean. If you will pardon my telling this little incident as it has to do with the daughter Willie Blanch I will give you her thought on the weather when she was very small. I don't remember her exact age at the time, but she must have been around five or six because her father died when she was eight and it was sometime before his death. It was on a day like last Sunday when she said to her Daddy "Daddy I believe I like cold weather better than hot weather." When he asked her why, she replied "When it's cold you can wrap up and stay warm but when it's hot there ain't nothing you can do about it." Today (Monday) promises to be another day you can't do anything about and the weather report just now on the radio tells us there is no relief in sight for the next two days. All we can do is grin and bear it, while you hay-makers revel in this kind of weather to cut and cure your hay.

It should be an inducement to all farmers to pay cash for their fertilizers when by so doing they are given a refund by the fertilizer company of approximately 3 per cent. We are not sure that all companies are doing this, but we do know that Smith-Douglas Co. of Norfolk, Va., has been sending out refund checks right along this summer. It's easy to understand why they can do this, for cash payments do not require book-keeping, while time time orders do. We think it is very generous of this company to give the farmer's this refund. (And this is not intended to be free advertising, we are giving it to you because when a Fertilizer Co. does a thing like this, it certainly is news, probably never published before.) How much do I get for this ad, Sidney?

Now, I am going to take off and hear some more evidence in the murder trial.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Patterson and family and Mrs. Jack Patterson and Doris Sloan went to Wrightsville Beach last Friday.

Mrs. Sally McNeill who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Alton McArthur for a week, has gone on a visit to her son Mr. Bruce McNeill and family.

Miss Catherine McArthur is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Moyle Johnson at Moncure.

Harnett Native Dies in Sanford

C. J. King, well known Sanford man died Sunday evening at Lee county hospital following an illness of several weeks.
