How's of Better Homemaking

By Mary Frances Rasberry
Home Service Representative
Carolina Power & Light Company

What is so rare as a day in June with no meals to plan. That really would be a rare occasion. It is possible, however, to plan simple menus—say soup, salad and dessert. That's fine if the soup, salad, and dessert consist of the following:

- Cream of Tomato Soup
- Meat and Vegetable Salad Bowl
- Carolina Strawberry Shortcake
- Iced Tea
- Lemon
- Meat and Vegetable Salad
- 1 Can Vienna Sausages
- Two or three slices of beef or pork
- Head of lettuce
- Radishes
- 1 Medium cucumber
- 1 Bunch watercress
- 1 French dressing
- Chili and cube meat. Toss with chopped lettuce, sliced cucumbers and radishes. Add dressing and serve at once. Serves 6.
- Now that fresh plump Carolina strawberries are available you can just give the family a treat this springtime that's delicious. Here's the shortcake recipe.

1 Cup sifted all purpose flour
1 tsp. baking powder
-1/2 tsp. salt
2 Eggs
1-2 Cup hot milk
2 lbs. butter
1-2 teaspoon vanilla
1 Cup sugar

Sift together three times flour, baking powder, and salt. Beat eggs until thick and very light. Beat in sugar gradually then add dry ingredients all at one time. Beat until blended. Combine hot milk, butter and flavoring. Add to batter, continue beating until blended. Pour into a well greased, 9 inch ring mold. Bake in 375 deg. oven for 35 minutes. Fill with strawberries topped with whipped cream. Serves eight.

Broadway Legion Sponsoring Dance

The Broadway Post of the American Legion is sponsoring a square dance at the new Morris Brothers Garage at Broadway Friday night, June 13, from 8:00 to 12:00. Tickets will be on sale at the dance, which is open to the public. The Little River Boys will furnish the music.

Due to conflict with the time of the American Legion Convention at Carolina Beach, June 14-17, the next regular meeting of Broadway Post No. 347, will be held on Monday night, June 23.

BUSINESS WOMAN'S CIRCLE HOLDS JUNE MEETING

Mrs. Charles Ross, Counselor for the Lillington Business Woman's Circle, was guest speaker for the June meeting of the Circle, which met at the home of Dorothy Womble and Alone Outlaw on Tuesday night, June 10. Mrs. Ross led a very interesting discussion on the Parliamentary Laws.

The devotional was led by Alone Outlaw, who read and discussed Matthew 5:13-16. The main topic was "How Do I Affect People." Miss Outlaw pointed out that, "we need more Christians to help outlast the wickedness of the world." Prayer was led by Betsy Ross.

Georgia Congressman Home Week Speaker

An invitation to speak at the 1947 Farm and Home Week to be held on the State College Campus August 25-29, has been accepted by Congressman Stephen Pace, Georgia's Third District Representative, and a member of the Agriculture Committee, according to an announcement this week from John W. Goodman, assistant director of the State College Extension Service and secretary of the event.

Present plans call for the distinguished visitor to speak in Pullen Hall on Thursday, August 28, at 11 a. m.

North Carolina's Fourth District Representative, Harold D. Cooley, will introduce the speaker.

"Guide For My Christian Growth" was the topic for the program that was led by Mamie Highwood. A talk on "Seeking A Sound Strategy" was given by Betsy Ross.

After the meeting adjourned, a social hour was enjoyed. More love is the great need of mankind. A pure affection, concentration, forgetting self, forgiving wrongs and forestalling them, should well be the lyre of human love.—Mary Baker Eddy.
