CULCLASURE-SMITH

Miss Florence Elizabeth Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Smith, was married to Emory W. Culclasure, Jr., of Greensboro, Sunday afternoon at 5:00 o'clock in the Lillington Presbyterian church.

Vows were heard by Rev. T. A. Gupton. The double ring ceremony was used. Music was rendered by Mrs. Ruth Brown, organist and Miss Barbara Ann Howell, who sang "Because."

The church was beautifully decorated with amilax and white gladioli, with fern and greenery being used around the altar. White tapers in tall candelabra were placed on the altar and the choir loft was artistically decorated with sprays of fern.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white suit with brown accessories and carried a prayer book on which was a lovely spray of flowers. The maid of honor, Miss Daphne Smith, sister of the bride, wore an aquamarine suit with matching accessories. Her arm bouquet was of Tallman roses. Miss Jacqueline Culclasure, sister of the bride-groom, was attired in a yellow suit and carried a bouquet of snapdragons and roses.

Best man was William Schuler of Greensboro and ushers were Robert Lee, George Forsyth, Jr. and Richard Dick, of Greensboro.

The bride's parents entertained at an informal reception following the ceremony. Those receiving at the reception were, the bride and bridegroom, their parents, the attendants and the bride's sisters, Mrs. Norman Gessett and Miss Agnes Smith.

The reception table was decorated in green and white.

After their wedding trip the couple will reside in Greensboro. The bride completed a one-year commercial course at Woman's College and is employed as a secretary by Lindsay, Squires & Everett Co., in Greensboro.

Mr. Culclasure was discharged from the army in 1945 and is now employed as a commercial artist by the Greensboro Daily News.
